EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

CIRCULAR No. 19.

PRESERVATION OF GAME.

The attention of H. M. Sub-Commissioners and other Executive Officers is drawn to "The Game Laws Amendment Regulations, 1899," and they are instructed to take steps to enforce their provisions from this date.

1. A return giving the particulars obtained from the inspection of license holders' books required under Rules 1 and 2 of the Regulations above quoted should be furnished to the Commissioner every quarter, in duplicate, to enable the Commissioner to transmit copies to the Secretary of State.

2. A copy of the proceedings taken in every case in which a breach of the Regulations is alleged to have place, should be furnished to the Commissioner.

3. The co-operation of the Officers of the Uganda Railway in the enforcement of the Regulations should be invited whenever possible.

(Signed) CLIFFORD H. CRAUFURD,

H. M. Acting Commissioner and Consul-General.

Mombasa, December 8th, 1899.

EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

CATTLE DISEASE.

Owing to the prevalence of Cattle disease in the interior of this Protectorate the export of hides is prohibited until further notice.

(Signed) CLIFFORD H. CRAUFURD,
H. M. Acting Commissioner and Consul-General.

Mombasa, October 26th, 1899.

With reference to the notice of October 26th the following rules are framed for the information of the Customs Department and Shippers.

1. Skins and hides, which have been salted and dried in the sun for a period of at least twelve days and treated with a final application of salt, may be exported.
2. Skins and hides dipped in a solution of biarseniate of Potash ($\frac{1}{4}$ lb. to 40 gallons of water) and dried in the sun for six days may be exported.
3. Skins and hides dipped in a solution of corrosive sublimate (1 part in 1,000 of water) and dried in the sun for four days may be exported.
4. The process of disinfection of skins and hides should be carried out under the supervision of an Executive or Customs Official, who will give a certificate stating the number of skins or hides treated and the date of the completion of the process.
5. All buildings, railway trucks, trolleys, and other vehicles, within which skins or hides are placed, should, when empty, be disinfected with a solution of Jeyes fluid (1 part in 20 parts of water).
6. Executive and Customs Officials are empowered, in cases where there is doubt as to whether these rules have been carried out, to order a second disinfection of the skin, hide, building, railway truck or other vehicle aforesaid.
7. All charges in the disinfection of skins and hides will be borne by the exporter.

(Signed) CLIFFORD H. CRAUFURD,

H. M. Acting Commissioner and Consul-General.

Mombasa, December 8th, 1899.

REGULATIONS.

The following Regulations made by Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul-General for the East Africa Protectorate and hereby declared to be urgent are published for general information.

(Signed) CLIFFORD H. CRAUFURD,

H. M. Acting Commissioner and Consul-General.

Mombasa, December 9th, 1899.

EAST AFRICA SEAPORTS REGULATIONS.

1. In the Seaports of Mombasa, Lamu, and Kismayu no "NGOMA" or native dancing and drumming, will be permitted after 9-30 p.m., without the written sanction of the Sub-Commissioner or Collector.
2. Every person using the streets of the Seaports of Lamu and Kismayu after 9 p.m., will be required to carry a light.
3. Any person who commits a breach of these Regulations will be punished with imprisonment of either description not exceeding two months and a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.
4. These Regulations may be cited as "The East Africa Seaports Regulations, 1899."

The following Regulations made by Her Majesty's Acting Commissioner and Consul-General for the East Africa Protectorate, and hereby declared to be urgent, are published for general information.

(Signed) CLIFFORD H. CRAUFURD,

H. M. Acting Commissioner and Consul-General.

Mombasa, December 8th, 1899.

PRESERVATION OF GAME.

"The Game Regulations, 1899," having in several instances been misconstrued by license holders, the following additional Regulations are hereby made and ordered:—

1. Every license holder shall enter daily in a book the following particulars: the date, place, approximate age, description and sex of each animal killed or captured.
2. The book containing these entries should be submitted as often as convenient, but not less frequently than once in two months, to the nearest executive official in the Protectorate Service for his countersignature.
3. The Commissioner, or the Sub-Commissioner of any Province duly authorized by the Commissioner, may at his discretion limit the number of any description of antelope or other animal to be killed or captured by any licensee, and further may prohibit the killing or capturing of any description of antelope or other animal within certain defined areas.
4. Until further notice, one only of the following descriptions of antelopes may be killed or captured by holders of a Sportsman's or Public Officer's license: SABLE, ROAN, ELAND, greater KUDU, lesser KUDU, WALLER'S GAZELLE, and WATER BUCK.
5. The special authority required under Section 10 of "The Game Regulations, 1899," will only be given under the signature of the Commissioner and Consul-General.
6. The sale of heads, horns and skins of antelopes is prohibited from this date; any heads, horns and skins sold or purchased will be confiscated.
7. Any person giving information of any breach of these Regulations (with the exception of Section 6) or of "The Game Regulations, 1899," shall on the conviction of the offender receive a portion of the fine imposed for such offence, and in any case the reward paid to the informer shall at least amount to a sum of one hundred and fifty rupees.
8. These Regulations may be cited as "The Game Laws Amendment Regulations, 1899."

UGANDA PROTECTORATE.

NOTICE.

Her Majesty's Commissioner finds it necessary to point out to sportsmen and others that the license to shoot game within the limits of the East Africa Protectorate is not, in the case of persons who are not officials of either Protectorate, equally available for Uganda. Persons wishing to shoot in the Uganda Protectorate must take out a license within that Protectorate.

OBITUARY.Extract from Regimental Order.

The Commanding Officer regrets to announce the death of Captain A. J. S. Godfrey who died from the effects of being badly mauled by a lion near Machakos, on the 9th instant.

In the premature death of this Officer the Service not only loses a keen soldier and thorough sportsman but a warm hearted and true comrade who will be deeply regretted by all ranks.

The British Officers attached to the East African Rifles will take the prescribed mourning into wear for one month from this date.

By Order.

(Signed) J. S. MACKAY, LIEUT.

Acting Fort Adjutant.

Mombasa, 13th December, 1899.

East Africa Famine.Fancy Fair.

The gross proceeds of the Fancy Fair held on November 25th, together with the receipts from the Billiard Handicap and other subsidiary entertainments, amount to Rs. 4,523. From this must be subtracted Rs. 273, being expenses incurred on behalf of the band kindly lent by H. H. the Sultan. All other expenses were met either by private contributions or by funds specially subscribed for the purpose. The net result therefore is a sum of Rs. 4,250, which, it is confidently anticipated, will more than satisfy the highest hopes of the promoters.
