UGANDA PROTECTORATE.

NOTICE.

The following Regulations made by His Majesty's Commissioner, and allowed by the Secretary of State, are published for general information.

(Sd.) J. HAYES SADLER,
His Majesty's Commissioner.

Stebbe, 11th July, 1902.

King's Regulations under Article 99 of "The Africa Order in Council, 1889."

No 11 of 1902.

Gun Licences.

1. In these Regulations "gun" means any gun, rifle, pistol, or any weapon discharging projectile by the aid of gunpowder, dynamite, or other explosive, or by the aid of compressed air.
2. Within the Protectorate every person who owns a gun, and is not provided with a licence issued under the Game Regulations for the time being in force, shall be required to take out a gun licence, provided, however, that the holder of a licence issued under "The Game Protection Regulations, 1901," shall not be required to take out a gun licence in respect of any one smooth bore shot gun in his possession.
3. Every licence shall comprise one gun only, provided that His Majesty's Commissioner may, by agreement with the King and Chiefs of any kingdom, province, or district, and to the natives of such kingdom, province, or district, the right to register five guns on any one licence.
The fee for every licence shall be 3 rupees.
4. No person residing in or passing through the Protectorate may own, possess, use, or carry any cannon or machine gun without a special licence granted by His Majesty's Commissioner. Every cannon or machine gun which at the date of these Regulations is not held on such special licence must be forthwith re-exported or delivered to His Majesty's Commissioner for safe custody. In default thereof, the same may be seized by or under the authority of any officer of the Administration, and any Magistrate may, after due inquiry, order the same to be forfeited, and the person possessing such cannon or machine gun shall pay all costs incurred in and about the seizure and forfeiture of the said cannon or machine gun.

5. A gun licence shall be in the form appended to these Regulations, or in such other form as His Majesty's Commissioner shall from time to time direct, and shall contain the name and place of abode of the person to whom it is granted, shall be dated on the day on which it is granted, and shall expire on the 31st day of March next following.

6. Upon every application for a licence, the gun or guns must be produced to the officer to whom such application is made for the purpose of marking and registration. Such application may be refused without reason assigned, but every such refusal shall be subject to appeal to His Majesty's Commissioner.

7. Every officer authorized to grant licences shall keep a register thereof specifying the name and abode of the owner, and the date of the licence, and shall mark every gun produced to him for registration in such a way as to identify it, entering the description of the mark in the register and on the licence.

8. A licence issued under the Game Regulations for the time being in force, or under "The Birds Protection Regulations, 1901," shall only exempt the holder from the provisions of the present Regulations to the extent of his not being required to take out in addition a gun licence. The holder of a gun licence, or licences, who may be subsequently allowed to take out a licence under the Game Regulations, shall have the cost of such gun licence or licences already paid by him deducted from the cost of the licence under the Game Regulations.

9. Subject to the provisions of the following Article, a gun in respect of which a licence has been obtained by any Chief or employer may be used or carried under such licence by any follower or servant of his for any lawful purpose.

10. Every person owning, possessing, using, or carrying a gun without having either a gun licence or a trader's pass upon which the fire-arm is sufficiently described, or a licence under the Game Regulations, or under the Birds Protection Regulations, or owning, possessing, using, or carrying a gun not marked as aforesaid, or failing to show his licence or pass when so required by an officer of the Administration, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 10 rupees, and, in default of payment of the fine, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding three months, and, upon such conviction, any gun which has been owned, possessed, used, or carried in contravention of these Regulations may be forfeited.

11. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, it shall be lawful for any person to use and carry a duly registered gun lent to him for the temporary purpose of destroying any venomous snake, crocodile, or other reptile, and no person shall be convicted of a breach of these Regulations if he shall satisfy the Magistrate before whom he is charged that he was using or carrying the gun for such purpose only.

12. "The Native Gun Tax Regulations, 1900," are repealed as from the date hereof.

13. These Regulations may be cited as "The Uganda Gun Licence Regulations, 1902."

SEPTEMBER 4TH.—The Kaiser on Monday arrived at Posen on his promised visit about which there has been a feeling of apprehension in Germany in view of His Majesty's late utterances with regard to the Polish question. Despite however a considerable military display the reception was friendly and the Kaiser in reply to Burgomaster's speech of welcome couched his remarks in mild terms.

