AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 8th July, 1975, was received by the Court on 24th July along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner

The parties' collective agreement, which is the subject matter of negotiation and has resulted in the present dispute, became effective from 1st March, 1973, for a period of 24 months

The parties, however, appeared before the Court in Cause No 42/74 on the issue of wage increases and the Court made an award and stated as follows in the last paragraph of the award —

"The Court awards that all the unionizable employees in the Respondents' undertaking should be awarded a wage increase of 12.5 per cent with effect from 1st March, 1974, and the Court further rules that when the parties embark on their normal negotiations as laid down in the aforesaid collective agreement then this increase which has been awarded to the workers should also be taken into account when new salaries scales are being formulated"

The cost of living indices for middle, upper and wage earners between the end of February, 1973, and end of February, 1974, show an increase of 15.13 per cent, 15.31 per cent and 16.12 per cent respectively. From the end of February, 1974, up to end of February, 1975, the same indices have gone up by 17.21, 13.85 and 21.19 per cent

The parties' submissions were forwarded to the Employment Promotion Division of Ministry of Labour for analysis and the following two paragraphs are of particular significance to the present dispute —

"The ceiling applicable to cost-of-living compensation in the present case can be calculated in different ways. One would be to assume that the interim Court award compensated the workers for price increases up to 1st March, 1974. In this case the ceiling could be either 18.5 per cent or 24.8 per cent depending on whether or not price increases after March, 1975, should be included. Another way of calculating would be to state that the ceiling would be 49.3 per cent of the 1973 pay rates less the 12.5 per cent offered in last year's interim award. In both cases, the ceiling would be applicable to those groups which are paid close to the statutory minimum wages whilst higher-paid employees should receive less

As regards the compensation for economic growth which is referred to by the Claimants, this growth is at present negative due to the unfavourable trends in Kenya's terms of trade with other countries (of Economic Survey, 1975, p 5, para 2.2)

This decline in real wealth will have to be borne by the better paid groups in the country through a less than full compensation for price increases. Salary demands for middle and higher income groups in the banking industry must be viewed against this background which was also the basis for revising salaries in the Civil Service earlier this year"

It should be noted that the parties are in agreement on the increases in the cost of living during the material time, i.e. from March, 1973 to February, 1975, 31 per cent, 33 per cent and 35 per cent. They are, however, not agreed on how to compensate the workers for the loss of money value

The Claimants demand a salary increase of 31 per cent for section heads, 33 per cent for clerical staff and 35 per cent for technical and subordinate staff, all these percentages to be based on all the employees' salaries which they are drawing since March, 1974

The Respondents have offered 31 per cent for section heads, 33 per cent for clerical and 35 per cent for technical and subordinate staff to be based on the employees' salaries as at 1st March, 1973

Both the parties are agreed that from the above percentages 12½ per cent already awarded by the Court is to be deducted

The Court finds it interesting that employment in the banking industry has increased as follows over the years —

|--------------|-------|
| January 1963 | 3,072 |

| " 1968       | 4,262 |
| " 1969       | 4,598 |

|               |       |   |
|---------------|-------|---|
| December 1969 | 4,750 | } Average total number of all employees during the year |
| " 1970        | 5,125 |   |

| " 1971        | 5,113 |   |
| " 1973        | 5,485 |   |
| " 1974        | 5,729 |   |
| July 1975     | 5,996 |   |

After careful consideration of all the submissions made by the parties and having duly considered the Guidelines which have been issued by the Minister for Finance, the Court makes the following award —

1 Wages—The Court awards all the unionizable employees a wage increase as follows —

- (i) All employees shall get an increase of 2½ per cent on their salaries as at 1st March, 1974, inclusive of the annual increment but with effect from 1st March, 1975
- (ii) The employees shall be entitled to additional increases with effect from 1st March, 1975, on their salaries as at that date inclusive of the annual increment and the 2½ per cent increase awarded above,
  - (a) Section heads 15 per cent
  - (b) Clerical staff 17 per cent
  - (c) Technical and subordinate staff 20 per cent

