Reuter's correspondent at Pretoria reports that Kemp commenced the attack on Kekewich and that Delary was present. Kekewich's and Fetherstonhaugh's columns had returned from driving the Boers off. There is therefore no difficulty in meeting every call. Ten thousand remounts are being landed monthly and the Government is doing everything to aid Kitchener in his difficult task of chasing small bodies of Boers over an area equal to France and Spain. The Government will not flinch from asking the country for any sacrifice necessary to bring the war to a speedy close.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach speaking at Oldham said that the financial means supplied by Parliament was not exhausted and that he did not anticipate on Autumn Session. He added that the Government had acted in complete concert with the Cape Government in extending Martial Law. OBITUARY.

GENERAL SIR LLOYD MATHEWS.

We much regret to announce the death of Sir Lloyd William Mathews, K.C.M.G., which occurred on Friday 11th instant. He had been in indifferent health for some time, but, his death was unexpected at the time it happened. Sir Lloyd William Mathews was born 7th March 1850; and served in the Royal Navy from 1863 to 1881; and took part in the Ashanti War of 1873, he Volunteered whilst Lieutenant on H. M. S. "London" to drill H. H. the Sultan's troops and gave such satisfaction to H. H. Barghash bin Saeed bin Sultan that he was invited to take command, which he did, with the consent of Her Majesty's Government, as Brigadier General, 1878; The decoration of C.M.G. was conferred upon him in 1889; and he was appointed Commissioner and Consul-General to British East Africa in 1891, but, did not take up the post, accepting instead the position of First Minister of H. H. the Sultan's Government, on account of his exceptional knowledge of Zanzibar. The decoration of K.C.M.G., was conferred upon him in 1894; He was appointed Military Member of the Mainland Council on the declaration of the Protectorate in 1895; and served in the Mazrui Campaign of that year (Grand Order of Hamoudieh). For 26 years he served at Zanzibar with only three absences on leave. There is no doubt that his tact and judgment, his sympathetic desire to avoid all unnecessary friction, his love for all those who worked with him, his generosity to Europeans and natives and his readiness to adopt common sense methods of administration were of the greatest value at Zanzibar.

The death of Captain De Gex, Lancashire Fusiliers, on the 11th instant is announced with much regret.

Captain Basil Culverhouse De Gex was appointed a 2nd Lieutenant in the 30th East Lancashire Regiment on the 21st January 1893, and was promoted Lieutenant 29th January 1896. Served with the First Battalion East Lancashire Regiment under Sir Robert Low with Chitral Relief Force in 1895 (Medal with Clasp). Was promoted Captain in the Lancashire Fusiliers 20th June 1900.

On the 20th April 1901 he was appointed as one of the Special Service Officers for temporary employment in Jubaland, and whilst there did most excellent work with the Camels which remained over after the termination of the late Punitive Expedition; and it is entirely due to his exertions and veterinary knowledge that so many of them have been saved.

Captain De Gex had only quite lately proceeded up-country on leave of absence pending sanction to proceed to South Africa for duty with the Mounted Infantry.

He was a most capable and promising Officer, and his early death must be a distinct loss to the Regiment to which he belonged, and to the service in general.

Mr. A. Bultz, Customs Master of Vanga, died on Monday morning the 14th instant at Mombasa in his 60th year.

NOTES.

It is understood that Baron Bronsart von Sheblendorff has been very succesful in capturing and training Zebras in the vicinity of Kilimanjaro. These animals, it appers, are strong in chest, powerful of muscle, and their immunity from the tsetse fly will doubtless render them a valuable acquisition in the labour market or this country especially, and possibly in that of others. It transpires from the Baron's experiments that he finds himself able to tame and break in Zebra within a period of 9 months at a price of from Rs. 200 to Rs. 600 according to the points of the animal and degree of training required by the purchaser.

ZEBRAS.

The Baron Bronsart von Sheblendorff's experiments in capturing and taming wild Zebra having proved a success he is now in a position to supply these animals at rates as quoted below, within nine months of the receipt of orders. The Zebra is quite tamable, has an extremely powerful chest with full muscular development and strong leathers; above all it is immune to the tse-tse fly and epidemics generally; in character it much resembles that of the horse, which varies according to the individuals.

Prices, according to points, character, age, sex and degree of training, as follows:

Tamed Zebras, but not broken in	Rs. 200 to 300
Zebras tamed and broken in as per order	„ 400 to 600

Photographs taken at "Trakehnen," Zebra breeding farm near Mbuguni (Kilimanjaro) can be viewed on demand.
