No. 18.

Bye-law issued by the Nairobi Municipal Committee under the Nairobi Municipal Regulations 1901 and in accordance with para 15 of the Regulations for the preservation of Public Health and good order within the Township of Nairobi as defined in the Nairobi Municipal Regulations 1901.

These Bye-laws to be in force during such time as the Temporary Bazaar shall exist in Nairobi, and are made by the Committee to meet existing arrangements only :—

1. All vegetables and meat sellers, Bakeries, Dhobie houses and stores for hides shall be kept distinct from the ordinary Bazaar. The vegetables, meat sellers and Bakeries shall be on a site by themselves, and the Dhobie houses &c. on a site some considerable distance from any other locations, also any stores for hides shall be separate buildings isolated from all other buildings.

That within the area of the Township no trading in meat, vegetables bread &c. shall take place in any premises not duly registered under the Municipality.

2. That all shop keepers and residents shall keep proper dust bins outside their shops, house, and all rubbish &c., must be placed in the box ready for the sweeper to remove at any time. The throwing of any rubbish of whatsoever nature on the ground is strictly prohibited.

3. The digging of any pits or holes for any purpose whatsoever is prohibited.

4. At the present time the collection of a large body of people in one place is too strongly depreciated and prevented as much as possible, but in actual trading operations in the Bazaar it cannot be altogether prevented, but in order to reduce the overcrowding as much as possible no person except actual traders, or bona-fide assistants, or the wives or children of the traders will be allowed to reside in the Bazaar, and the use of a shop, where fresh provisions are sold, as place of residence is prohibited.

In the evening a Smocking Concert will be held in the Customs Godown at 9 p.m. Doors open at 8-30 p.m.

The Concert will be followed by a play in Hindustani entitled "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves."

ONE 2ND.—Lord Rosebery speaking at Leeds stated that we are not concluding peace with a crushed foe and endeavour to convert brave foes into brave friends. This can only be done on a liberal principle and not on the basis sketched by Lord Salisbury when he said that a resolute Government might be required for generations. He went on to state that the Corn tax was the prelude to a Zollverein throughout the Empire, and its advantages have proved to be great to justify such departure which means giving up the control of our fiscal policy to the Germans. He exhorted the Liberals to vigorously oppose these proposals. Mr. Steyn has had a stroke of paralysis, he altogether abstained from the Conference at Vereeniging and has given his parole to the British has gone to Krugersdorp. There is a serious crisis in Austria Hungary owing to the inability of the two States to agree upon a compromise in their domestic affairs. The dispute threatens the maintenance of all economic union, and it appears that the Emperor's intervention is inevitable. The ex-German Minister of Finance, Plener, suggested to the Reichsrath the imposition of retaliatory duties against Indian imports in order to meet the countervailing duties imposed by India. A despatch from Lord Kitchener from Pretoria on the 31st ult. states that a document containing the terms of the peace was signed that evening by all the Boer representatives together with Lord Milner and himself.

ONE 3RD.—The news of the signing of peace was received yesterday in London with the utmost enthusiasm. Lord Mayor announced it at the Mansion House where large crowds instantaneously collected. There was cheering, crowds paraded all the streets, and all the Church Bells were rung. M. Bourgeois has been elected provisional President of the Chamber. His Majesty in an address issued yesterday to his people states that he has received the welcome news of the cessation of hostilities with infinite satisfaction and he trusts that peace will speedily be followed by the restoration of prosperity.

ONE 5TH.—The terms of peace are regarded as satisfactory except by extremists on both sides. Telegrams of peace rejoicings have been held in all the Colonies. Sir Campbell Bannermann in the House of Commons and Lord Tweedmouth in the House of Lords in the absence of Lord Spencer congratulated both the Government and the country and paid a tribute to the bravery of both the troops and the Boers, and preserved silence on the terms of peace until later. Lord Rosebery offered unreserved congratulations to the Government. His Majesty has received congratulations on the conclusion of peace from every part of the world, including cordial telegrams from the German and Austrian Emperors.

