THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 55 OF 1985

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and

African Retail Traders (K) Limited

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Moses Atuti

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and African Retail Traders (K) Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 15th January and 15th May, 1986, and relied on their verbal and written submissions. The claimants called Moses Atuti and the respondents called Nicholas Shitemi as their witnesses.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 24th July, 1984, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 14th June, 1985 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Three respondents are a firm engaged in retail trade business and have branches all over the country. This dispute arose from their branch at Kitale where the grievant was stationed. It is alleged that on 1st August, 1982, the grievant, Moses Atuti, and a workmate Mr. Akidiva, went to the respondents' shop in the morning where they used to work but left after learning that there was some trouble that day. On the following morning, 2nd August, 1982, it was discovered that some KSh. 23,160 was missing from the safe. Moses Atuti and Mr. Akidiva were implicated in this theft and as a result, the grievant was dismissed.

The claimants told the court that the alleged theft of KSh. 23,160 was reported to the police, the matter was investigated and both Moses Atuti and Mr. Akidiva were arrested and later taken before a criminal court at Kitale. The claimants stated that Mr. Akidiva, who had the keys to the safe, stated in the criminal court that he took the money to his house but it was stolen during the night by a woman who shared a bed with him. Mr. Akidiva was jailed for the theft but their member Moses Atuti was acquitted. The claimants went on to state that notwithstanding the acquittal of their member by the criminal court, the respondents dismissed him and confiscated his security account amounting to KSh. 12,700. The claimants prayed the court to re-instate the grievant and order the respondents to refund the security money which the respondents had confiscated.

Giving evidence in court, the grievant, Moses Atuti, stated that on 31st July, 1982, he worked up to noon then went home as he was feeling unwell due to overwork. On the morning of 1st August, 1982, he learnt of the trouble that day and he remained indoors still feeling unwell. On 2nd August, 1982, he reported for duty at 8 a.m. At about 11 a.m. a colleague, Nicholas Shitemi, asked him to make a cash summary but he did not make it as he was unwell. Another colleague Mr. Akidiva made the summary. Moses Atuti told the court that they were surprised when Mr. Akidiva went to the safe and found there was no money. He and his colleague, Nicholas Shitemi, reported the matter to the police. Moses Atuti told the court that he and Mr. Akidiva were arrested and put in remand for nine (9) days. Subsequently, the case against him was withdrawn and he was freed. While in remand he received a dismissal letter which stated that he was involved in the theft of the respondents' money. He reported the matter to his union and now the matter is before the court.

The respondents argued their case by telling the court that Moses Atuti went to the shop on the morning of 1st August, 1982 with his colleague, Mr. Akidiva. When they learned of the attempted coup, both locked the shop and went into a bar in town. They drank beer the whole day until late at night. The respondents' contention is that, Moses Atuti knew of the theft although he was not punished for it in the criminal court.

Giving evidence in court, the respondents' witness, Nicholas Shitemi, stated that at the time of the theft, he was stationed at Kitale with Moses Atuti, Messrs. Akidiva and Ochieng' who was the shop manager. On 1st August, 1982, after learning of the attempted coup, he remained indoors until he learnt things were back to normal when he went to a bar in the town for a beer. At this bar he found Moses Atuti and Mr. Akidiva drinking beer and he joined them. All of them drank heavily that day.

On 2nd August, 1982, he reported for duty at 8 a.m. and found Moses Atuti and Mr. Akidiva present. They all worked up to about 11 a.m. when he asked Moses Atuti to prepare cash summary so that the cash was taken to the bank in time, for deposit. Moses Atuti said he was unwell so he did not do it. At about 12 noon, he, Nicholas Shitemi, asked Mr. Akidiva to prepare the summary but when he opened the safe, he said there was no money. This witness stated that he reported the matter to the police station. While at the police station, Moses Atuti joined him there. After investigation, Mr. Akidiva and Moses Atuti were arrested by police. The case against Moses Atuti was withdrawn and he was set free. Mr. Akidiva was prosecuted for the theft and was jailed.

In this dispute the respondents' stand is that the grievant had knowledge of the theft. Reasons advanced by the respondents for this are that on the morning of 1st August, 1982, the grievant went to the shop with Mr. Akidiva, who later admitted in a criminal court to have stolen the money that morning and both of them were found drinking. Again, on 2nd August, 1982, the grievant refused to make a cash summary because he had known there was no money in the safe.

On the other hand, the claimants' contention is that their member was cleared by his colleague, Mr. Akidiva, who told the criminal court that he, Mr. Akidiva, took the money from the safe but that the money was later stolen from him by a woman who shared a bed with him that night, so the respondents' action of dismissing the grievant and confiscating his security amount of KSh. 12,700 to be unjustified.

