THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 70 OF 1976

Parties

Kenya Union of Commercial Food &amp; Allied Workers

and

Algemene Bank Nederland N.V.

Issue in dispute

Dismissal of Mr. Bernard Amollo.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Algemene Bank Nederland N.V. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 11th and 12th November, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Respondents also called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath—

Mr. R. S. Bakker,

Mr. J. Katete.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 4th August, 1976, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 17th September along with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mr. B. Amollo was employed by the Respondents on 27th January, 1972, as a clerk. His services were terminated vide the letter of dismissal dated 16th April, 1975, in which it was stated that he was dismissed with effect from 11th April, 1975, in accordance with the provisions of clause 4 (a) (1) of the collective agreement because he had misappropriated funds and/or property stamps belonging to the Respondents which the Respondents stated was an offence involving moral turpitude.

The loss of money by the Respondents to an extent of Sh. 39,182/40 was also investigated by the police as a result of which Mr. Amollo was charged in the Criminal Court in Nairobi, on 11th April, 1975, for the offence of stealing Sh. 14,400/90 the property of the Respondents.

On 30th June, 1975, a new charge with 17 counts were preferred against Mr. Amollo and on 28th August, 1975, after the prosecutor had made an application to the Resident Magistrate trying the case to withdraw it under section 87 (a) of Criminal Procedure Code the Court acquitted Mr. Amollo under section 210 of the Criminal Procedure Code and he was accordingly discharged and released from custody.

On 14th January, 1976, the Claimants reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour regarding the dismissal of Mr. Amollo and as a result the dispute was investigated by an official of the Ministry of Labour.

On 23rd June, 1976, the following findings and recommendations were forwarded by the Permanent Secretary to the parties—

"Findings"

The Union and the Management agreed that the clerk did not follow the laid down procedure which he was supposed to follow. He did not enter all purchases in the stock register immediately after their purchase. However, in passing, one is persuaded to believe that had the management frequently checked Mr. Amollo the losses incurred could have been minimized if not eliminated altogether.

That Mr. Amollo was acquitted would appear to have been due to legal technicalities which are not uncommon in Court of Law. Management acted administratively in dismissing Mr. Amollo, having regard to the evidence available to them.

From available evidence both parties are to blame. Mr. Amollo took advantage of the rather unsystematic administration of his department where he was his "own master". As for the bank, their laxity made them lose the money in question. However, all that does not exonerate Mr. Amollo.

Recommendation

Having considered all the above points, it is considered that the decision to dismiss Mr. Amollo was rather harsh and excessive. It is therefore strongly recommended that the dismissal be reduced to normal termination with full terminal benefits and this is also in consideration of Mr. Amollo's length of service."

The Claimants rejected the above recommendation but the Respondents while maintaining that Mr. Amollo was correctly dismissed stated that they were quite prepared to change the summary dismissal to termination as recommended by the Permanent Secretary and to pay Mr. Amollo one month's salary in lieu of notice as Mr. Amollo had already been paid all terminal benefits due to him. This dispute is now before the Court and the Claimants are seeking a reinstatement of Mr. Amollo without any loss of any rights and privileges as they maintained that he has been wrongfully dismissed.

It is not disputed that during the period Mr. Amollo started working for the Respondents his duties were to purchase revenue stamps used in the bank for stamping the appropriate documents like travellers cheques, sight drafts, etc. The Court was told that Mr. Amollo filled in the internal cash pay-out slips for the purpose of obtaining cash from the cashier in order to buy the number of stamps needed. These internal cash pay-out slips were signed by the officer in charge of the Foreign Bills Department under whom Mr. Amollo was working and in his absence by any other authorized officer of the bank, usually the Assistant Manager.

After the purchase of the stamps the number purchased were recorded in stock registers maintained separately for 10 cents and 20 cents stamps. Both these stock registers were produced during the hearing as were most of the internal cash pay-out slips during the relevant period. Another book was also produced in which a day to day record was kept of the number and value of stamps used in the bank.

The Court was told that all the stamps purchased were put in a box which box was nearer to the officer in charge of that section than Mr. Amollo.