Fifteen thousand pilgrims arrived at Muddelena in connection with the Garibaldi anniversary. Deputy and together with other French representatives were cheered by the crowd, also the officers of a British army of war who placed a wreath on the tomb at Caprera.

The following is the result of the Derby :—

- 1st. Ard Patrick
- 2nd Rising Glass.
- 3rd. Friar Tuck.

His Majesties will attend a service at St. Pauls next Sunday morning as a thanksgiving for peace.

Mr. Balfour will move a vote of thanks to the Army in the House of Commons next Thursday.

His Majesty on the 1st instant telegraphed to Lord Milner and Kitchener his congratulations on the conclusion of peace and received their replies thanking him for his gracious message.

M. Loubet has accepted the resignation of the Weldeck Rousseau Cabinet.

The House of Lords will meet specially to-day as a message from His Majesty to the Parliament is expected.

The Municipality of Berlin has voted ten thousand marks to the sufferers at St. Vincent.

ONE 6TH.—Lord Kitchener has been promoted to the rank of General and has also been created a Viscount. His Majesty in his message to Parliament asks for £50,000, to be voted to Lord Kitchener in return for the services rendered by him to the State.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach has refused to relinquish the addition to the Income-tax, also the Corn Duty.

Schalkburger and Botha have sent an open letter to the Burgers in which, after referring to the Boer war in the field, they urge them to co operate in the advancement of the country and loyalty to obey the new Government.

The Hon. Michael Henry Herbert, C.B., has been appointed Ambassador at Washington and Sir Martin le Manant Hadsley Gosselin, K.C.M.G., Minister at Lisbon.

The mission to investigate the " Sleeping sickness " in Uganda consists of Drs. Low, Christy and Castellani, started yesterday.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach at the third reading of the Loan Bill estimated the expenditure at £176,359,000 and deficit at £24,000,000, he therefore said that he must retain the Corn tax.

The Cape Colony Commandant Fouché has surrendered.

ONE 7TH.—Senator Combes is forming the New French Cabinet.

Mr. Balfour in moving the grant for Lord Kitchener spoke of him as the Commander designate for India, he spoke of the great difficulties he had to encounter and the boundless courage, energy and resolution whereby he has been able to emerge triumphant. Sir Bannermann warmly supported the vote, Mr. Redmond began an attack, the closure however was speedily put in force and the grant carried by 330 votes to 43. The result is considered a triumph for Lord Kitchener.

The grant to Lord Kitchener has passed through the House of Lords with highly eulogistic speeches.

A resolution in the House of Commons thanking the Naval, Military, Indian and Colonial Forces has been carried by 382 votes against 42. Mr. Balfour in moving same stated that the war had shown what the Empire is from a Military point of view when all parts recognised a great Imperial need, that the services rendered by the Colonies opened a new chart to our Imperial history.

The Agent at Pretoria telegraphing on the 5th states that all the British Columns have been ordered to march until the conclusion of surrenders, these are proceeding everywhere without difficulty.

The majority of Newspaper Correspondents are generally optimistic as to the prospects of a permanent peace. The British and Rand elements highly approve of the concessions granted in the terms of peace which seem most judicious.

The War Office returns show that from all causes 1,702 officers and 20,870 men have perished during the war, 3,116 officers and 72,314 men have been invalided home, a great majority of which have rejoined the Army.

Lord Kitchener reports that 1,151 Boers surrendered their arms yesterday. Various Commissioners afterwards addressed the Boers who gave three hearty cheers to the King. The best possible relations exist, and there is no hitch anywhere.

M. Bourgeois has been elected President of the French Chamber.

The following is the result of the Oaks :—

Sceptae.
Glass Tug,
Simoon filly.

IN T

JUNE 9TH.—In the House of Lords the Loan Bill has been read a second time. Lord Goschen in a speech stated that the success of the loan at such a high price after so many months of exhausting war illustrated the extraordinary strength of credit of England. Lord Salisbury in reply said that it was gratifying to learn from such a high authority that the financial position of the country not only remained unimpaired but was rather improved.