After careful consideration of the parties' submissions, the court finds that Moses Atuti deserved dismissal but in view of the evidence given by Mr. Akidiva in the criminal court, it is obvious that Mr. Akidiva was the real culprit. Under these circumstances and in view of the fact that the criminal case against Mr. Atuti was withdrawn, the court awards that the respondents should refund Mr. Atuti the sum of KSh. 12,700 which money belongs to Mr. Atuti and which had accumulated in his security account.

The claimants' demands for his re-instatement and compensation are rejected.

Given on the 25th June, 1986.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2672

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 66 OF 1985

Parties:

Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers
and

Automac (K) Limited

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of nine members.

THE Amalgamated Union of Kenya Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Automac (K) Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 16th May, 1986, and relied on their verbal and written submissions.

AWARD

3. The dispute was referred to the Industrial Court by the Minister for Labour under section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act, on 6th June, 1985 together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents are a firm engaged in selling new vehicles and repairing vehicles in Embu town. The parties had recognition agreement since 1970 when the respondents were operating under the name of Dobie Mugo Limited. This operational name changed on 1st July, 1980 to Automac (Kenya) Limited. The new management took over everything including the services of the employees. The respondents were members of Motor Trade and Allied Industries Employers' Association until May 1983 when they resigned from the Association.

This dispute arose from a court award in Cause No. 89 of 1982 which was between the claimants and the Motor Trade and Allied Industries Employers' Association.

The claimants told the court that the respondents refused to implement the said court award. The shopsteward in the respondents' undertaking requested the respondents to implement the award several times but all in vain. In March 1983, the claimants took up the matter with the respondents who stated that they were unable to implement the award due to persistent poor trading results. The claimants stated that the respondents sought advice on how to avoid the implementation of the court award from the Employers' Association. A joint industrial council meeting was held in May 1983 and the parties found the implementation of the court awards to be mandatory, so the respondents were asked to implement the same. The claimants stated that immediately after this joint industrial council meeting, the respondents resigned from the Employers' Association.

The claimants went further and claimed that on 26th May, 1983, the respondents held a meeting with all employees and told them to resign from the claimants' membership or else be dismissed. The workers were given forms ready prepared for withdrawing from the union and they all signed except the shopsteward and eight others. The following day, 27th May, 1983, those who had refused to resign from the claimants' membership were given dismissal letters giving them different reasons for dismissals.

The claimants went on to state that after the workers had withdrawn from their membership the respondents addressed a letter to the claimants enclosing the resignation letters and advising the claimants that no further union dues would be sent to them and from thereon the respondents would not recognize the claimants anymore.

The claimants stated that a trade dispute was then reported to the Minister for Labour. Efforts by the ministry officials to put the parties together for talks were fruitless as the respondents refused to attend meetings. The claimants then forwarded the Notification of Dispute Form "A" to the Minister for onward transmission to the respondents to sign so that the dispute could be sent to the court. The respondents refused to sign and the Minister had to refer this dispute to the court himself.

The claimants prayed to the court to order the implementation of the award in Cause No. 89 of 1982 to all employees of the respondents and to re-instate the nine (9) who were wrongfully dismissed.

The respondents told the court that the claimants were trying to give the court wrong impression about the respondents when they accused them, the respondents, for failing to implement the court award. The respondents stated that they did not at any time refuse to implement the award, but they only needed time to adjust and implement due to financial difficulties.

On the dismissal of the nine (9) workers, the respondents stated that the nine (9) employees voluntarily agreed to be laid off and they were paid all their dues. The respondents told the court that at that time the respondents were in financial difficulties which led to the closure of their business.

The court has carefully considered submissions by the parties and finds that the respondents were anti-trade union in their attitude and that is why they pulled out of the Motor Trade and Allied Industries Employers' Association and forced their employees to withdraw from the claimants' membership. The court cannot accept that the respondents did not refuse to implement the court award in Cause 89 of 1982 because upto date they have not done so.

The court also finds the nine (9) grievants in this dispute to have been wrongfully dismissed after refusing to withdraw from the claimants' membership. The court awards that the respondents should implement the court award in Cause No. 89 of 1982 in three (3) months time from the date of this award in respect of all their employees who were in employment at the time and pay three (3) months' salary to each one of the nine (9) grievants as compensation for the wrongful dismissal that they have suffered.

The parties will be at liberty to seek the assistance of the Chief Industrial Relations Officer in getting this award implemented.

