9. The grantee shall pay to the Commissioner of Lands on demand such sum as the Commissioner may estimate to be the proportionate cost of constructing all roads and drains and sewers serving or adjoining the land and shall on completion of such construction and the ascertainment of the actual proportionate cost either pay (within seven days of demand) or be refunded the amount by which the actual proportionate cost exceeds or falls short of the amount paid as aforesaid.

10. The grantee shall from time to time pay to the Commissioner of Lands on demand such proportion of the cost of maintaining all roads and drains serving or adjoining the land as the Commissioner of Lands may assess.

11. Should the Commissioner of Lands at any time require the said roads to be constructed to a higher standard, the grantee shall pay to the Commissioner on demand such proportion of the cost of such construction as the Commissioner may assess.

12. THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 18 of 1976

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and

Kenya Co-operative Creameries Limited

Issue in dispute.—Dismissal of Mr. Ephraim Agesa and Mr. Gaithuma Kingaru.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Kenya Co-operative Creameries Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 30th April, 26th May, and 27th May, 1976, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath—

Claimants.—Mr. E. Agesa, Mr. G. Kingaru, Mr. A. Lubobwa and Mr. W. Saboge.

Respondents.—Mr. G. Kinyanjui and Mr. S. M. Kyalo.

AWARD

3. The notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 19th December, 1975, was received by the Court on 8th March, 1976, along with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The services of both the persons involved in this dispute were terminated on 11th January, 1975, while working in the Respondents' Sotik factory. Both of them at the time of their summary dismissal were in grade IV as Shift Headmen.

Mr. Agesa had 7 years' service and Mr. Kingaru over 12 years.

It is common ground that both of them used to work in Nairobi until the Respondents stopped producing mini pack powder pouches, when they were transferred to Nakuru in order to save them being declared redundant. This was on 3rd June, 1974. They stayed for two weeks in Nakuru and were then again transferred to Sotik on 17th June, where they reported for duty on 18th June.

They continued working at the Sotik factory and performed duties as were allocated to them by the Factory Manager until 21st December, 1974. Their duties were in the reception section.

There is no disagreement as to the duties they were required to perform and the number of hours they were expected to put in each day. This was in accordance with the normal practice in the Respondents various factories where the workers reported for duty and did the work in accordance with the laid down schedule.

On 21st December, 1974, the Factory Supervisor, Mr. G. K. Kinyanjui, informed all the employees to wait and if necessary to report back to work at 2 p.m. following their lunch break since they would be required to off load a lorry which was on its way from Naivasha.

It is not in dispute that both Mr. Agesa and Mr. Kingaru along with the other workers after finishing their routine duties continued to wait within the factory for the arrival of this lorry from Naivasha. In the words of Mr. Kinyanjui, the Factory Supervisor, as the lorry had not arrived until 12 he went for lunch and before going out he told the workers, including these two persons, that they should come back after 2 p.m. as the lorry had not arrived so far. Both these persons told Mr. Kinyanjui that they were too tired and they would not come back. Mr. Kinyanjui did not say anything further and went for lunch.

Both Mr. Agesa and Mr. Kingaru were not in the factory from 2 p.m. onwards until 5 p.m. when the lorry arrived and was off loaded. The next day in the morning when they returned to work they were called to the office of the Supervisor, Mr. Kinyanjui. They went to his office along with the shopstewards, Mr. Anderson, where after some discussion Mr. Kinyanjui told them that since they had refused to work the day before they will have to go. In due course the Factory Manager also came and they were given letters of suspension. Eventually they were summarily dismissed on 11th January, 1975.

The Claimants have maintained all along that Mr. Agesa and Mr. Kingaru had not refused to obey any lawful order and had in fact come to the factory in the afternoon but as they approached the gate they were waved off by the Supervisor, Mr. Kinyanjui, who told them to go away as the lorry had not come up to that time. Having been told so by the Supervisor they expected that when the lorry did come the Supervisor would send someone around to their living quarters and call them for off loading purposes.

