1 The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Kenya Co-operative Creameries Ltd shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 14th, 15th and 16th day of October 1969, and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 The parties, after entering into a recognition agreement on 22nd November 1963, concluded a collective bargaining agreement covering terms and conditions of service of the Respondents' employees which expired on 30th September 1966. The parties entered into another agreement which expired on 30th September 1967. Prior to the expiry of the last agreement joint negotiations took place in September 1967, to revise it and it appears that an agreement of 18 months' duration was concluded on 6th October 1967, to be effective from 1st October 1967, to expire on 31st March 1969. Both parties are agreed that the wages were definitely revised and agreed although they differ on certain items in the terms and conditions of service. The wages agreed as effective from 1st October 1967, were as follows —

Grade	Minimum Sh	Maximum Sh	Housing allowance Sh
1	246	249	50
2	258	274	50
3	276	295	50
4	312	331	65
5	375	394	65
6	414	434	65
7	478	511	90
8	554	583	90
9	640	704	90
10	773	833	110
11	924	984	130
12	1,075	1,235	155

The Court is at a loss to understand why the Claimants failed to pursue the matters in dispute, if any on the terms and conditions of service long before the present dispute. In fact they have allowed 18 months to expire and have now, during the course of the current proceedings, stated that the 1966 conditions remained in force. The fact, however, remains that a new agreement was not signed in 1967 although negotiations had taken place and agreement on certain items had been reached. On the issue of disturbance allowance, the Respondents had at one stage paid in accordance with the 1966 agreement but subsequently had rectified this by paying at the new rates agreed in 1967. With this exception the Respondents have implemented although unsigned, the wages and terms and conditions of service as revised in September 1967, with effect from 1st October 1967. It is obvious in view of the fact that 14 issues have been referred to the Court for adjudication that the parties had little or no success either during their own meetings or during conciliation. This is rather unfortunate because with a little more conciliatory approach the parties should have been able to settle a number of these issues without resorting to the Industrial Court.

Both the parties advanced very interesting arguments in support of their respective claims which briefly revolved on the peculiar nature of the Respondents' business and on its profitability. The Claimants maintained that the Respondents had increased their profitability by going into retail trade in the main centres in the country as a result of which several well established dairies were going to be pushed out of business, further that the Respondents had also taken over the business of Penguin Dairies.

The Claimants were very critical of the Respondents' attitude because whenever they were approached for wage increases and improvement in the fringe benefits, financial difficulty was pleaded by the Respondents. Moreover, the fact that the Respondents had embarked on a large capital development programme showed that they had ample funds. The Claimants pointed out that the Respondents had also increased payments to farmers which clearly showed that there was money available.

The Respondents on the other hand very vigorously argued that the Claimants had completely failed to appreciate the manner in which they operated. They argued that their capital development plan was essential for extending the intake of milk and milk manufacture. In order to carry out their development plans they had raised loans and at the end of February 1969, they had £350,000 outstanding for current and new loans and it was likely that over the next two or three years an additional sum of the same amount would be needed to be raised. The new plant and premises necessary to the economic future of the Respondents co-operative have in their train brought greater employment as the following figures demonstrate —

Year	Number of employees
1963	657
1964	685
1965	739
1966	760
1967	830
1968	863
1969	960

The Court has given anxious thought to all the submissions made by the parties in their memoranda and during the course of the hearing and has come to the conclusion that the wages should be increased as follows —

	Sh per month
Grades 1 to 3	12/50
Grades 4 to 9	15
Grades 10 to 12	25

The Court further awards that a similar increase shall be granted to workers on the expiry of one year from the date of the first increase. It has been agreed between the parties that the new increases shall be with effect from 1st April 1969. The Court has taken into consideration the fact that a worker at present employed by the Respondents at a minimum rate was in receipt of Sh 246 plus Sh 50 housing allowance. It should also be noted that out of the total number of 960 employees only 30 are at the lowest rates.

