MOMBASA, JUNE 15, 1901.

[PRICE 3 ANNAS.]

FAMINE FUND.

A public meeting was held on the 3rd June at the Protectorate Court to consider suggestions for the disposal of the balance of the Fund. Mr. J. H. Wilson was moved into the chair. After some discussion it was proposed by Mr. Espie and seconded by Mr. Grierson (1) that the money remaining in hand should be devoted to the relief of famine only. (2) that it should be vested in the trustees. (3) that the trustees should have no power to expend any part of the Fund until authorised to do so by a public meeting called by them. This proposal was carried unanimously, and it was further decided to ask Messrs. Smith Mackenzie and Co., the Bishop, and the Protectorate Judge, to act as trustees.

(Signed) R. W. HAMILTON,
Honorary-Secretary.

EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE

The following Regulations published by Sir Arthur Hardinge, on the 15th March, 1899, are republished for general information.

Regulations for the guidance of all Public Officers in the East Africa Protectorate, made by Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul-General, with the approval of the Secretary of State.

(1). From and after the publication of these Regulations no pensionable officer in the regular service of the East Africa Protectorate shall, either directly or indirectly, save with the authorisation of the Secretary of State acquire any land or any share or beneficial interest in land situated within the territory of the Protectorate, other than a garden or ground attached to his dwelling, and not cultivated with a view to the sale of the produce thereof. He may not acquire or hold, either directly or indirectly, any beneficial interest in any concession within the Protectorate, or in any house property, other than a house for his own occupation within it.

This regulation shall not apply to natives as defined in the "Native Court Regulations 1897," or to persons not being "natives" who are domiciled in the East Africa Protectorate.

(2.) No Officer shall engage in commercial pursuits or purchase shares in any local land or mining Company, nor take part in the management of any commercial undertaking notwithstanding that he may have invested money therein, nor shall any Officer make or continue an investment which may interest him privately in an affair or undertaking with which his public duty is connected. An Officer should confidentially consult the Government concerning any investment which may be reasonably open to doubt.

(3.) These Regulations shall apply to the holding of land or of any beneficial interest in land by an Officer in the name or names of members of his family. They shall not apply to Officers who may become possessed of land or houses by inheritance or devise and not by purchase; but all Officers whether pensionable or unpensionable and, whether native or not, are required to report any acquisition of land or houses to the Government.

(4.) The Commissioner will decide in regard to property or investment acquired by any Officer whether it is necessary in the public interests to require the officer to divest himself thereof. Should an Officer fail to act in accordance with the instructions he may receive, he will be liable to be removed from the service.

(Signed) ARTHUR H. HARDINGE,

H. M's. Commissioner and Consul-General

Mombasa, March 15th, 1899.

Reuter's Telegrams.

JUNE 1ST.—Plumer's convoy was attacked near Bethel and after 6 hours fighting repelled the enemy. Our losses were 6 killed and 20 wounded and the enemy lost 35.

The Kaiser's compliments to France have caused a profound sensation in Germany and the English Press discuss the matter at some length, but hitherto the matter has been uncommented on in France. The Daily News correspondent at Berlin understands that the speech is a proof that a rapprochement between Germany, France and Russia may shortly be expected.

Lord Kitchener in a despatch states that Delarey attacked Dixon's force on the 29th ultimo at Vlakkfontein, southeast of Heidelberg. The enemy were eventually driven off, and left 35 dead on the ground. Our losses were 174 killed and wounded.

JUNE 3RD.—It is stated that Satow has informed the Chinese envoys that the British will not evacuate the country until the indemnity question has been settled.

The Queen of Italy's little daughter has been named Yolanda Margherita. The Italian Premier announced this fact to the Chamber, which adjourned as a mark of rejoicing.

The Dutch Consul at Pretoria has been staying in Standerton, he has now returned to Pretoria leaving a representative at the former named place. It is rumoured that Botha is coming to Standerton for the purpose of communicating with Kruger, through the Dutch representative, his views in favour of peace.

General Smut and Botha's Secretary, De Wet have arrived at Standerton and it is assumed that their visit* is in connection with peace proposals.

The Korea Government are sending troops to the scene of the rioting in Quelpart.

The birth of the Italian Princess is occasioning great rejoicings throughout Italy. An amnesty has been granted for various offences, including crimes in connection with the riots of 1898, except those of homicide.

