Reuter's Telegrams.

JUNE 16TH.—A final rehearsal of the Coronation procession took place on Friday.

His Majesty on the same day held his last court before the Coronation.

Lynch appeared on Saturday at Bow Street. Mr. Carson sketched the prisoner's participation in the War, Mr. Charles Russell who is defending Lynch stated, that his client had no intention of denying anything he had done, and that he had come to England to face the consequences, that he would make all admissions in a view to expedite the proceedings. A Telegraphist testified to having seen Lynch firing on the British troops at Elandslaagte and had received orders from him. The prisoner has been remanded until the 23rd inst.

Their Majesties accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Wales and the Duke and Duchess of Connaught have gone to Aldershot where a review of 30,000 troops will be held to-day. Their Majesties will not return to London until Coronation week.

The total surrenders up to Saturday are 12,850.

The surrenders now amount to 15,177 including 835 rebels from Cape Colony. The Burginer Scouts totalling 5,000 are to be disbanded to-morrow and arrangements have been made to give them immediately a fresh start in life. Generals Botha, DeWet, and Delarey leave for Europe in July. There is intense cold throughout South Africa, trains are snowed up and the telegraph lines damaged.

The following is the result of the Grand Prix:—

- 1st Kizilkourgan.
- 2nd Retz and Maximian deadheat.
- 4th Arizona.

Late on Saturday night there was a great torchlight tattoo at Aldershot which their Majesties witnessed from an open marquee upon which sat the Bands of English, Irish, Scotch and Welsh Guards converged from all directions accompanied by long lines of soldiers bearing torches. The inky blackness of the night increased tremendously the effect of the spectacle.

His Majesty yesterday morning was suffering from a chill accompanied by symptoms of lumbago, and in consequence was unable to attend the Church parade.

Total surrenders now amount to 16,500.

JUNE 17TH.—It is understood that His Majesty's indisposition is very slight and that there was an appreciable improvement yesterday.

JUNE 18TH.—The House of Commons will adjourn on the 25th instant until the 2nd proximo.

His Majesty did not attend the Review on Monday, but afterwards drove to Windsor with Her Majesty. It is generally stated that his health has much improved. Rain spoiled the Review from a spectacular point of view, although it was a great military display there being altogether 31,000, troops and 102 guns on the ground.

His Majesty's condition showed an improvement on Monday night, he had benefited by a long drive, and was able to give a dinner party at Windsor. Whether or not he will go to Ascot is a mere question of the weather.

JUNE 19TH.—Lord Kitchener advises that the surrenders in the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies are now completed totalling 16,520 men and 16,123 Rifles. In Cape Colony there are 150 men still to come in. Constabulary have been transferred to the Civil Authorities as the necessity for further military operations has now ceased.

Her Majesty accompanied by other Royalties drove to Ascot in state the procession included nine four by open landaus with outriders and postillions in scarlet blue, and gold, the weather was brilliant. His Majesty remained at Windsor Castle but drove out during the afternoon in the park in a closed carriage.

Reuter's Agent at Pretoria reports that on the 17th instant Lord Kitchener telegraphing to Generals Buller, Delarey and DeWet highly appreciated the energy and tact shown by them in facilitating the work of surrender, saying that the way in which the Burghers were coming in had highly pleased His Majesty and deeply impressed the British public, that he was confident an era of complete reconciliation had dawned for South Africa.

His Highness Said Ali the son of the Sultan of Zanzibar arrived in London yesterday and drove in a Royal Carriage to the Westminster Palace Hotel where Kitikiro another guest of His Majesty is staying. They were both present at a banquet given to the New Zealanders when Mr. Seddon was the chief guest.

JUNE 20TH.—Their Majesties were not present at Ascot on the 18th but drove in the great Park, at Windsor. Lord Salisbury is unwell with a chill. The Duke of Connaught inspected 1,500 Colonials at Alexandra Park including the contingents from Uganda.