In making the above award the Court has been considerably influenced by the fact that the Respondents have created new employment opportunities and that out of the 30,000 odd suppliers 28,775 were small African suppliers who in fact each received Sh 270 gross p.m. As against this the lowest paid worker in the Respondents' employment was in receipt of Sh 246 plus Sh 50 by way of housing allowance. The Court has also taken into consideration the fact that the Respondents are a co-operative and in fact are not concerned in profit making as other undertakings.

Housing allowance

As stated hereinabove the workers are in receipt of a housing allowance and the Court is not inclined to disturb it for the time being and therefore makes a nil award.

Working hours

The Court finds that the Claimants have not made adequate submissions on this issue. At one stage it appeared that their demand was that the working week be reduced to 40 hours for day shifts and 35 hours on night shifts but during the hearing it transpired that they were complaining against the fact that the calculation of overtime was based on hours worked per week instead of hours worked per day. Unfortunately the issue of overtime is not in dispute. As has already been stated the Court was confronted with inadequate submissions on this point and is not prepared to make an award reducing the working hours in circumstances which might have detrimental consequences to the milk industry. Accordingly the Court makes no award.

Annual leave

The present arrangement is as follows —

“(a) Employees shall qualify for leave on completion of 12 months’ continuous service and such leave shall be taken when due subject to the convenience of the Company who will maintain normal rotation of leave in so far as organizational requirements permit

(b) Leave shall be granted as follows —

1 to 5 years’ service	21 working days
Over 5 years’ service	24 working days

(c) Two-third of the leave entitlement must be taken during the first year commencing 1st October 1966. Leave may not be accumulated for more than two consecutive leave years and the leave so accumulated must all be taken during the third year.”

The Court can see no reason to vary this and therefore makes no award

Leave allowance

The present arrangement is as follows —

“An employee shall receive an allowance before proceeding on annual leave, according to the following scale—

	Sh per year
Grades 1 to 6	90
Grades 7 to 9	110
Grades 10 to 12	140”

The Court can see no reason to vary this and therefore makes no award

Safari allowance

The present arrangement is as follows —

“(a) An employee travelling on duty away from his normal station of employment will be provided with an allowance for accommodation, for food for each 24-hour period of Sh 30 unless housed by the Company, in which case the provisions of para (b) shall apply

(b) An employee travelling on duty, but not away from his normal station of employment for a full 24-hour period may claim for meals where applicable at the following rates —

	Sh
Breakfast	4
Lunch	5
Dinner	6

For the purpose of defining this clause an employee shall be considered to be on safari if—

- (a) such employee has been told that he is on safari, or
- (b) such employee has not been told that he is on temporary transfer, provided that no safari shall exceed 14 consecutive days”

The Court can see no reason to vary this and therefore makes no award

Temporary Transfer and Disturbance allowance

The Court awards as follows —

(a) An employee who has been transferred permanently to another station will be entitled to a disturbance allowance of Sh 100 only

(b) An employee who is on temporary transfer shall be entitled to a disturbance allowance of Sh 70 on leaving and Sh 70 on returning to his home station

(c) The normal period of a temporary transfer shall be between 15 and 35 consecutive days. But if an employee is on temporary transfer for a period exceeding 30 days but less than 35 days the shopsteward must be advised of the circumstances

Acting allowance

The present arrangement is as follows —

“Acting allowance shall be paid when an employee acts in a grade above his substantive grade and such allowance shall commence to be paid only after he has completed a week of standard working hours in such acting capacity, and such allowance shall be the difference between his basic wage and that of the grade in which he is acting”

The Court would like to make it clear that when an employee is asked to act in a higher grade than his own, then he must be paid the difference between the grade where he is required to act and his substantive grade by way of acting allowance

