GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 3436

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 39 OF 1966

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and
Kenya Meat Commission

Issue in dispute:—

Wages and salaries for—

(i) Clerks.

(ii) Artisans with Grade I Government Trade Test Certificates.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kenya Meat Commission shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 8th day of August 1966, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

3. The Parties appeared before the Industrial Court in Cause No. 4 of 1964 and the Court award in this Cause expired on 31st December 1965. The Claimants submitted their proposals for the revision of the existing wages and salaries and terms and conditions of the Respondents' workers on 6th January 1966. In the ensuing negotiations it was mutually agreed between the Parties to discuss the wages for manual workers separately from those of clerks and artisans with Grade I Government Trade Test Certificates. It had been accepted by the Parties that, the former category of workers were on straight rates for the jobs as laid down in the aforesaid Industrial Court award while the latter enjoyed incremental salary scales, again as laid down in the same Industrial Court award.

On 25th May 1966, agreement was reached on new wage rates for manual workers. This agreement provided as follows:—

1. (a) All the job rates as laid down in the Industrial Court Award dated 24th November 1964 (or as agreed since that date between the Parties to this Agreement) between Sh. 185 and Sh. 210 per month shall be increased by Sh. 27 per month.

(b) All the job rates as laid down in the Industrial Court Award dated 24th November 1964 (or as agreed since that date between the Parties to this Agreement) above Sh. 210 per month shall be increased by Sh. 25 per month.

Other Benefits

2. All other benefits shall remain at the existing level except that:—

Category A.—up to Sh. 300 p.m. shall be increased to Sh. 325 p.m.

Category B.—Sh. 301 to Sh. 700 p.m. shall be increased to Sh. 326 to Sh. 725 p.m.

Category C.—Sh. 701 to Sh. 1,200 p.m. shall be increased to Sh. 726 to Sh. 1,225 p.m.

Category D.—Sh. 1,201 p.m. shall be increased to Sh. 1,226 p.m.

Clerical Scales

3. The Commission will submit proposals for standard qualifications for entry into Clerical Grades to facilitate discussions on Clerical Scales.

Co-operation

4. The Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers undertake to co-operate with the Management of the Commission to ensure that the Commission's operations are carried out most efficiently.

Duration

This Agreement shall be effective from 1st March 1966, and will apply to basic salaries and overtime earnings from that date for a period of 12 months.

After the above agreement had been reached negotiations took place regarding salaries of clerks and artisans with Grade I Government Trade Test Certificates, but no agreement could be reached and the Parties decided to refer the matter to the Industrial Court by signing the notification of dispute form on 18th June 1966.

The present clerical grades for all areas as established by the Industrial Court in Cause No. 4 of 1964 are as follows:—

Grade "A": Sh. 300 by Sh. 30 to Sh. 450.

Grade "B": Sh. 500 by Sh. 30 to Sh. 620 (efficiency bar); Sh. 670 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 770.

Grade "C": Sh. 800 by Sh. 75 to Sh. 950 (efficiency bar); Sh. 1,025 by Sh. 75 to Sh. 1,250.

Grade "D": Sh. 1,300 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 1,500 (efficiency bar); Sh. 1,600 by Sh. 100 to Sh. 2,000.

Artisans with Grade I Government Trade Test Certificates were awarded Sh. 750 per month and thereafter these artisans progress at an increment of Sh. 50 per annum up to the limit of Sh. 1,150 per month; thereafter on obtaining the City and Guilds Certificate or an equivalent qualification, the salary of these artisans would rise to Sh. 1,500 per month.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANTS

4. (i) Clerks.—The Claimants submitted that, the entry points for the various clerical grades were extremely low, were not commensurate with the responsibilities held by the staff in these grades and did not compare favourably with those to be found in other comparable industries like the Uplands Bacon Factory, Banks and so on. The Claimants stated that, as the Court had deprived the clerks on the production side, of production bonus, they had suffered a drastic loss in their monthly remuneration and had not been adequately compensated by appropriate increase in their basic rates.

