EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

NOTICE.

The following Regulations, made by His Majesty's Commissioner, and allowed by the Secretary of State, are published for general information.

Mombasa, October 23rd, 1901.

(Signed) C. ELIOT,
His Majesty's Commissioner.

King's Regulations under Article 45 of "The East Africa Order-in-Council, 1897," and Article 11 of "The East Africa Order-in-Council, 1899."

No 18 of 1901.

Hut Tax.

1. His Majesty's Commissioner may, in his discretion, impose a tax upon all Makuti huts or other huts used as dwellings and built of mud or wattle and daub or such other materials as natives are in the habit of employing for the purpose of constructing huts or dwelling places, all of which are hereinafter referred to as huts.

2. Such tax shall not exceed 2 rupees per annum for each hut.

3. The occupier of any hut shall be liable for the tax imposed thereon.

4. The hut tax may be imposed within any area or on any tribes to the exclusion of other areas or tribes, and, subject to the maximum aforesaid, may be from time to time varied with respect to any areas or tribes.

5. The Commissioner may make such arrangement for the collection of hut tax when imposed as he may think fit, and in particular may take payment in kind or in labour in lieu of money, provided that it shall be clearly explained to every person who may have to pay the tax that it may be paid in money if such person so desires. The Commissioner may also make arrangements with any tribe or village or collection of villages for commutation of the hut tax by payment of a lump sum per annum, to be taken either in money, labour or kind.

6. The Commissioner shall make such arrangements for the collection of a hut tax and for the payment of collectors, whether by salary or commission, as shall appear to him to be necessary or expedient.

7. Every order of the Commissioner imposing hut tax under these Regulations shall be published in the "Gazette," and also locally in such manner as the Commissioner thinks fit.

(Signed) C. ELIOT,
His Majesty's Commissioner.

OCTOBER 15TH.—A board consisting of two Civilians and one Military Officer has been appointed to deal with any grievances arising from the administration of Martial Law in Cape Town.

OCTOBER 16TH.—A British column has occupied Pietretief. Schecpers was found in a farmhouse alone and seriously ill.

An attempt to re-enlist returned Yeomen has failed and the authorities are now forming an additional corps of mounted Infantry. Lord Kitchener reports 34 killed and wounded and 236 prisoners since the 7th inst. Heavy rain has impeded the operations in Natal. Brigadier Kitchener with columns from Paulpietersburg and Utrecht is moving against a considerable number of the enemy between Slangapiesberg and Pongola. Bruce Hamilton is conducting operations near Ngome forest, while Methuen is clearing the Marico district.

De La Rey and Kemp have retired towards Lindleypoort.

Count Vaulx with three companies left Toulon on Saturday in a specially adapted balloon for the purpose of attempting to cross over sea to Algiers. The balloon collapsed on Monday night near Portvendres. A cruiser which was escorting the balloon picked up the aeronauts.

OCTOBER 17TH.—The Times Correspondent at Dundee reports that Botha's main body is still in the neighbourhood of Pongolabosch. A number of Boers have undoubtedly escaped North and West.

The belief is gaining ground in business circles that a strong trade revival has begun in the Cape. Several large companies are completing arrangements to cope with the great pressure of business they expect to follow when the war has been terminated.

The "Cobra" Courtmartial found that the ship struck no obstruction and her loss is attributable solely to structural weakness. The "Cobra" was weaker than the other destroyers and the Court therefore regretted her purchase by the Admiralty.

The Angelo mine at Johannesburg has been permitted to reopen and 50 stamps are working.

Hundreds of refugees are returning weekly.

Result of the Cesarewitch.

1. Balsarroch.
2. Black Sand.
3. Rambling Katie.

OCTOBER 18TH.—The Times correspondent at Peking states that Lessar and Li-Hung-Chang are negotiating for a new Manchurian Convention on the same lines as the Convention Russia withdrew on the 5th April.

Bands of Rebels in the Calvinia district are advancing South under Boer Commandants looting as they go. They are recruiting as they go. Parties have reached Hopefield and Saldanha bay but complete confidence is felt in the ability of the troops there to cope with the raiders.

