for Foreign Affairs.

NOTICE.

It is hereby notified for general information that under the powers conferred upon His Majesty's Commissioner and Consul-General, he hereby declares that the "Vagrancy Regulations" as published in the "Official Gazette," of February 1st 1901 have been specially extended to all ports in the District of Malindi.

(Signed) C. ELIOT,
H. M. Commissioner and Consul-General.

NOTICE.

Whereas by Article 6 of "The East Africa Game Regulations 1900" it is provided that no person shall within the Protectorate sell or purchase or offer or expose for sale (inter alia) any horns of any animal mentioned in any of the Schedules of the said Regulations unless the animal has been kept in a domesticated state and no person shall knowingly store, pack, convey or export any part of any animal which he has reason to believe has been killed or captured in contravention of those Regulations:

And whereas by Article 7 of the same Regulations it is further provided that if any person is found to be in the possession of any elephant's tusk weighing less than 11 lbs. or any ivory being in the opinion of the Court part of an elephant's tusk which would have weighed less than 11 lbs. he shall be guilty of an offence against those Regulations and the tusk or ivory shall be forfeited unless he proves that the tusk or ivory was not obtained in breach of those Regulations:

And whereas there is reason to believe that certain persons are in possession or control of rhino horns, cow elephant tusks and small ivory which they obtained prior to the publication of the said Regulations:

Notice is hereby given that up to the 30th April 1902 His Majesty's Government will on such rhino horns, cow elephant tusks and ivory being brought to any officer in the service of the Protectorate purchase the same provided they be in fair condition at such price as such officer shall consider the full value thereof subject to the vendor satisfying such officer that they came into his possession or control prior to the publication of the said Regulations.

After the said 30th April 1902 and before the 31st August 1902 His Majesty's Government will purchase such articles subject to the same conditions but at a price equal to 75% only of the price which such officer shall consider to be the full value thereof.

After 31st August 1902 and before the 31st December 1902 His Majesty's Government will purchase such articles subject to the same conditions but at a price equal to 50% only of the price which such officer shall consider to be the full value thereof.

After the said 31st December 1902 such purchases will cease and all persons in possession or control of such rhino horns, cow elephant tusks and ivory will be dealt with under the said Regulations.

APPOINTMENTS AND TRANSFERS.

Mr. C. C. Bowring to be Treasurer vice Mr. E. Bradbridge deceased. To date from October 1st 1901.

Reuter's Telegrams.

NOVEMBER 1ST.—The Cavalry Brigade at Aldershot have been ordered to be ready to start for South Africa in a fortnight.

The Paris newspapers announce that the Toulon portion of the Mediterranean Squadron have started for the Levant as a demonstration against Turkey.

Admiral Caillard commands the French Squadron, which left Toulon yesterday under sealed orders. It is believed that an important Turkish port will be occupied and the customs seized.

The "Ophir" has arrived in the Solent after a most tempestuous voyage. A large iceberg was passed in the middle of the night, directly in the steamer's course. Fortunately same was sighted by H. M. S. "Diadem."

The "Lancet" says that the unfavourable rumours with regard to His Majesty's health are baseless. The King is well and has undergone no operation.

NOVEMBER 2ND.—It is officially announced that four servants of the Central Hotel Glasgow are down with the Plague and one is dead.

The Paris newspapers state that Admiral Caillard has returned to Toulon owing to a telegram having been received from Constantinople to the effect that the Porte had yielded to the French demands.

The Squadron however remains in readiness to proceed to sea at any moment.

NOVEMBER 4TH.—The report that Admiral Caillard had returned is incorrect. The Fleet is expected to reach Turkish waters to-day.

Lord Kitchener telegraphing on the 1st, states that Kekewich after two marches surprised Vanalbert's laager, 30 miles Northeast of Rustenberg. He captured 78 Boers including Commandant Kloppe.

Their Majesties accompanied by the children of the Duke and Duchess of York met the Ophir in the Solent. The meeting on board the Royal Yacht was most affectionate.