The Respondents' case is that the total cash paid out during the period May, 1974, to March, 1975, for the purposes of buying revenue stamps was far in excess of the total used as per their records for that purpose. The following details were given by the Respondents:—

	Sh. cts.
"Total cash paid out during May, 1974, to December, 1974 ... ..	26,280 00
Total used ... ..	2,348 80
Amount unaccounted for ... ..	23,931 20
Total cash paid out during January, 1975, to March, 1975 ... ..	16,200 00
Total used ... ..	948 80
Amount unaccounted for ... ..	15,251 20
Total amount unaccounted for ... ..	39,182 40"

The Respondents admitted that they could not escape accepting that their management in this particular aspect in the bank had been most slack and that there was not adequate supervision and proper checking of this particular section.

They, however, maintained that poor supervision did not mean that an employee could be dishonest and help himself to his employer's money to which he was not entitled.

The Claimants put forward a submission that the burden of proof in the dispute was on the Respondents and that they had failed to prove that they had lost such a big amount due to the neglect or a criminal offence on the part of Mr. Amollo. In fact they maintained that there was no proper evidence to show that the bank had lost any money or that they were short of revenue stamps at any given time. They also suspected that Mr. Amollo had been made a scapegoat for the misdeeds of some other senior officers in the bank. Finally they relied very much on Mr. Amollo's acquittal and discharge in the criminal proceedings.

To begin with the Court must comment on certain aspects of this dispute which as far as the Respondents are concerned were most unsatisfactory. On their own admission there was in fact no supervision or proper checking of the transactions leading to the purchase and utilization of the revenue stamps at least not as regularly as can be expected in a banking institution. Further the two witnesses called by the Respondents did not help matters very much because Mr. Bakker while explaining certain aspects of the dispute appeared to be vague and uncertain on many crucial matters. The other witness, Mr. J. Katete, stated, much to the surprise of the Respondents themselves, that at one time from April, 1974, up to December, 1974, he was solely in charge of the purchasing and recording of the revenue stamps.

Had it not been for the documentary evidence which overwhelmingly proves that Mr. Amollo did draw many a time cash amounts from the bank for the purchase of revenue stamps which stamps were not entered in the stock registers kept for that purpose the Court would have been inclined to agree with the Claimants' submission that Mr. Amollo had been wrongfully dismissed.

It does not help the Claimants either in these proceedings if they adopt the stand which is so often done in criminal proceedings when the person involved in the proceedings is not called upon to give evidence on oath or to make a statement. Mr. Amollo was present in the Court all the time and yet the Claimants did not call upon him to give evidence on oath and to explain what he had done with the money which he had withdrawn from the cashier for the purchase of stamps as the amounts withdrawn as per internal cash pay-out slips produced during the hearing certainly do not tally with the amounts of the stamps purchased and entered in the stock registers.

The Court cannot accept the Claimants' submission that Mr. Amollo used to buy the stamps and put them in the box from where they could have been taken out by anyone. Even accepting the evidence of Mr. Katete on its face value the Court is still left with enough internal cash pay-out slips which have not been accounted for in the stock register after the purchase of the stamps during the period Mr. Amollo was in charge of this work.

The Court would like to point out to the parties to the Industrial Court proceedings that these proceedings are not criminal proceedings and as is common knowledge in these proceedings the Court has to come to a decision on balance unlike the criminal proceedings where the prosecution has to prove the guilt of the accused person beyond any reasonable doubt.

If Mr. Amollo had been called by the Claimants to give evidence on oath and if he had explained what he had done with the money that he had withdrawn from the cashier as per the internal cash pay-out slips then these proceedings might have ended differently.

The Court, while castigating the Respondents for the poor and slack management as stated above on the strength of the documentary evidence and after a careful consideration of all the other submissions has come to the conclusion that Mr. Amollo did deserve a termination.

The Court, however, finds that summary dismissal was indeed harsh in the circumstances and awards that Mr. Amollo's services should be deemed to have been terminated in the normal manner and he should be paid full terminal benefits and pay in lieu of notice due to him as per the collective agreement between the parties on a normal termination.

Given in Nairobi this 6th day of December, 1976.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3637

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
