THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 41 OF 1969

Parties —

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union
and Kakamega County Council

Issue in dispute —

Arbitrary reduction of salary to the following employees—

Ronald Luvega, Abner Ambuchi and Henry Misoga

1 The Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Kakamega County Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 8th day of January 1970 and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 In this dispute it is common ground that the three above-named employees were converted to Pratt scales in 1964/65 after full consultations between the parties. The Claimants stated that when various employees were converted to Pratt scales, including the three involved in this dispute, they were satisfied with the conversions

The relevant scale applicable to these officers is £380 by £20 to £500. Mr Luvega is an Establishment Clerk and the other two are Revenue Clerks

In 1967 the Respondents instructed their Chief Officers to set up a salary review subcommittee. This committee after its investigations made the following recommendations to the terms of service committee which at its various meetings in November 1967, decided as follows —

Mr R J Luvega

It was noticed by the committee that Mr Luvega should have been on a salary of £440 instead of £500 this year 1967. After very careful scrutiny the committee resolved—that Mr Luvega's salary be readjusted downward on scale C2 at point £440 where he would remain until at least 1970 without further increments, and that this step has been taken instead of asking this officer to refund the over payments, that the Clerk to Council should obtain an explanation from Mr Luvega in writing as to why he has placed himself on scale C2-1 instead of correct scale C2 as shown in 1965 Estimates "

"Mr A Ambuchi

Mr Ambuchi was appointed on salary scale E4 Flemming, and according to Mins 18/63 and 46/66 of the Finance and General Purposes Committee, Mr Ambuchi had earned increments above his maximum. He had not been issued with a letter of appointment. The committee then resolved—that Mr Ambuchi be put back on salary scale C3-2 the salary point where he would remain until 1970 at £440 and be given a letter of appointment issued to him when he was first appointed to this Council's services.

'Mr H Misoga

Resolved that he remains on salary scale C3-2 at salary point £440 until 1970 his case being treated exactly like that one of Mr Ambuchi."

The Claimants reacted sharply to this arbitrary reduction in the salary of the three officers and pursued the matter on their behalf.

The Claimants stated that in the case of Mr Luvega the Respondents through their Terms of Service subcommittee which met on 16th June 1964, had recommended adjustments of his salary as recommended in the Estimates Committee meeting. Subsequently his conversion had been approved by the full Council on 8th December 1964, the same applied to the case of the other two officers but pointed out that these two officers were given two extra increments during the Estimates Committee for 1967 and referred the Court to Min 46/66.

Both the parties stated that they were in considerable difficulty due to lack of proper minutes and records. The Claimants however produced estimates for the year 1965 where at page 3 the names of the three officers concerned appear as follows —

Establishment Clerk, R Luvega, C2	460
Div Revenue Clerk, A Ambuchi, C2	440
Div Revenue Clerk, H Misoga, C2	440

Note (a) on the same page reads as follows —

"Divisional Revenue Collectors will be responsible for collection of all County dues, e.g. Graduated Personal Tax, School Fees, Licences, Plot Rents, Land Rents, Dispensary Fees, Local Council Funds, etc. Two extra increments awarded for these extra duties."

The Claimants strongly refuted the allegation that Mr Luvega had granted himself a large salary increase and pointed out that he was only an Establishment Clerk and had above him the senior officers of the Respondents.

The Court has carefully gone through the arguments put forward by the parties and has come to the conclusion that the reductions which have been made by the Respondents in the salaries of these three officers are not justified. Messrs Ambuchi and Misoga entered Pratt scale at £380 p.a. in November 1964 and in accordance with the estimates of 1965 they were granted two extra increments for extra duties with the result that in 1965 they jumped by three increments. It follows that in 1968 they should have been at £500. The Court accordingly awards that they should be paid all the salary deductions that they have suffered since 1967.

Mr Luvega in 1965 should have been at £460 and he should have received £20 increment in 1966 and another £20 in 1967 and like the other two he should also have been at £500 in 1968. He should also be paid all the amount deducted which was due to him.

