THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 41 OF 1980

Parties:

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union
and
Muranga County Council

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of—

James Mwangi Gathage—Establishment officer.
Haniel Gichina Mwangi—Market superintendent.
Moses Kamau—Internal Auditor.

1. The Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Muranga County Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 9th October, 3rd November, 9th and 10th December, 1980 and 27th January, 12th and 13th March, 19th 20th and 21st May, and 12th June, 1981 and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

Claimants—

J. M. Gathage.
H. G. Mwangi.
M. Kamau.

Respondents—

Z. Muhia.
R. K. Kimani.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 18th April, 1980 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 10th July together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The three persons involved in this dispute were fairly senior officers in the Respondents' employment holding the following posts:

- J. M. Gathage—Establishment officer.
- H. G. Mwangi—Market superintendent.
- M. Kamau—Internal auditor.

They were dismissed by the Respondents in November, 1978 by which time Gathage had served the Respondents for six years and Gichina and Kamau for seven years.

It is not disputed that the Ministry of Local Government sent an officer to make an audit inspection in the Respondents' activities some time in 1978. The purpose of the inspection was to establish reasons as to why optimum revenue returns were not being received by the Respondents. The investigator was also supposed to find out measures to improve the methods of revenue collections in the Respondents' undertaking and to see the extent to which the various officers concerned were following the standing instructions.

It was as a result of this report that the Respondents alleged that these three officers had failed in their duties and the Respondents therefore decided to relieve them of their duties with effect from 20th November, 1978 in the case of Messrs. Gathage and Gichina and 22nd November, 1978 in the case of Kamau under rule 25 of terms and conditions of employment for gross negligence and misconduct.

The Respondents offered to pay them salary in lieu of notice in accordance with existing terms and conditions of service.

The Claimants having reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour an investigation was carried out by the Ministry and the recommendation was in respect of all three of them that they should be reinstated to their jobs without any loss of service.

The two employees involved Messrs. Gathage and Gichina were performing the duties of revenue officers and their assignments came after a decentralization exercise was implemented by the Respondents so as to improve the collection of revenue from their various revenue yielding institutions. It is not disputed or challenged that their responsibilities were as follows:

- (a) To be responsible for collection of all revenue from various locational centres in their respective areas.
- (b) To be responsible for banking all cash collected as soon as possible but at least twice in a week.
- (c) With the assistance of revenue assistants in charge of divisions to prepare revenue analysis returns for all cash collected and banked. These returns had to be supported by copies of bank pay-in slips and submitted weekly.

- (d) In addition to the receipt books already issued to revenue clerks in the fields the divisional office was to have its own set of receipt books which included traders licences and premises licences.
- (e) To be responsible for selling all types of forms on change of registered ownership, change of business; application to sublet a plot etc.
- (f) Control the movement of the vehicle under his use and authorize all journeys and submit fuel consumption returns monthly.
- (g) To issue licences other than travelling wholesale licences.
- (h) To submit weekly returns for plot rents paid and show details in the location register indicating plot number, receipt number, date, year and amount."

The duties of the internal auditor which are also not in dispute are as follows:

- "(a) Audit inspection of all Council's accounts and accounting records including stores records.
- (b) Examination of systems and procedures with a view to making recommendations for improvements.
- (c) Investigations into irregularities and frauds and giving evidence where prosecutions are instituted.
- (d) Supervision of revenue collection arrangements and watching overflow of income.
- (e) Compilation of periodical income registers e.g. rent and house rents.
- (f) Checking of payment vouchers before payment.
- (g) Compilation of inventories.
- (h) Internal audit reports.
- (i) Any other duties as may be assigned by either the clerk or treasurer from time to time."

After hearing the witnesses' evidence called by both the parties and going through the various documents that were put in as exhibits the Court is satisfied that all three of these officers were rather lax in the performance of their duties. It must, however, be pointed out that there is no allegation of their having misappropriated any funds which belonged to the Respondents or that the Respondents suffered a marked drop in revenue because of their failure to submit their returns on revenue collected to the treasurer in time specifying sufficient details to facilitate easy and proper entries in their appropriate books. The fact, however, remains that all these three officers worked under the direction and control of the Respondents' treasurer and clerk. The Court wonders why it had to take an inspector from the Ministry of Local Government to come and pinpoint the alleged shortcomings in the work of these officers. It is obvious from the inspector's report that Gathage and Gichina were certainly not up to date in their submissions of the returns to the headquarters at the material time and some months prior to that when the inspector made his investigation. Why did the treasurer and the clerk not initiate action to force these officers to discharge their duties as required of them?

There is also a mention of the blunthrax campaign going on at that time which Gathage and Gichina claimed took them away a lot from their normal duties of revenue collection. Gichina further claimed that he was also making investigations at various places in connection with certain scholarships which the Respondents awarded. The Court however finds from the evidence that was given by the witnesses that these two exercises were not all that time consuming as far as revenue officers were concerned and they should have had ample time to carry on with their normal duties even when assisting in these matters.