Given on the 27th June, 1986.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 68 OF 1985

Parties:

Kenya Engineering Workers' Union
and
Alliance Steel Works

Issue in dispute:

Termination of John Shivachi

THE Kenya Engineering Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Alliance Steel Works shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 8th May, 1986, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The claimants called John Shivachi and the respondents called Parmjeet Singh Bansal and Surinder Singh as their witnesses.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 27th November, 1984, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 1st July, 1985 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The grievant in this dispute was employed by the respondents in May 1979 as a fitter. He was the claimants' shopsteward in the respondents' undertaking. The claimants allege that their member was terminated because of trade union activities while the respondents allege that Mr. Shivachi disappeared from his place of work on 3rd August, 1983 after having refused to do some urgent work which he was assigned to do.

The claimants told the court that on 3rd August, 1983, the grievant who was a shopsteward, received his July salary of KSh. 941 instead of KSh. 954 which showed an underpayment of KSh. 13. Mr. Shivachi went to see his employers and requested to know the reasons regarding this underpayment. The claimants stated that the respondents were offended by Mr. Shivachi's demand, so they decided to dispense with his services. In order to justify Mr. Shivachi's termination, the respondents invented a story that Mr. Shivachi had refused to do an urgent work which was assigned to him, and that when asked why he had refused to do work, he, Mr. Shivachi, had used abusive language towards the managing director. The claimants stated that the managing director terminated his services verbally and refused to give a termination letter.

Giving evidence in court, Mr. Shivachi stated that on 3rd August, 1983, as a shopsteward, he went to see the managing director in connection with the dismissal of another worker as well as an underpayment of his, Mr. Shivachi's, July salary. Mr. Shivachi told the court that the respondents were paying union members less than non-union members. Mr. Shivachi stated that after telling the managing director the reasons for going to his office, the director told him to go away as he did not need him anymore. Mr. Shivachi said that he reported the matter to the claimants who took up the matter with the respondents but the respondents refused to reinstate him. Mr. Shivachi denied that he used abusive language to his superiors at all.

The respondents told the court that on 3rd August, 1983, Mr. Shivachi was assigned an urgent job to do by his foreman in the afternoon but he did not do it and remained idle the whole afternoon. On being asked why he did not do the work, Mr. Shivachi got worked up and started insulting and threatening the managing director. A watchman who was near there intervened. The director rang the police and reported the matter. The respondents stated that Mr. Shivachi disappeared and did not report back until after seven days when he returned with a union representative.

Giving evidence in court, P. S. Bansal stated that he was the respondents' foreman. On 3rd August, 1983 at 2 p.m., he gave Mr. Shivachi an urgent job to do. He returned to Mr. Shivachi at 3 p.m. just to find Mr. Shivachi had done nothing about it. On noticing that Mr. Shivachi had failed to do the work, he reported the matter to the managing director.

The managing director, Mr. Surinder Singh, gave evidence in court stating that on the day in question, his foreman, Mr. Bansal, reported to him that Mr. Shivachi had refused to do a job which had been assigned to him. Mr. Singh stated that at 4 p.m. that day, he went to Mr. Shivachi's place of work to find out why he had refused to do the urgent job. Mr. Shivachi complained that he was underpaid. Mr. Singh told Mr. Shivachi that he was going to look into the underpayment. Mr. Singh told the court that Mr. Shivachi picked a piece of pipe and threatened to hit him with it. At that time a watchman got hold of Mr. Shivachi and separated them. Mr. Shivachi told his director "You Asians will go back to India and eat chillies but I will remain here." Mr. Singh stated that he went back to the office and called the police. When the police arrived, Mr. Shivachi ran away. Mr. Shivachi returned to the factory after about seven days being accompanied by a union official and demanded his terminal dues.

After a careful consideration of the parties' submissions and the evidence by the witnesses, the court finds that Mr. Shivachi had some complaints to make but chose a wrong way of presenting his case when he threatened to use force and abusive language towards his employer.

The court is in agreement with the Ministry of Labour's finding and recommendation and finds that Mr. Shivachi deserved a normal termination and not a dismissal in this case. The court accordingly awards that the respondents should pay him all the dues arising out of normal termination.

The claimants demands for reinstatement and compensation are rejected.

CAUSE No. 106 OF 1985

Parties:

Kenya Engineering Workers' Union

East Africa Spectre Limited

Issue in dispute:

Redundancy of—

Martin Oduor; Peter Mbabo; Joseph Wambua; Jecton Onyore; Joseph Bwire; Jane Chebet; Jonathan Onyao; Martin Ouma; Benard Onyango; George Ndende and Amos Musa.

The Kenya Engineering Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and East Africa Spectre Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 28th April, 1986, and relied on their verbal and written submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 25th February, 1985, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 24th September, 1985 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents are manufacturers of gas cylinders. The claimants told the court that the respondents have a valid collective agreement with them, a document which lays down among other things, the procedure governing redundancy. The claimants further informed the court that there is legal requirement to be complied with in that when an employer wishes to declare or to effect redundancy in the event of deadlock, the employer is at liberty to report a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour.