The Claimants contended that, the cost of living had gone up since 1964 by 4.8 points. Furthermore, a number of clerks were stagnating at the maximum of their grades due to lack of opportunities for promotion into higher grades.

The Claimants pointed out that, the Respondents were in agreement with them in doing away with efficiency bars as the system prescribed by the Court had not worked satisfactorily during the past two years due to the fact that the Respondents had ignored the question of holding examinations for those employees who were not recommended for promotion by their seniors.

The Claimants requested the Court to award the following new clerical grades which would apply to production and laboratory clerks:—

Grade "A": Sh. 600 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 850.

Grade "B": Sh. 900 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 1,500; Sh. 1,560 by Sh. 60 to Sh. 1,860.

Grade "C": Sh. 1,945 by Sh. 80 to Sh. 2,345; Sh. 2,425 by Sh. 80 to Sh. 2,825.

Grade "D": Sh. 2,925 by Sh. 100 to Sh. 3,425; Sh. 3,625 by Sh. 200 to Sh. 4,225.

The Claimants further demanded that, any increase granted on the basic rates for the grades should be reflected in the salary of each clerical employee so that the present differential in salary would be maintained. The Claimants drew the Court's attention to the fact that, the fringe benefits had been retained at the same level as awarded by the Court and they had agreed to this in the hope that their members would benefit considerably from salary increases. The Claimants rejected the offer which had been made by the Respondents on the grounds that, it was totally inadequate, more so, because the Respondents were on a very sound financial footing. The Claimants also complained that the increments of some of their members had been withheld unreasonably.

The Claimants did not elaborate their case in respect of laboratory staff apart from asking that they be included in their demands as stated above.

(ii) Artisans with Grade I Government Trade Test Certificates.—The Claimants demanded that, artisans who obtained a Grade I Trade Test Certificate should get Sh. 1,500 per month and after that they should progress by increments of Sh. 80 per annum to Sh. 2,140 per month; thereafter on obtaining a City and Guilds Certificate or its equivalent qualification, their salary should go up to Sh. 2,860 per month. The Claimants did, however, concede that the City and Guilds examination was in three parts elementary, intermediate and final, and that they were prepared to accept different rates for them.

The Claimants stated that, they would be prepared to accept a two-year award in respect of clerical grades and the artisans in Grade I provided the entry points were attractive enough and there was provision for an increment after one year.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENTS

5. (i) Clerks.—The Respondents submitted that, the present salaries were commensurate with the responsibilities held by the staff in the various grades and compared favourably with those current in comparable industries. These rates had, in any case, been awarded by the Industrial Court less than two years ago and they submitted that, circumstances had not changed so drastically as to justify very high salaries as demanded by the Claimants. The Respondents pointed out that, in the previous Industrial Court award it was provided that, increments should be granted on 1st January each year and that increments should not be withheld unless an adverse report on any employee had been made during the year preceding the incremental date. In accordance with this provision, increments had been awarded to the staff in question on 1st January 1965, and again on 1st

January 1966, thus, except in the case of a few new entrants, the majority of clerks already enjoyed salaries above the minimum of their scales.

The Respondents rejected the Claimants' allegation that, many employees had been denied increments and gave a breakdown of the figures in support of their contention.

The Respondents submitted that, where the staff were on incremental salary scales, there should be no need for annual increments of salary as such, since the staff concerned would receive their increments annually, with the exception of a minority of employees who would have been adversely reported upon. The Respondents strongly submitted that, to award the clerks who were on an incremental scale, negotiated increment every year, would amount to bi-annual increases for them which would be a cause of serious discontent among the employees on straight job rates. The Respondents, however, agreed on the need for a periodical review of the salary scales with the object of bringing up to date the minimum and the maximum of the salary scales as economic circumstances changed. Keeping this important principle in view, the Respondents had made the following proposals:—

Grade "A": Sh. 330 by Sh. 30 to Sh. 480 p.m.

Grade "B": Sh. 530 by Sh. 30 to Sh. 650 p.m. (EB); Sh. 720 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 820 p.m.