Lord Kitchener telegraphing from Pretoria on the 1st states that the Boers estimated at one thousand strong delivered a serious attack on the rear-guard of Colonel Benson's column midway between Bethel and Balmoral. The rear-guard was rushed under cover of a thick mist and 2 guns were taken, but it is assumed that they have since been recaptured. Colonel Benson was wounded and has since died. 8 other officers were killed, 13 wounded nearly all severely, 58 men were killed and 156 wounded. Colonel Barter with a relief column reached the force on Saturday morning and states that the fighting between the rear-guard and the Boers was at close quarters, and was maintained with great determination on both sides. The Boers losses are heavy, but no reliable estimate has yet been received. The Boers retired eastward.

Additional casualties reported include 4 more officers of the Scottish Horse killed and Lieut. Maclean of the Artillery wounded.

The Sultan has undertaken to settle without delay the Lorando and other claims if the French squadron is withdrawn.

M. Delcassé has asked for guarantees and it is understood that France also demands the recognition of her right to protect Christians and to open schools.

Following further particulars have been received with regard to the action near Balmoral. The Boers attacked the rear-guard on the 30th capturing 2 guns. Colonel Benson was shot almost at the commencement of the action. Wools Sampson the Intelligence Officer then took command and successfully collected the convoy taking up a position for defence within 500 yards of the entrenchments made by the enemy. The guns on both sides were so situated that the Boers were unable to use theirs against us, neither could we use ours against them. The Boers made desperate endeavours to overwhelm the whole force. They charged repeatedly right up to the British lines. They were repulsed with heavy loss, estimated between three and four hundred.

It is thought that Louis Botha is making Northward with a force to invade Natal and that his movement is in combination with the Commando that attacked Benson.

NOVEMBER 5TH.—The French Chamber have adopted by 305 to 77 a vote of confidence in the Government. M. Delcassé in a speech before the vote was taken, emphasized the Government's resolve to uphold the moral, economic and material interests of France, as well as secure the protection of the French religious bodies both charitable and scholastic, in Turkey.

The new title for His Majesty has been officially proclaimed, viz :—King of the United Kingdom of Britain and Ireland, and all British Dominions beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India and all the Colonies.

NOVEMBER 6TH.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach speaking at Bristol said that the country had borrowed enormous sums on account of the war but without greatly disturbing the money market and with less injury to the nation than on any previous occasion. He was convinced that the Income-tax payers paid willingly because they were patriotic. He wished he could say that the terrible war was at an end but he could not and that it was quite possible later on that he might have to ask for increased taxation.

Admiral Caillard's Squadron arrived at Mitylene yesterday.

The Royal Canadian Regiment who are at present garrisoning Halifax, have volunteered for service in South Africa.

Admiral Caillard has been ordered to land men and occupy 3 ports and their Custom Houses in Mitylene, and France intends to pay herself out of the Custom House revenues. It is thought unlikely that she will take any further steps beyond holding the ports until all her demands are conceded.

NOVEMBER 7TH.—Admiral Caillard has telegraphed M. Bapst, the French Chargé at Constantinople that he has seized the Customs of Mitylene. France has also notified the Porte of certain additional demands and has stated that a complete settlement of all claims must precede any renewal of relations.

The Porte last night sent to the French Chargé at Constantinople a note enclosing monthly drafts on the Customs in payment of the Lorando and Tubini claims. They also notified him that certain decisions other than pecuniary had been referred to in a special note sent direct to Paris.

NOVEMBER 8TH.—Li-Hung-Chang died yesterday.

The Paris correspondent of the "Times" states that many Frenchmen are already picturing Mitylene as a French Cyprus commanding both the Dardanelles and the Levant, as well as the entrance to the Canal.

Kitchener telegraphing on the 6th states that the Boer losses in their attack on Colonel Benson's rear-guard amounted to 44 killed and 100 wounded. The Boers captured nothing except the 2 guns.

The French Government have issued a circular explaining their motives in occupying Mitylene and declaring that permanent occupation is not intended and that they will withdraw as soon as they have received sufficient guarantees in connection with their claims.

NOVEMBER 11TH.—Great Britain has accepted in principle the Turkish proposal to appoint a mixed commission to fix the Boundaries between Aden and the Hinterland.

The Duke of Cornwall has been created Prince of Wales and Earl of Chester.

Great Britain has no intention whatever of interfering in the Mitylene question. She regards the French action by no means with disfavour.

