CIRCULAR.

His Majesty's Commissioner wishes to call the attention of officers of the Protectorate to the Regulation by which they are forbidden to hold land or engage in commercial pursuits in East Africa.

This Regulation should be given its widest significance and must be held to preclude officers from purchasing cattle or other livestock for sale to the Administration or to private traders, from acquiring for sale anything taken as spoil of war or received in payment of fines or taxes, and from possessing any interest, whether direct or indirect, in any trading venture carried on in the Uganda or East Africa Protectorates.

Similarly officers must not make use of their position to acquire for the purposes of sale any of the natural products of the country, nor are they allowed to furnish supplies or sell specimens to any public institution or private person, except in cases where officers stationed in remote districts of the Protectorate may be unavoidably compelled to afford hospitality to travellers. In such cases a statement of expenses supported by an explanation of the circumstances, which rendered it necessary to incur them, should be sent to H. M. Commissioner who will consider each claim on its merits with a view to the reimbursement of the officer by the person assisted.

H. M. Commissioner further desires that all officers will furnish him as soon as possible with a written statement that they have no commercial interests of any kind in Uganda or East Africa. Any officer who is unable to do so must immediately report the nature of his interests and either at once divest himself of them or resign his post under the administration.

Reuter's Telegrams.

JUNE 15TH.—It is understood in Paris that the Powers, which formerly supported the scheme for a Chinese loan guaranteed by all the Powers, have abandoned this proposal and now support the British suggestion for an issue of Bonds.

On the 13th Mr. T. Bowles raised a debate in the House over the Gibraltar Dock scheme, and stated that the Committee who went to Gibraltar to report had recommended the abandonment of two docks, also the storehouses and workshops on the western side, because they were hopelessly commanded by the Spanish fire. Mr. Bowles complained because the work had not been immediately suspended.

Mr. Balfour condemned precipitate discussion on the subject, said that the matter was one of extreme importance and delicacy; that the Committee's report had been submitted to the military and naval Commanders in Gibraltar and in the Mediterranean and that it was unwise to break the contracts before a final decision had been come to.

Signor Prinetti, replying on behalf of the Government in the Italian Chamber, stated that the fears of an Austrian preponderance in the Triple Alliance were absolutely ungrounded, that the Alliance was a guarantee for peace and in no way precluded friendship with France. He added that Italy's relations with England were such that they justified the conviction, should occasion arise, the old friendship will be found unshaken. As regards events in China, peace is nearly concluded, and that the only unsettled point was the means necessary to enable China to pay the indemnity. Italy adhered unreservedly to the Anglo-German agreement and only desired a settlement in Tientsin and elsewhere, as occasion arose.

M. Drumont made a violent speech in the French Chamber, regarding recent disturbances in Algeria. He was suspended but refused to leave, and was then removed by soldiers.

JUNE 17TH.—Kitchener's and Elliot's columns engaged the Boers under De Wet near Reitz on the 6th instant; after severe fighting they captured 45 prisoners and a convoy of 71 waggons. The Boers lost 17 killed and 3 wounded, while our losses were 3 officers and 17 men killed and 1 officer and 24 men wounded. Colonel Elliot's column has reached Kroonstad.

Later accounts confirm the news that Colonel Wilson surprised the Boer commando near Warmbaths on the 30th of May. He captured all the waggons, 7,000 cattle, and many mules after some very sharp fighting with loss to the British of 5 killed and 21 wounded and to the Boers of 27 killed and 86 wounded.

It appears that Lord Kitchener's official denial which was published in the message of 12th instant had reference to Beyer's Commando.

Frau Botha had an interview with Mr. Kruger at Hague which lasted two hours and a half. The lady then returned to Brussels; she regrets she is unable to make any statement.

M. Rambaud in the French Senate sought to amend the Association's Bill to include British Missionaries in Algeria on account of the Anti-French propaganda they are alleged to preach. He declared that England could employ her Algerian Missionaries in India. The amendment was ultimately withdrawn.

The following is the result of the Grand Prix.

1. Cheri.
2. Tiberi.
3. Lady Killer.

Lord Kitchener telegraphing from Pretoria states that a superior force of the Boers surprised the camp of 250 Victorians, 20 miles south of Middelburg in the Transvaal on the 12th instant. They crept to a very short range and poured in a deadly fire, killing 2 officers and 16 men and wounding 4 officers and 38 men. They captured 2 pompoms; only 2 officers and 50 men escaped. The remainder were captured, but were subsequently released.

JUNE 18TH.—The correspondent of the "New York Herald" at Washington states that Great Britain has notified the Powers, that she will not consent to China increasing the import duties on Opium and Rice; it is therefore evident that the scheme of certain of the Powers to provide China with the necessary means for raising an indemnity loan has failed.

