the extent in which the values and principles referred to in Article 10 and 232 of the Constitution of Kenya are complied with within the public service of County Government of Siaya.

Article 10 And Article 232 of the Constitution of Kenya

Article 10 of the Constitution of Kenya 2010, provides for National Values and Principles of Governance which binds all state organs, state officers, public officers and all persons whenever any of them applies or interprets this Constitution, enacts, applies or interprets any law, or makes or implements Public Policy decisions.

National Values and Principles of Governance.

- (a) Patriotism, National Unity, sharing and devolution of power, the rule of the law, democracy and participation of the people.
- (b) Human dignity, Equity, Social Justice, inclusiveness, Equality, Human Rights, Non discrimination and protection of the marginalized.
- (c) Good Governance, Integrity, Transparency and Accountability
- (d) Sustainable Development.

The Siaya County Public Service Board has carried out its statutory duties bearing in mind and applying the tenets of Article 10 of the Constitution of Kenya.

The Board has promoted and continues to promote, in the County Public Service of Siaya County Government, the Values and Principles in Article 10.

Application of Values and Principles in Article 10

Considerations in appointment have been based in balancing the successful applicants according to the Sub- County, Persons with Disabilities, Special Interest, Ward, County of origin and Gender. This application ensures distribution of persons appointed in all areas in and out of Siaya County and staffing devolved functions.

Appointment of persons outside Siaya County is in the spirit of patriotism and enhancing National Cohesion. The rule of law and democracy is demonstrated by advertisement of vacant positions in an open manner and in the widely read Daily Local Newspapers in accordance to section (66) of the County Government Act of 2012.

The Board balances appointments according to Values and Principles as enshrined in Articles 10 and 232 of the Constitution of Kenya 2010. This ensures Equity, Social Justice, inclusiveness, equality, Human Rights, Non-Discrimination and Protection of the Marginalized.

The Board strives to instill the Values and Principles of good governance during interviews. Candidates and County employees are reminded of Integrity, Transparency and Accountability issues.

It was once again noted during the year in review (2015) that; majority of the candidates who were interviewed were not aware of the existence of the Legal framework on Leadership and Integrity in Kenya.

Siaya County Public Service Board Strategic Plan, (which has been drafted with the Values and Principles in mind) which was scheduled for launch in February, 2015 still remains on course. A copy of the same can be found on the Boards Website (www.cpsb.siaya.go.ke).

Article 232 of the Constitution start on 11th December, 2012

Article 232 provides for values and principles of Public Service. It requires high standard of professional ethics, efficient, effective and economic use of resources, and responsive, prompt, effective impartial and equitable provision of services.

Any other requirements, fair competition and merit as the basis of appointment and promotions. Representation of Kenyans diverse communities, affording equal opportunity for appointment, training and advancement, at all levels of the Public Service of men and women, the members of ethnic group and persons with disabilities.

Board members are professionals in various disciplines and maintain high standards of professional ethics, efficiency, effective and economic use of resources. They share offices with Secretariat Staff; they share official vehicles and report to work in time to perform their duties at Bondo, Ardhi House or at the Six Sub- County Headquarters of Alego- Usonga, Bondo, Gem, Rarieda, Ugenya and Ugunja.

The Board provides services in a responsive, prompt, effective, impartial and equitable manner. At times the Board works overtime.

It conducted interviews of over one thousand applicants at the Six Sub -County Headquarters within the schedule.

Interviewees are requested to make comments after conclusion of the formal interview; the comments are about 99% favorable on the chance given, no harassment, fair competition and merit. Balancing of successful Candidates on gender, other ethnic groups and persons with disability is ensured before appointments. The Board affords adequate and equal opportunities for appointment, training and advancement at all levels of the public service of Siaya County Government, of Men, Women, Youth, Members of all ethnic groups representing Kenya's diverse Communities and Persons with disabilities.

The standard of education and academic qualification in Siaya County is high enough to attract qualified candidates within the County.

