VACANCIES IN OAU SECRETARIAT

HEADQUARTERS AND REGIONAL OFFICES

APPLICATIONS are invited from qualified Kenya citizens for the following vacant posts. Applications should be addressed to the Permanent Secretary/Director of Personnel Management, P.O. Box 30050, Nairobi, so as to reach him not later than 10th November, 1981.

Applicants should enclose their detailed curriculum vitae, photostatic and certified true copies of educational, professional and other qualifications which are intended to support their candidatures.

Allowances and other Benefits

For statutory staff (internationally recruited):

Dependency allowance.—US$200.00 per annum for a dependent spouse. US$150.00 per annum for a dependent child up to 18 years of age and up to a maximum of six children.

Note.—"Dependent spouse" is deemed to be any person lawfully married to a staff member and is not engaged in any remunerated functions either in the organization or elsewhere. For this purpose, the organization recognizes only one dependent spouse. "Dependent child" is deemed to be the legitimate child or child legitimized or legally adopted in accordance with the national laws of the adopter staff member. Documentary evidence of marriage and birth certificate must be produced to enjoy benefits.

Installation allowance.—This allowance is paid to a staff member and his accompanying dependents to meet the extraordinary living expenses upon arrival at the duty station, provided that the staff member is not recruited from the country where the duty station is located. The allowance is based on the rate of per diem allowance approved for each duty station, and is paid at full rate to staff member and at half rate to dependents, for a maximum period of 30 days. The allowance shall cease if the staff member find independent accommodation before the end of the period of 30 days. During the period the staff member is in receipt of installation allowance, he/she is not entitled to housing allowance (where this allowance is applicable).

Medical expenses.—The organization shall reimburse 80 per cent of the medical expenses incurred by the staff member and his eligible dependents, against proper medical documents, of illness while in the service of the Organization of African Unity.

Annual leave.—Annual leave is granted at the rate of 28 working days a year of active service, provided that not more than 56 working days of such leave shall be accumulated. A staff member serving outside his/her home country shall be entitled once every two years of qualifying service to visit, with his eligible dependents, his/her home at OAU expense.

Pension.—Permanent staff members are entitled to pension and to that end shall contribute 7 per cent of basic salary, with OAU contributing 14 per cent.

Gratuity.—Staff members on contract with the organization shall be entitled to gratuities upon fulfilment of their contractual obligations. The organization pays gratuity equivalent to 15 per cent of the basic annual salary in respect of satisfactory service for contractual appointments of more than one year upon expiration of such contracts or period of service.

Compensation insurance.—All staff members shall be eligible to benefit from the compensation fund in case of injury or death in the course of their performance of the OAU's duties.

Education allowance.—A statutory staff member, whose duty station is outside his home country, is entitled to education allowance up to a maximum of US$1,200.00 a year, per child and up to 6 children in Africa. In New York, Brussels and Geneva, the allowance is fixed at US$1,500.00 per child per annum.

Post adjustment allowance.—Post adjustment allowance is payable according to the post adjustment indices at a given duty station. The present post adjustment in Addis Ababa is 40 per cent of basic salary per month.

Travel and baggage entitlement.—On first appointment, the officer recruited from outside the country of duty station is entitled, with his/her eligible dependent up to a maximum of six children to:

(a) By air:

(i) One way tourist class air ticket from home country to duty station, by the shortest possible and most direct route.

(ii) Ten kilos excess baggage each for same route.

(iii) Fifty kilos unaccompanied baggage each for same route.

(b) By sea/land:

(i) Up to maximum of 200 kilos for officer.

(ii) Up to maximum of 100 kilos for one dependent wife.

(iii) Up to maximum of 50 kilos for each dependent child.

Conversion of surface shipment entitlement.—The conversion to air freight of whole or part of the surface shipment entitlement under item (b) (i), (ii) and (iii) shall be authorized on the basis of one-third of weight of authorized surface entitlement.

Easterbrook is precluded thereunder from practising within thirty (30) miles of Nairobi for a period of three (3) years, with an undertaking binding him not to canvass or make any approach to the existing clientele of Cook Sutton and Company.

The notice accordingly published by H. F. Easterbrook in the Daily Nation, The Standard newspapers in the issue of 9th October, 1981 and per Kenya Gazette Notice No. 3264 of the issue dated 16th October, 1981, purporting to dissolve the said partnership with effect from 4.30 p.m. on Thursday, 8th October, 1981 is both misleading void and of no effect.

All concerned are requested to govern themselves accordingly and refer all matters to A. M. Blackhall, the sole resident continuing partner of Cook Sutton and Company.

A. M. BLACKHALL,
Continuing Partner.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the Office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction into the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of a foolscap sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D.14. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

"(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
