THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 20 OF 1976

Parties:—

Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers and Bhagwanji Motors

Issue in dispute:—

Refusal by the management to honour a collective agreement voluntarily signed with the union on 2nd April, 1975.

1. The Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Bhagwanji Motors shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 8th June, 7th July and 8th July, 1976, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions, called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:—

Claimants: W. J. Were.

Respondents: S. B. Kawa.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 5th January, 1976, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 10th March along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The parties signed a document on 2nd April, 1975, which the Claimants allege is a collective agreement between them regulating terms and conditions of employment of the Respondents' unionizable employees. In this document clause 21 on wages reads as follows:—

"The Union proposes a flat rate of 60 per cent wage increment on and above all the employees' present salaries; and these wage increments to remain in force for 12 months.

(b) The Union further proposes a minimum wage to be Sh. 500 p.m.

(c) Method of Paying Wages.—Wages shall be paid twice in a month. The first payment which shall be known as mid-month advance shall fall due on the 15th of every month. If, however, the 15th day of the month falls on a Sunday or Public Holiday, the mid-month advance shall be paid any day prior to that.

The month end salary shall fall due on the last day of the month. If in any case the last day of the month falls on a Sunday or Public Holiday, the salary shall be paid any day prior to that."

The Claimants have relied on the aforesaid clause and have demanded a sum of Sh. 4,826/80 for each of their five members Messrs. S. Marende, J. Juma, T. Aoko, J. Nguka and I. Alusiola making a total of Sh. 24,144 being their arrears for 16 months.

The Claimants have relied on the effective date of the aforesaid document which is 1st January, 1974, up to the end of April, 1975, and are claiming a further difference in wages of Sh. 301 p.m. for each one of them up to end of August, 1975, the date when the Respondents joined the Motor Trade and Allied Employers' Association (hereinafter referred to as the Association).

The background to this dispute is most intriguing because sometime in 1972 and prior to that there was a group in existence called the Kisumu and Kericho Motor Engineering Employers' Group which had entered into a collective agreement with the Claimants the last one being effective from 1st January, 1972, expiring on 30th June, 1973. The Respondents along with another 12 employers were members of this Group.

It is admitted by both the parties that this Group disintegrated after the expiry of the aforesaid collective agreement and the Claimants started pursuing their claims on behalf of their members with the former members of the Group on individual basis.

On 10th October, 1973, the Claimants' Provincial Organizing Secretary wrote a letter to the Respondents in which he confirmed the discussion he had with the Respondents under the chairmanship of the Labour Officer, Mr. Ivui, under which the wages of the following employees were adjusted:—

"S. Marende ...	from Sh. 375 to Sh. 400 net.
J. Juma ...	from Sh. 250 to Sh. 303 net.
T. Aoko ...	from Sh. 250 to Sh. 303 net.
J. Nguka ...	from Sh. 250 to Sh. 303 net."

It is interesting that the Claimants alleged during the hearing that the Respondents had not implemented the wages as specified in the Group agreement and they had in fact relied to a very large extent on this allegation in putting forth their aforesaid demand against the Respondents. This stand, however, is quite contradictory to what their own Provincial Organizing Secretary at the time had agreed with the Respondents. Surely it was up to the Claimants' official at the time to either insist that the Respondents should honour the Group agreement if they were not doing so or to record it somewhere before the Labour Officer that the Claimants were agreeing to certain arrangements on 10th October, 1973, without prejudice to their claim against the Respondents for claiming arrears based on the Group agreement. There is no evidence whatsoever to show that the Claimants' branch official ever did so.

The matter continued like that when the then Provincial Organizing Secretary was transferred and the present incumbent of the post came to the area. He promptly forwarded proposals for a collective agreement to all the former members of the Group on individual basis on 29th August, 1974. The Respondents were also served with a copy of the same.

On 23rd October, 1974, the parties had a meeting and entered into an agreement which was produced before the Court by the Respondents as an appendix. In this agreement the Claimants got a commitment from the Respondents stating that they were active members of the Group and after confirming that the Group had an agreement with the Claimants that they would continue to honour the terms and conditions of employment as contained in the Group agreement until such time that another agreement is made and signed. Further the parties agreed that the arrears claimed originally by the Claimants will be checked by the parties as will be the staff grading.

On 29th November, 1974, the parties entered into the following agreement:—

Employees	Grades	Salaries Sh.
Sila Marende ...	IV	503
J. Juma ...	IV	503
J. Aoko ...	IV	503
J. Nguka ...	IV	503
I. Alusiola ...	IV	503

Effective date.—1st December, 1974, except grading which can be reviewed when necessary. Other terms and conditions shall be a subject of review by negotiation between the parties to take place shortly.

