THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 38 OF 1975

Parties —

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and

Uganda Lint Marketing Board

Issue in dispute — Withdrawal of benefits enjoyed by employees which were more beneficial than the negotiated agreement

1 The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Uganda Lint Marketing Board shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 19th day of August, 1975, and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form 'A' dated 15th May, 1975, was received by the Court on 27th June, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner

The Respondents are a parastatal organization owned by Uganda Government and have their headquarters in Kampala, Uganda. Their Mombasa branch was established as an independent entity in October, 1967. They have in employment in Mombasa 38 unionizable employees.

Although there is a dispute as to the exact date when the Respondents joined the Distributive and Allied Trades Association (hereinafter referred to as DATA) there is no dispute that now they are members of DATA and for the purposes of this dispute were so towards the end of 1972.

The Claimants allege that towards the end of 1972 the Respondents unilaterally withdrew benefits from the workers which were more favourable than those laid down in the DATA agreement. The items involved are leave which is alleged to have been reduced from 30 to 21 days per year, leave travelling allowance which has been reduced to Sh 200 per annum instead of a return second class fare with family from Mombasa to the employee's home, 15 per cent housing allowance which is alleged to have been consolidated into the basic wage and finally the workers had been deprived of their annual increments of Sh 50 for senior staff and Sh 25 for junior staff.

On 11th June, 1973, the Claimants requested the DATA Chairman to convene a District Committee to discuss the withdrawal of benefits enjoyed by the Claimants' members and it is not seriously disputed that the DATA Chairman had explained to the Respondents' Coast representative Mr Yiga, that they cannot cancel or reduce benefits except through negotiation and if necessary by payment of compensation for such reduction.

At a meeting of a District Committee held on 18th June, 1974, this matter was discussed and the following is recorded in the minutes —

"Mr Mugalla stated that the Lint Marketing Board had withdrawn from their employees certain benefits which were in excess of the terms provided under the DATA agreement. The Union considered the agreement between DATA and themselves as a minimum and it was improper of the Management in this case to withdraw enhanced benefits already enjoyed.

Mr Sevastopulo said that the difficulty had arisen due to the difference in the Board's service terms in Uganda and the DATA terms in Kenya. He proposed from the Chair that the District Committee recommend that the financial benefits of these differences be assessed and the employees be compensated.

The Union preferred that the benefits remain.

It was the opinion of the employers' side of the District Committee that it was incorrect to withdraw benefits unilaterally. Either the benefits should remain or the employers should negotiate with the employees to compensate them on mutually agreeable terms.

The Secretary of the Lint Marketing Board would be coming to Mombasa from Kampala on the 20th June and it was suggested he should be asked to negotiate on this basis.

The Union agreed.

The Claimants have during the hearing substantially relied on the aforesaid points and further criticized some officials of the Ministry of Labour who they alleged had misguided the Respondents to the detriment of the workers.

The Claimants' demand is that the aforesaid benefits should be restored to the workers from the date of their withdrawal in 1972 and that if the Respondents were still interested in bringing them in line with the DATA agreement which was now applicable to their employees then they should negotiate with the Claimants on the items involved with a view to buying them out by payment of compensation to the workers.

The Respondents maintained that they had acted in good faith and that the implementation of the DATA agreement in total meant a revocation of the Respondents' unilaterally established terms and conditions of employment as contained in each employee's contract of employment. They produced letters dated 27th November, 1972 addressed to all their employees to the following effect:

"With reference to the meeting which you had with the Chairman recently this is to confirm the following —

- 1 With effect from 1st December, 1971, the Board was compelled to revert to the terms and conditions of service as laid down by DATA. You will, therefore, get your salary increment arrears of 5 per cent or 7 per cent as the case may be amount to Sh _____ from the said date.
- 2 You will get your next increment on 1st December, 1972, when your salary will be Sh _____ p.m. This amount is inclusive of the original 15 per cent housing allowance.
- 3 You will earn leave at the rate of 21 days p.a.
- 4 Your leave travelling allowance will be Sh _____ only.
- 5 The terms on which you were engaged originally are hereby revoked and you are given the new terms herein stated."

The above letter contained the details relevant to each employee and underneath the employee was required to agree to the terms and to sign thereon. The Court was handed all the copies addressed to the employees concerned, and all of them with the exception of one or may be two appear to have been signed in December, 1972, in the presence of a witness by the employee concerned agreeing to the terms specified therein.

The Court was given minutes of the meeting held at the Respondents' Board Room on 15th November, 1972, at 4 p.m. between the Management and the staff at which after discussions the workers were told of the Respondents' intention of reverting to the terms and conditions laid down by the DATA agreement and further that they would be required to agree to the aforesaid matters as stated in the letters dated 27th November, 1972.

The Court would have upheld the Claimants' demand as their stand all along appears to be consistent and in line with the practice in the country that workers' benefits should not be reduced without negotiation with the union concerned had it not been for the fact that the Court was given clear evidence of each of the worker involved having agreed to the reduction of certain benefits no doubt in consideration for other benefits which accrued to them by the action of the Respondents having joined DATA and thereby applying the DATA agreement to their employees.

The Court generally frowns upon unilateral withdrawal of benefits enjoyed by the workers and expects that the workers and the union involved would be involved in any such action.

In this case the Claimants alleged that workers had been intimidated in signing letters of acceptance as stated hereinabove and stated that one of them was even taken to Kampala where he was threatened. Unfortunately the Claimants did not call any evidence to substantiate this allegation which in any case seems very doubtful because the workers all along knew that the Claimants represented their views and it was up to them after the meeting of 16th November, 1972, to go and advise the Claimants of what the Management intended to do rather than start accepting and signing the letters addressed to each one of them dated 27th November, 1972.

In view of these circumstances the Court cannot accept the Claimants' demand that these letters duly signed by their members should be disregarded by the Court as to do so would amount to depriving the individuals concerned of their freedom of contract. The matter as it stands now clearly shows that all the employees concerned freely and voluntarily opted to the new terms and conditions of employment and willingly agreed to a withdrawal of certain benefits in consideration of the Respondents joining DATA thereby gaining salary increments and receiving salary arrears.

In rejecting the Claimants' demand the Court would like to reiterate once again that the Court would have upheld their submission had it not been for the fact that their members had committed themselves to new terms and conditions of employment on 27th November, 1972. There was nothing to prevent the workers from going to the Claimants for advice and guidance but they did not do so for reasons best known to themselves.

The Court is satisfied that there was no unilateral withdrawal of benefits by the Respondents and that the workers involved agreed to the new arrangement and the Claimants' demand must therefore fail.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of and of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for Part B distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
