GAZETTE NOTICE NO 3162

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO 39 OF 1975

Parties —

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and

Masaba Farmers Co operative Union Ltd

Issue in dispute — Termination of Gilbert J Mwancha

1 The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Masaba Farmers Co-operative Union Ltd shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 14th day of August, 1975, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Respondents also called Mr Keraro to give evidence during the hearing

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 24th April, 1975, was received by the Court on 2nd July along with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner

The services of Gilbert J Mwancha who was working as an Education Secretary with the Respondents were terminated on 26th March, 1974. He was informed in writing on that date that his services were terminated by giving him three months' salary in lieu of notice

Mr Mwancha was issued with a letter of appointment on 10th November, 1970, and in clause 4 of the said letter of appointment it is provided as follows —

'Termination of appointment'

Less than two years' service—1 month's notice on either side

More than two years' service—2 months' notice on either side

In case of misconduct, insubordination—instant dismissal

In case of inefficiency—1 month's notice "

The parties have entered into a collective agreement which is effective from 1st October, 1973, for a period of two years and in that agreement it is provided that a permanent employee's services may be terminated by giving him three months' notice or one month's salary in lieu of notice and further that employees on contract will be liable to termination in terms of their contracts. There is also an elaborate clause under the heading of dismissal in which a warning system is also specified and covers suspensions, etc

Early in 1974 the post of Assistant Manager in the Respondents' undertaking fell vacant and Mr Mwancha applied for the same. He, however, was not successful

At a meeting of the Respondents' Managing Committee held on 10th February, 1974, the decision was taken to terminate his services because he had used abusive language to Mr Evans Keraro, a committee member of the Respondents, and that he had spat in Mr Keraro's mouth telling him that, "You stupid and foolish committee members, you have refused to give me the job of Assistant Manager and gave it to a fool whose education is rotten". He also threw cigarette dust on Mr Keraro's head. There are allegations also of Mr Mwancha having used abusive language to the Respondents' Manager and further he went around the bars saying that the Respondents were bad and there was theft going on because the foolish committee members went ahead employing people and promoting others who did not have high qualifications as himself

The Claimants took up the case on his behalf and the issue was the subject matter of an investigation by the Ministry of Labour and the Chief Industrial Relations Officer's findings and recommendations issued to the parties on 11th March, 1975, read as follows —

"The acceptable fact is that Mr Mwancha has never been warned in writing and his record file is very clean. The outside disagreement between the Management staff and committee members should not be the cause of dismissal to an employee. If this is allowed then there could be chaos in all organization of a similar establishment

Recommendation

After careful consideration I am of the opinion that Mr Mwancha's services were unfairly terminated and I recommend that he be reinstated and paid for all months he has been out of employment "

During the hearing the Claimants relied on these findings and recommendation and further argued that the Respondents had worked out a plan to find a means of terminating Mr Mwancha's services because he had applied for the post of the Assistant Manager. Further Mr Mwancha had not been given any hearing by the Respondents and he was not asked to explain or answer the various allegations preferred against him. They pointed out that Mr Mwancha's termination was not placed on the agenda of the committee meeting where the decision was taken to terminate his services

The Claimants also drew to the Court's attention that the Department of Co-operative Development also advised the Respondents against their decision in terminating Mr Mwancha's services. This Department had carried out an investigation into the matter and had clearly recommended that the matter be discussed between the parties concerned and the Co-operative Department and if there is no compromise then the matter should be referred to the Commissioner for Co-operative Development for advice or the matter could be referred to the Minister for Labour as a trade dispute

The Claimants submitted that a good deal of peasants money had been spent in training Mr Mwancha who had also gone overseas and it was most unfortunate that the Respondents had terminated his services wrongfully and unjustifiably. They asked for his reinstatement or full compensation as laid down in the Trade Disputes Act

The Respondents on the other hand submitted that Mr Mwancha was a most unsatisfactory employee who was busy most of the time making requests for leave and loans, etc., and was also appearing in various examinations. They, however, did not terminate his services for these reasons but when Mr Mwancha failed to get the post of the Assistant Manager, his subsequent behaviour culminated in the incident in which he was involved with Mr Keraro in a bar coupled with anonymous letters which the committee members received making wild allegations against committee members, they decided that his services should be terminated

The Respondents further clarified that they did not need any permission from the Department of Co-operative Development before hiring or firing any of their employees

The Court had the benefit of both the English and Kiswahili versions of the Managing Committee's meetings held on 10th February, 1974, when a decision was taken to terminate Mr Mwancha's services and 6th September, 1974, when Mr Mwancha's case was reviewed. In the latter meeting under Minute No 52/73/74 it is recorded as follows —

"After the driver had been employed as stated above, the following entered into the case of Mr Juma Mwancha —

Charles Ombori —Chairman of Kisii Branch

Peter Nyamwaya —Organizing Secretary

Timothy Ngare —Asst Organizing Secretary

James Nyangweso —Committee member

W Mogaka Isoe —Treasurer

The representatives from the Union of Juma wanted to know why Juma was dismissed from his employment by the Union

The committee members explained to them the offences he made and how he himself used abusive language to the Manager of the Masaba Union and the committee members in writing. Those letters of 4th March, 1974, were read out to the Unions by Mr Genga who is the ACO. After a very long discussion between the committee members of Masaba Union and those trade unionists, both parties agreed that the dismissal of Mr Juma was in order "

The Court was impressed by the evidence of Evans Keraro who stated on oath how Mr Mwancha had met him in a hotel one evening when he was about to eat his food and how Mr Mwancha had criticized the Managing Committee's decision in not appointing him to the post of Assistant Manager after which Mr Mwancha called him a dog, a baboon, and showered other abuses on him and then proceeded to spit on his face and throw the cigarette ash on his head and the food

On the other hand the Claimants did not call Mr Mwancha to give evidence in the dispute although he was present in the Court all the time

The Court finds that far from the Claimants' allegation that the Respondents had hatched a plan to terminate Mr Mwancha's services when he did not get the job of the Assistant Manager, if anyone had any grievance, it was Mr Mwancha who felt bitter at the Managing Committee in not giving him the post of the Assistant Manager. It is logical that in his bitterness and frustration he behaved in the manner as alleged by the Respondents and which the Court believes to be true

The Court cannot endorse the Investigator's finding that an outside disagreement between the Management staff and committee members should not be the cause of the dismissal of an employee. The circumstances of this case clearly show that the disagreement outside the office hours in a bar/hotel was not of a private or personal nature but was directly related to the employment and refusal by the Managing Committee to give a certain higher post to Mr Mwancha

The Court cannot condone this sort of revolting behaviour on the part of an employee towards his employer and the Court finds that Mr Mwancha has not suffered any wrongful dismissal. He has been paid three months' salary in lieu of notice and the Court finds that this is enough for him under the circumstances. In fact he is lucky to have received that payment.

Mr Mwancha should realize that a formal education is not the passport to everything and that common sense and intelligence are not the preserves of educated people only. More often than not those persons who have had no formal education are indeed as intelligent and down to earth as the persons with formal education.

The Claimants' demand is accordingly rejected.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
