GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1382

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE No. 17 OF 1976

Parties:—

Kenya Game Hunting and Safari Workers' Union
and

E.A. Professional Hunters Association

Issue in dispute.—Gratuity for past services.

1. The Kenya Game Hunting and Safari Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the E.A. Professional Hunters' Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 20th day of April, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 11th December, 1975, was received by the Court on 8th March, 1976, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The parties concluded and signed a collective agreement on 9th October, 1975, and by agreement left out one item "gratuity for past services" to be resolved by the Industrial Court. The parties, however, are not agreed as to the type of employees in respect of whom this gratuity is being demanded.

The Claimants have demanded on the issue in dispute as follows:—

1. Gratuity for past services in respect of all permanent employees before the National Social Security Fund (hereinafter referred to as N.S.S.F.) commenced.
2. The gratuity for all seasonal employees and to use the Claimants' own words "who were not deducted N.S.S.F. and were worth for such N.S.S.F. after it was found up to now".
3. The gratuity has to be worked out at the rate of 22 days' pay for every completed year of service.

The Claimants stated that if their demands were not met a dangerous situation would be created in the hunting industry. They stressed that the seasonal employees when not engaged on safari went home and came back and worked for the same hunter during the next safari. There was no reason why they should not be considered to be in continuous service of such employers.

The Respondents have resisted this demand on the ground that the issue in dispute as reported by the Claimants to the Minister for Labour was gratuity for seasonal employees who were not covered by the N.S.S.F. and who were not casual employees. They strongly maintained that the issue in dispute did not cover permanent employees.

They pointed out that they engaged a considerable number of seasonal employees who are employed for each specific safari and they may be employed for anything between six and eight months in any one year dependent on the length of the season. There is therefore no guarantee of permanent employment.

The Respondents also referred the Court to its award in Cause No. 39/73 when the Court had rejected a similar demand by the Claimants and since the circumstances had not altered they asked the Court to adhere to its previous decision.

The Court finds that there was some confusion as to what the issue in dispute really was which confusion was compounded by the fact that the Respondents at one stage had taken the initiative of reporting a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour on the three issues of wages, house allowance and effective date. It is also true that the Claimants' General Secretary on 1st October, 1975, reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour as stated by the Respondents. The fact, however, remains that the Notification of Dispute Form "A" clearly states the issue in dispute as set out hereinabove which does not restrict it to either permanent employees or seasonal employees or casual employees for that matter.

The Court has in the past pointed out that the Notification of Dispute Form "A" is a very important document in the Industrial Court proceedings because the Court derives its jurisdiction from what is stated therein by the parties in it. Any deviation from what is stated therein could easily lead the Court to exceeding its jurisdiction. Such a situation would indeed be fatal to the proceedings.

By the consent of the parties the Court called for the conciliator's file in order to ascertain what the issue in dispute was. The conciliator recorded the following three paragraphs in his report to the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour:—

"Mr. Ndolo of the Union submitted that all employees whether seasonal workers or permanent are entitled for gratuity for past services. He said that some seasonal workers have been employed for even more than 15 years. The seasonal period is sometimes between five and seven months every year. In this connexion, Mr. Ndolo maintained that seasonal workers were eligible for gratuity for past services.

Mr. Richmond on behalf of the Association submitted that he agreed gratuity for past services in respect of permanent employees but refused to agree for seasonal workers. He said that seasonal workers did not work continuously and were not eligible for past services.

As Mr. Ndolo nor Mr. Richmond could change their minds I recorded deadlock and that is why you see the Form "A" sent to you for the dispute to be referred to Industrial Court."

The above remarks by the conciliator coupled with the manner in which the issue has been framed and worded leave no doubt in the Court's mind that the Claimants are seeking gratuity at the rate of 22 days' pay for every completed year of service up to the commencement of the National Social Security Fund in 1966 both in respect of permanent and seasonal employees.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards that seasonal employees are not entitled to any gratuity and the Court accordingly rejects the Claimants' demand in respect of them.

The Court, however, awards that all permanent employees shall be entitled to a gratuity of 15 days' pay for each completed year of service to be based on the employee's salary at the time of the commencement of the N.S.S.F. The effective date for the purposes of working out the benefits under this scheme shall be the employment date of the permanent employees up to the commencement of the N.S.S.F. in 1966. The Court further rules that an employee who resigns or is dismissed summarily for an established lawful cause shall not be entitled to a gratuity.

Given in Nairobi this 28th day of April, 1976.

SAEED R. COCKAR,
Judge.

T. OKELO ODONGO,
Deputy to the Judge.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1383

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