The Somaliland expedition reached Ber on the 22nd of May; from there the mounted force will make a dash across some 70 miles of waterless desert in order to attack the powerful Jamasiad tribe who are fanatical supporters of the Mullah. The infantry will follow as soon as possible.

Two missionaries have been murdered in Quelpart. Two French and one Japanese Ironclad have gone to the Island.

JUNE 4TH.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Washington states that Germany, France and England will be the only Powers garrisoning the points between Peking and the Sea.

The casualty lists at Vlakkfontein show that the 23rd Field Battery lost 6 killed and 12 wounded.

Reuter's Agent at Tientsin reports that last Sunday night 5 men of the Welsh Fusiliers assisted the Police in preventing some French soldiers breaking into a house. The French soldiers then attacked with bayonets and bricks: the Fusiliers replied by firing into the air. Some Germans then went to the assistance of the French, bringing up their number to over 200. Ultimately the Fusiliers fired on the attacking force killing 1 Frenchman and wounding 8 French and Germans; 4 Fusiliers and 1 Japanese were wounded.

Count von Waldersee left Peking on the 3rd. There was a great military display including salutes and music. All the Diplomats were present to say farewell.

The Ministers of the Powers are still discussing the question as to what length of time is to be allowed China in which to pay the indemnity.

Lord Kitchener reports that 2 more Yeomanry Officers were killed at Vlakkfontein and that 1 is still missing.

Mons. Delcassé speaking in the French Chamber favoured a common guarantee for the Chinese loan, because all Powers would then be interested in maintaining the integrity of China.

JUNE 5TH.—Colonel Dixon's engagement was at Vlakkfontein, 60 miles Northwest of Johannesburg.

The German version of the Tientsin affair is that the German Police guard supported the British, though a few Germans and Japanese aided the French.

It is officially advised that a British force consisting of 1,450 men and 7 guns, which had been engaged at Vlakkfontein, were returning to camp when under cover of a veldt fire the Boers rushed their rear guard capturing 2 guns; these guns were recaptured and on the remaining portion of the British force coming into action, the Boer position was occupied. 41 Boers were found killed. Our casualties were 186 including 7 officers killed and 6 wounded.

JUNE 6TH.—Kritzinger has captured and looted Jamestown. General French has been entrusted with the conduct of Operations in the Cape.

It is officially announced that the Boers who attacked Dixon, numbered 1200 under Kemp.

The following is the result of the Derby.

1. Volodyovski
2. William
3. Veronese

General Gaselee describes the affray at Tientsin as a drunken brawl, which in no way affects the cordial relations existing between the English and the French. German advices confirm this.

A great fire has broken out in the forbidden city, owing to lightning. The Imperial library, with archives containing invaluable records, has been destroyed.

Count von Waldersee has sailed for Japan.

A British force from Aliwal has recaptured a quantity of stores that was looted from Jamestown after defeating the enemy.

JUNE 7TH.—The "Ophir" sailed for Auckland yesterday.

It is officially stated that our losses in South Africa in May, from death and disease, amount to 734 of which 25 were officers.

Colonel Wilson Commanding Kitchener's Scouts, surprised a portion of Beyer's Commando near Warmbaths. They fled after a stubborn resistance losing 37 killed, and practically all their transport and supplies. 100 prisoners were captured. Our losses were seven killed and eighteen wounded.

A report from the War Office Committee advocates centralization; but the real delegation of authority and responsibility will be with the District Commanders.

JUNE 8TH.—In the House of Commons, the Committee of supply have voted £15,779,000 for transport remounts. Mr. Brodrick stated that he had just received a telegram from Lord Kitchener to the effect that there were now between 50 to 60 thousand men, well mounted, in the field.

The Moorish Mission headed by the Minister of war has arrived in England to congratulate His Majesty on his accession. The Mission is being treated with marked attention and ceremony.

Count Goluchowski speaking to an Austrian Delegation, refused to entertain the idea of invoking the Hague Convention for the purpose of mediating between Great Britain and the Boers; he stated that Austria had no desire to act in a way unfriendly towards Great Britain, with whom she wished to live in peace and friendship.

The following is the result of the Oaks.

1. Cap and Bells.
2. Sabrinetta.
3. Minnie Dee.

JUNE 10TH.—There has been one case of plague on H. M. S. Manorel the guardship at Simonstown.

Mrs. Botha arrived yesterday morning at Southampton and proceeded at once to London. The date of her departure for Holland and Belgium is not yet fixed. She has been refused an interview in London.