The Court must emphasize the fact that conversions to Pratt took place as a result of joint negotiations and that the 1965 estimates were approved by the Minister for Local Government. In these circumstances the Court finds that reductions which have been made by the Respondents in the salaries of the three officers concerned were arbitrary and not justified. Their salaries should be restored to the point where they would have been if there had been no reductions.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 43 OF 1969

Parties —

and

Association of Local Government Employers comprising of the County Councils in Committee No 4

Issues in dispute —

- 1 Housing allowance
- 2 Maternity leave
- 3 Night allowance
- 4 Provision of free water
- 5 Grading of produce cess collectors, veterinary scouts and guards
- 6 Wage increase
- 7 Effective date

1 The Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Association of Local Government Employers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 9th day of January 1970 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

In early 1968 all the local authorities in Kenya acting through the Respondents and the Claimants created machinery for conducting negotiations on a national basis regarding terms and conditions of employment for their unionisable employees. As a result the local authorities have been brought together for the purposes of evolving a common salary structure and terms and conditions of employment. It has been agreed that the National Joint Negotiating Council should have four committees starting with the Nairobi City Council and the Mombasa Municipal Council forming committee No 1 of the Association of Local Government Employers followed by the other committees comprising various municipal councils and county councils who have been grouped together taking into account their status, financial resources, the extent of services being provided by them and the development in their respective areas.

The committee No 3 which was referred to quite often in this dispute consists of county councils of Bungoma, Central Rift, Gusu, Kakamega, Kiambu, Kipsigis, Kisumu, Laikipia, Masaku, Meru, Muranga, Nyeri, Sirikwa, South Nyanza and Kirinyaga.

The county councils in committee No 4 which are affected by this dispute are the following —

Busia, Narok, Isiolo, Samburu, Kitui, Turkana, Embu, Garissa, Olkejuado, Kwale, Tana River, Mandera, Kilifi, Marsabit, Nyandarua, Taita-Taveta, Lamu, Wajir.

There is no doubt that the co-ordination of the terms and conditions of employment in the various local authorities is an expensive exercise and as this process develops further it is bound to cost more. Some county councils have never negotiated in the past with the Claimants and the terms and conditions of employment of their employees were very inferior indeed. Furthermore job grading has also been carried out and this again has resulted in considerable improvement in the salaries of quite a substantial number of workers.

Negotiations between the Claimants and the representatives of committee No 4 could not commence until negotiations between the Claimants and committee No 3 were near the end. They therefore started in July last year and an agreement was reached on most of the items by November. The Court would like to compliment the parties for the tremendous achievement that they have made in creating the present set up for negotiating the terms and conditions of employment of the workers in the local authorities and also in the present case for having reached agreement on most of the items involved except the remaining seven in dispute.

The Court has taken note of the fact that it is the intention of the parties that in due course all county councils will be, including committee No 3, with uniform terms of service and that the current dispute involving ungraded staff is the first step towards the amalgamation of the terms of service for the 18 county councils involved.

Housing allowance — The dispute on this issue hinges on the Claimants' demand that the Respondents should, where houses are provided by them, house free their employees and where an employee is living in an urban area and is not housed by the Respondents, then he should be entitled to a housing allowance equivalent to that prescribed in the current Minimum Wages Order. The Claimants' main argument was that the present salary structure is based on Pratt and as in accordance with Table 127 of Pratt salary recommendations workers are supposed to get free quarters it was not possible for them to deviate from this principle.

The Claimants strongly resisted the Respondents' proposal that the payment of house allowance in urban areas where a worker was not housed should be restricted to those receiving Sh 200 per month and under was not in line with what had already been agreed in committees No 2 and 3

The Respondents on the other hand submitted that both they and the Claimants used the agreements reached in committee No 3 as a basis for bringing about uniformity and the Respondents only insisted on differences where they could not afford the same expenses as had been undertaken by committee No 3. In certain cases agreements reached in committee No 4 provided for better terms than agreements on similar matters in committee No 3. It was to be noted that the majority of committee No 3 county councils do not provide free housing. If they did so they would have to borrow large sums of money for capital development. Only urban dwellers are provided with housing in committee No 3 and where no housing is available a housing allowance is paid in accordance with the Minimum Wages Regulation Order.

The county councils in committee No 4 had sought a limitation for the payment of housing allowance to urban dwellers paid Sh 200 per month or less in order to avoid expenses. However, if the Court considered that an award on this issue was at all justified, then it should limit such award to the same provisions as agreed by committee No 3, i.e. exclude housing allowance for employees living in rural areas.

The Court has carefully considered the above arguments and has decided to award as follows —

1 Employees shall, where possible, be housed by the council in accordance with the existing principle of allocation provided that in the case of those councils who provide free houses to their employees they should continue to do so.

2 Where an employee is not housed by the council and he is living in an urban area he shall receive housing allowance equivalent to that prescribed in the current Minimum Wages Order provided that an employee refusing to accept the offer of accommodation shall not be entitled to any allowance. Married women living with their husbands shall not be entitled to a housing allowance.