The many highly qualified County residents outdo the applicants from outside the County on a ratio of 8:2. Competition is high and the Board considers fair competition and merit as the basis of Appointments and Promotions. The Board abides by the relevant Legislation, Rules and Regulations while providing timely, efficient and effective service to the public.

In its third year of operations, 2015, the Board appointed a total of 379 Human Resources in various offices as outlined in the following tables and graphs:

*Challenges of Article 10 and 232 of the Constitution of Kenya
Gender Balance*

The Drafters of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010 could not have foreseen that gender imbalance is a natural phenomenon that can be improved upon but not enforced in all cases. Males and Females excel in different professional skills and capacities.

An example, fewer women applicants are Accountants registered by Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Kenya (ICPAK) than men, therefore more men will be shortlisted.

On the reverse, few men Applicants have Diploma in Secretarial work.

Requirement on gender parity is carried forward to other common cadre and middle management to address such imbalances. Academic standards as per the skills required for a job may not be lowered to favour any gender as this would be discriminatory.

Appointment of Women.

Ascertaining domicile for women applicants and interviewees is a challenge.

This is as a result of failure by the women to formalize their marital status and fear to state their domicile according to their areas of marriage due to apprehension on consideration for selection.

The Board however, continues to clarify at all levels during the Recruitment and Selection exercise that Siaya County is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Regional Balancing

The Board endeavors to balance Applicants on regional basis i.e. Sub-counties, Wards and Non-Dominant Communities.

The Board also works within the standards and requirements of National Cohesion and Integration Commission by forwarding regular reports

Non- Dominant Community

Siaya County is not largely cosmopolitan.

Applicants from other Counties applying for vacancies in Siaya are few and are from mainly Western, Rift Valley and Kisii County.

The requirement for Dominant Ethnic Group is 70% and non-Dominant Ethnic Group is 30% according to section 65 (1) (e) of the County Governments Act, No.17 of 2012.

This requirement still remains a challenge.

As at December, 2015 the total number of new Employees is 379. 351 are from the Dominant Ethnic Group while 28 are from Non-Dominant Ethnic Group at 92.6 % and 7.4 % respectively.

Political Environment

The political environment contributes to a reasonable extent towards the dismal numbers of applications by Non-Dominant Ethnic Community.

The Board has embarked on intensive sensitization and Educational initiatives to assure the Non- Dominant communities on their welfare, security (including their families) while offering services within Siaya County.

The County of Choice

The Board is determined to work with the Executive and the Assembly in ensuring conducive work environment and infrastructure to make Siaya County a County of Choice.

Persons with Disability

Few people with disabilities have applied for vacancies in the Siaya County Government. In letters of application they do not mention the disability or registration with PLWD-(Persons living with Disability).

There are vacancies such as Drivers or Ward Administrators that require physical presence or para- military training or strenuous work that persons with disabilities may find difficult to perform depending on the nature of disability.

The Board appointed more persons with disability during the year under review. Examples are: - Ward Administrator, Livestock Extension Officer and Chief Officer Roads Public Works and Infrastructure. The Board anticipates appointing more persons living with disability in the year 2016.

Such appointed Human Resource will be assigned duties favorable to their conditions.

Inadequate Funding

The Board experiences Financial challenges with cash flow. There is budgetary constraints because the Board is clustered under the Executive. This subjects the Board to the feeling of the Executive when it comes to amount of cash remitted to the Board.

Financial requisition is also done on a monthly basis leading to challenges especially when large amounts are required for certain activities. For instance, when 7million is required for purchase of a vehicle and only 4million shillings is remitted.

Fleet Availability

Availability of adequate means of transport was a major challenge at the beginning of the year when the Board had only one vehicle which was under the use of the Chairman. The Board has since purchased two more vehicles to facilitate its activities.

Office Space

The Board offices are currently located at Ardhi House Bondo, The Board is accommodated in the premise on tenancy basis. This poses the following challenges.

- Commuter and shuttle difficulties to and from the County Headquarters.
- Inadequate office space and Board rooms to host both the Board members and the Board Secretariat.
- Lack of security, particularly for documents, information and assets.

