Reuter's Telegrams.

1st.—A bulletin issued announces that His Majesty passed a fairly comfortable night and suffered less from the wound.

Conference of Colonial Premiers has opened, the proceedings being private. Mr. Chamberlain presided.

2nd.—A bulletin announces that His Majesty passed an excellent night of natural sleep, gained strength and substantial improvement in all respects.

American Senate has ratified a treaty with Great Britain permitting Zanzibar to collect ten per-cent duty on articles.

A bulletin has been issued announcing that the advancement of His Majesty's condition has been maintained, his appetite has improved, the dressing of the wound is less painful, but His Majesty is still easily fatigued by the least exertion.

Mr. Delcasse, French Minister at Peking has been appointed Governor of Indo-China.

3rd.—The bulletin issued yesterday states that His Majesty passed another excellent night and is making steady progress in all respects.

The wound is much less troublesome and is beginning to heal.

Of the 202,000 troops in South Africa at the conclusion of hostilities 70,000 are due to be brought home.

The regulars the 1st Northumberland Fusiliers are to be sent to Mauritius.

For bulletin states that the same steady progress has been maintained, and the local pain is less; the passed in greater comfort.

Workmen at Rostow on Don have sacked the factories smashing the machinery. The peasants in the have pillaged the houses and farms of the landowners, the troops were called out and fired killing and many.

4th.—His Majesty slept well yesterday and nothing has occurred to mar the excellent progress he is making.

Mr. Roberts has directed General Kelly-Kenny to inform the Duke of Connaught that the King desires it to send to his soldiers from the Colonies and India that they are worthy representatives of the Army of the and that in the sick room he heard with a gratification expressions of welcome from the people to their representatives.

AINSWORTH,

M's. Sub-Commissioner

le day, his general condition is improving. The condition is satisfactory. The British Mission at France is safe. There is no foundation for the rumour published in yesterday's Reuter's with regard to Colonel Harry.

Doctors state that the King is making excellent progress and bulletins will henceforth be issued only on alternate days. The King is making excellent progress and bulletins will henceforth be issued only on alternate days.

Lord Mayor stated that the Duke and Duchess of York visited the King and Queen at the British Mission at France is safe. There is no foundation for the rumour published in yesterday's Reuter's with regard to Colonel Harry.

July 13th.—There was a scene in the French Chamber the result of an interpellation with regard to the Government's action in closing the unauthorised religious school. Neither the interpellator nor the Premier were able to obtain a hearing; the sitting was suspended and a member was censured.

His Majesty's Physicians state that the progress he is making is more speedy and less complicated than they expected and that this was largely due to His Majesty's excellent constitution. It is hoped that the King will be able to proceed to his Yacht at Portsmouth on Tuesday.

July 14th.—Sir Gordon Sprigg has sailed for Cape Town. The King is making excellent progress and bulletins will henceforth be issued only on alternate days.

The "Orotava" arrived at Southampton on Saturday morning with Major Gordon on board suffering from Pox. Lord Kitchener, Generals French and Ian-Hamilton and Staff alone were allowed to land.

Brilliant summer weather prevailed and the party were greeted with storms of cheers. The Mayor welcomed them and presented them with the freedom of the City. The Prince of Wales greeted them warmly at Paddington and they were heartily cheered by crowds as they drove to St. James Palace. The Queen appeared on the balcony of Buckingham Palace to watch the passage of the procession. Lord Roberts on horseback headed a body of officers and the route through Hyde Park was lined by Indians and Colonials.

At the luncheon Kitchener sat on the right of the Prince of Wales and among those present were the Duke of Devonshire, Mr. Brodrick, Lord Roberts and Lord Salisbury. After lunch Kitchener visited the King and Queen.

Lord Kitchener was yesterday conducted to the King who was reclining on a couch. His Majesty received him in the most cordial manner and conveyed to him his personal thanks for the brilliant services and handed him the decoration of the New Order of Merit. Lord Kitchener afterwards saw Her Majesty and went to Hatfield.

At an interview given at Marlborough House, Lord Kitchener said that he believed if the Boers were justly treated they would settle down. He scoffed at the blockhouse system and said there was small chance of a Boer regiment enrolling in the British Army, they, like the Colonials disliked military discipline.

Lord Salisbury had an audience with the King on Friday and tendered his resignation which His Majesty accepted. The King communicated this to Mr. Balfour who informed Mr. Chamberlain and others.

The Ministers were received by the King on Saturday who accepted the resignation of the Premier due to Lord Salisbury's indifferent health and the great strain caused by the duties.

The King of Italy has arrived at St. Petersburg. Lord Salisbury resigned on Friday and Mr. Balfour has been appointed Premier officially.

FOOTBALL.

A football match was played on Tuesday evening 1st July, between teams representing H. M. S. "Terpsichore" and Mombasa which resulted in a win for the latter.

The game during the earlier stages was evenly contested and half time saw no scoring.

On resuming, the Mombasa team quickly settled down and were busy round the opponents goal, and from a scrimmage, the first and only goal of the match was registered.

A return match was played against H. M. S. "Terpsichore" on the evening 4th July.

A considerable improvement in combination was displayed by the Mombasa team who quickly showed their superiority over their opponents, but although they pressed hard an opening could be found.

On resuming play after half time, Mombasa with a slight breeze in their favour quickly carried the ball to the "Terpsichore end, where Ingram notched the first goal.

Mombasa were soon busy again round the "Terpsichore" goal and from a brilliant centre by Ingram, Hollis added another.

Play continued more open thereafter and the ships team made strenuous efforts to keep the ball at the Mombasa end, but the defence was not to be beaten. Towards the end Mombasa again got possession, and Sanderson closed a brilliant run by adding yet another goal with a hard low shot.
