GAZETTE NOTICE No. 281

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 59 OF 1981

Parties:

Printing & Kindred Trades Workers' Union of Kenya
and English Press

Issue in dispute:

Suspension/termination of J. Ahuto.

1. The Printing & Kindred Trades Workers' Union of Kenya shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and English Press shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 18th and 19th January, 1982, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oaths:

Claimants.—J. Ahuto.

Respondents.—P. Kamau.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour signed the reference of this dispute to the Industrial Court on 3rd November, 1981, in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act. The Court received the notification of dispute from the Minister with the relevant statutory certificates on 6th November.

J. Ahuto was employed by the present proprietors of the Respondents with effect from 1st May, 1971, but prior to that he had worked with the Respondents since some time in 1954. During all this time he was an office messenger and in November 1978 his salary was Sh. 720 p.m.

He was instrumental in securing a job with the Respondents for his son Saulo Ingara and this young man had worked for the Respondents for nearly four years up to November 1978.

On 18th November 1978, it is alleged that Mr. Ahuto was given money by the accounts clerk K. Odhiambo to deposit in the bank but instead of going himself he gave all the money and the respective books to his son. After sometime the son came back from the bank and placed the documents on the accounts clerk's table and left. On checking the books, etc., it was confirmed that cash amounting to Sh. 11,248.65 had not been deposited in the bank. Saulo Ingara, the son has not been seen since then.

On 21st November, 1978, the accountant, the accounts clerk Kenneth Odhiambo and Ahuto were taken to the Central Police Station. They were neither arrested nor charged. The dispute now is that the Respondents maintain that Ahuto deserted his employment in that he never reported back after going to the police station and the Claimants allege that when Ahuto tried to resume duty he was stopped by the Respondents from doing so who told him to go and find his son first.

The Claimants having taken up the matter on Mr. Ahuto's behalf reported a formal dispute to the Minister for Labour and investigation was carried out. The Ministry's findings and recommendation as conveyed to the parties on 27th August, 1979, were as follows:

"The management had no evidence to prove that Mr. Ahuto was involved in theft which his son is alleged to have done. Mr. Ahuto did not desert his work but was terminated on the basis that he could not trace his son. If the management had any evidence they would have involved the police straight away.

After a very careful consideration of the facts contained in this report it is recommended that Mr. Ahuto should be reinstated back on his job without loss of his benefits. Alternatively he should be paid six months wages as compensation in addition to his terminal benefits."

The Respondents rejected these and the Court is satisfied that for reasons best known to them they refused to sign the Notification of Dispute Form "A" for referring the dispute to the Industrial Court with the result that the Minister for Labour had to use his powers under section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act to refer this matter to the Court on 3rd November, 1981.

The Court must point out that during the hearing the Respondents referred to the two matters in particular with a view to drawing an inference that Mr. Ahuto had a hand in the disappearance of Sh. 11,248.65, these were that he had deposited Sh. 8,978.50 in the Post Office Savings Bank on 5th December, 1980, and that Saulo his son had been cultivating land back at home and that his father Ahuto knew his whereabouts and had refrained from reporting the matter to the authorities or to the Respondents.

The first point was easily disposed of against the Respondents when it was officially proved by the N.S.S.F. records that this amount of Sh. 8,978.50 was paid by the Fund to Mr. Ahuto, who had claimed that he was 55 at the time and the fund officers assessed and confirmed that to be his age.

The second point is that Mr. Ahuto knows the whereabouts of his son but in the absence of any concrete evidence to that effect the Court is not prepared to place any reliance on the mere allegation by the Respondents that Saulo Ingara had been cultivating his land back at home and that his wife had given birth to children as late as 1981, the third one having been born in 1980. There are so many possible explanations to this phenomenon which the Court need not go into but the important fact remains that if the Respondents are so sure of Ingara's whereabouts then why have they not reported this matter to the police and, or for that matter, why have the police in collaboration with the chief of that area not apprehended him? Mr. Ahuto while giving evidence stated that since his son's wife had no means of support she had left and gone back to her parents.

The Court has to determine if Mr. Ahuto was in any manner involved in the disappearance of this big amount of money for which the prime suspects are his son Ingara and the accounts clerk, Kenneth Odhiambo who surprisingly has also disappeared and has never been seen again after he was taken to the police station on 21st November, 1978.

The Respondents produced a statement written by Odhiambo in which he stated that he gave all the books and the money to Ahuto to take the money to the bank and that instead of himself going to the bank he gave the money and the books to his son Ingara. The Respondents' witness while giving evidence admitted that any of the three messengers could take the money to the bank and that it was not specifically the duty of Ahuto to do so every time. This statement taken together with the fact that Odhiambo has also disappeared along with Ingara casts a great doubt and suspicion on the statement of Odhiambo which was produced by the Respondents implicating Ahuto indirectly.

The Court is satisfied from the evidence before it, particularly in view of the letter dated 24th November, 1978, which was written by the Claimants' branch secretary to the Respondents pointing out that Ahuto has complained that he has been stopped from resuming his duty from 22nd November, 1978, by the Respondents and wanting the full details in writing of the incident and the reasons why Mr. Ahuto should not be allowed to resume work with full benefits that Mr. Ahuto did not desert his employment. To this letter the Respondents gave a most unsatisfactory reply which is set out herein below:

"We acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 24th November, 1978, regarding Ahuto who is involved in a theft by servant and he is still wanted by police."

The Court fails to understand how the Respondents can say that Ahuto had deserted his employment when there is such clear evidence that he was keen to resume his duties from 22nd November onwards but the Respondents themselves thinking that he was wanted by the police did not allow him to do so. As it turned out, the police did not charge him with any offence and he was not even arrested or detained. Regarding his possible involvement with his son Ingara and Odhiambo in the disappearance of Sh. 11,248.65 the Court finds it hard to believe that Ahuto could have had any hand in this affair. His son at that time was 26 years old, married with several children and living separately from his father. In these circumstances the Court finds it rather harsh that the Respondents should punish him for the sins of his son in the absence of any concrete evidence. The Court can appreciate the Respondents' whole attitude in this affair in that they suspected Ahuto and probably also told him "to go and get your son who has disappeared with our money" but on reflection the Respondents should have realized that the father who had worked for them since 1971 and for the previous employers since 1954 did not have anything to do with the disappearance of this money. For all these years he had been an honest employee. In fact Ahuto took the employer's representative twice on that day to son's house to look for him.

After careful consideration of all the submissions and the evidence the Court finds that the Respondents prevented Mr. Ahuto from resuming work on 22nd November, 1978, and have thus wrongfully dismissed him. The Court upholds the findings of the Ministry of Labour and awards that the Respondents should pay him six months' salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal he has suffered and in addition they should also pay him for any outstanding leave which he had earned up to 21st November, 1978.

Given in Nairobi the 29th January, 1982.

GAZETTE NOTICE (No. 282)

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claim all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

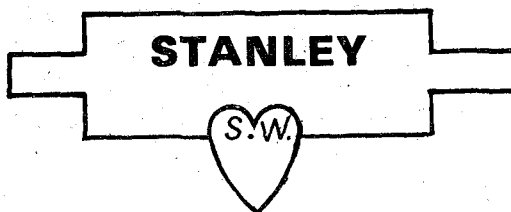

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