The Court would like to refer to minute No. 97 of 1978 of the Special Finance Staff and General Purposes Committee meeting held on 16th November, 1978 which reads as follows:

"It was observed that the Council had stationed three revenue officers in the divisions each with a vehicle under him so as to ensure that Council's policy on revenue collection was effectively being implemented generally and more specifically to closely supervise the revenue clerks by regularly collecting and banking money from them, collecting completed receipt books, issuing instructions or advising them where necessary carrying out surprise checks in markets and reporting to the country treasurer any deviations from the prescribed revenue collection procedure. The revenue officer was supposed to use the vehicle at his disposal to visit revenue clerks in his division at least twice a week each so as to collect revenue from them for eventual banking and subsequent submission of weekly revenue analysis sheets to the treasurer for accounting purposes. It was reported that revenue officers had not followed these requirements closely with the result that revenue officers had not followed these requirements closely with the result that revenue collected in one month was not banked until late the following month while in other cases completed receipt books were left in the divisional or locational offices unnecessarily, a clear indication that internal audit section of the council was also ineffective."

The Court would like to recall a statement made by the then Clerk to the Respondents, Mr. Z. Muhia when he stated that after the inspector's report was submitted it was closely scrutinized by the relevant Committee who wanted to see the files of these officers and any other relevant files. Mr. Muhia told the Court that the "Committee went mad and said these officers must go". The Committee then decided to dismiss them and their services were terminated. Mr. Muhia added that the Council meeting on 14th December, 1978 confirmed the sackings of these three officers.

The Court notes that the letters of termination were handed to these officers before the full Council confirmed the decision of the Special Finance Staff and General Purposes Committee meeting held on 16th November, 1978.

The Court finds that the Councilors on the aforesaid Committee in a fit of anger decided to take a hasty decision to terminate the services of these employees without even waiting to have their decision confirmed by the full Council meeting. The Court can appreciate their anger and the reason for it but the fact remains that proper procedures as laid down have got to be strictly followed when matters affecting workers' employment are concerned.

The Court would also like to comment on the case of the internal auditor Mr. M. Kamau who has been a gout victim for many years which necessitated many a time a vehicle being sent to his house to bring him to office to carry out his duties. His sickness obviously affected his performance but that in itself does not give the Respondents a sufficient reason to get rid of him but the inspector's report clearly points out that he had not performed his duties competently as was required of him in that he had not prepared weekly or fortnightly comprehensive reports on the work he had been doing advising the treasurer on the weak points for necessary action. The auditor gave a few examples of his reports as follows:

"Date"	Subject	Length
27.11.74	Fund misappropriation by Mr. Itongu	Half a page
30.1.75	Banking system	One page
15.4.75	Muthithi Market	One page
16.4.75	Gatura Market	One page
13.5.75	Stationery	One page"

In arriving at a decision about this officer the Court has not been influenced in any way by the pecuniary embarrassment which Mr. Kamau was suffering from at the time. These were in all twelve salary attachments covering the period between 1969 to 1977. Some of these he brought with him when he joined the Respondents' service and in respect of the others he gave a reasonable explanation like prolonged sickness of his parents.

The Court was amazed when Mr. Kamau stated that he used to be sent to supervise grass cutting by the Respondents' manual employees and on some occasions even the cutting of the maize plantations. On another occasion he was asked to go and supervise the building of an access road. This is incredible because this officer should have known that he being an internal auditor certainly was not required to do these odd jobs and the Court does not accept his explanation that because his contract of employment stated that he had to do any other duties as assigned to him from time to time he had no alternative but to do these jobs at the expense of his regular duties.

There is no evidence at all before the Court to show that any of these officers were given an opportunity by the Respondents to explain the reasons for the alleged shortcomings in their work performance.

The Court must also comment on the conduct of Mr. Gichina when he got the letter of termination and moved out of the Respondents' offices which he occupied and took with him certain important documents which he then completed at his leisure and forwarded to the Respondents' headquarters at a later date. This sort of conduct on the part of a senior officer is deplorable indeed and is indeed a poor reflection on his character. The Court intends to take this particular point into consideration when it makes its award in this dispute.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court has come to the conclusion that all these three officers deserved to have their services terminated because even if the treasurer and the clerk were not pulling them up the fact remains that two wrongs do not make one right. These officers were employed to carry out their duties competently and expeditiously to the satisfaction of their employer, the Respondents. This they failed to do and the Court finds that the Respondents were entitled to terminate their services. After all, if senior officers employed in local authorities do not carry out their duties properly how are Kenyans going to be served properly in their respective areas?

Having made this finding the Court however finds that the Respondents although fully justified in terminating their services should have waited for their full Council to confirm the decision of the Finance Staff and General Purposes Committee meeting held on 16th November, 1978 before terminating their services. It is only in this regard that these three officers have suffered a wrongful termination. The full Council meeting took place on 14th December so the Court finds that all of them were in the Respondents' employment up to 14th December, 1978 and that they should all be paid their full salary up to that date. Further, in addition to the normal termination benefits which the Respondents have offered all three of them they should be paid further compensation as follows for the wrongful dismissal they have suffered.

Mr. Gathage—Two months' salary.

Mr. Gichina—One month's salary.

Mr. Kamau—Two months' salary.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 2255

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.
