GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 2401

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 37 OF 1969

Parties:—

Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers' Union (Claimants)
andKenya Coffee Growers' Association (Respondents)

INTERPRETATION OF AWARD

THE Claimants have applied to the Court for interpretation of its award made in the above dispute on 5th May 1970. The item in respect of which the interpretation is sought is, to use the Claimants' words, "determination of what is meant by a monthly wages contract".

The parties submitted their arguments both in writing and verbally during the hearing of this application on 20th July 1970.

The Claimants' written submission on this point is as follows:—

"The problem of monthly contract"

It is the general practice in this country to discourage (Vipande) and this Hon. Court has at times ruled for the abolition of this kind of employment. Claimants herein, in their appeal for interpretation, wish to seek a ruling from the Court to effect what is actually meant by a monthly contract. Under the Respondents' terms of employment, workers are on monthly contract but are paid only for 26 days of the month excluding Sundays in each week of the month. We contend this is wrong labour practice.

The Court has made no partial comment on this item which leaves very much to be desired if left as it is, without interpretation and clarification. It is our argument that a monthly contract means and should include all the days in every month of the year. If any one is hired on monthly basis his service whatever the agreement, should be measured or related to the number of days in a month. Claimants strongly contend that the definition of a monthly contract means a complete 'calendar' month and that any monthly contract that excludes 'Sundays and Gazetted Public Holidays' falls short of this genuine meaning of monthly contract. As such, must be viewed seriously to mean a 'ticket contract' which has no place in the independent Kenya.

The international labour standards as observed by the ILO reveal that ticket contracts as opposed to calendar month, are elements of labour insecurity and in all fairness, should be avoided, discarded in the day to day practice of labour/management relations. It is believed so to speak, that such measures if undertaken, prevent the emergence of general unemployment which is always associated with the inadequacy of economic activity; plus lack of balance in the labour market. Such are the contracts that have generated and provoked a decline in the level of employment activity in the country."

In clarification of the above submission the Claimants stated that according to a circular which the Respondents had issued to their members on the day the Court award was announced, they had worked out the daily rate to be Sh. 3/55 but in the same circular the wage under a monthly contract was worked out by multiplying this figure by 26 which meant that the workers although employed on a monthly contract were deprived of their payment for the four Sundays. They asked the Court to rule whether a worker under a monthly contract was paid for 26 days or 30 days. The Claimants maintained that according to their interpretation of the award the monthly wage as awarded by the Court for the first year would be Sh. 105/50 and for the second year Sh. 110/50.

The Respondents on the other hand relied on the current labour legislation in the country and gave the historical background leading up to it in respect of their interpretation that the formula of calculating a monthly rate was on the basis of 26 work days a month. The Respondents further emphasized that in the coffee industry as in the plantation industry generally, the ticket contract system had been discarded to a very large extent.

The Court finds it to be a rather peculiar application because if the Claimants' interpretation was to be accepted then they would secure a wage increase of Sh. 13/40 over and above what the Court has awarded which is a Sh. 5 p.m. increase on the existing monthly contract wage of Sh. 87/10 bringing it up to Sh. 92/10.

The historical background to the evolution of wage structure in the coffee industry has a great relevance to this application and in fact is against the Claimants' point of view. The fact is that in December 1965 the Industrial Court made an award and increased the rates as follows:—

	Sh.
Ticket contract, adult male workers	100/50
Monthly contract	87/10
Daily rate	3/35.

The Court had used the formula which had been agreed between the parties prior to the Verjee Arbitration and which was used in that award in 1964—this being as follows:—

"If payment of wages is on a monthly basis, the monthly wage will be calculated on the basis of the ticket rate being divided by 30 to arrive at the daily rate and the daily rate multiplied by 26 to arrive at the monthly rate."

The Court has no doubt that neither in monthly contracts nor in ticket contracts is there any implied right for payment for Sundays. Under the monthly contract the worker when he is required to work on a Sunday is paid at overtime rates. The current Wages Council Regulations are worked on the basis that the working week for a monthly rate is only based on six working days of each week. On the other hand where a ticket contract is in force the worker is only paid in respect of actual days worked.

The Court would like to add that it has awarded a Sh. 5 increase to the existing monthly contract wage of Sh. 87/10 and if the Claimants' interpretation was to be accepted and this monthly wage was divided by 30 to work out the daily rate, then the workers would suffer a reduction.

Finally the Court is aware that the ticket contracts have been discarded to a very large extent. This is very encouraging and is in line with modern thinking. The Court has repeatedly stressed that the employment on ticket contracts should be eliminated.

After a careful consideration of all the aspects of this application, the Court rules that the Claimants' interpretation is not correct.

Dated this 12th day of August 1970.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