Mr. Schalkburger lunched with the Governor of Natal on Friday. He urged the inmates of the Concentration Camp to forget and forgive and to work for the good of South Africa.

The surrender of arms by the Boers is being conducted with ceremony but quietly and without great military display each Burgher stacks his rifle singly.

JUNE 10TH.—Reuter's Agent at Pretoria telegraphing on the 8th instant states that the total surrenders up to then is 4,552.

A message sent by the Duke of Connaught welcoming the troops from the various Colonies on their arrival was read at the parade in Alexandra Park, same was translated into 10 languages.

Lord Kitchener reports that the surrenders on Saturday and yesterday amounted to 2,500 Rifles of which 1,000 came from the Cape rebels, the remainder were principally De Wet's men, hearty cheers were given for His Majesty.

In the Reichstag the bill ratifying the Sugar Convention was read a second time and passed by an overwhelming majority.

JUNE 11TH.—Mr. Channing's Amendment to the Finance Bill proposing to limit the Corn tax to a year has been rejected by 236 votes to 173. Sir Michael Hicks-Beach stated that the tax was imposed as a means of meeting the cost of the war, also to meet the permanent additions to the country's taxation. He repudiated the suggestion that the Corn tax was to be regarded as a prelude to the Zollverein of the Empire, upon a basis of protection. The Government however desired to promote by every means in their power Free Trade amongst the Empire.

The new French Cabinet have presented a statement to the Chamber in which they appeal for the union of republicans. They eulogised the late Cabinet and proposed to check clerical interference in elections by a strict control with regard to education and the Income tax. The military service will be reduced to two years, foreign policy will remain unchanged.

JUNE 12TH.—A Law imposing a tax of 10% on the net profits of gold mines has been promulgated in the Transvaal.

The Ceylon, Straits Settlement, Uganda, Nyassa, and Somali Contingents of troops are now at Alexandra Park, they are well housed and comfortable and though feeling the exceptional cold, they are generally in good health. Crowds of visitors invade the camps daily.

General Lytton has relinquished the command of the troops in Natal preparatory to assuming command of the forces in South Africa. He has gone to the Transvaal.

General Featherstonhaugh succeeds to the command in Natal.

The Reichstag have read the Sugar Convention Bill a third time.

The Monsieu has burst.

The Bey of Tunis is dead and was succeeded by his son, everything is quiet.

Lynch, the member of the House of Commons who joined the Boer forces arrived at Newhaven and on landing from the steamer was arrested. He was charged yesterday at Bow Street with treason and remanded, bail was refused.

JUNE 13TH.—Mr. Chamberlain at a dinner given by the Corona Club in the course of a speech stated that the peace now made would be permanent as it was an honourable one to both parties that Great Britain had obtained all she fought for, and that an era of unprecedented prosperity was opening for South Africa.

The total surrenders up to date is 10,225.

A proclamation has been issued from Cape Town to the effect that all rebels except officials who surrendered before the 10th August, and at the same time acknowledge their treason will be disfranchised only otherwise they will be liable to a death penalty.

The British Mission to Lake Chad under Colonel Morland has been completely successful, a garrison has been established closed to the Lake, the French retired across the German border as the British advanced.

JUNE 14TH.—Mr. Brodrick stated in the House of Commons that the Government had decided that the promised inquiry into all questions in connection with the war should take the form of a Royal Commission and that part of the inquiry would have in all probability to be conducted in Private.

The French Chamber has passed a vote of Confidence in the Ministry by 329 votes to 124.

His Majesty replying to addresses from the Corporation of London and the County Council at Buckingham Palace congratulating him on peace spoke most feelingly with regard to the sacrifices that Britons had made both at home and abroad in connection with the war which they had borne with such admirable fortitude. He alluded to the extraordinary valour and endurance shown by the Army and rejoiced to think that a brave and determined people who had lately been our opponents had now become our friends.

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES.

June 1st, Mr. J. B. Ainsworth, Mr. H. T. Powell and Mr. H. J. Ingram, from Takaungu.