The Board, in mitigation, applied for development funds to complete a block that was under construction by the former Bondo Town Council.

Workplan to Formulate and Promote Values and Principles.

The Board has in its Work Plan the launching of the Siaya County Public Service Board Strategic Plan 2014/2018, Siaya County Public Service Board Service Charter, Siaya County Human Resource Manual/Code of Regulations and the Siaya County Public Service Board Bill, in 2016 to ensure sustainable development and continuity of good governance in the implementation of its statutory functions and powers, also the tenets of Article 10 and 232 of the Constitution. It will involve the people in the process of Policy making, discussion of Strategic Plan 2014- 2018, and the Siaya County Public Service Board Bill.

The Board has plans to exercise its powers under Section 59 (i) of the County Governments Act to inform and educate the Siaya County Public Service Officers and the Public about the values and principles and to recommend to the County Government of Siaya effective measures to promote the values and principles.

The Board will assist the County in the formulation and implementation of programmes intended to inculcate in the Public Officers the duty to uphold the values and principles. It will assess the status of compliance with the values and principles and hear complaints on the same and recommend actions to be taken on issues raised.

It will visit the various work stations at the Sub-County, Ward and Village levels to ensure that values and principles in Articles 10 and 232 of the Constitution of Kenya 2010 are entrenched in the Siaya County Government. The Board will also sensitize Siaya County residents on the National Values and Principles of Governance.

The Board will equally seek Partnership, networking and exchange programmes locally and Internationally in its quest to cover a wider margin in the promotion of values and principles in 2016 (its fourth year of existence).

Conclusion

The Board remains committed to delivering on its mandate as per the Constitution of Kenya, 2010, The County Government Acts, 2012 and all relevant legislation to ensure efficient and effective service delivery to the residents of Siaya County and all the stakeholders.

CS WILLIAM LUBALLO,

CEO/Secretary,

THE ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT AND
CO-ORDINATION ACT

(No. 8 of 1999)

THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT STUDY REPORT
FOR THE PROPOSED MALINDI SOLAR POWER PLANT
(40MW) IN WERU GROUP RANCH NO.19 IN LANGO BAYA
LOCATION, MALINDI DISTRICT IN KILIFI COUNTY

INVITATION OF PUBLIC COMMENTS

PURSUANT to regulation 21 of the Environmental Management and Co-ordination (Impact Assessment and Audit) Regulations, 2003, the National Environment Management Authority (NEMA) has received an Environmental Impact Assessment Study Report for the above proposed project.

The proponent, Malindi Solar Group Limited, is proposing to construct a 40 MW Solar PV power plant in Malindi District, Kilifi County. The site is approximately 125 km northeast of the City of Mombasa and 40km west of the centre of Malindi town along Malindi – Kakoeni – Lango Bara road (C103) and 20 Km from KETRACO 220 kV substation at Kakuyuni.

The following are the anticipated impacts and proposed mitigation measures:

Possible Impacts	Mitigation measures
Impacts on flora, fauna, avifauna, habitat loss destruction, disturbance and displacement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clearing vegetation only in construction areas and demarcating areas where no clearing will happen. • Rehabilitation or ecological restoration during and after the construction phase will be undertaken with locally indigenous plants. • Maintaining of re-vegetated areas after rehabilitation has taken place. • Ensure that all human movement and activities are contained within designated construction areas in order to prevent peripheral impacts on surrounding natural habitat. • Vehicles coming into the site must use designated roads. • The wet area next to the panels will be fenced to prevent any disturbance on the fauna within the shallow water pan. • Educate all contractors as to the importance of the avifauna on the site and the importance of avoiding disturbance to it as far as possible. • Implement tree planting program within the farm to offset any loss of trees.
Noise impact	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Using mechanical equipment with noise suppressing technologies in order to reduce the noise-rating as much as possible. • Install portable barriers to shield compressors and other small stationary equipment where necessary. • Providing workers with PPEs against noise. • Control earthworks. • Install drainage structures properly e.g. ear plugs. • Placing signs around the site to notify people about the noisy conditions. • Regular maintenance of equipment to ensure they remain efficient and effective. • Construction and decommissioning should be carried out only during the specified time which is usually from 0800hrs to 1700 hrs, where permissible levels of noise are high and acceptable.

