GAZETTE NOTICE No. 157

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 69 OF 1975

Parties:—

Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers

E.A. Power and Lighting Co. Ltd

Issue in dispute.—Wages and duration.

1. The Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and E.A. Power and Lighting Co. Ltd shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 27th and 28th November, 1975, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 10th September, 1975, was received by the Court on 22nd September along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

A collective agreement was entered into between the Kenya Electrical Trades Workers' Union and the Respondents on 12th July, 1974. It was registered by the Industrial Court on 7th August, 1974, and the relevant entry is RCA. 126/74. This agreement is effective from 1st May, 1974, to 30th April, 1977, and it is accepted by the parties to the dispute that although the previous collective agreement was not due to expire until 31st December, 1974, both the parties to that agreement mutually agreed to backdate the effective date of the new salaries to 1st May, 1974.

The Respondents were advised on 1st February, 1975, that the Claimants had been registered on 28th January, 1975, and that as a result the registration of the Kenya Electrical Trades Workers' Union had been cancelled. On 6th February, 1975, in answer to a query from the Respondents the Claimants confirmed in writing that they would honour all agreements signed between the Kenya Electrical Trades Workers' Union and the Respondents.

On 4th March, 1975, the Claimants asked for a meeting with the Respondents in order to discuss wage increases to compensate workers for the increase in cost of living.

The Respondents at that time and since then all along have maintained that they considered it undesirable to tamper with a current collective agreement. The Claimants, however, insisted on pressing their demand as follows:—

"(a) Increase in wages:

Scales A-C.—20 per cent.

Scales D-F.—15 per cent.

Scales G-H.—12½ per cent.

(b) Period of validity of the agreement to be reduced to 12 months.

(c) Up-grading of clerical posts.

(d) Increase in transfer allowance.

(e) Increase in meals allowance.

(f) Introduction of leave allowance."

At a meeting between the parties the Respondents explained their position why they were opposed to reopening negotiations and the Claimants reported the existence of the trade dispute to the Minister for Labour on 27th May, 1975.

The conciliation process was set in motion but another matter cropped up regarding the Claimants' contention that there was no recognition agreement between them and the Respondents. This complicated matters somewhat and created confusion. A conciliation meeting, however, did take place but resulted in no success.

At one stage the Ministry of Labour due to the Claimants' stand on recognition suspended conciliation proceedings until such time as matters affecting recognition had been finalized. Subsequently the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour, wrote a letter to the parties on 21st August, 1975, and in a paragraph in that letter he wrote as follows:—

"It is clear from the new Union's letter AU/EAPLCL/45 of 7th August, 1975, that it recognizes the validity of the conciliation which we had earlier put into motion in respect of 'wages and duration' excluding other items in the agreement which the Electrical Trades Workers' Union had entered into with the E.A. Power and Lighting Co. Ltd. In view of this the withdrawal of conciliation contained in our letter ML/IR/46/17/75 dated 14th August, 1975, which we did under section 6 (2) (d) of the Act, is hereby lifted and the conciliator is asked to proceed with and conclude conciliation on the specified item as soon as possible."

The Court would like to record that during the hearing the Claimants acknowledged the validity and acceptance of the position as set out in the aforesaid letter from the Permanent Secretary to the parties. In view of this statement the Court does not see the necessity of ruling on a preliminary point raised by the Respondents that the hearing of this dispute should be adjourned until such time as a recognition agreement between the parties is concluded.

The parties submitted fairly comprehensive written submissions in respect of their demands and followed it up with lengthy verbal arguments during the hearing.

The parties also examined the question of the Respondents' financial position in great detail.

The Claimants submitted that since 1st May, 1975, when the workers had received wage increases under the current collective agreement the cost of living had gone up by 25 per cent. They stated that the Respondents did have the necessary finances to compensate workers for this increase in the cost of living.

The Respondents on the other hand strongly argued that a freely and voluntarily negotiated agreement which was still in existence and was valid for a further two years and seven months should not be disturbed and the Court should require the parties to honour it in accordance with the Court's previous decisions in some other disputes.

The Respondents also maintained that they paid their employees more than competitive salaries and hence the workers are being fully compensated for the service which they render to the industry. They also pointed out that they had proved through documentary and verbal submissions that during the last three years in an attempt to cushion off rising cost of living to their employees their increase in salaries had been reasonable and better than other employees employed elsewhere. Finally the Respondents made a strong plea on their present financial position on account of which they maintained they were unable to accommodate any increased, unexpected and unplanned for labour costs without very undesirable repercussions.