The Claimants called both persons to give evidence on oath and also the Shopsteward, Mr. Anderson, and one Mr. W. Saboge. Mr. Saboge's evidence was called to corroborate the evidence of Mr. Agesa and Mr. Kingaru on the point that the Supervisor, Mr. Kinyanjui, had waved them off from near the factory gate at 2 p.m. and told them that the lorry had not come.

Unfortunately for the Claimants, the evidence of Mr. Saboge and the two persons involved is at variance on this very material aspect of the dispute. He said that the Supervisor had told them "that you go back to your houses and you will be called" whereas Mr. Kingaru said "at 2 p.m. as we were walking along the fence the Supervisor waved at us and told us "go back, lorry has not come." We went back to our houses and we thought when the lorry comes the Supervisor will call us". On this very point Mr. Agesa had this to say, "We came back at 2 p.m. Kinyanjui and Saboge signalled to us to go back as the lorry had not come. They were at the gate. We were not told when to come back so we did not come back because we had already waited before lunch. We stayed in the camp at our living quarters the whole day."

In addition to the above very important discrepancy in the evidence of these three persons the Court was not generally impressed with their evidence. They had obviously cooked up their story in order to save their jobs.

The Claimants' representative admitted that his witnesses had given contradictory accounts of what happened in the afternoon of 21st December, 1974. In view of this the Court must find that both Mr. Agesa and Mr. Kingaru did not come back to work at 2 p.m. as asked by the Supervisor, Mr. Kinyanjui.

These dismissals were the subject matter of a thorough investigation and the Investigator had found that these two persons had disobeyed a lawful order by a supervisor in authority and that in accordance with the parties' collective agreement such a serious offence was punishable by summary dismissal and he was unable to uphold the Claimant's demand for a reinstatement or to make any alternative recommendation.

The Court to a large extent agrees with the Investigator's findings but finds that the Supervisor, Mr. Kinyanjui, when told by both of them prior to the Supervisor's departure for lunch around 12 o'clock that they were too tired and that they would not come, should have taken further steps in order to warn them of the dire consequences of their refusal to report back as required instead of just walking out for lunch. The way the matter stands, without the Supervisor having told them anything after he was told by them that they were too tired to do any work that day, considerably lessens the gravity of their offence. This amounts very much to a reluctance rather than an outright refusal to obey an order.

Both these employees have rendered fairly long service to the Respondents without any serious warnings or shortcomings in their work and after careful consideration of all the submissions the Court has come to the conclusion that a summary dismissal under the circumstances is too harsh and what these two employees deserved is a normal termination and the Court accordingly awards that their summary dismissal should be reduced to a normal termination in accordance with the terms of the collective agreement.

During the hearing the Claimants' representative having admitted the obvious weaknesses in their case made a scathing attack on the Investigator alleging that he had taken his relative to get a job with the Respondents at Sotik while investigating this dispute. The Court does not wish to make any comment on this very serious allegation other than to state that the Claimants are well aware where to direct their complaints in this regard. It is entirely up to them if they wish to pursue this matter any further.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 26 OF 1976

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers
and

Old Mutual Assurance Society Ltd.

Issue in dispute.—Underpayment of wages contrary to the collective agreement to Messrs. S. N. Ngaruiya, F. N. Thumbi, N. K. Kariba, S. N. Karambu and E. M. Ngugi.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Old Mutual Assurance Society Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard on the 9th day of June, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 4th March, 1976, signed by the parties was received by the Court on 20th April, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Respondents are members of the Insurance Employers' Group of the Federation of Kenya Employers. They joined the group on 1st January, 1974.

The Claimants and the group have a collective agreement effective from 1st March, 1973, in respect of the subordinate staff and from 1st January, 1974, in respect of the clerical staff which shall remain in force until 31st December, 1978.