Maternity leave — The Court notes that this matter is as yet unresolved in committees No 1 to 3. The Respondents' proposal was as follows as is embodied in the relevant minute —

"Following an adjournment, the employers offered to pay maternity leave not exceeding half pay for two months for legally married women. The union accepted the offer but requested the employers to consider the words 'legally married women' to cover unmarried women. This was taken back for further consideration."

The dispute on this issue is on the words "legally married women". The Claimants insisted that the maternity benefits should be paid to all women irrespective of their marital status on the ground that when female workers were given employment the employers accepted the responsibility of their physical characteristics. They drew the Court's attention to the fact that all the female teachers were entitled to pay while on maternity leave and submitted that marriage was not a criteria in employment. They reacted sharply to the Respondents' suggestion that they wanted this benefit to be extended to married women only to discourage immorality amongst unmarried women on the ground that there was nothing to prevent a married woman from being immoral. Finally they stated that the Government was committed to the policy of granting paid maternity leave because it did so in the case of teachers.

The Respondents argued that there was no discrimination in the wages of male and female workers doing similar work and it was therefore unreasonable for female employees to expect extra benefits in the form of paid maternity leave. This principle was not encouraged by the ILO and the women's organizations the world over were pursuing the policy of equal pay for equal work. In any case the Respondents pointed out that they merely wished to limit payment for maternity leave to legally married women only. Their members involved employed roughly five to six hundred women the majority of whom are married. These are mainly laundresses, cooks, waitresses, home craft teachers and nursery teachers, none of whom would be entitled to paid maternity leave if they were employed by the Central Government.

The Court has carefully gone through the submissions and has come to the conclusion that the words "legally married women" should be deleted from the proposed clause and it so awards.

Night allowance — During the hearing the Respondents conceded to the Claimants' demands on this item and the Court accordingly, with the consent of the parties, makes the following award —

Night allowance shall be paid to an employee where, with the approval of the Head of Department, he is required to spend a night away from his normal place of residence and shall be payable in the manner stated hereunder —

- | | |
|---------------------------------|-----------------|
| (a) Within Nairobi and Mombasa | Sh 30 per night |
| (b) Within the 5 municipalities | Sh 20 per night |
| (c) Other areas | Sh 15 per night |

Provision of free water — The Claimants demanded that those employees who were housed by the Respondents should be entitled to free water. Their main reason for this demand was that in committee No 1 workers are entitled to free water up to 4,000 gallons per month and in committee No 2 also the workers in this category are entitled for free water provided they are housed by the council. The Claimants reminded the Court that those workers who were stationed in remote areas and moved from place to place were provided with free water which was transported for them by the councils and refuted the claim that provision of free water would cost the employers thousands of pounds. They also denied there would be misuse of water if it was free as usually all the workers relied on a common tap.

The Respondents strongly resisted this demand and stated that availability of water was one of the biggest problems in county councils in committee No 4. Some had to purchase water from private sources. They rejected the comparison which the Claimants had made with councils in committee No 2 on the ground that these councils operated their own water supply departments and they charged the public sufficient to pay for the free water for their employees. In these circumstances the Respondents maintained that it would not be right to award the granting of free water at present although this should be regarded as a possible development in the future.

The Court is not satisfied that a case has been made out for granting free water to employees housed by the Respondents and the demand is accordingly rejected.

Grading of Produce Cess Collectors Veterinary Scouts and Guards

Produce Cess Collectors — After the parties had ventilated their arguments on this matter the Claimants agreed with the Respondents that these workers should be in grade M3.

Veterinary Scouts — The Claimants maintained that the proper scale for these scouts was M5 as it was consistent with the present Pratt scale prescribed for veterinary scouts and sergeant game scouts. They asked the Court to establish the grades like Civil Service and leave the question of who should be in which grade to the parties' own discussions.

The Respondents pointed out that no mention is made of these scouts in Pratt, pages 14 and 30 refer to game and fish scouts and not veterinary scouts. Game scouts are also covered in scale M3 by agreement, corporal game scouts are in M4 and sergeant game scouts are in M5. Veterinary scouts are not equivalent to corporal or sergeant game scouts, they compare to Government fish scouts. Fish scouts in Pratt are in the scale of Sh 133 per month. It is considered reasonable that veterinary scouts should be placed in scale M3. The only odd case out would be that of Kwale County Council where grade II veterinary scouts now at Sh 170-210 per month will go to M3 Sh 175-240 per month and grade I scouts now at Sh 235-280 per month to scale M4 Sh 210-300 per month under a "no detriment" clause. The Respondents submitted that Turkana County Council pays veterinary scouts Sh 100-180 per month, Embu pays Sh 180-280 per month, Kilifi pays Sh 150-297 per month, Lamu pays Sh 170-210 per month, so generally speaking many employees will receive substantial increases and those who do not will be covered by the "no detriment" clause.

