GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1252

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE No. 47 OF 1967

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and
Kenya Sweets Limited

Issues in dispute:—

- Wages.
- Annual Paid Leave.
- Leave Allowance.
- Sick Leave.
- Severance Pay.
- Gratuity.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kenya Sweets Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 1st day of March 1968, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

(a) Wages.—In this dispute the Claimants have stated that they do not wish to drive the Respondents to a point where they would be forced to close down their business. This displays a great sense of responsibility on their part which the Court appreciates.

The Respondents have frankly admitted that their business is down and, in fact, they are experiencing a decrease of 30 per cent in their trade. This is on top of their previous financial hardships from which they have not yet fully recovered.

The Court is faced with a situation where on the one hand the Respondents have served redundancy notices on nine of their employees and on the other hand, some employees with more than ten years' service are still at Sh. 171 plus Sh. 35 house allowance.

The Court finds that this is a borderline case and awards that the workers should get a wage increase of Sh. 10 per month only with effect from 1st April 1968.

The Court hopes that some of the redundancy notices that have been served on employees would be withdrawn by the Respondents.

(b) Annual Paid Leave.—The Court awards that the employees should get an annual leave of 21 consecutive days on the conditions already agreed between the Parties.

(c) Leave Allowance.—The Court is not prepared to vary the present leave allowance of Sh. 30 paid to employees when they proceed on annual leave.

(d) Sick Leave.—The Court rejects the demand for an increase in sick leave entitlement.

(e) Severance Pay.—The Court awards that the existing clause on this item should be amended so that employees who lose their employment through redundancy should get the following severance pay:—

- Employees with less than five years' service—seven days' pay for each completed year of service.
- Employees with five years' service and over—two weeks' pay for each completed year of service.

The Court further awards that employees who have already been served with redundancy notices and whose services might have been terminated since the commencement of this dispute, should be paid severance pay at the above rates.

(f) Gratuity.—Nil award.

(g) The Court rules that the effective date of this award should be 1st April 1968, and that it should remain in force for a period of 12 months from that date.

Given in Nairobi this 10th day of April 1968.

President.