Medical benefits

“(a) Sick leave—After the completion of probationary period an employee is entitled to a period of 30 consecutive days’ absence at full pay followed by 30 consecutive days’ absence at half pay in any 12 months in respect of absence due to illness or injury (other than covered by the Workmen’s Compensation Ordinance), subject to the production of a medical certificate issued by an approved Medical Authority

For the purpose of this clause an Approved Medical Authority shall be deemed to mean a Company doctor or any Government or Local Government Approved Medical Authority

(b) Injuries—The Workmen’s Compensation Ordinance shall apply as a minimum benefit

(c) Medical fees—The Company shall meet in respect of all employees such medical fees, as a minimum benefit as required by law, in the manner laid down in the Employment (Medical Treatment) Rules (Cap 226)

(d) Maternity leave—Female employees shall be entitled to 30 consecutive days’ absence on full pay followed by 30 consecutive days’ absence on half pay, for the purpose of child birth. The Company shall not, however, be required to meet any costs, medical or otherwise, incurred thereon

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (c) of this clause no medical benefits shall be allowed for self inflicted injury, venereal disease, or in cases where an employee becomes sick or injured due to his own neglect”

The Court sees no reason to alter this and therefore makes no award

Warnings clause

The present provision between the parties is as follows —

“(a) If an employee is deemed to be guilty of committing an offence not amounting to a serious misconduct, he shall be given a written warning and such warning shall be handed to him in the presence of a witness. In the event of an employee refusing to accept the warning, it shall be deemed to have been served on him and a copy shall be placed on the employee’s record. In all cases the shopsteward shall be given a copy of the warning

(b) If an employee is served with a total of three warnings as described in para (a) of this clause within a period of 365 consecutive days (excluding any period of leave) he shall be subject to instant dismissal on service of the third warning

(c) Each individual warning will be expunged from the employee’s record, upon the expiry of 365 consecutive days from the date on which the first warning was served

(d) Warnings served prior to the commencement of this agreement are carried forward into this Agreement, for the purpose of implementing paragraphs (b) and (c) of this clause

(e) Warnings shall be given for the following offences —

(i) Failure to start work on due date and time

(ii) Absenteeism—to be defined as when an employee is absent from duty without leave or just cause, either from the premises of the Company or other proper place appointed by the Company for the performance of such employee’s work or duties

(iii) Failure to comply with an order—to be defined as when an employee fails to execute properly a valid order given to him by the Company or any persons placed in authority over him by the Company

(iv) Neglect of work, careless or improper performance of duties—to be defined as when an employee fails or neglects to perform any work which it is the duty of such employee to perform, or when an employee is careless or improperly performs any work which it is his duty to perform properly and carefully

(v) If an employee deliberately uses abusive or insulting language, or is guilty of insulting behaviour to the Company or to persons placed in authority over such employee by the Company, or to persons carrying out duties on behalf of the Company

(vi) Renders himself unfit for the proper performance of work by becoming intoxicated”

The Court can see no reason to alter this and therefore makes no award

Compassionate leave

The present provision between the parties is as follows —

‘Compassionate leave will be granted when the Company is satisfied that there is a genuine ground for such leave. The onus of providing evidence shall rest on the employee. Such leave will be unpaid and will not be mixed up with annual leave and therefore cannot be counted towards accumulated leave, and will not exceed one month in a period of six months.’

The Court sees no reason to alter it and therefore makes no award.

Long-service increment

The 1966 arrangement was as follows and no agreement appears to have been reached on this matter in 1967 —

‘An employee will receive a long-service increment in respect of continuous service for a minimum of five years according to the following scale —

After 5 years continuous service Sh 5 p.m.

After 10 years continuous service Additional Sh 5 p.m.

After 15 years continuous service Additional Sh 5 p.m.”

The parties were in dispute over the interpretation as far as the application of this benefit is concerned as the Claimants maintained that an employee was entitled to receive a long-service increment irrespective of the fact that he is promoted to a higher grade whereas the Respondents maintained that this benefit was to be granted only to those employees who stagnated in any one grade without being promoted any higher.

