THE TRADE DISPUTES ACT
(No. 9 of 1964)

In the matter of arbitration between the Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union and the Kenya Cold Storage Company Limited.

THE AWARD

IN the matter of arbitration between the Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union and their employer, the Kenya Cold Storage Company Limited:

Whereas in accordance with the provisions of section 8 (3) (b) of the Trade Disputes Act, 1964, I was appointed an arbitrator on 12th June 1964, sitting with two Assessors to constitute a Tribunal to settle the issues in dispute as stated in the Labour Commissioner's letter reference No. ARB: 2/9/64 of 12th June 1964.

Now we, having duly considered the matter referred to us, do hereby make the Award as follows:—

1. In view of the fact that the Kenya Cold Storage Company Limited brought to the notice of the Tribunal that they were going to close down their business by August 1964, for various reasons, it was agreed by both parties in dispute that issues in our terms of reference, namely; hours of work, travelling allowance, house allowance and medical allowance should be dropped from the items of dispute. This agreement was brought to the notice of the Ministry and we were to proceed with the determination of only one issue: i.e. severance pay in cases of redundancy.

2. The Tribunal duly considered two memorandums from the parties in dispute regarding severance pay in view of the fact that the Company was going to close down. The Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union demand six weeks salary for each employee in each year of service.

The Kenya Cold Storage Company on the other hand offered to pay one week's salary to each employee in every two years of service.

3. The Tribunal gave the issue very close attention and went through the Company's Balance Sheet for 1960, 1961 and 1962 and also got the figures for 1963 from the Management, in order to find out the financial position of the Company.

Finally the Tribunal decided unanimously that the Kenya Cold Storage Company Limited should pay to each of their employees two (2) weeks' salary in each year of service.

In coming to the conclusion, the Tribunal noted that the Kenya Cold Storage Company had given three months' notice to each employee (from 15th July to 15th October 1964) and this fact was taken into account by the Tribunal while deciding on two weeks' severance pay to each employee for each year of service.
