GAZETTE NOTICE No. 321

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 44 OF 1969

Parties:

Kenya Chemical Workers' Union
and
E.A. Match Co. Ltd.

Issues in Dispute:

1. Wages.
2. Normal working hours.
3. Gratuity or service benefits.
4. Uniforms and overalls.

1. The Kenya Chemical Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the E.A. Match Co. Ltd., shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Mombasa on the 29th day of December 1969 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

The parties have appeared before the Court in the past in Cause Nos. 49/65 and 23/67. The issue of working hours was dealt with in Cause No. 23/67 and the question of uniforms and overalls was the subject of awards in Cause Nos. 49/65 and 23/67.

It is natural that wages should have been an issue in dispute in all proceedings between the parties and the Claimants have relied mainly on the same arguments as before. These being that the unions were committed to raising the standard of living of all citizens in the country; the current wage of Sh. 185 per month consolidated was not enough even to meet the bare necessities of the workers; the Respondents being a private company had never disclosed their financial position to the Claimants; the current wage level was below the wage envisaged by the Government in its Development Plan 1966-1970, this being Sh. 385 per month.

The Claimants also referred the Court to the wages which they had negotiated with six other firms in their industry and compared them with the wages paid by the Claimants.

The Claimants argued that the wages and the hours of work issues were interlinked and stated that if the Court was not inclined to reduce the normal working hours then it should adequately compensate the workers in the wage increase which the Court might grant.

The Claimants gave the historical background of the wages in the Respondents' firm which showed that they were as low as Sh. 120 per month for males and Sh. 95 per month for females in 1963.

The Respondents very strongly resisted the demands made by the Claimants on the ground that they had been severely hit by the restrictions imposed by Uganda and Tanzania on the import of matches made by the Respondents whereas matches produced in Tanzania were allowed freely into Kenya. They claimed that they had nearly 6,391 cartons of matches in stock.

The Respondents relied mainly on the provisions of the latest Development Plan and referred to various passages therein where severe wage restraint has been advocated.

The Respondents drew the Court's attention to the fact that their factory in Mombasa capable of producing 8,000 cartons of matches a month is restricted to an average production of 5,000 cartons.

Finally the Respondents submitted that it was only in 1969 that the shareholders saw a dividend on their investment.

The Court is confronted with a situation where the parties have agreed on an effective date, i.e. 1st October 1968 and have also agreed on the duration period of three years. This will necessitate backdating of the Court's award to over 15 months. Ordinarily the Court would not be inclined to award such a long backdating but in view of the parties' agreement on this matter, there is very little the Court can do now.

The parties have agreed on the following grades showing the Claimants' demands and the Respondents' final offer—

Grade	Union's final demand	Employers' final offer
	Sh.	Sh.
IA	850	350
IB	600	275
II	500	240
III	400	205
IV	320	187/50

The Respondents have made it clear that no worker will get less than Sh. 22/50 and some will get substantial increases. The Court is aware that the bulk of the workers are at present at Sh. 185 and as a result of the Respondents' offer they will move into Grade III.

After a careful consideration of all the submissions made by the parties, the Court has come to the conclusion that the workers should get a wage increase of Sh. 22/50 per month for the first period of 18 months effective from 1st October 1968 and another increase of Sh. 24 per month for the second period of 18 months. This award is based on the Respondents' offer which the Court considers to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Court is not prepared to reduce the present 43 hours of work per week and accordingly makes no award on it.

On the issue of gratuity and severance benefits the Court finds that it would not be fair to tamper with an arrangement which has been frozen since the commencement of the National Social Security Fund. The Court is not prepared to award a supplementary retirement scheme in view of the financial difficulties which the Respondents are facing. The female workers will continue to benefit at the rate of 15 days for every completed year of service as they are not as yet covered by the N.S.S.F.

The Respondents demonstrated in Court the aprons which they had supplied to their workers in compliance with the Court's award in 1967. The Court is satisfied that these meet the requirements of its award and the Claimants' demand is therefore rejected.

Given in Nairobi this 26th day of January 1970.

SAEED R. COCKAR,
President.
J. CARROLL,
Dr. N. C. OTIENO,
Members.
