Wrongful Dismissal of J. A. Awero and H. Z. Maneya.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Kenya Post Office Savings Bank shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 16th and 18th January, 1989, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The hearing date could not be fixed earlier because the respondents did not have all the documents available as they were lying at C.I.D. offices.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 9th July, 1987, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 1st December, 1987, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister for Labour.

Awero was first employed by the respondents as a casual in July 1983, and subsequently confirmed into permanent terms of employment on 2nd September, 1984.

The second grievant in this dispute, Maneya, was employed by the respondents on 1st November, 1980 as a clerical officer. The grievants services were terminated on 2nd September, 1985. Awero had served the respondents for nearly two (2) years and Maneya had served for nearly five (5) years.

The events which led to the grievants' services being terminated span over a period starting from April 1984.

Awero's services were terminated on allegations that the respondents had lost faith in him and on account of being an untrustworthy employee. While Maneya's employment was terminated allegedly for being involved in fraudulent operations in respect of customers' accounts and the respondents having lost faith in him as well.

The court notes that the respondents have a code of ethics for their employees due to the sensitive nature of their business. The code requires the staff among other things to be of high integrity and their character beyond reproach and impeachable. The court finds that the grievants did not live up to the standard required of them in a banking institution.

After careful consideration of the parties submissions the court agrees with the Ministry's findings that the respondents could not retain in employment employees who were not strictly observing the Bank's code of ethics. The court can find no reason why it should interfere in the management decision to terminate the services of the two grievants. Under the circumstances of this dispute the respondents were entitled to lose faith in the grievants and were also justified in terminating their employment which incidentally gave them their full terminal benefits.

The claimants' demand for their reinstatement and compensation are rejected.

Given on 20th March, 1989.

SAEED R. COCKAR,
Judge.

A. K. KERICH,
Members.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1716

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