The Court further awards, as already agreed between the parties, that the salary/wage clause will be open for negotiation after a period of 12 months from 1st March, 1975

2 Long services increment and incremental scale for technical and subordinate staff—The Court awards that the present arrangement should not be disturbed and the Claimants' demand for an annual increment for these employees is rejected

3 Gardeners employed by banks—In the existing collective agreement a provision is made in clause 5 regarding gardeners and it is agreed that they shall be designated "whole time cleaning staff" and shall be covered by all the provisions of the collective agreement which are applicable to whole time cleaning staff

The Court awards that clause 5 (b) should be amended so that there shall be no interchangeability between the duties of office messenger and a gardener. The Court feels it would not be too much of a burden on the banking industry to engage a few extra employees to undertake the work of gardeners where they are needed

4 Local leave—The Court finds that the present provisions on this issue should not be disturbed and the Claimants' demand is accordingly rejected

5 Local leave allowance—The Court awards that the existing provision on this issue should be amended as follows —

|                                     | Shp a |
|-------------------------------------|-----------|
| (a) Section heads                   | 975       |
| (b) Clerical staff                  |           |
| Up to 10 years' service             | 675       |
| 10 years' service and over          | 875       |
| (c) Technical and subordinate staff |           |
| Up to 5 years' service              | 250       |
| 5 years' service and over           | 275       |

6 Maternity leave—The Court had this to say in its award in Cause No 40/75 —

"This issue has been given anxious thought by the Court because of the fact that H E the President has decreed paid maternity leave for female employees in the Civil Service. Although H E the President has made it clear that the decree was in respect of civil servants only the fact remains that the unions have taken up this concession to the civil servants with their respective employers with a view to bringing female employees in the private sector at par with the Civil Service employees in respect of maternity leave

The Court stated in an earlier award in Cause No 32/75 that the question of maternity benefits was being discussed to extend the National Social Security Fund (NSSF) benefits to cover maternity leave once females commence to contribute to the Fund and the Court recorded that it was satisfied that this matter is before the NSSF Advisory Council

In view of the aforesaid circumstances regarding maternity leave, the Court feels that before it proceeds to make any award on the lines as decreed by H E the President for civil servants, the private sector should be given an opportunity of getting the benefits under NSSF extended to maternity leave. The Court is of the view that a period of two years would be long enough to see what developments, if any take place in the extension of the NSSF benefits in respect of maternity leave "

The Court awards as follows —

Maternity leave shall consist of the balance of any sick leave not taken during the calendar year in question. Any additional period required in order to bring the total of maternity leave to 12 weeks will be unpaid without loss of service benefits, 12 weeks being the maximum period allowed for maternity leave

Such leave will be granted subject to production of a medical certificate signed by a registered medical practitioner to the effect that the female employee concerned is pregnant

The time at which maternity leave is taken shall be at the discretion of the individual female employee concerned

Note—It has been agreed that the period of sick leave shall be eight weeks paid and eight weeks half pay during each calendar year, such leave not being accumulative

7 Transport—The Court awards that the Respondents shall provide transport to their employees when there is late work in a bank in Nairobi, Mombasa, Kisumu and Nakuru, after public transport has ceased to operate and in all other places, after 7 p.m. The means of transport, however, will be at the discretion of the employer

8 Acting allowance for section heads and clerks—Clause 23 on this item in the existing collective agreement shall be amended as follows —

- 23 (A) (i) Sh 300 p.m. instead of Sh 175 p.m.
 (ii) (a) Sh 400 p.m.
 (iii) (a) 10 days instead of 21 days

The Court further awards that an employee shall be informed that he is working in an acting capacity within 48 hours of assuming such duties

9 Urban area allowance—Nil award

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 47 OF 1975

Parties —

Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers
 and

Vacu-Lug Traction Tyres (Kenya) Ltd

Issue in dispute—Failure to implement the wages which were agreed between the Union and the Nairobi Tyres Retreaders Group