Fighting occurred on Wednesday near Piquetberg 40 miles from Cape Town. The Boers attacked the District troops who were reinforced by a Squadron of the 16th Lancers. The Boers retreated with slight loss. Captain Bellew of the Lancers and 4 men were killed.

OCTOBER 19TH.—Botha finding that he is unable to perform anything, and the invasion of Natal being attended with disastrous results has dissolved his force leaving the units to escape as best they can. Botha with a few men have gone North.

In the Austrian Reichstag the premier while referring to the commercial policy declared that it was the determination of the Government to defend Austria's interests even though political alliances might thereby be endangered by economic war. This is regarded as a strong hint in connection with the new tariff of Germany.

Result of the Middle Park Plate.

- (1) Minstead.
- (2) Chardas.
- (3) Portblair.

It is reported from St. Petersburg that a complete agreement has been established between Russia and Great Britain averting all danger of quarrel regarding Afghanistan, even in the event of complications, which without the agreement would likely have led to concurrent intervention of the two powers.

Sir Alfred Milner is going to Natal to consult the Government regarding the proposed conference on the South African Customs Union. It is understood that the Portuguese have been invited to participate.

Plague has ceased at Naples.

OCTOBER 21ST.—Santos Dumont referred to on 15th July as having invented a navigable balloon started with it from St. Claud, rounded the Eiffel tower and returned to St. Claud with it within half an hour. The Committee however decided that he landed 44 seconds too late to win the hundred thousand francs prize.

The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York have reached Halifax and the tour is completed.

No progress has been made towards a settlement of the Franco-Turkish dispute. The Porte hopes that impending interpellations in the Chamber on the matter will lead either to the fall of the present Cabinet or a change in the attitude of the French Government.

A party of Boers at Saldanha Bay fired on a vessel transshipping cargo there. A gunboat shelled them and they at once retired. It is believed that their object in approaching the Coast was to receive a cargo of ammunition.

The Japanese press strongly opposes the New Russo-Chinese Manchurian agreement.

The French Government has determined not to wait much longer, but has decided to resort to all measures of coercion warranted by the circumstances against Turkey.

The Johannesburg mine guard 1,500 strong has been dismissed and the men have been provided with work in the mines.

Special arrangements have been made to pay wholly or partially the arrears due to returned Yeomanry.

A party of Canadians surprised a Boer Laager, 16 miles Northwest of Balmoral killing 3 and capturing 4 of the enemy. Quantities of stock, food and ammunition were taken, the Boers abandoning everything. The Canadians had 5 casualties.

OCTOBER 22ND.—The War Office announces that the War Office Council consisting of the Secretary, under-secretaries Commander-in-Chief, and heads of Departments, and the next weekly permanent executive Committee will meet Bi-weekly. The object of this is to secure combined action of the different departments and arrange the execution of the councils decisions.

Commandant Marais is among the prisoners recently captured.

OCTOBER 23RD.—Lord Kitchener's weekly report of the progress of the war, states that 43 Boers were killed and wounded and 250 taken prisoner or surrendered.

The Southern move of the rebels from Calvinia has been checked, and the commandos at various points either hustled about or scattered.

The correspondent of the "Standard" reports from Shanghai that under the new Manchurian convention Russia agrees to evacuate Manchuria within two years. China relies solely on Russia to protect the Niuchwang Railway and employs Russian Officers to drill the Manchu troops. The terms are so favourable to China that it is surmised that another secret agreement between Russia and China exists.

Admiral Rodgers cabling from Cavite to the Admiralty at Washington says that owing to an active insurrection at Samar the available men-of-war are conveying marines thither to co-operate with the army.

The King and Queen have returned from Balmoral and His Majesty is looking extremely well.

Regulations under Martial Law at the Cape forbid the circulation of seditious articles and provide for the censoring of letters and telegrams.

Owing to a speech delivered on the 10th Sir Redvers Buller has been removed from his command and placed on half pay.