The Court notes with interest that the effective date of the aforesaid agreement is 1st December, 1974, and that this agreement shall be a subject of review by negotiation by the parties to take place shortly. The Respondents' spokesman told the Court that their interpretation of the word "shortly" was between 6 to 12 months and the Claimants' Provincial Organizing Secretary stated and confirmed by his action that "shortly" meant the same day because in the afternoon he wrote a letter to the Respondents asking them to enter into negotiations. This gentleman flooded the Respondents with 72 letters from the time he took his post in Kisumu in a matter of a few months. No wonder the Respondents' Director was completely confused as to what was happening.

Then followed the document on which the Claimants have based their claim which was called a collective agreement and implementation of which they are seeking through the Court award.

The Respondents' witness, S. B. Kawa, stated that the Provincial Organizing Secretary, W. J. Were, came to him at about 12 mid-day and asked him to sign a document saying that that was the collective agreement which they had agreed to and as he completely trusted Were, he signed the document without reading it. The Court must castigate Kawa for doing such a thing and had it not been for the fact that there are other very strong and compelling reasons which have prompted the Court to find that the document he has signed is not a collective agreement the Court would not have accepted his explanation.

As it is, the Court finds that the so called collective agreement which Kawa and Were signed is nothing but a set of proposals which the Claimants have made and as the document stands the inference is that Kawa has agreed that these are the proposals put forward by the Claimants but there is certainly no agreement anywhere at all in this to show that he has accepted these proposals. The wage clause has been reproduced hereinabove and as it stands at present is meaningless.

The Court finds the behaviour of the Claimants' Provincial Organizing Secretary most odd and contradictory and it lends credence to what Kawa stated that Were had really confused him so much that he just did not know what he was doing.

The Court would like to record that in October, 1973, the Respondents gave their employees a wage increase of Sh. 53 p.m. amounting to 21.2 per cent against the cost of living increase of 12.9 per cent for the relevant period. Again in November, 1974, the Respondents gave their employees a wage increase of Sh. 200 p.m. taking their wages up to Sh. 503 p.m. giving an increase of 66 per cent as against the cost of living increase of 19.2. The Court notes that the Guidelines operative at that time allowed a maximum increase per month of Sh. 50 only.

Now the Claimants want by implementation of the so called collective agreement an increase of Sh. 300 p.m. on Sh. 503 p.m. for each of their five members. All this is clearly and completely out of step with the Guidelines which the Minister for Finance has issued to the Industrial Court.

The Court has very carefully examined the so called collective agreement dated 2nd April, 1975, and in view of the wording of clause 1 where several companies are alleged to be according full recognition to the Claimants with their names appearing in Appendix 1 which, of course, is missing from the document and the fact that under the wages clause only the Union's proposal has been set out the Court finds that the document on which the Claimants are relying and asking for it to be implemented is not a collective agreement at all. Had it been a proper agreement and had it been properly registered by the Industrial Court then the Court would not have allowed the Respondents to back out of it as the Court has ruled in several cases in the past.

In this dispute, however, there is not only no proper collective agreement between the parties but further they are seeking implementation of a document which they claimed to be a collective agreement which has not been registered by the Industrial Court as required by the provisions of the Trade Disputes Act. If for nothing else, for this reason alone the Claimants' demand must fail.

The Court notes that the Respondents have joined the Motor Trade and Allied Industries Employers Association with effect from 1st September, 1975, and this has resulted in their giving their employees a further wage increase of Sh. 137 p.m. amounting to 27.2 per cent. It is very relevant that the Claimants' Deputy General Secretary wrote a letter to the Executive Officer of the Association in the following terms:—

"I am happy that this employer has declared his intention to join your association—an action which will reduce all the present enormous problems between us and this employer. But at the time of writing this letter a Conciliator has already been appointed. I therefore would suggest that the dispute continues till your Executive Council elects this employer to the membership; and then at that stage we will drop the present dispute and the employer will automatically revert to the Union/Association terms of employment."

One other important point which the Court cannot overlook is the fact that another identical dispute which the Claimants had with another firm in Kisumu was settled during the conciliation stage with the workers getting a wage increase of 15 per cent only and yet the next day when parties to this dispute were called to conciliation the Claimants insisted on a wage increase of 60 per cent.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that the Claimants' demand is totally misconceived and the Court accordingly rejects it.

Given in Nairobi this 23rd day of August, 1976.

Judge.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2602

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