The Court rules that the Respondents’ interpretation is the correct one.

Night Shift allowance

The Court awards that with the exception of watchmen, employees required to work regular shifts shall be paid an allowance of 5 per cent of the basic wage during such time as they are members of a regularly constituted shift rota. This allowance will not be payable during periods of absence from duty due to leave or illness.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO 3725

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO 34 OF 1969

Parties —

Kenya Chemical Workers’ Union
and
Vijay Trading Co. Ltd

Issues in dispute —

- 1 Wages
- 2 Leave allowance
- 3 Normal working hours
- 4 Effective date and duration of the agreement

1 The Kenya Chemical Workers’ Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Vijay Trading Co. Ltd shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 17th day of October 1969, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3 The parties had appeared before the Industrial Court in Cause No 64/1965 on the issues of wages, working hours, sick leave, notice on probation, gratuity payment and effective date. The award made by the Court in that dispute was effective from 1st January 1966, and was to remain in force for a period of 12 months from that date. Subsequently the parties revised the Industrial Court award and concluded a two-year agreement effective from 1st April 1967. This brought up the minimum for unskilled labour to Sh 225 p.m. consolidated which was to be raised to Sh 255 p.m. as from 1st April 1968.

On 29th March 1969, the Claimants submitted their demands for further revision of their agreement and on 15th April the Respondents wrote to the Claimants setting out their views on how the terms should be revised. A joint negotiation meeting took place on 5th May 1969, but the issues in dispute could not be settled. The Claimants notified a trade dispute to the Ministry of Labour on 27th June 1969 and a conciliator was appointed but the issues still remain unresolved.

During the hearing the Court was informed that since the last Court award and subsequent revision of that award five workers had lost their jobs. The Claimants, however, despite this state of affairs, pressed forward their wage claim for the 30 per cent increase for the first 12 months and another 30 per cent wage increase for the next succeeding 12 months. Subsequently they reduced their demand to 17 per cent for the first year, 17 per cent for the second year and 14 per cent for the third year. The Respondents, however, indicated their willingness for the existing rates to be revised by Sh 12/50 increase and a subsequent increase of another Sh 12/50 after one year.

The Claimants relied on the fact that the Respondents had at no time pleaded inability to pay and that the cost of living had gone up considerably since the last wage revision. They referred to the Carpenter Report and to the Revised Development Plan which envisaged a minimum consolidated wage of Sh 385 p.m. They referred the Court to the wage rates of several firms in Nairobi who were in the same business as the Respondents in support of their demand.

The Respondents, however, submitted that the Claimants’ demands were not in line with the Government policy which advocated a wage restraint so that more employment opportunities could be created, any excess profits being taken care of through high taxation. The Respondents pleaded that they had to cut down their products and were now manufacturing only ink and coconut oil and that the firms that had been referred to by the Claimants were much larger than them. In these circumstances they asked the Court to endorse their offer which they claimed was most reasonable.

The Court, after a careful consideration of all the facts and submissions, has come to the conclusion that the workers should get a wage increase of Sh 20 p.m. with effect from 1st May 1969, and so awards —

Leave allowance

The Court awards that the current leave allowance should be increased to Sh 40. The Court is not prepared to award a consolidation of the leave allowance into wages as requested by the Respondents.

Normal working hours

The Court is not prepared to accept the Claimants’ submission that 44 hours per week is unreasonable or unfair and therefore rejects the demand for reducing working hours.

Effective date and duration of the agreement

The Court has considerable sympathy for the Claimants for the long delay which they had to face after the matter had been referred to the Ministry of Labour. The Court hopes that the authorities will take note of this and ensure that before conciliation officers are granted leave or are transferred they should be required to finalize the conciliation proceedings on hand. The Court awards that the effective date should be 1st May 1969, and that the agreement should remain in force for a period of 18 months from that date.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T M No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi
