THE ELECTION OFFENCES ACT

(Cap. 66)

(1966 By-elections)

NOTICE TO EMPLOYERS

THE attention of employers is drawn to section 13 of the Election Offences Act which, inter alia, requires every employer, on polling day, to allow every elector in his employ a reasonable period for voting without making any deduction from the pay or other remuneration of any such elector or imposing upon or exacting from him any penalty by reason of his absence during such period.

The poll for each of—

- the House of Representatives constituencies specified in the first column of the Schedule to this notice will be taken on 11th and 12th June 1966;
- the Senate constituencies specified in the second column of the Schedule to this notice will be taken on 18th and 19th June 1966;
- the House of Representatives constituencies specified in the third column of the Schedule to this notice will be taken on 25th and 26th June 1966, in the polling stations published in the notice of the poll given by each returning officer of the various constituencies set out in the said Schedule to this notice.