It is officially announced that the Somaliland Expedition reached Somala on the 1st of June, having captured 3,500 head of cattle; the main body continued their march on the 2nd against the Mad Mullah leaving Macneil with 300 men to garrison Somala. A body of 2,000 of the enemy subsequently attacked Macneil's force on 3 separate occasions. They were repulsed losing 500 men. The British casualties were 10 killed and 9 wounded.

JUNE 19TH.—Mr. Lloyd George moved an adjournment of the House on the subject of the Refugee camp in South Africa. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman supported him. The adjournment was lost by 253 votes to 134; the Liberal Imperialists abstained from voting while the minority included 54 Irish.

Mr. Brodrick stated that there were 63,127 occupants now in the Refugee Camps. He said that he was in communication with Lord Kitchener with a view to release the women and children who had friends willing and capable of maintaining them but that it was not proposed to release any others.

JUNE 21ST.—A Pro-Boer meeting was held in London on the 19th. Mr. Sauer gave an address, and antiwar resolutions were adopted. Elaborate precautions were taken to maintain order. 800 stewards were engaged in ejecting interrupters, while a huge hostile crowd surrounded the building.

Sir Michael Hicks Beach in opposing Mr. Grant's motion that preferential terms be granted to Colonial Sugar, said that such a course opened the door to concessions in other commodities, which would mean risking our losing the foreign trade. Sir William Harcourt concurred, and the motion was rejected by 466 votes to 16.

The Chinese troops have occupied posts near Yang'sun, from whence the allied forces have withdrawn. General Campbell is of opinion that further troubles between the English and French troops are unlikely. General Voyrow is warmly co-operating with us, and is determined to maintain order.

The recipients of famine relief in India are increasing. The total now is 519,926.

JUNE 22ND.—Mr. Asquith presiding at a dinner given by the Essex Liberals, demurred to the suggestion that he and his friends were apostates from the Liberal party. He condemned the resolution carried at the Pro-Boer meeting on Wednesday, and protested against its being called a pronouncement from the Liberal party. He stated that there were no grounds to base charges of inhumanity against either side during the war. He eulogised Sir Alfred Milner and concluded by stating that the restoration of the original status of the two Republics was an impossibility.

The South African Lands Commission reports that unless strenuous efforts are made to establish a thoroughly British population large enough to prevent any recurrence of disorders, the whole expenditure of blood and treasure that has occurred, may be wasted. There is no reason to doubt, however, that the new countries will become thoroughly British, by the exercise of a consistent and well directed policy.

Hoshitoru, a Japanese ex-minister, has been assassinated while attending a meeting.

JUNE 24TH.—The correspondent of the Times at Peking telegraphs that General Barrow, who has just left for England, has throughout the Campaign in co-operation with General Gaselée, admirably conducted the British Expedition, and has added honour and fame to the Indian Army.

The Mad Mullah himself headed the final attack on Macneil's force. After being repulsed he and his forces retreated, encountering Colonel Swayne's columns on the 4th instant. Colonel Swayne pursued the enemy all throughout the night killing 100. The Mullah himself narrowly escaped capture. Our casualties were seven.

The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall were received at Christchurch with unabated enthusiasm.

Nothing is known with regard to the engagement at Waterkloof beyond the casualty list; a previous telegram stated that a party of the "Midland Rifles" had been sent against Malan who had crossed the Railway near Roodehoogte. The Rifles were commanded by Captain Spandan who is mortally wounded.

The French Senate has adopted the Religious Associations Bill in a somewhat amended form.

A dam in Virginia burst, owing to a waterspout. Two counties were flooded and it is stated 300 people drowned.

The Sugar clause in the Budget has been passed through Committee by 240 votes against 159. Sir M. Hicks-Beach stated that the duty was intended to meet the general expenditure and was in nowise a war tax. He added that he had received practically no foreign remonstrances either official or otherwise against the allowances on the graduated scale. The only objection came from the refiners of Great Britain.

Lord Cranborne stated in the House that no question of China increasing the duty on opium had arisen.

Advance parties pursued the Mad Mullah's forces to the border of Mijerton killing 50. The pursuit was then abandoned.

JUNE 26TH.—Lord Kitchener reports that in the week ending 24th instant, the following losses have been inflicted on the Boers; 46 killed, 27 wounded, 160 captured, 70 surrendered, 41,800 rounds of ammunition and 264 waggons captured.

The Times correspondent at Peking states that only two questions delay the settlement of the Chinese affair, viz Japan's request to increase the indemnity and Russia's proposal to increase the tariff to 10 per cent in the event of a deficit in the indemnity. All the ministers with the exception of Sir Ernest Satow have agreed to the latter.

The Victorian assembly has adopted by 64 to 17 a motion made by the Treasurer expelling Findley the member for Melbourne who is the editor of a labour organ, owing to the latter having reproduced the article from the "Irish People" libelling the King. Findley disclaimed sympathy with the article.