On 19th June, 1975 the group and the Claimants entered into a supplementary agreement the effective date of which was 1st June, 1975. In this agreement the parties amended the existing collective agreement and stated as follows in paragraph 1—

"By the replacement of Part I (A, B, C, D and E) thereof in respect of Wages and Salaries with the following:—"

The part that has been replaced deals with wages and salaries for both subordinate and clerical grades. In fact new salary scales have been formulated which replace the old scales.

The scales relating to clerical grade II are relevant to this dispute and the following notes appear after the new scales—

"(a) Columns one and three represent incremental level in the scale.

(b) Provided that no employee shall get an increase of less than Sh. 60 per month for the first year from the agreed effective date.

(c) Where the calculation of salary based on this increase of Sh. 60 falls between two incremental stages he will enter the scale at the next higher incremental stage."

When the Respondents implemented this supplementary agreement they acted on the premise that the employees were entitled to an increment of Sh. 60 per month only with effect from 1st June, 1975. Notwithstanding this they proceeded to grant increases as follows to the employees involved in the dispute—

	Sh.
Mr. S. N. Ngaruiya	120
Mr. F. N. Thumbi	110
Mr. N. K. Kariba	125
Mr. S. N. Karambu	125

The fifth employee, Mr. E. J. N. Ngugi has left the Respondents' employment. The Court was told that he has absconded. The Court was further told that Mr. N. K. Kariba has resigned from the Claimants' membership with effect from 30th January, 1976.

It is not disputed that the remaining three employees, Messrs. Thumbi, Ngaruiya and Karambu, were all in the clerical grade II and were earning the following salaries:—

	Sh.
Mr. Ngaruiya	1,210
Mr. Thumbi	1,100
Mr. Karambu	1,230

The above-named employees were not satisfied with the implementation of the supplementary agreement by the Respondents and the Claimants took up the matter on their behalf. The Claimants' demand is that since all three of them were at the top of the old clerical scale II which was Sh. 1,104 they should have enjoyed a straight conversion to the new scale on the maximum point this being Sh. 1,460.

The Respondents have resisted this demand and they have relied on the notes which have been set out hereinabove in the award appearing just below the clerical grade II scales. The Respondents further pointed out that these employees had benefited as follows over their period of service:—

		Percentage increase
Mr. Ngaruiya	3 years' service	54.4 per cent
Mr. Thumbi	2 " "	41.1 per cent
Mr. Karambu	2 " "	28.6 per cent

An interesting feature of this dispute is that the five other members of the group namely Norwich Union (two sections), Kenya National Assurance Co. Ltd., South British Assurance Co. Ltd. and Phoenix of E.A. Co. Ltd. have all implemented the supplementary agreement in line with the interpretation put forward by the Claimants.

The Respondents maintained that all their colleagues had made a mistake in implementing the agreement in that manner and that their interpretation is the correct one.

The Court has looked over the cost of living figures during the relevant period and finds that up to May, 1975, the cost of living had gone up by 30.2 per cent and from the previous increase in the 1973 agreement it is up by 17.5 per cent. As against this under the Respondents' interpretation and implementation of the supplementary agreement workers have received an average increase of 6.25 per cent and the employees of the other members of the group have received average increases varying between 21.5 per cent to 24.6 per cent.

The Court notes that the supplementary agreement was intended to compensate the workers for the high cost of living that had eroded their salaries. Furthermore, the Respondents stated that as far as their subordinate staff are concerned they had implemented the agreement on a straight conversion basis.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that the Claimants' interpretation regarding the implementation of the supplementary agreement is correct and proper and these employees should have been granted straight conversions as claimed by the Claimants in line with the rest of the members of the group. The Court accordingly awards that the aforesaid three employees should be placed on the salary point No. 12 for clerical grade II carrying the salary of Sh. 1,460 with effect from 1st June, 1975. The Court further rules that the increases granted by the Respondents to these employees are to be considered as part of this conversion. In other words the Respondents will pay them only the difference remaining.

Given in Nairobi this 2nd day of July 1976.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2059

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.