The Porte have accepted the French demands and the French Government replying to the Porte state that they will withdraw from Mitylene, as soon as the Sultan has ratified the decision, but that the Fleet will remain in the vicinity until Turkey has started to fulfill her promises.

Lord Salisbury speaking at the Guildhall said that it was a matter for congratulation that the Peace of the World had been so little disturbed by the slight cloud that had risen over the Mediterranean. The danger had now passed away but had this event occurred 50 years ago the mark left would not have been such a small one. In his opinion the war in South Africa was the only serious matter and he deprecated causeless pessimism with regard to it. Much of the nervousness shown was due to people not rightly understanding the kind of war that was now being waged. It happened frequently in History that a guerilla war lasted longer than was anticipated. It was impossible for him to state publicly all that was going on but he could assure his hearers that we are making sure and substantial progress to the goal that we have before us. He repudiated the idea that the Policy of Government was a changeable one or that they failed in any way to respond to the demands made by the Generals. England's Policy remained quite unchanged. She desired nothing better than to see the territories now in the throes of War, enjoying peace and freedom; also at the earliest possible period the other blessings arising from self-Government. The idea of Boer independence was incompatible with our own security and the country was quite resolved that this terrible war should not be allowed to occur again.

The Sultan has acceded to all French demands. M. Delcassé has informed the Porte that in consequence France resumes diplomatic relations and that Admiral Caillard has been ordered to leave Mitylene.

Admiral Caillard will probably proceed to Syria, and remain for some little time in Greek waters. Only 60 Blue-Jackets were landed from the Fleet and the Turkish Governor after protesting in writing removed the garrison of 500 Turkish soldiers in order to prevent the possibility of a collision.

Owing to the imperfect closing of the breach of a big gun on board the "Royal Sovereign" while at gun practice off Astakos in Greece, one officer and 6 of the gun's crew were killed. The Commander and 13 sailors were wounded.

NOVEMBER 12TH.—The newspapers generally speaking are disappointed with Lord Salisbury's Guildhall speech. They complain that no indication is shown of the employment of greater vigour to hasten the termination of the war. Thus the general feeling in the country remains that even now the Government do not realize the nature of the task.

The French Chargé d'Affairs has called on the Turkish Foreign Minister and has rehoisted the flag over the French Embassy in Constantinople.

The Council of Administration of the Hague Arbitration Court meets on the 20th to consider the Boer appeal.

In view of the despatch of the 2nd Dragoon Guards, and 7th Hussars to South Africa, two new provisional Regiments are to be formed.

NOVEMBER 13TH.—Admiral Caillard has sailed for Syria.

All the reserve Cavalry Squadrons have been ordered to prepare as strong drafts as possible to reinforce the Regiment now in Africa.

The casualty list in connection with the attack on Colonel Benson's rear-guard shows 86 killed and 216 wounded.

Lord Kitchener reports on the 11th that since the 4th 165 Boers have been killed and wounded and 149 taken prisoners or surrendered.

Methuen is moving against Delarey and Kemp. The Boers under De Wet have been recently collecting in the North East of the Orange Colony and columns are moving to disperse them.

Colonel Colin J. MacKenzie has assumed command of Benson's column. The Boers have been driven from the centre of Cape Colony and are collecting near Calvinia.

The Newspapers state that Roberts is considering the best means of reducing the expenses of officers to enable them to live on their pay.

OCTOBER 14—A Tremendous gale swept across the whole of the British Isles doing immense damage. 14 wrecks and 15 deaths by drowning are reported. The Calais Packet "Nord" sank a light ship off the Dover Pierworks. The crew of 16 were drowned. The "Nord" herself is ashore on the foreland.

The "Daily News" states that the Small Arms Committee have selected a modification of the Lee'Enfield, as a rifle suitable for all arms of the service. The new barrel will be shortened by 5 inches, and the twist of the rifling will be increased.

The Boers under Maritz attacked Picquetberg 45 miles from Cape Town on the 7th. The firing continued for 24 hours, the Boers being repulsed with the loss of 7 killed.

An eminent Obstetrician has been summoned to attend Queen Wilhelmina. The German papers announce that Her Majesty was prematurely confined on the 10th.