French has been appointed to command the First Army Corps, and pending his return Hildyard commands at Aldershot.

OCTOBER 24TH.—With the exception of the "Daily News" all the papers consider the decision dealing with General Buller to have been inevitable, and that there was no possible alternative without ruining discipline in the army. It was out of the question to overlook such indiscretion which reveals an absolute lack of self command. At the same time much personal sympathy is expressed for Buller. All recognise his claims on the country's gratitude and deplore the inglorious close of an honourable career.

Lord Salisbury has returned from the continent. The "Westminster Gazette" approves of General Buller's dismissal, and trusts that the Opposition will not espouse his cause.

The French miners have postponed their strike.

His Majesty opens Parliament in state between the 23rd and 28th of January next.

OCTOBER 25TH.—The "Daily News" states that Sir Harry Johnston who is now in England will shortly be appointed minister at Brussels and that Mr. Jackson the present Deputy Commissioner in Uganda becomes Commissioner.

The "Times" correspondent at Shanghai states that the Convention agreed upon between China and Russia provides for the latter remaining in Manchuria until the present disturbed condition of the Province ceases; that the occupation is to last at least 3 years. China also grants to Russia various unspecified advantages.

The "Temps" announces that the 4 Powers have decided in principle to sanction the incorporation of Crete in the Kingdom of Greece.

Lord Salisbury had a long audience with His Majesty yesterday.

A Cabinet Council will be held on Monday next.

His Majesty received General Hildyard yesterday.

Lord Kitchener telegraphs that the 2 guns captured from Colonel Gough have been recovered.

OCTOBER 26TH.—Wyndham speaking at Bradford states that the Government's Policy would be continued, viz., to finish the war as soon as possible, and in order to do this Lord Kitchener will be given all he asks for.

The "Times" correspondent at Shanghai states that the Emperor of China replying to the vigorous protests of the Southern Viceroy against the Manchurian Convention asks them to show him what means he can adopt to oppose the Russian demands and what prospect is there for effective support from Great Britain and Japan.

The French are about to issue a loan for some three hundred million francs secured upon the Chinese Indemnity.

Americans are introducing a policy of concentration in the Philippines.

The Radical Press at home are striving to excite the country in favour of General Buller.

OCTOBER 28TH.—Mr. Walter Hume Long speaking at Liverpool stated that the Government would defend Buller's appointment to Aldershot on the grounds of Policy and justice. His subsequent dismissal was due solely to his having made a speech which was subversive to discipline in the Army. The cabinet unanimously supported Lord Roberts.

Mr. Chamberlain speaking at Edinburgh vigorously attacked the Irish members. He said that the Government proposed to alter the arrangements of the House so as to better control men, whose one idea was to degrade it. The question of over representation of Ireland would be submitted to the nation at next General Election. He referred to the leniency shown to the Boers and added that the time was coming when severe measures would be adopted.

The columns that have been operating for the last six weeks, south-west of Rustenburg returned to Klerksdorp on the 17th, bringing 250 Boers and a quantity of supplies. These captures were made at Kloofs and other hiding places.

Lord Milner has arrived at Pietermaritzburg where his reception was of the heartiest.

Botha's retreat was favoured by impenetrable mists, enabling him to split his force into small parties which eluded our columns. The whole country is filled with bush and Kloofs, wherein men and waggon can easily be hid.

Botha with a few followers has gone to Amsterdam, where Schalkbarger and the moveable Transvaal Government are temporarily located.

Sagasta is unwell and will probably have to leave Madrid for a milder climate. General Weyler will then assume the Premiership.

General Weyler speaking in the Chamber on Saturday evening employed some enigmatic phrases with regard to a Dictatorship causing profound sensation.

The banishment of 13 more captured Boer leaders has been confirmed.

OCTOBER 29TH.—Bettesworth Piggott has been appointed Senior Judge for Zanzibar.

Colonel Dankins surprised and captured on the nights of 29th, 21st, and 23rd, 3 laagers in the Nylstroom district. Three field cornets, the exlanddrost of Pretoria and 50 others were made prisoners.

