OBITUARY.

It is with regret that the death is announced at the age of 58 of William Hugh During late Deputy Registrar of Documents at Mombasa. Mr. During was born in Sierra Leone and educated there as a member of the United Methodist Free Church. In 1879 he first came to East Africa on a Mission to the Gallas. In 1889 he left the Mission and engaged in private business till 1895, when he joined the Protectorate service as Registrar at Lamu. In 1899 he was transferred from Lamu to Mombasa and appointed to the post which he held at the time of his death. His knowledge of Arabic and the Sheriah was extensive and with his many linguistic accomplishments he combined a pains-taking devotion to his work. By his death the Government has lost a useful and capable servant.

The death is announced on the 13th ultimo of Khalfan bin Raschid, Mudir of Tiwi.

BIRTH.

October 24th at Nairobi, the wife of R. J. Stordy of a daughter.

A flood of anti British comment filled the German Press on the 14th inst. anent the French newspaper revelations. The Press declare that Britain is bent on kindling an European conflagration.

The Rebels in German East Africa are preaching a holy war and fight under black flags. The revolted area is largely impassable owing to thick bush hence the slowness in the suppression. The National Zeitung asserts that disorders have broken out in Portuguese East Africa.

The Papers state that General Gallieni returns to Madagascar but will only stay some months, and regard the appointment of M. Augagneur as the successor as certain.

France is sending a squadron to Genoa to attend the inauguration ceremonies of the harbour works there.

At a meeting of the share holders of the Sugar Refineries Egypte it was decided on the reorganisation of the company reducing the existing capital and issuing a new joint stock loan.

The French and American action with Venezuela is threatening.

The Nord Deutsche regards Britain's communication (See Reuter's of 14th inst.) as spontaneous and confidential and states that it was received in Germany in the same loyal spirit wherein it was made. The Matin's assertions never occasioned an Anglo-German diplomatic incident. The foregoing which is semi-official is regarded in Berlin as closing the matter.

The correspondent of the Echo de Paris in Berlin learns from a semi-official source that Lord Lansdowne told Germany in June that though no Anglo-French Alliance had been concluded or promised England would take France's side if war broke out through Germany's fault.

OCTOBER 17TH.—Sixty Members of the Paris Municipality have started on a visit to London where all sorts of festivities have been arranged, and the King holds audiences to-day.

The Grand Duke Cyril has been dismissed from the Army and deprived of all his honours and excluded from Russia for marrying the divorced Grand Duchess of Hesse.

M. Loubet and M. Rouvier have started for Madrid.

Vice Admiral Moore has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the China Station. Admiral Curzon succeeds Admiral Moore.

OCTOBER 24TH.—All the British Press are filled with descriptions of the Trafalgar Celebrations throughout England and her Colonies and call attention to the frequent intertwining of British and French flags and the singing of the Marseillaise and the British National anthem.

M. Loubet and M. Rouvier received a splendid welcome in Madrid from enthusiastic crowds.

At the Naval Review mentioned in Reuter's of the 20th the Mikado on board the Battleship "Asama" with Admiral Togo by his side steamed between the lines which included 10 Russian prizes, afterwards he gave audience to British and American Officers on board the "Asama"

A recent article in the "Neuefreie Presse" in which Lord Lansdowne is accused of preparing in conjunction with M. Delcassé an Anglo French war against Germany, has caused fresh, acrimonious, and polemic paper warfare between Germany on one side and Britain and France on the other.

OCTOBER 25TH.—Meetings of all classes of the public in St. Petersburg have been held to discuss the political questions. At a meeting of the Lithuanians it was resolved to boycott Duma and join the struggle of all the progressive elements against bureaucracy.

The strike on the Russian Railways is spreading like wild fire in the principal centres testifying to the completeness of the organisation whose aim is political freedom.

His Majesty will confer the order of the Garter on the Mikado. Prince Arthur of Connaught will take the insignia to Tokio, the date of his departure however is not yet fixed.

Sir Charles Hardinge is leaving Russia for a holiday and yesterday had a prolonged farewell and audience with the Tsar. The "Temps" says it is related to an Anglo Russian rapprochement.

OCTOBER 26TH.—Eight thousand Railway men met at St. Petersburg on Monday and decided on a general strike and today all the Railways serving St. Petersburg and the Vistula railroads are closed.

The strike at Moscow is spreading in every direction and now involves twelve of the principal towns.