Steamers from Martinique report that the village of the Morneronge was overwhelmed in an instant by scalding water and mud, and there is not a single survivor amongst the inhabitants. The village of Ajonpabonillon struck by a river of mud and shower of stones and over a mile of the east side of the Island is sunk in the

The French Government had notified the refugees from previous eruption that they must not return to their homes before the 15th of August otherwise no assistance would be given them in restarting life.

An official telegram has been received in Paris stating that five villages were destroyed on Saturday night. Individuals were killed and 200 injured and that 200 refugees from the Northern Districts have been brought to Fort-de-France.

It is officially announced that the Tsaritsa has had a miscarriage, but that her condition shows no symptoms of complications.

SEPTEMBER 5TH.—In the Cape Assembly the General Indemnity Bill has been read for the third time.

The Kaiser reviewed yesterday 30,000 troops and in addressing the Governor of Warsaw and the officers of his Russian Regiment who had been specially invited to Posen he referred to the comradeship at arms and the true friendship which existed between the Russian and German Armies and at a banquet in the same evening in promoting the health of the Tsar he reiterated the same sentiments.

Mr. Brodrick, Generals, French, Ian Hamilton and Kelley Kenny have started to attend the German manoeuvres.

The Kaiser in replying to an address from the Provincial Diet of Posen appealed to the people and the officials to co-operate and unhesitatingly support his policy, which policy had for its object the true interest of the Province; the difficulty the Poles had to accommodate themselves to the German conditions of life was due to apprehensions, and the assertion that their religion was in danger was a downright lie neither would their liberties and traditions be extirpated, they could retain these, but must be at the same time good Germans.

SEPTEMBER 6TH.—There were fresh eruptions at Martinique on Thursday evening and it is stated that a number of houses were destroyed.

A band of 60 Kaffirs from Damaraland is roaming to the extreme North-West of Kenhardt district close to the German border looting and committing outrages. An expedition is organised to proceed against them and it is understood that the German authorities are co-operating.

Lord Roberts together with Mr. Brodrick and the other Generals have arrived at Berlin and were met at the station by the German Officers who had been attached to them during their stay. The whole party will be the guests of the Emperor during the visit. His Majesty joins them to-morrow and gives a dinner in their honour on Friday.

Professor Virchow is dead.

The news of the eruption at Martinique reported on the 4th instant has not been confirmed.

The Generals Botha, De Wet and Delary had a two hours conference with Mr. Chamberlain at the Colonial Office yesterday afternoon. Lords Kitchener and Onslow were also present. There was such a crowd in Downing Street that the thoroughfare had to be cleared. The Boers and Chamberlain were loudly cheered but Lord Delary managed to elude observation. The Particulars of what actually happened are withheld, but will be published in blue book later on.

The French Colonel reported in Reuter's of 12th ultimo has been acquitted by the Court of refusal to obey General's order, but convicted for refusing to comply with the Civil Authorities requisition forwarded to him. The General and has been sentenced to one day's imprisonment.

Lord Curzon in his speech to the Council in Calcutta announced that the Duke of Connaught would represent His Majesty at the Delhi Durbar and that the Duchess will accompany His Royal Highness; he stated that good news had lately received has dispelled all fear of famine.

Reuter understands that the Siamese negotiations now going on in Paris are progressing satisfactorily, both sides expect a favourable conclusion to be reached shortly.

SEPTEMBER 8TH.—The Anglo-Chinese Treaty was signed on Friday night.

Andre the French Minister for War was much annoyed at the result of Colonel Saint Remy's trial which amounted to an acquittal and it is probable that the officer will be placed on the retired list.

Lord Roberts, Mr. Brodrick, and General Kelly Kenny together with the American Generals, Corbin, Young, Wood witnessed a parade before the Emperor of the Third Army Corps near Frankfort. The Empress together with the leading Prussian and Bavarian Princes were also present.

General Botha revisited the Colonial Office on Saturday and saw Mr. Chamberlain. It is generally reported that the Boer Generals made various proposals which were unacceptable, and according to one version they will abandon their impracticable demands and contend themselves with minor suggestions. According however, to other report they are much dissatisfied, and intend leaving for Holland forthwith.