Lord Kitchener reports that Benson surprised a laager at Trichardsfontein on the 22nd capturing 37 Boers. The Cabinet sat for two hours and a half yesterday. It is understood that General Buller's case was the leading topic of conversation.

The compensation commission reassembled yesterday. The Chairman announced that all Foreign Governments with the exception of the Dutch and French have accepted a lump sum in all £69,550 in full settlement of all claims, and that it is hoped that both France and Holland will shortly come to an agreement.

The "King Alfred" the largest and fastest Cruiser in the world was launched at Barrow yesterday.

OCTOBER 30TH.—The commercial and industrial depression in Germany is steadily deepening. Factories are restricting productions everywhere. The Bourse was further depressed yesterday owing to the close of large iron-works in Saxony.

The "Times" correspondent in Constantinople states that the Turko-German Bagdad Railway Convention is apparently considerably near conclusion than was anticipated.

Lord Kitchener telegraphing on the 28th states that since the 21st instant 90 Boers have been killed and wounded and 377 taken prisoners or surrenders. Delary and Kemp attacked Vondrops column belonging to Methuen's force on the 24th instant near the Marico River. The fighting was severe and the Boers left 40 dead on the field including Commandant Oosterhuysen. Our casualties were 2 officers and 36 men killed, and 5 officers and 50 men wounded. All behaved with the greatest gallantry.

Remington by a long night march nearly captured Louis Botha, who bolted hastily leaving his papers behind. Colony Dankins has captured Hans Botha.

Czolgosz was electrocuted yesterday. Before the execution he addressed the reporters saying that he was not sorry for having killed Mr. McKinley who was the enemy of all good working people.

OCTOBER 31ST.—The correspondent of the "Daily Chronicle" at Washington telegraphs that Sir Julian Pauncefote has received authority from the British Government to negotiate and sign the new Canal Treaty.

The "Times" correspondent at Shanghai states that the conditions under which preparations have to be made to give effect to the increased tariff under the Protocol are chaotic, neither the customs nor the consulates possess an authoritative copy of the text.

Result of the Cambridgeshire.

WEDDING.

POWTER : PATTEN.—On the 2nd Oct., at St. Andrew's Church, Stoke Newington, by the Revd. Frederic Relton, A. K. C., GILBERT EDWARD POWTER, of Mombasa, East Africa, to ANNIE ELAINE, third daughter of JOHN S. PATTEN, of Moss Bank, Widnes, Lancashire.

NOTES.

On the 22nd of October the new steam launch "Rose," intended for the Juba River, was successfully christened by Mrs. Pidcock, and in celebration of the event a pleasant luncheon party, given by Sir Charles Eliot, assembled in the Custom's boat house. At 3 o'clock, after the champagne bottle had been duly broken on the stalwart bows of the "Rose," the guests took their seats on board and were carried for a short cruise up to Port Reitz, accompanied for a little distance by the "Percy Anderson," which was kindly lent by Mr. White, and bedecked with many flags in the usual tasteful manner. Unfortunately the Railway launch being of deeper draft than the "Rose" was obliged to stop before reaching Salisbury Bridge, and remained some time in the vicinity while the E. A. Rifles Band, kindly lent by Colonel Hatch, awoke the languid echoes of Makupa Creek. The "Rose" returned by the south channel, at the close of the afternoon.

ZEBRAS.

The Baron Bronsart von Sheblendorff's experiments in capturing and taming wild Zebra having proved a success he is now in a position to supply these animals at rates as quoted below, within nine months of the receipt of orders. The Zebra is quite tamable, has an extremely powerful chest with full muscular development and strong tethers; above all it is immune to the tse-tse fly and epidemics generally; in character it much resembles that of the horse, which varies according to the individuals.

Prices, according to points, character, age, sex and degree of training, as follows :

Tamed Zebras, but not broken inRs 200 to 300

Zebras tamed and broken in as per order „ 400 to 600

Photographs taken at "Trakehnen," Zebra breeding farm near Mbuguni (Kilimanjaro) can be viewed on demand.