The claimants continued to tell the court that the respondents had written to them informing them that they were going to declare thirty (30) employees redundant on 15th September, 1985, and they were immediately warned by the Ministry of Labour that if they went ahead and declared thirty employees redundant on 15th September, before obtaining the Minister's approval, they would have to continue paying them until such a clearance is obtained. The claimants further accused the respondents that despite the warning by the Ministry of Labour, they went ahead and declared eleven (11) employees redundant instead of thirty (30) they had earlier on indicated that they were going to declare redundant. The claimants ended their submissions by telling the court that they rejected the findings and recommendation by the Ministry of Labour and they requested the court to reinstate the employees in question and award that they be paid for all the period they have been out of employment to date.

The respondents told the court that their company manufactures gas cylinders on orders placed by the oil companies and production is restricted by these orders because when the oil companies place these orders they also release the sophisticated parts like valves and regulators to match the orders placed. Regarding the claimants' allegations of redundancy, the respondents told the court that sometimes in September 1983, the company had financial problems because of reduced orders for their gas cylinders by the oil companies and they were not able to meet their financial obligations and, therefore, they had to seek permission from the Minister for Labour to declare thirty (30) employees redundant. The respondents continued to tell the court that after a while, the business improved and the company abandoned its application of redundancy and the work continued as usual. The respondents denied very strongly the allegations by the claimants that they had declared eleven (11) employees redundant. The respondents adduced the following information in court to demolish the claimants allegations of redundancy regarding the eleven (11) employees:

- The respondents advanced their arguments further that among the eleven employees alleged by the claimants to have been declared redundant, four of them were still their employees and are working for them, and they are J. Onyore, Mr. Ouma, P. Mbabo and Mr. Ndende.
- The respondents further told the court that Mr. Oduor was among the eleven employees in question and he was jailed for theft and, therefore, the question of redundancy does not arise.
- The respondents also informed the court that the other six employees were taken on and off as casuals. They continued to tell the court that they were engaged on diverse days as casuals and they left the employment on their own accord on various dates and were not declared redundant as alleged by the claimants.

The respondents finally submitted that they accepted the findings and recommendation of the Ministry of Labour and they castigated the claimants for failing to do proper investigations on these issues and as far as they were concerned, there was no redundancy as alleged by the claimants and requested the court to reject the claimants' demands.

The court was dismayed because the claimants had nothing to present in court and had come unprepared. The court was of the opinion that the claimants had not done proper investigations and had brought a case before the court which is completely without substance and merit. The court had no evidence at all to take into account on the side of the claimants. On the other hand, the respondents had presented their submissions with facts and the court was satisfied with detailed information given by the respondents regarding the eleven employees purported by the claimants to have been declared redundant. Taking into account the information given by the respondents which is further corroborated by the findings of the Ministry of Labour, the court finds that there was no redundancy.

The court must say that this case was misconceived, uncalled for and unnecessary. The court has no alternative but to reject the claimants' demand in total.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 2676

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

The four applications appearing hereunder are proceeding in the name of VOEST-ALPINE AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT, a company organized and existing under the laws of Austria, manufacturers and merchants, of 5 Muldenstrasse, A-4020 Linz, Austria, and c/o Messrs. Hamilton Harrison & Mathews, advocates, P.O. Box 30333, Nairobi.

IN CLASS 11—SCHEDULE III

VOEST-ALPINE

IN CLASS 7—SCHEDULE III

VOEST-ALPINE

34259.—Machines and machine tools, motors (except for land vehicles), machine couplings and belting (except for land vehicles), large size agricultural implements, road rollers, turbines, cranes, parts of machines, and all other goods included in the class. To be associated with TMA. Nos. 34257, 34258 and 34260. 29th April, 1986.

IN CLASS 6—SCHEDULE III

VOEST-ALPINE

34260.—Unwrought and partly wrought common metals and their alloys and articles included in class 6 made therefrom, rolled and cast building materials, rails of common metal and metallic materials for railway tracks, chains (except driving chains for vehicles), cables and wires (non-electric), locksmiths work, metallic pipes and tubes, nails and screws, other goods non-precious metal not included in other classes. To be associated with TMA. Nos. 34257 to 34259. 29th April, 1986.

The two applications appearing hereunder are proceeding in the name of THE FIRESTONE TIRE & RUBBER COMPANY, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Ohio, manufacturers and merchants, of 1200 Firestone Parkway, Akron, State of Ohio 44317, United States of America, and c/o Messrs. Kaplan & Stratton, advocates, P.O. Box 40111, Nairobi.

BOTH IN CLASS 12—SCHEDULE III

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—Kenya Gazette

"D.14.(1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