His Majesty's physicians recommend him to forego all engagements for the next few days. Arrangements are proceeding at Cape Town for the return of a large number of troops to England before the 31st July.

690 Boers have surrendered at Culvinia, the total is now 18,400.

JUNE 21ST.—Lord Salisbury was able to attend a Cabinet Council on Thursday morning held at his private house in London.

At Lord Salisbury's invitation 400 Colonial guests including Colonial Contingents visited Hatfield on Thursday afternoon and were received by Lord Cranborne.

Lord Brassey in his evidence before the Steam-ship Subsidies Committee favoured the scheme of meeting the American Shipping Combine by subsidies and stated that the mercantile auxiliaries would be the eyes of the Fleet in War time and would protect commerce throughout the world. He considered that greater energy was required in East African trade owing to German activity in that quarter.

The King of Saxony is dead.

General DeWet in a circular letter to his Adjutants writes as follows:—

"You, I, and every Burgher can now win the heart of the new Government by our future conduct, of which I have not the slightest doubt."

In the House of Commons during the discussions on the Navy Estimates Lord Charles Bessford criticised in a seething manner the Navy's deficiencies and stated that the whole Admiralty system was rotten causing extravagance and general inefficiency to the service on which the existence of the Empire depended. He went on to say that every reinforcement and improvement effected was the result of outside agitation and it was a remarkable fact that Officers both in the Army and Navy were compelled to resign their commissions in order to have matters righted. Mr. Arnold Forster in reply denied that any of the changes made were the result of outside agitation and threats of resignation. He defended the present system, maintained that the Navy was steadily improving but allowed that she still needed strengthening in the intellectual equipment of the directing forces of the Empire.

JUNE 23RD.—Lord Kitchener sails for England to-day.

Sir Wilfred Laurier and Sir J. Gordon Sprigg have arrived in London. Multitudes are perambulating the streets viewing the preparations for the Coronation. A great part of the decorations is complete. The Omnibus Companies have doubled their fares, and notify that they will be further increased daily this week, other Companies are charging from four to 6 times the usual rate.

204 rebels surrendered at Kimberley on Saturday.

Owing partly to certain discretion displayed in the Official Reports which merely recorded the daily drive of the King in a closed carriage every kind of sensational report has been circulated as to the King's health. A positive official contradiction has now been issued and the King returns to London to-day according to the original programme.

London yesterday resembled the route to Epsom on Derby day. Pleasant summer weather has now begun. Deputations from the King's German Regiment and the Coronation have arrived also the Dukes of Aosta, Coburg and the Crown Prince of Rumania.

The Transvaal is settling down to orderly Government and many restrictions including Railway permits have been abolished.

JUNE 24TH.—On the 21st Lord Milner assumed the office of Governor of the Transvaal, Chief Justice Innes administered the oath. On the Executive Council are the following:—Davidson, Colonial Secretary; Solomon, Attorney General; Lagder, Commissioner for Native Affairs; Duncan, Colonial Treasurer; Wybe, Commissioner for Mines.

Lord Roberts gave a dinner at Portland place to Count Von Waldersee. His guest when toasting his Majesty and the British Army referred to Lord Roberts as the "ever victorious Field Marshal," and observed that German Soldiers knew well what an arduous and difficult task the British Army had had in South Africa, that they had accomplished the task with the utmost devotion to their country, and with the highest bravery and humanity.

JUNE 25TH.—Their Majesties accompanied by the Court returned to London on Monday and drove from Paddington to Buckingham Palace in semistate. His Majesty wore a light overcoat despite the heat but looked well and smilingly bowed repeatedly to the cheering crowds whose welcome was of the warmest.

His Majesty has approved of the suggestion that the National Anthem should be sung at 8 p.m., on the 26th inst., throughout the Empire in Churches, Theatres, streets etc. etc.