The Court would like to first tackle the question of whether or not a current collective agreement should be varied in any respect. This question has been gone into repeatedly in several disputes and the Court would like to reiterate its earlier stated position that the Court has the right to vary any collective agreement at any time provided there were exceptional circumstances to warrant such a move.

In addition to the above when in early 1975 the trade union movement as a whole had threatened a countrywide strike unless workers were compensated for the rise in the cost of living high level discussions took place between the Federation of Kenya Employers (FKE) and Central Organization of Trade Unions (K) (COTU) and the Government represented by the Minister for Labour and top officials of his Ministry and on 26th April, 1975, the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour, addressed a letter to both COTU and FKE and in paragraph 4 stated as follows:—

"After lengthy discussions general consensus emerged that there was a need to compensate workers in the country for rises in the cost of living. For that purpose, it was the understanding of the Minister that the parties would see no objection to the modification of paragraph (x) of the Guidelines so as to allow revision of agreements within one year. This modification would enable paragraph (iv) of the Guidelines in their original form which allowed compensation to workers for erosion of their wages due to rise in the cost of living to be more effective. Following on this point the Minister stated that all agreements entered into before 1st January, 1975, should be revised immediately and those entered into subsequently should be subject to revision within the period of one year of their coming into force. With the goodwill which was exhibited at the meeting the Minister hoped that the workers' representatives and employers would co-operate and make this new change in the Guidelines operate successfully."

The Respondents have pleaded that there is no formal agreement between the three parties concerned and that the FKE did not subscribe to the views stated in the aforesaid paragraph. Further that under the Act it was only the Minister for Finance who could issue any directives on wages and salaries and other terms and conditions of employment to the Industrial Court.

The Court cannot accept the Respondents' aforesaid contention because the Government acts collectively and the Minister for Labour in these discussions was the Government spokesman. Technically the Respondents may be right but the Court would not be wise to ignore a directive from the Minister for Labour issued after a tripartite meeting and emanating in such explosive circumstances as were to be found in early 1975 with threat of a general strike in the country. It is very much the Court's function to ensure that industrial peace is maintained in the country rather than getting bogged down in legal niceties and technicalities.

In any case the Court is satisfied that in spite of an increase of up to 13.4 per cent in May, 1974, and an average increase of about 6 per cent on 1st May, 1975, the workers have suffered a considerable loss of money value and unless they are somewhat compensated they would indeed suffer a great hardship. The Court finds this to be a compelling reason under all the circumstances stated hereinabove to vary the current collective agreement between the parties.

The Employment Promotion Division report confirms that from the effective date of the current collective agreement up to October, 1975, the wage earners index has increased by 25 per cent and this figure reduced by the general increase (average 6 per cent) which was granted in May this year would indicate the maximum compensation that the Guidelines would allow applicable to the very lowest paid of the workers. The E.P.D. have also this to say regarding the general economic position of the Respondents:—

"Regarding the economic position of the Respondents it is not likely that a wage increase of the size permissible under the Guidelines would seriously affect the profitability and future expansion of the company. The total cost for such an increase would amount to around £100,000 for the first year, i.e. 1976. This would affect the projected operating surplus (app. P, item A 11) to the extent that it would not increase. In 1977 the projected decrease in operating surplus would be accentuated by the wage increase but in that year the current agreement expires and the company will have to be prepared to meet accumulated compensation claims among the workers even if no additional wage increase should be paid at the present time."

In considering any wage increase in the Respondents' undertaking the Court has to give full weight and consideration to the very important part that the power and lighting industry has to play in the general development of the country particularly that the Respondents have to shoulder to a considerable extent the burden of rural electrification which in many cases means providing electricity to remote parts of Kenya at a loss. The Court also has to take into account the fact that the power industry creates thousands of new jobs indirectly through the construction of dams, etc., for generating electricity supplies. These and a few others are no doubt the reasons why the Respondents' wage rates while being reasonable are not all that high when compared to other undertakings in the country.

The Court finds in this dispute that both the parties have put forward some very compelling arguments in support of their respective stands and the Court has come to the conclusion that the best possible solution under the circumstances would be to grant all the workers an extra increment on their next incremental date which the Court was told was 1st May, 1976.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards that all the Respondents' unionizable employees should get a double increment on 1st May, 1976, to compensate them somewhat for the rise in the cost of living that has hit the country. The Court notes that the current agreement is to be revised in 1977 and the Court expects the parties to take this increase into consideration at that time.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 163

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