- There should not be unnecessary honning of the involved machinery.
- Drivers to adhere to speed limits within the project site access roads and vicinity.
- Construction of sound proof walls round the sub-station to reduce on the impacts of noise to the surrounding environment, through a plastic fence or phonic barrier if necessary.
- Restricting of vegetation soil cover to those areas necessary for the project development.
- Sprinkling water on the soil to prevent dust from rising.
- Creating specific paths for the trucks.
- Ensuring there is enough space for normal percolation of water.
- Landscaping.
- The disturbed areas should be rehabilitated with indigenous vegetation as soon as possible to prevent soil erosion if it was necessary.
- Proper installation and configuration of drainage structures to ensure their efficiency.
- During construction, the design (of the drainage systems) should ensure that surface flow is drained suitably in to the public drains provided to control flooding within the site.
- The channels should be designed with regard to the peak volumes such as periods or seasons when there is high intensity of rainfall in case such an event occurs.
- They should never at any time be full due to the resulting heavy down pours.
- The drainage channels should ensure the safe final disposal of runoff/surface water and should be self-cleaning which means it should have suitable gradient.
- Soil stockpiles should be protected from wind or water erosion through placement, vegetation or appropriate covering if it was necessary.
- Proper drainage control such as culverts, cut off trenches should be used to ensure proper management of surface water runoff to prevent soil erosion.
- Cleared or disturbed areas should be rehabilitated with indigenous vegetation as soon as possible to prevent erosion and loss of biodiversity if it was necessary.
- Fuel, oil and used oil storage areas should have appropriate secondary containment (i.e. bunds) to prevent underground water contamination.
- Vehicles and machine will be properly surfaced and well maintained to reduce risk of potential oil and fuel spills and leakages.
- Sprinkling water on soil before an excavation and periodically when operations are under way to prevent raising of dust.
- Spray stock piles of earth with water.

Loss of top soil, soil compaction and soil erosion

Impact on surface and ground water

Air quality (dust and vehicle emission)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Avoid pouring dust materials from elevated areas to ground. • Cover all trucks hauling soil, sand and other loose materials. • Sensitize construction workers. • Provide dust masks for the personnel in dust generation areas. • Regular maintenance and services of machines and engines. • Controlling the speed and operation of construction vehicles. • Use clean fuels e.g. Unleaded and de-sulphurized fuels if clean fuel is available. • Vehicle idling time shall be minimized • Alternatively fuelled construction equipment shall be used where feasible. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensuring all potential hazards such as movable machine parts are labeled. • Rising awareness and educating workers on risks from equipment and ensuring they receive adequate training on the use of the equipment. • Providing the workers with adequate PPEs and monitoring regulatory to ensure they are replaced on time when they wear out. • Placing visible and readable signs around where there are risks. • Providing firefighting equipments and creating safe and adequate fire and emergency assembly points and making sure that they are well labeled. • Providing firefighting equipments and in easily accessible areas as well as ensuring site personnel are well trained to use them as well as maintaining them regularly. • Labeling chemicals and material according to the risks they possess. • Creating safe and adequate fire and emergency assembly points and making sure they are well labeled. • Ensure dustbin cubicles are protected from animals, rains and are well covered • Proper treatment of waste water. • The proponent should ensure that the project site is properly fenced as well as employ guards to prevent children from tampering with the heavy machinery.
Traffic impact	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Placing signs around the site notifying other vehicles about the other traffic and to set the speed limit around the site. • Ensuring all drivers for the project comply to speed regulations. • Making sure the construction doesn't occupy the road reserves and complying to traffic and land demarcation obligation. • A grievance procedure will be established where by any complaints by the project's neighbors are recorded and responded to.
