GAZETTE NOTICE No. 867

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 60 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Management Staff Association
and Faif Management Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful termination of services of Oluoch, Miduda.

1. The Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Faif Management Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 17th March, 1982, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 4th May, 1981, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 23rd November together with the statutory certificate signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mr. Miduda started working for the Respondents on 16th March, 1979, as an assistant accountant at a monthly salary of Sh. 2,500. On 18th July, 1979, he was confirmed in this position and given an increment of Sh. 200 p.m.

On 17th April, 1980, his services were terminated vide the following letter:

"Further to our discussion of today this is to confirm that your services have been terminated with effect from today and you will be paid terminal dues as follows:

Salary up to and including today.

One month's salary in lieu of notice.

Salary for leave earned to-date."

The Claimants took up the matter on his behalf and reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour and an investigation was carried out by the Ministry whose findings and recommendation were conveyed to the parties on 23rd April, 1981. The findings in part read as follows:

"That in effect meant the end of the unsatisfactory record as for Mr. Miduda and the management could not in future use unsatisfactory element as a dismissal supportive fact. Therefore the claim that his work was unsatisfactory is contradicted by this fact. Even if it were a redundancy the procedures had not been properly followed. As the company had sister firms it appears quite strange that they could not get a place for him if they really intended to do so.

Towards the end of March 1980, the personnel manager, Mr. Mukhule approached Mr. Miduda telling him to resign so that his record could remain clean whereas Mr. Miduda's record was not bad. It appears as if there was a deliberate move to remove Mr. Miduda from service. After careful consideration of the above facts I find that Mr. Miduda was wrongfully terminated."

The Ministry recommended that Mr. Miduda should be paid all his terminal benefits plus three months' salary as compensation for the wrongful termination.

The Respondents rejected these and the Court is satisfied that despite the Claimants' efforts to get this matter settled earlier, due to the negative attitude of the Respondents the finalization of this dispute was so much delayed that the Notification of Dispute Form "A" was received by the Court on 23rd November, 1981. The Court fixed the hearing for 2nd and 3rd March which was then altered to 17th and 18th of the same month. In the Respondents' written submission they have pleaded that they were now prepared to pay Mr. Miduda the following amount in accordance with the Ministry's recommendation:

	Sh.
"1 month's salary in lieu of notice .. ..	2,700
17 days worked during April 1980 .. ..	1,530
17 days leave entitlement .. ..	1,530
3 months compensation for wrongful termination .. ..	8,100
	13,860"

The Claimants severely criticized the the Respondents for this attitude because they pointed out that when the Ministry's report came out they the Claimants had accepted it and the matter could have been settled there and then but the Respondents had rejected the Ministry's findings and had dragged their feet and delayed the final settlement for nearly two years. In these circumstances the Court agrees with the Claimants that they were now not bound by their earlier acceptance of the Ministry's recommendation. The Claimants have asked the Court to award Mr. Miduda's reinstatement because he has been out of employment all this time as he could not secure any other employment because of this pending dispute with the Respondents. Wherever he went for a job he was told that he could not be employed because of his pending dispute with the Respondents.

The Respondents after listening to the Claimants' submission stated that over 50 employees of one of their firms, Autotrim Ltd., had to be declared redundant and it was through sheer oversight that Mr. Miduda's name was not submitted to the Minister for Labour for his approval on the redundancies because he was part of the management. They pleaded that they had committed a technical error and that they had brought with them the cheque for the amount that they had offered to pay him.

The Court has carefully considered this matter and finds that the Respondents' attitude in this whole dispute showed a complete disregard to this particular senior worker's welfare and future employment prospects. They just kept him in suspense all this time with the result that he has really suffered great hardship. The Court was told that he had five wives and 20 children and he had to come all the way from Kisumu for a couple of meetings in the past which were held at the Ministry's level in order to settle the dispute. If it was the intention of the Respondents to settle the dispute in line with the Ministry's recommendation then they should have done so at that time, i.e. on 23rd April, 1981. The Court feels that although the Claimants may not be justified in asking for his reinstatement because of the redundancy aspect that was in play at the material time they certainly are entitled to press for compensation in excess of the Ministry's recommendation. The Court finds this dispute to be most unfortunate and the Court is not at all happy with the Respondents' conduct. As it is, the Respondents have admitted before the Court that Mr. Miduda has suffered a wrongful dismissal and it is now only the relief sought by him on which the Court has to give its decision. After careful consideration of all submissions the Court awards that the Respondents should pay Mr. Miduda eight months' salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal that he has suffered. Accordingly the Court awards that Mr. Miduda should be paid the following by the Respondents:

	Sh.
1 month's salary in lieu of notice .. ..	2,700
17 days worked in April 1980 .. ..	1,530
21 days' leave entitlement .. ..	1,890
8 months compensation for wrongful dismissal	21,600
	27,720

The Court directs that the Respondents should pay this amount less tax deductions to Mr. Miduda without any further delay.

Given in Nairobi the 30th March, 1982.

Judge.

A. K. ARAP KERICH,
G. M. OMOLO,

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

If any rates remain unpaid after the 30th June, 1982, interest at the rate of one per centum per month or part thereof will be payable to the city council on the amount unpaid.

That the rates are a debt to the City Council of Nairobi and whilst every effort shall be made to deliver a demand note to every rateable owner of the property, failure to receive the same will not be held to absolve the debtor from any liability or penalty for rates remaining unpaid after 30th June, 1982.

REMISSION OF RATES, 1982

Prior to 1965, the City Council of Nairobi gave remission on certain classes of property.

Due to changes in legislation, the majority of these received automatic relief from 1965. This relief was continued in 1966, and will be continued for the life of the current valuation roll, provided the use of the property does not change during this time. Application for remission may, however, still be made for properties which received remission prior to 1965, but did not obtain relief in 1965 or 1966, under the amended legislation. Forms of application may be obtained from City Treasurer's office, City Hall, during normal office hours and must be returned before 30th June, 1982. Applications received after this date will not be considered. Those who have already applied need not apply again.

Dated the 23rd March, 1982.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