The American Government propose to submit the Chinese indemnity question to the Hague Tribunal.

There have been 18 cases of plague in Egypt since the 7th of April; 7 cases were fatal, and 11 are still in hospitals.

Nine soldiers were killed in a Railway accident on the Pretoria Pietersburg line.

Li Hung Chang has informed the Ministers that the return of the Court at Peking has been postponed until September owing to the great heat and the Queen Dowager's age.

M. Doumer, Governor of Indo-China, has formed a Company with a capital of seventy million francs to construct a Railway to Yunnan. The Government of Indo-China pays an annual subvention of three million francs.

The Moorish Mission to England accompanied by Kaid Maclean excites much interest in the French and Spanish newspapers, who are greatly preoccupied over the Morocco question. There is some talk of a French Protectorate.

Another party of Boers have been surprised near Lady Grey; 20 prisoners were taken and thirteen thousand rounds of ammunition captured.

During the last week there have been 18 cases and 10 deaths from plague in Cape Town; the total number of cases up to date are 684, of which 318 have been fatal. These figures include 173 cases and 57 deaths amongst the Europeans.

JUNE 11TH.—Surrendered burghers in the Middelburg district of the Transvaal, have been supplied with arms by the British, and are now willingly protecting the stock grazing on the lowlands.

Lord Kitchener denies the accuracy of the news concerning the surprise to Beyer's Commando.

America has formally advised the Powers, that she will not consent to a joint guarantee for the Chinese indemnity.

3,600 German troops will remain in China, 800 of which are to be stationed in Shanghai.

Their Majesties received the Moorish Mission at St. James's Palace. Kaid Maclean translated the Sultan's congratulations; also His Majesty's reply.

The Duke and Duchess of York have arrived at Auckland.

OBITUARY—Walter Besant is dead.

JUNE 12TH.—Lord Kitchener's contradiction reported yesterday refers to Colonel Wilson's supposed action at Warmbaths.

The "Standard's" correspondent at Durban, reports that Lord Kitchener has granted the Dutch Consul facilities to interview, at Standerton, General Tobias Smut and De Wet, the Secretary of Botha. He has also placed the telegraph at their disposal to enable them to communicate with Mr. Kruger.

Lord Kitchener replying to a telegram from Mr. Brodrick curtly denies that Beyer's commando has been surprised. It is supposed that the information came from Colonel Wilson; but Lord Kitchener explains nothing. The Official list of casualties among Kitchener's Scouts on the 1st and 2nd of this month shows 7 killed and 18 wounded at Pienarsriver which is near Warmbaths.

Lord Kitchener telegraphs that Vanrensburg has surrendered with his Commando at Pietersburg.

During the last week there have been 116 cases of plague and 155 deaths at Hongkong.

The Exchequer returns from 1st of January, to the 8th of June, show receipts amounting to twenty-two millions and expenditure thirty-nine millions.

It is now believed that the recent fire at Peking was due to a secret Edict ordering the destruction of the Archives.

Mr. McKinley has declined to be nominated for the third time as President.

JUNE 13TH.—Two Boers at Pretoria who had taken the oath of neutrality were captured while attempting to join a Commando. They were courtmartialled and shot.

Lord Cranborne in answer to a question in the House of Commons, states that he understood that Germany intended to continue her garrison at Shanghai for the present, and that no explanation had been furnished Great Britain on the subject.

At a parade, at the Horse guards, His Majesty presented 3,000 medals to soldiers, volunteers, Foreign attache's, and to a number of officers and civilians, who have distinguished themselves during the war.

It is reported from Washington that the Powers are not yet agreed as to the amount of the Chinese indemnity although China has offered 450 million Taels.

JUNE 14TH.—The Duke and Duchess of York have started to visit Lake Rotorua.

The Transvaal society at Brussels have issued a note in which they declare that the rumours with regard to the peace negotiations between Botha and Kruger are unfounded.

The Monsoon has burst in India.

Mr. Balfour states that the rumours as regards peace are unfounded; that there are still 17,000 Boers in the field, mostly divided in bands of a few hundred each.

Lord Cranborne states that the commanders of the allied forces in China, consider that it would be necessary to leave a garrison of 6,000 men there, exclusive of the guards for the Legations,

Sir David Barbour's report, on the Finances of the Transvaal and the Orange River Colonies, recommends that a tax of 10 per cent. on the profits of the mines be levied.