Guards — The Claimants' proposal in respect of these workers is to split various grades into three categories, i.e. grade IV to be graded in M2, grade II to be graded in M3 and grade I to be graded in M4. They claimed that this was exactly as in the Pratt scale. The various guards affected were sand guards, forest guards and grazing guards. They submitted that the important criteria was the work which a guard did, what he guarded was immaterial.

The Respondents pointed out that only forest guards in the county councils could compare with similar guards in Government. Sand and grazing guards have lesser responsibilities. In committee No 3 sand guards and watchmen are in scale M2. It is considered reasonable, therefore to place sand and grazing guards in scale M2 and forest guards in scale M3. No employee will suffer as a result of this grading since each will go to the next higher point in the scale.

The Court has carefully considered the submissions of the parties and has come to the conclusion that the Respondents' suggestions on these gradings should be accepted and so awards provided that no employee who is in receipt of a salary higher than his grade shall suffer a reduction.

Wage increases—The Claimants' original demand was for a general wage increase for all employees of Sh 25 per month. However, after lengthy discussions between the parties the Claimants lowered it to a minimum of Sh 7/50 as general wage increase. They pointed out that the minimum wage for councils in committee No 3 had gone up by Sh 7/50 and therefore it was only proper that the minimum of councils in committee No 4 should also go up by the same figure in order to maintain the same minimum for all county councils in the Republic.

During the hearing, however, the Claimants amended their demand of Sh 7/50 increase to Sh 10 on the ground that in committee No 3 they should have been granted a Sh 10 increase and not Sh 7/50. They maintained that many of the Respondents' members had surplus funds and as most of the councils employees, about 85 per cent, would join Government service there should be no problem for the remaining 15 per cent to receive a Sh 10 wage increase. They stated that the main source of income for these councils was the poll rate which covered urban councils, area councils and locational councils beside other sources of income from markets and sales of sand, etc. Finally the Claimants pointed out that if the Court did not grant a Sh 10 increase it would be very unfair because the Central Government would be paying the Civil Service rates to those employees of the councils who are transferred to them from 1st January 1970 with the result that those remaining with the councils doing the same work would be in receipt of a lower wage.

The Respondents stated that this item must be considered in conjunction with grading since the grading will involve substantial salary increases and will therefore affect the overall cost. They agreed that certain of the county councils involved had surplus funds, mainly in the North-Eastern and Eastern provinces where development has not been possible due to the shifita problem. Such surplus funds should be employed in capital development, not for the payment of wages and certainly there should be no justification for granting a higher increase that was agreed by county councils in committee No 3. County councils outside the North Eastern and Eastern Provinces are in just as bad a financial position as county councils in committee No 3. This fact must be borne in mind by the Court.

The Respondents emphasized that even if no large increase in wages was granted, all employees would benefit as a result of the grading and other improved conditions which have already been agreed upon. Their offer of Sh 5 per month was considered most reasonable when compared with Sh 7/50 agreed in committee No 3, Sh 10 per month for committee No 2 and Sh 15 per month for committee No 1. They would be flexible on the amount of the increase depending on the effective date. If there was to be any backdating, then they would be insistent on their offer of Sh 5 per month. If the effective date could be made 1st January 1970 then they would have no strong objections to an increase of Sh 7/50 per month. Any figure above this would be most embarrassing.

After a careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards that the workers should get a wage increase of Sh 7/50 per month from 1st January 1970 and another increase of Sh 2/50 per month from 1st July 1970.

Effective date—The Claimants pointed out that the Respondents had used delaying tactics and therefore asked the Court to backdate its award to 1st July 1969.

The Respondents on the other hand stated that each of the committees had different effective dates for their agreement and there could therefore be no justification in the Claimants' claim that the effective date for committee No 4 must be similar to that of committee No 3. They submitted that none of the councils had made any provision for increases in 1969 but they had all done so for 1970. Furthermore about 80 per cent of the employees of these councils would be taken over by the Central Government from 1st January 1970. This was therefore the ideal date for effecting the agreement for committee No 4.

The Court awards that the effective date for the agreement should be 1st January 1970.