It is now stated that the Crew of the Light ship have been saved. Much loss of life has occurred in other wrecks round the Coast. The Revenue cutter "Active" has been wrecked off Leith and 23 of her Crew drowned.

NOTES.

On November 9th the King's birthday, Sir Charles Eliot proceeded at 8 a.m. to the military lines near which a Royal Salute was given and a feu de joie fired by the dépôt company of the E. A. Rifles, who then gave three cheers for the king with considerable vigour. Mr. Tritton was also present with several heads of departments and assistants.

At 8-30 a.m. H. M.'s. Commissioner returned to Government House, while Colonel Hatch proceed to the Mombasa Fort to inspect Mr. Marsden's corps of Customs Peons and Gaol Warders also to witness the release of ten prisoners in honour of the King's birthday.

At 10 a.m. the Europeans called officially on Sir Charles Eliot, at 11 the Arabs were received, at 11-30 the Goanese community arrived, and at 11-45 the British Indian deputations appeared.

In the evening Government House was illuminated with 400 lamps and Sir Charles Eliot gave a dinner to the senior officers and their wives, after which the whole party proceeded to the Mombasa Club to witness a very successful play of fire-works. The Civil Police lined the road from the Grand Hotel to the Club and appeared most impressive in the lurid light of the torches they held.

—:O:—

On the occasion of His Majesty's birthday, a Gymkhana was held at the Mombasa Sports Club. H. M. Commissioner entertained a considerable company of guests at luncheon at 1-30, the Sports beginning punctually at 3-30. There was a large number of entries for all the events, the two which caused the most amusement being the Cheroot and umbrella Race on Donkeys, and the Sack Race. An enthusiastic audience followed all the races with great interest, and a most successful afternoon was brought to a close by the distribution of the prizes by Mrs. Hatch.

—:O:—

At Nairobi every endeavour was made to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of His Most Gracious Majesty King Edward VII. The day broke with threatening rain but as time wore on the clouds cleared away and the day was all that could be desired, in fact we had what is proverbially known as "Queen's weather."

The day was observed as a general holiday, and during the Parade and the Sports the Holiday crowd was large and decidedly interesting, the Swahili population turned out in clean white Kanzus, the Indians in their coloured garments, the Wakikuyu in varied garb and in some instances with very little of anything, while Lenana the Masai Chieftain with over a hundred spear men added a decided amount of interest to the day. In smaller numbers the Wakamba, and Somalis were represented.

There was a large attendance of Europeans &c. at both the Parade and the Gymkhana.

The Parade and Sports were held on the ground of the Nairobi Sports Club.

The Troops were on the ground punctually at 10-30, and by 11-15 the ceremony of firing the feu de joie and marching past had been gone through, both events were highly successful.

Three Companies of Troops took part in the Parade and it is interesting to note that amongst these men were half a company of Masai.

The Sports did not commence until 2-30 p.m. when a large crowd was present, the various events were keenly contested, the Masai were very keen competitors in the Races for Africans.

The Perambulator Race and Cigar and Bun Race were most amusing.

After the conclusion of the various events over one hundred Masai warriors marched past and then indulged in some exciting representations of their modes of fighting, &c.

Mrs. Ainsworth at the close distributed the various prizes.

By 5-30 p.m. the meeting was over and the holiday crowd went its way home after a most enjoyable day.

Mr. Evans, the Honorary Secretary of the Sports Club, very kindly and ably laid out the ground and assisted considerably to the success of the meeting.

By kind permission of Major Harrison D. S. O. and the Officers of the East Africa Rifles, the Military Band was in attendance.

ZEBRAS.

The Baron Bronsart von Sheblendorff's experiments in capturing and taming wild Zebra having proved a success he is now in a position to supply these animals at rates as quoted below, within nine months of the receipt of orders. The Zebra is quite tamable, has an extremely powerful chest with full muscular development and strong tethers; above all it is immune to the tse-tse fly and epidemics generally; in character it much resembles that of the horse, which varies according to the individuals.

Prices, according to points, character, age, sex and degree of training, as follows:

Tamed Zebras, but not broken inRs 200 to 300

Zebras tamed and broken in as per order „ 400 to 600

Photographs taken at "Trakehnen," Zebra breeding farm near Mbuguni (Kilimanjaro) can be viewed on demand.
