GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2726

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 26 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and Trufoods Limited

Issue in dispute:

Minimum wages and general increases.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Trufoods Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 21st July, 1981, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 5th March, 1981, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 22nd April, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The parties' relationship dates back to 1965 since when they have negotiated nine collective agreements including one which they signed on 5th March, 1980. This agreement was forwarded to the Industrial Court by the Minister for Labour for the purposes of registration in accordance with the provisions of the Trade Disputes Act with a recommendation that the minimum rates be adjusted in view of the new rates established by Legal Notice No. 72/80 which was published on 2nd May. The present dispute has arisen as a result of their efforts to amend the agreement in these circumstances.

The parties had agreed that the basic minimum rates for the various grades should go up as follows with effect from 1st January, 1980:

"Grade"	Previous agreement	Current agreement
	Sh.	Sh.
1	380	420
2	395	435
3	410	455
4	420	465
5	485	535
6	540	595
7	590	650
8	730	805"

The Claimants have demanded that these rates should go up by Sh. 106. The parties' final position on the basic minimum rates is as follows:

Respondents' offer	Claimants' demand
Sh.	Sh.
460	526
490	541
510	562
520	575
600	650
680	700
740	750
805	855

The Court notes that in addition to the basic minimum rates the parties had at their own level agreed to give a general wage increase as follows:

"Employees in the service of the company on the effective date shall receive a wage increase as follows:

(i) Those earning less than Sh. 700—10 per cent first year and 10 per cent second year.

(ii) Those earning from Sh. 700 and over—8 per cent first year and 7 per cent second year."

This item is also now in dispute.

The Claimants' main argument is that they are entitled to an automatic increase of Sh. 106 which reflects the increase in the statutory rates in the lowest grades and which came into effect from 1st June last year as a result of the Presidential announcement. They said this was essential in order to maintain the various differentials that had been achieved over the years in the various grades.

In this dispute 85 employees are involved and there seems to be no serious problem on the Respondents' ability to pay reasonable wages to their employees. The Court has carefully considered the submissions made by the parties and the analysis prepared by the Division of Manpower Planning and Development at the Court's request and has also taken into consideration the relevant Guidelines.

The Court awards that for the period between 1st January, 1980, up to 30th May, 1980, the basic minimum rates and the wage increase should remain as was agreed by the parties in the agreement which was submitted to the Minister for Labour for registration by the Industrial Court.

For the period with effect from 1st June, 1980, the Court awards the following minimum rates for the various grades. In assessing these rates the Court has paid due consideration to the fact that some of the employees concerned are among the lowest paid in the industry.

Grade	Sh.
1	475
2	500
3	530
4	550
5	610
6	700
7	756
8	805

(i) The Court further awards that all employees who are earning Sh. 700 and less should get a wage increase of 7 per cent on their salaries as at 30th May, 1980, and that with effect from 1st January, 1981, they should get a further increase of 10 per cent on their salaries as at 31st December, 1980.

(ii) The Court awards to all those employees who are earning above Sh. 700 p.m. an 8 per cent increase on their salaries as at 30th May, 1980 and a further 7 per cent increase with effect from 1st January, 1981, on their salaries as at 31st December, 1980:

Provided that if an employee is earning less than the minimum rates as awarded by the Court with effect from 1st June, 1980, then his salary should be brought up to the new minimum before he is granted the percentage increase as stated above and further that if any employee is earning a monthly wage above the new minimum rates then his general increase should not be less than the percentages specified hereinabove.

Given in Nairobi on the 28th August, 1981.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT CAUSE No. 30 OF 1981

Parties:

Domestic and Hotel Workers' Union
and
Bistro Limited

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful dismissal of Johnstone Riunge Kirathe.

1. The Domestic and Hotel Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Bistro Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties appeared before the Court for hearing on 4th August, 1981, when the Court was told by the Claimants that this was essentially a dispute concerning the question of calculating what was due to their member. The Court then suggested to the parties to reapply their minds to this dispute with a view to settling it with the assistance of the Deputy Chief Industrial Relations Officer, Mr. Mwashimba. Both the parties accepted this suggestion readily.

On 14th August Mr. Mwashimba informed the Court that the parties had reached an agreement thereby resolving the dispute and the Court summoned them to appear on 21st August when the Court was requested to make an award by consent.

AWARD

3. By consent of the parties the Court awards that the Respondents shall pay a sum of Sh. 8,000 on an ex-gratia basis to J. R. Kirathe in full and final settlement of his claims.

The Court would like to formally record its appreciation of the efforts made by the Deputy Chief Industrial Relations Officer, J. J. M. Mwashimba, in helping to resolve this dispute.

Dated in Nairobi the 21st August, 1981.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2728

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