Saturday's review Lord Roberts wore the order of the Black Eagle. The Emperor was most gracious to the British guests, and attached Count Roderuof of the Cuirassiers Guard to Lord Roberts and suite.

There were eruptions at Soufrier, St. Vincent from 9 P.M. on 3rd instant to 11 A.M. on the 4th and same lasted for some time and were more violent than at first. At the commencement of the eruption many people flocked to the town running to and fro seeking shelter. The earthquakes though not severe increased the panic of the people. Between two and three in the morning loud and rapid detonations mingled with a continuous roar, forked lightning and balls of fire from the Crater burst meteoric like. The showers were most awe inspiring in the cinerian darkness. The fear of a tidal wave increased the panic and hundreds fled to the hills.

His Majesty continues in splendid health and endured with the greatest ease a long days deerstalking in the Kingdom. They will arrive to-day in Aberdeen and from thence train to Balmoral.

SEPTEMBER 9TH.—A German Warship in the roadstead of Gonaives sank the Haitian gunboat "Creteapierrot" and recently confiscated a cargo of Arms Amunitions on board the German steamer "Caphaetien". The German warvessel "Panther" gave the "Creteapierrot" five minutes to land her crew, her Commander and fifteen and this was granted. The moment the crew left the "Creteapierrot" flames burst from her and immediately after the "Panther" fired, in 30 shots she sank. The "Creteapierrot" was actually Haitian but her Commander and crew had lately joined the rebel pretender Firmin. The "Panther" treated the "Creteapierrot" as a pirate.

Their Majesties landed at Invergordon and took the train from there to Balmoral via Aberdeen. It is stated that His Majesty has greatly benefited by the cruise.

The Admiralty have received advice that a boat party from H. M. S. "Lapping" has had a serious fight with a slave Dhow in the Persian Gulf, one bluejacket was killed and others wounded.

SEPTEMBER 10TH.—Lord Roberts, Mr. Brodrick, and Generals Ian Hamilton, French, Kelly Kenny together with Lord Lonsdale, and the American Generals, were the guests of the Emperor at a state dinner last night at the new palace in Potsdam.

The Annual Report from the Vice Consul of Zanzibar states that the place maintains its position as an important centre of trade despite the advantages conferred on Mombasa by the Uganda Railway.

The Siamese Special Envoy who has lately been in Paris arrived in London yesterday to confer with the British Government. He visited the Foreign Office and up to the present the date for his return to France is not fixed.

The Boer Generals have sailed for the Hague.

SEPTEMBER 11TH.—Colonel Saint Remy has been placed on the retired list.

Sir Gordon Sprigg in his Budget speech to the Cape Assembly said that the Government was desirous to raise £2,192,000 to meet the expenditure of the last two years. He estimated that the surplus for the current year would be £286,227.

The following is the result of the St Leger :—

Sceptre.

Rising glass.

Friar Tuck.

Capt. Killick who was in command of the "Creteapierrot" remained on board after the crew had left the ship in order to fire the magazine and perished. His body has since been recovered.

The Dutch Premier had a long interview with the Boer Generals yesterday.

SEPTEMBER 12TH.—Numbers of Russian troops and immigrants are arriving in Manchuria and it is said that the Russian Commander has been advised to expel the British Employees in the Chinese Customs who had been sent to resume charge of the postal service.

Cholera in Egypt is increasing there were 1350 new cases yesterday and since the 15th July there have been 20329 cases of which 16209 have resulted in death.

SEPTEMBER 13TH.—Two French Railway employers have been robbed and nearly killed by Chinese between Peking and Pautitingfu.

The Viceroy reports good rains throughout India removing for the present all serious anxiety.

It is officially announced at Johannesburg that in addition to 3 millions for the burghers 2 millions have been assigned to assist and restart in life distressed Britishers, neutral foreigners and natives who have suffered by the War. Both sums are chargeable to the Imperial Government.

A telegram from Constantinople states that three vessels were captured in the "Lapping" affair which has produced a considerable impression as testifying to the value of the British Police service.

Ambassador De Staal has resigned owing to impaired health.

The following are gazetted for service in the Lago expedition in Uganda.

Major Harman D.S.O.

Major Delmé Radcliffe to be Lieutenant-Colonel.