The majority of the Royal guests have now arrived and to-day crowds in Dover, London, and elsewhere welcomed them. Amongst the guests are nineteen Princes and Grand Dukes and several Princesses. The Prince of Wales and other Royalties met them on behalf of their Majesties.

The Tsarevitch arrived in the Thames in his Yacht escorted by a Russian and English cruiser.

Prince Henry of Prussia has arrived in an ironclad at Portsmouth.

Their Majesties held a banquet and reception at Buckingham Palace on Monday night. There was a brilliant gathering of princely guests.

LONDON 24TH 4-55 P.M.

His Majesty's indisposition has been relieved.

Emmanuel expressing his deep sorrow that the Coronation celebrations have been postponed. His Majesty earnestly wishes that the celebrations in the Provinces and the dinners to the poor should not be delayed.

LONDON 25TH 1 A.M.

From an unofficial, but well informed source Reuters learn that His Majesty has successfully emerged from an unconsciousness owing to chloroform, he appears comfortable but it is impossible to say for the next few days what turn the illness will take.

LONDON 25TH 2 A.M.

The bulletin issued at 6-40 on Tuesday evening states that His Majesty continues to make satisfactory progress and that the operation has much relieved his condition.

LONDON 25TH 4-35 A.M.

Lord Lister left Buckingham Palace directly after the bulletin yesterday evening was issued. The Bishop of Exeter who was present during the operation in view of possible eventualities has also left. Sir Thomas and Sir Frederick Treves will remain during the night.

LONDON 25TH 5-25 A.M.

The bulletin issued at 11 P.M. yesterday His Majesty's condition is stated to be as good as can be expected after a serious operation. His strength is well maintained and he suffers less pain. He can however take nourishment and some days must pass before it is possible to pronounce him out of danger.

LONDON 25TH 3-5 P.M.

On 26TH.—A bulletin issued at 10-30 this morning states that His Majesty was very restless and sleepless in the early part of the night, but that afterwards he obtained some sleep. He is free from pain. No unusual symptoms have occurred, and considering all circumstances it may be stated that he is progressing favourably.

The Coronation honours have been postponed. On inquiry at Buckingham Palace at 12-30 P.M., Reuters learn that His Majesty has had some refreshing sleep and that his strength is well maintained, also that there are no symptoms to cause anxiety.

LONDON 26TH 3-45 A.M.

The latest bulletin states that His Majesty has passed a fairly comfortable day, and that his general strength is maintained and that there are no symptoms to cause special anxiety.

LONDON 26TH 4-20 A.M.

Sir Ernest Satow.

The British Medical Journal states that the abscess which necessitated His Majesty being operated on, was due to inflammation and not to any original disease or malignant growth.

LONDON 27TH 3-15 A.M.

Thursday's bulletins are most favourable in every respect and have caused profound relief. His Majesty's temperature is now normal.

A most impressive intercession service was held at St. Paul's which was attended by a distinguished assembly of Royalties, Peers, Colonials also the Lord Mayor and Corporation of London.

LONDON 27TH INST. 10-55 A.M.

JUNE 28TH.—A bulletin issued at 11 P.M., on Thursday states that His Majesty has passed a fairly comfortable day, that his strength is well maintained and that he is experiencing a returning desire for foods, nourishment, however must be given most carefully. He is experiencing some return of pains from the wound.

LONDON 27TH 3-20 P.M.

The latest bulletin issued states that His Majesty passed a fair night had natural sleep and that his strength is improving the wound itself is much more comfortable.

LONDON 28TH INST.

JUNE 30TH.—A bulletin issued states that His Majesty has passed a good night, and the improvement has been maintained. His Majesty is out of immediate danger but the wound still needs constant attention and concern as now attaches to the case is connected therewith, recovery will necessarily be protracted.

LONDON 29TH INST. 9 A.M.

His Majesty passed another good night and feels stronger despite some discomfort in the wound, none, however has occurred to disturb satisfactory progress.