Grade "C": Sh. 875 by Sh. 75 to Sh. 1,025 p.m. (EB); Sh. 1,700 by Sh. 100 to Sh. 2,100 p.m.

Grade "D": Sh. 1,350 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 1,550 p.m. (EB); Sh. 1,700 by Sh. 100 to Sh. 2,100 p.m.

Only staff at the minimum of the scale to be affected by the adjustment at the bottom.

Anybody who was at the maximum of the scale prior to 1st January 1966, and therefore did not get an increment will be awarded one if he would have otherwise qualified for one on that date.

The Respondents stated that, they could not be compared by any stretch of imagination to Banks or other private industries as the prices of their products were fixed by the Minister for Agriculture.

The Respondents strongly resisted the re-introduction of production bonus for clerks on the production side and stated that, it would be retrogressive to do so. The Respondents stated that, the rise in cost of living was taken care of by the annual increment which was granted to the clerks and was quite generous. Moreover, the employees were still getting their Christmas bonus every year. The Respondents drew the Court's attention to the fact that, all clerks did not start at the bottom grade and their entry point was determined by their ability and qualifications.

The Respondents stated that, they agreed with the Claimants' request for the removal of efficiency bars from the clerical salary scales. They were also in agreement with the Claimants on the principle that, laboratory staff should be placed on incremental salary scales as was the case with clerical and certain artisan staff. The Respondents rejected the Claimants' suggestion that, increase in the basic rates should be reflected in the salary of all clerks stating that those clerks who were not on the minimum or the highest grade were in receipt of annual increments.

(ii) Artisans Grade I Government Trade Test Certificates.—The Respondents submitted that, no artisan had been denied rightful channel of progress as it was recognized that a qualified artisan was of great benefit to the improvement of the efficiency within the undertaking. Some doubts had, however, arisen from the wording of the final sentence on page 2 of the Schedule to the previous Court award where it was stated that, upon obtaining a City and Guilds Certificate or equivalent qualification, the artisan's salary should rise to Sh. 1,500 per month. The Respondents stated that this sentence required clarification in that (a) it was not stated which stage of the City and Guilds Certificate qualified the artisans for increment and (b) it was not clear whether the artisan progressed to Sh. 1,500 by annual increments of Sh. 50 per month or whether his salary rose to Sh. 1,500 per month by a single increment of Sh. 350 per month. The Respondents had made the following proposals in respect of this issue:—

"(i) All artisans except those who hold Government Trade Test Certificate Grade I will benefit under the Agreement reached on 25th May 1966.

(ii) Artisans with (Grade I Government Trade Test Certificate)—Sh. 800 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 1,200 p.m.; with (City and Guilds)—Sh. 1,225 by Sh. 75 to Sh. 1,600 p.m."

The Respondents requested the Court to make its award with effect from 1st March 1967, as the clerks had already received their increment for the year 1966 on 1st January and it would be most unfair to grant them another increase in the same year. This effective date would coincide with the next wage revision in respect of manual workers. The Respondents had no objection to the award being for a period of two years from that date.

AWARD

6. The Court has very carefully considered the various submissions made by the Parties in support of their case and finds that the rates for the clerical grades are somewhat lower than those to be found in other comparable industries at the present time.

The Court, therefore, awards the following new clerical grades:—

Grade "A": Sh. 390 by Sh. 30 to Sh. 540.

Grade "B": Sh. 590 by Sh. 30 to Sh. 710; Sh. 710 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 860.

Grade "C": Sh. 890 by Sh. 75 to Sh. 1,040; Sh. 1,040 by Sh. 75 to Sh. 1,340.

Grade "D": Sh. 1,390 by Sh. 50 to Sh. 1,590; Sh. 1,690 by Sh. 100 to Sh. 2,090.

The new entry points for the various grades shall be with effect from 1st March 1966, and those clerks who have reached the maximum of their respective grades prior to 1st January 1966, shall be entitled to the new maximum as from 1st March 1966.