1 The Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Vacu-Lug Traction Tyres (Kenya) Ltd shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on 23rd September, 1975, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Respondents also called Aziz Valimohamed Ahamed to give evidence during the hearing

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 17th June, 1975, was received by the Court on 24th July, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner

The Respondents are members of the Nairobi Tyre Retreaders Group (hereinafter called the Group) of the Federation of Kenya Employers (FKE) and were so during the time when the current collective agreement between the Claimants and the Group was being negotiated by the FKE on behalf of the Group in 1974

The Respondents' Managing Director, A. V. Ahamed, was actively engaged in the aforesaid negotiations

On 31st October, 1974, the Respondents granted all their unionizable employees a special allowance at the rate of 10 per cent of their basic salary effective from 1st July, 1974. Since the letter through which this decision was communicated to the Respondents' employees is important the first two paragraphs which are relevant to this dispute are reproduced hereinbelow —

"The Management has pleasure in announcing that (pending the outcome of the negotiations between the Union and the Federation of Kenya Employers) all members of staff of Vacu-Lug will receive a special allowance at the rate of 10 per cent of their basic salary. This allowance will become effective from 1st July, 1974

The basic salary however will remain unchanged until the final decision of the joint Union Federation negotiations "

On 10th February, 1975, the collective agreement between the Group and the Claimants was signed as a result of which the following wage increases were agreed and granted by all members of the Group except the Respondents —

- "(i) Any employee in the service of an employer as at 1st December, 1974, shall be granted an increase of Sh 35 with effect from the said 1st December 1974,
 (ii) any employee in the service of an employer as at 1st December, 1975, shall be granted an increase of Sh 30 on 1st December, 1975 "

The Claimants have brought this dispute to the Court in order to get an award against the Respondents to implement the agreement between them and the Group

The Claimants maintained that the special allowance granted to the workers by the Respondents had nothing to do with the wage increases agreed in the collective agreement and that the workers were entitled both to the allowance which the Respondents had given voluntarily to their employees and negotiated wage increases as set out hereinabove

The Claimants also suggested that the Respondents' move in granting the aforesaid special allowance was an attempt by them to undermine the Claimants as a Union and they should not be allowed to get away with such manoeuvres

The Respondents asked the Court to be sympathetic to them especially after taking into account their motive in granting special allowance and the fact that the employees had received five months' extra compensation over and above the Union negotiated rates

The Respondents called A. V. Ahamed to give evidence on oath and while he stated that the workers had forced them to grant an increase for the rising cost of living it had been agreed between the Respondents and the workers that after the Group agreement this increase would be withdrawn. He, however, agreed that the letter dated 31st October, 1974, which is reproduced hereinabove was vague. He denied that there was any attempt to undermine the Claimants as a Union and stated that they had acted only with a view to helping the employees pending the outcome of the negotiations

The Court finds it difficult to believe what the Respondents' Managing Director stated in evidence that the workers had agreed to the special allowance being withdrawn because no such fact is stated in the letter dated 31st October, 1974, which announced the special allowance to the employees. It is not as if the Respondents' Managing Director is the type of a person who did not know what he was doing and/or what he was writing. In fact he is an educated person and one who was actively engaged in negotiations with the Claimants on behalf of the Group.

The Court notes that the Respondents have asked the Court to be sympathetic to them but the Court has in the past made it abundantly clear that it will have no sympathy with such employers and in the present dispute the Court finds no reason to deviate from that position.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that the Claimants are entitled to ask for the full implementation of the Group collective agreement by the Respondents in respect of their employees and the Court so awards. The Court would like to add that the Respondents had granted the aforesaid special allowance at their own risk and that there is no reason why the workers should be deprived of the benefit of the collective agreement. It was a simple matter for the Managing Director to add a sentence in the aforesaid letter of 31st October, 1974, to cater for the stand which they are now claiming but they failed to do so and the Court cannot help them now.
