JULY 3RD.—The Daily mail Correspondent in Odessa telegraphing on the 1st inst. states that in spite of the announcement by the Russian authorities that the "Kniaz Potemkin" has surrendered he is reliably informed that the battleship has been joined by the "Georgi Pobiedonosets" and both are now using their search lights in the Harbour as if expecting an attack from the remainder of the squadron which is 15 miles distant.

The mutiny at Libau has been quelled.

The Russian ship "Terek" was disarmed at Batavia on the 26th ult.

No fighting occurred in Odessa on Friday. The rioters have been cowed by the troops camped throughout the city. The whole population thronged the house tops to witness the manœuvring of the Russian Squadron which culminated in the unconditional surrender of the "Kniaz Potemkin."

It is now clear that the "Kniaz Potemkin" has never surrendered and according to a Reuter's telegram from Odessa dated 2nd inst. the ship with the mutineers on board has sailed apparently in the direction of the Rumanian Coast. It is admitted that the crew of the "Georgi Pobiedonosets" which is the only warship at present off the port has also mutinied but it is officially announced that the mutineers intend to surrender.

The Ironclad "Catherine II" which had remained at Sevastopol has been disarmed.

The Roumanian Government have ordered the "Kniaz Potemkin" to leave the port or surrender, in the latter case the mutineers will be treated as Foreign deserters. The mutineers are considering the demand.
