[PRICE 3 ANNAS.]

EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

The following Regulations have been approved by H. M. Commissioner and Consul-General and will come into force on February 1st. 1900.

REGULATIONS WITH REGARD TO THE DESPATCH OF TELEGRAMS BY EAST AFRICA
PROTECTORATE OFFICERS OVER THE UGANDA RAILWAY WIRES.

1. No telegram whatever to be despatched over the Railway wires by a Protectorate Officer (Civil or Military) when a letter will equally well serve the purpose. Should a senior Officer instruct a junior Officer to reply by wire the senior Officer will be held responsible for both messages.

2. Every Government telegram despatched to be classed either "E. A. P." (East Africa Protectorate) or "U. P." (Uganda Protectorate) so that the Chief Accountant of the Uganda Railway may have no difficulty in rendering accounts to each Protectorate separately.

3. Telegrams which are despatched on actual Railway service to be classed "R." so that these may not be charged to either Protectorate.

4. Any Officer sending a telegram without reasonable necessity, i.e. in a case where a letter would have sufficed will be called upon by the Treasurer for an explanation. Should this explanation not be deemed satisfactory the telegram will be referred to H. M. Commissioner who will then decide whether the Officer shall be called upon to pay for the message himself.

5. It appears that Officer have sent private messages classed "S" (State) or "X. S." (Urgent State). The Treasurer will in future refer such messages to H. M. Commissioner who will decide whether the Officer despatching the message shall be called upon to pay double the cost of the message so marked.

6. Only in the most urgent cases are messages to be classed "X. S." as these are charged double rates by the Railway. Any message which in the opinion of the Treasurer should have been classed "S" only, will be referred to H. M. Commissioner who will decide whether the excess cost shall be paid for by the Officer despatching the telegram.

7. Telegrams to be despatched in as few words as may be consistent with making the meaning clear, and complimentary phrases avoided as much as possible. No words of a private or semi-private nature to be added to an Official message.

8. When a message is despatched to more than one Officer in the same place it is only necessary to send the telegram to one Officer, "Copy to—" can be added.

9. All private messages must be paid for when despatched as the Treasurer declines to collect bills for private telegrams.

(Sd.) E. BRADBRIDGE
Treasurer.

(Sd.) ARTHUR H. HARDINGE,
H. M. Commissioner and Consul-General.

Mombasa, 28th December, 1899.

P.S.—Officers in Ukamba and at Rabai will please continue to send monthly lists of their telegrams to the Treasury.

REGULATIONS.

The following Regulations made by Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul-General for the East Africa Protectorate under article 45 of the East Africa Order-in-Council and hereby declared to be urgent are published for general information.

VAGRANCY REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE I.—The word "Vagrant" in these Regulations means any person found asking for alms or wandering about without any employment or visible means of subsistence.

ARTICLE II.—Any police Officer may arrest without warrant any person who is apparently a "Vagrant" and shall forthwith take him before the nearest Magistrate, whose powers are not less than those of a Magistrate of the Second Class under the Indian Criminal Procedure Code.

ARTICLE III.—The Magistrate shall in any case where a person charged with Vagrancy under these Regulations comes before him, make an enquiry into the circumstances and character of the apparent Vagrant and record the same and if he is satisfied that such person is a "Vagrant" may commit him to the Civil Jail as a "Vagrant" for a period not exceeding three months.

ARTICLE IV.—"Vagrants" committed to the Jail under these Regulations shall be subject to the same rules of management and discipline as other prisoners of the same Nationality confined therein, provided that Vagrants shall not wear prison dress nor shall they be lodged with criminal prisoners unless the Magistrate so directs.

ARTICLE V.—Any "Vagrant" who is guilty of a breach of jail discipline, may in lieu of any punishment prescribed therefor, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with rigorous imprisonment for a term, which may extend to two months, which punishment shall not affect the original order of the Magistrate committing him to Jail.

ARTICLE VI.—The Governor of the Jail shall provide employment for "Vagrants" confined in the jail under these Regulations, and each person so confined shall be credited with such sum, not less than eight annas per diem, as wages, as the Governor of the Jail may direct.

ARTICLE VII.—When the sum standing to the credit of any "Vagrant" shall be sufficient to provide for such "Vagrant's" passage to his original place of abode, or to such place as the Magistrate may think fit, or at any previous time on the order of the Magistrate, a passage shall be taken for such "Vagrant" and he shall be conveyed on board ship, or otherwise despatched, if going by land, by a Police Officer. Any money, which may remain over after providing for such "Vagrant's" passage as aforesaid, shall either be paid to such "Vagrant" after his departure from Mombasa or be expended for his benefit, as the Magistrate may think fit.

ARTICLE VIII.—Any "Vagrant" refusing to embark or proceed on his journey when directed so to do under Article VII. or escaping to the shore from the ship in which he has so embarked, before she has left the port of departure, shall for every such offence be punished on conviction before a Magistrate with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three months.

ARTICLE IX.—Any person who has once been committed to jail as a Vagrant shall on any subsequent conviction of Vagrancy be liable to be punished with a term of imprisonment of either description not exceeding six months in addition to any other order which may be made under these Regulations.

ARTICLE X.—These Regulations shall be applicable to such area or areas as may be notified by Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul-General from time to time in the Government Gazette.

ARTICLE XI.—The foregoing Regulations shall be substituted for the Regulations made on the 12th day of January, 1898, and the 7th May, 1898. and may be cited as the "Vagrancy Regulations, 1900."

These Regulations are hereby applied to the Island of Mombasa.

East Africa Protectorate.

REGULATIONS.

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by the East Africa Order-in-Council 1899 I hereby make the following appointments.

1. The Protectorate Judge is hereby appointed to be District Magistrate of the East Africa Protectorate under the Indian Criminal Procedure Code hereinafter referred to as the Code.

2. All Sub-Commissioners of the Protectorate (except the Sub-Commissioner for the Province of Seyyidieh) are hereby appointed to be Magistrates of the First Class under the Code provided that they shall not pass any sentence on a European or American other than imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or both.

3. All Collectors of the Protectorate are hereby appointed to be Second Class Magistrates under the Code with the additional powers with which Second Class Magistrates may be invested under Section 37 of the said Code but without Jurisdiction over Europeans and Americans.

4. All Assistant Collectors of the Protectorate are hereby appointed to be Magistrates of the Third Class under the Code with the additional powers with which Third Class Magistrates may be invested under Section 37 of the said Code, but without Jurisdiction over Europeans and Americans.

Provided that the said Collectors and Assistant Collectors shall not be prevented from taking cognisance of an offence committed by any European or American in any case in which they could take cognisance of a like offence if committed by another person, but so that if any such Collector or Assistant Collector shall issue process for the purpose of compelling the appearance of any European or American accused of an offence such process shall be made returnable before a Magistrate having Jurisdiction to enquire into or try the case.

5. All Sub-Commissioners, Collectors, and Assistant Collectors are hereby appointed to be Assistant Judges under "The Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869."

(Signed) ARTHUR H. HARDINGE,

H. M. Commissioner and Consul-General

Mombasa, February 1st, 1900