St. Petersburg is completely cut off except by telegraph and Sir Charles Hardinge has found it impossible to leave. The gravity of the situation is hourly asserting itself and the whole state and municipal organisations are dislocated by the wide ramifications of the strike. It is believed the move-

A French Squadron has arrived at Genoa to attend the inauguration of the Harbour extension by the King and Queen of Italy.

The Norwegian Government have asked the Storting for authority to enter into negotiations with Prince Charles of Denmark with a view to his accepting the Crown provided the Plebiscite approves of the choice.

OCTOBER 27TH.—Lord Rosebery speaking at Stowbridge said that the Anglo-Japanese Treaty was an engine of tremendous power, that it would probably cause animosities between the two countries and other nations, but with good men at the helm England and Japan should be able to defeat all hostile combinations. Alluding to the Agreement with France he said that this commanded a much more unanimous assent, but he regretted the bitter animosity to Germany associated therewith which was a serious danger to peace.

The Railway strike is now general throughout European Russia. Trades are paralyzed, 3,000 passengers are held up in Moscow being fed and sheltered by the Authorities, tradesmen are exasperated with the dislocation of business. On conclusion of a Council at Peterhof the Ministers were unable to leave and return to their various towns.

Disorders broke out yesterday at St. Petersburg. Several shops were plundered, streets are crowded with workmen and shops are rapidly being closed.

M. Loubet has left Madrid for Lisbon.

Cossacks dispersed an assemblage of 7,000 workmen at St. Petersburg wounding a 100. Eight Cossacks were injured by stones, the Railway Bridge over the Obvodug Canal has been destroyed, in other parts of the city everything is quiet the strikers being overawed by a strong display of troops.

OCTOBER 28TH.—General Trepoff Prefect of St. Petersburg has issued a stern warning to the effect that he will nip all disorders in the bud and has given orders both to the troops and Police to unhesitatingly suppress any outbreak with ball cartridges.

A decree has been published prohibiting meetings of the Russian Universities.

The British Squadron has arrived at Genoa to participate in the festivities also the King and Queen of Italy.

The King of Portugal and other royalties met M. Loubet at Lisbon and drove with him to the Belem Palace amidst cheering crowds.

Martial law has been proclaimed at Kharkoff, but the general strike movement is making headway without disturbances.

Fresh provisions at St. Petersburg are at exorbitant prices and the garrison is short of rations.

Shipping at Odessa is paralysed.

OCTOBER 30TH.—Urgent orders have been received at Suez for H. M's. "Fox" and "Proserpine" to proceed at once to Somaliland.

The situation in Russia is monopolising the attention and depressing all European Bourses and it is believed that it will be necessary to postpone the issue of the pending Russian Loan.

Political parties in Moscow have decided to form their own Government and to act independently of the Imperial Government.

The situation in Russia is going from bad to worse and telegrams from all parts show that the Government is paralysed by the wholesale strikes.

M. Loubet throughout his tour in Spain and Portugal has been received in a most enthusiastic manner, and the most cordial speeches and toasts have been exchanged in the course of the festivities.

At Genoa on Sunday the King of Italy visited the Battleship "Ira."

Political interest in Paris is centring in the opening of the Chamber to-day in view of the European situation and the approaching general elections.

OBITUARY.—Alphonse Allais Humanist.

M. de Witte had audiences with the Tsar on Friday and Saturday and a proclamation in connection with the Constitution is expected to be issued on the 3rd November.

Workmen under the leadership of students are erecting barricades in the streets of Odessa, sharp encounters have already occurred with the Cossacks and five strikers have been killed and 18 wounded.

St. Petersburg is quiet for the moment.

M. Loubet has left Lisbon.

Telegrams from all parts of Russia are of the gloomiest, but Sunday passed quietly in St. Petersburg.

Moscow is isolated and the prices of provisions are at famine height. The Governor has issued a despairing appeal to the population to be faithful to the Tsar.

OCTOBER 31ST.—There are one or two indications that the strike throughout Russia is weakening owing to lack of funds. The general conditions and the scarcity of food produced by the strike are affecting all classes.

A manifesto has been issued by the Tsar appointing Count De Witte Prime Minister and empowering him to co-ordinate and unify the various branches of the Administration.

The Tsar has also granted civil liberties to the people and extended the legislative powers of Duma. He has also enlarged the franchise.

There is a rumour that 4 ships of the Black Sea Squadron have mutinied and Admirals Birileff and Tehukrin have been murdered.
