THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 8 OF 1976

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and Ngariama, Baragwi, Mutira, Mwerua and Kibirigwi Farmers Co-operative Societies Ltd.; Kirinyaga and Gichugu Dairy Farmers Co-operative Societies Ltd.

Issue in dispute.—Recognition.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the above Co-operative Societies shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 30th day of March, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 24th October, 1975, was received by the Court on 20th January, 1976, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The aforesaid Respondents are primary societies affiliated to the Kirinyaga District Co-operative Union Ltd. and are situated wholly in the Kirinyaga District of Central Province. Between them they employ a total of 432 workers.

The history of this dispute dates back to 1963 when the Claimants enrolled the Respondents' employees into their membership including the employees of the parent Co-operative Union. The Co-operative Union accorded recognition to the Claimants in 1964 but a collective agreement could not be negotiated until sometime in 1970.

A collective agreement between the Claimants and the Kirinyaga District Co-operative Union Ltd. was signed in March, 1972. This resulted in a dispute between the Claimants and the Kirinyaga District Co-operative Union Ltd. on whether or not the terms and conditions of employment contained in their collective agreement included and covered the primary societies which are the Respondents in the present dispute.

This dispute was before the Court under Cause No. 69 of 1974. The Court had this to say in its award:—

"The Court has come to the conclusion that the aforesaid collective agreement should not apply to the direct employees of the primary societies and that the Claimants' demand should therefore fail. The Court would like to add that the Claimants have now taken a step in the right direction in seeking formal recognition from the primary societies and they will no doubt in due course negotiate collective agreements in respect of their employees.

The Court would like to rule that if any of the nine primary societies affiliated to the Respondents have implemented the aforesaid collective agreement in respect of their direct employees then they should continue to honour it."

The present dispute has arisen because of the Claimants' efforts to win formal recognition from the Respondents in terms of the Court award as stated above.

The Respondents, however, rejected the Claimants' demands on the ground that the Claimants are not the appropriate union to look after the interest of their employees as the activities of these primary societies were mainly agricultural in nature and that they could not be constituted to be commercial or food activities thereby entitling the Claimants to get recognition. The Respondents elaborated this point in their written and verbal submissions.

The Claimants on the other hand see the Respondents' refusal in recognising them as a very great threat to themselves as a trade union because they claim that there had been absolutely no doubt in anybody's mind until this dispute that theirs was the proper union to cater for the interests of the workers employed by the co-operative unions and their primary societies in the country. The Claimants were very bitter about this new development and blamed the Federation of Kenya Employers for advising the Respondents to take this stand in order to confuse the whole issue.

The Court has examined the Constitution of the Claimants and in view of rule No. 3 (a) (i) which is reproduced herein-below finds that the Claimants' stand does allow them to recruit and represent the employees of the co-operative societies:—

"Distributive and Commercial Group—which shall embrace employees engaged in warehouses, and merchandise, flour, coffee and spice mills, food processing, banks, insurances, offices, cinemas, showgrounds, shopworkers, wholesale and retails, watchmen organizations, distributive dairy workers, co-operative societies and statutory boards."

It may well be that the Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers' Union Constitution also allows them room for recruiting employees of the co-operative societies into their membership. Such overlapping, however, is not uncommon, and it has given rise to demarcation disputes.

In the present dispute there was very flimsy evidence produced by the Respondents of the interest shown by the Plantation Union on behalf of the Respondents' employees. The Court is not prepared to attach much importance to that evidence. The Court is satisfied that the Plantation Union in fact has not indicated any intention aggressively to make inroads into the Claimants' sphere of activities among the co-operative societies.

The Court attaches a great deal of importance to a recommendation forwarded by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour, to the Commissioner for Co-operative Development on 8th May, 1973, after a meeting on the subject "Working Group on Personnel Policy in the Co-operative Movement". The Permanent Secretary recommended very strongly that the Claimants should be recognized by all the co-operative societies.

That the above pattern was acceptable to the Kirinyaga District Co-operative Union Ltd. all along is evident by letters written by their General Manager to the Claimants on 16th May and 8th June, 1972, in which there is a clear indication that the Claimants were being asked to commence negotiations in respect of the Respondents' employees as distinct from the collective agreement between the Kirinyaga District Co-operative Union Ltd. and the Claimants.

During the hearing the Claimants stated that at least two of the Respondents had intimidated their willingness to recognize them and the Court has taken due note of it.

Another point of interest arose during the hearing which is that some of these primary societies had purchased estates and the Court has no doubt, and the parties understand it as well, that the workers employed in such estates are clearly entitled to membership of the Plantation Union and not the Claimants. The Claimants concede this point.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court is satisfied that the activities of the Respondents are mainly marketing and assistance in production and therefore lean more towards the activities which are catered for by the Claimants.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards that the Respondents should recognize the Claimants in respect of all their employees except those who are working on agricultural estates purchased by them.

In making the above award the Court would like to point out to the Respondents that the Court appreciates their efforts in bettering the rural areas and their plea that they should not be burdened with high salaries and troublesome industrial relations. The Court would like to state that recognition of the Claimants would not necessarily mean that the wages and salaries of the Respondents' employees would automatically be raised to the levels in the urban areas where the Claimants predominantly operate. The Court is confident that the Claimants also appreciate this point. Regarding the question of troublesome industrial relations the Court would advise the Respondents that recognition of a trade union in fact considerably helps to improve the relationship between the workers and an employer and leads to happier industrial relations.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

Parties:—

Kenya Management Staff Association
and
Kenya Bus Services Ltd.

RULING—INTERPRETATION APPLICATION

The Court announced its award on 30th December, 1975, and in the last two paragraphs stated as follows:—

"The Court awards that Mr. Okutohi be reinstated into his job with effect from 1st January, 1976, without loss of service and any other benefits and that he be also paid six months' salary as compensation for the wrongful dismissal he has suffered.

The Court further awards that Mr. Muhura be re-engaged with effect from 1st January, 1976, at a salary he was receiving at the time his services were terminated."

As far as Mr. Okutohi is concerned the parties are not in agreement as to how compensation of six months' salary is to be worked out and what "without loss of service and any other benefits" means.

The Respondents have applied to the Court for an interpretation on these points.

They maintained that compensation should be calculated on the salary which Mr. Okutohi was getting at the time he was dismissed, and that he is entitled to be reinstated as awarded by the Court at the salary for his grade as at 1st January, 1976, the date of his reinstatement. They maintain that he is not entitled to any other items like leave when he was not in employment.

The Claimants have interpreted the Court award to mean that compensation should be calculated at the rate of the salary for his grade as at 1st January, 1976, and that he should further be entitled to items like leave when he was not in employment. They pointed out that Mr. Okutohi has been reinstated from 1st January, 1976, at a salary of £580 p.a. whereas the salary for his grade as at 1st January, 1976, had risen to £714 p.a.

After careful consideration of the parties' submissions the Court rules as follows:—

- (1) Mr. Okutohi is to be reinstated into his job with effect from 1st January, 1976, at the salary applicable to his grade and seniority at the date of his reinstatement but not less than £631 per annum. In case of doubt the parties shall refer the matter to the Chief Industrial Relations Officer (C.I.R.O.) to determine Mr. Okutohi's salary after proper investigation.
- (2) The six months' compensation awarded to him by the Court is to be calculated on the salary he was drawing at the date his services were terminated. This again if in doubt will be determined by the C.I.R.O. after due investigation.
- (3) "without loss of service and any other benefits" means that his service continues with the Respondents without a break for the purposes of qualification for retirement benefits and where it affects the level of fringe benefits.

Mr. Okutohi is not entitled to any fringe benefits during the period he was out of employment since all these factors were taken into account by the Court when an award of six months' compensation was made in his favour.

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.
