GAZETTE NOTICE No. 944

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 45 OF 1967

Parties:—

The Kenya Electrical Trades Workers' Union and

The East African Power and Lighting Company Limited
Issues in dispute:—

- (1) Extension of Union Representation.
- (2) The Right to Negotiate on Gradings.

1. The Kenya Electrical Trades Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the East African Power and Lighting Company Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 29th and 30th day of January 1968, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Respondents called one witness in support of their case.

After the dispute had been heard but before the award was announced it was found that the term of office of the two members representing workers and the employers had expired on 14th December 1967. Both these members were, however, re-appointed to the Court on 26th February 1968, by the Minister for Labour. Consequently the President called the Parties on 2nd March 1968, and offered them a re-hearing but both Mr. Chihana for the Claimants and Mr. Deacon for the Respondents stated that they did not want a re-hearing and would consider the dispute as if it had been re-heard.

AWARD

(1) Extension of Union Representation.—Under the Recognition Agreement signed on the 30th day of December 1966, by the Parties it is provided that the Claimants shall have the right to represent those employees only whose salary scales are not more than £760 per month. Further that the following categories of workers would not be unionizable:—

- (a) Confidential Staff.
- (b) Directive and Administrative Staff.
- (c) Supervisory Staff.
- (d) Supervisory and Confidential posts on salary scales rising to less than £760 per annum which are specifically excluded from trade union recognition:
  - Duostat Operator.
  - Power Station Shift Chargeman Grade III.
  - Power Station Shift Chargeman Grade II.
  - Shift Supervisor (Turbines).
  - Shift Supervisor (Boilers).
  - Line Section Supervisor Grade III.
  - Tree Cutting Foreman.
  - Labour Supervisor.
  - Computer Operator Grade II.
  - Ancillary Equipment Operator.
  - Power Station Foreman Grade III.
  - Clerk—When employed as a Labour Assistant, or in the Personnel Dept., or when permanently in charge of an office e.g. Kericho and Malindi.
  - Typists—Employed in the Personnel Department which includes the Nairobi Area Labour Office, or when working as Personal Secretaries.
  - Hydro Barrage Operator.
  - Sub-station Attendant Grade II.

The Claimants had sought an amendment to this clause of the Recognition Agreement and the matter had been conciliated upon and eventually an agreement appears to have been reached on this matter. This agreement which appears below was signed by the conciliator Mr. Ware, the Claimants' General Secretary Mr. Okumu and the Respondents' Personnel Manager Mr. Deacon.

"The last sentence of clause 2 of the Recognition Agreement to be amended to read as follows:—

"This representation shall include all employees in groups of occupation graded into the Company's salary scale U6 and below other than those listed in Appendix A to this agreement."

While conciliation was still in progress the Respondents' employees went on strike as a result of an incident which is not the subject matter of this dispute. When the strike finished the following formula for return to work was agreed between the Claimants and the Ministry of Labour:—

- (i) That dismissed employees and reported allegations of victimization are to go for investigation by a team of experts from the Ministry of Labour.
- (ii) Arrests and trials to be the responsibility of the State.
- (iii) Restricted Union membership and job grading to be referred to Industrial Court for ruling.

The reference of this dispute to the Industrial Court on 6th December 1967, shows the following two issues:—

- (1) Extension of Union Representation.
- (2) The Right to Negotiate on Gradings.

In view of this the Court finds that although the Claimants may have agreed on this issue at one stage, such agreement has subsequently been repudiated apparently with the agreement of the Respondents. Therefore, the Court finds that the Claimants cannot be bound by it and the matter is open.

The Unions are currently more than ever before trying to embrace all categories of workers irrespective of their position in the Management into their fold. They rely on the freedom of association guaranteed under the Constitution and the I.L.O. Conventions Nos. 84, 87 and 98.

It is inconceivable that by virtue of the said three Conventions the Trade Unions have the right to represent any person within an undertaking as it would lead to absurd results. At the same time it is patently wrong to restrict the Union representation on the basis of a salary scale. There is no doubt that there is a difference between the people who are managed and the people who manage. For obvious reasons you cannot have people in these two categories in the same organization. The two organizations in Kenya representing workers and employers as far back as 1962 accepted that certain posts should be excluded from Union membership. Since then, however, there have been difficulties in interpreting the definitions of the various posts to be excluded from Union membership that is Managerial, Supervisory and Confidential staff.

The Industrial Court referred this question in Cause No. 21 of 1966 (Nairobi City Council) to a sub-committee of Joint Consultative Council of C.O.T.U. (K) and F.K.E. Both these organizations were asked by the Court to take urgent steps to finalize this matter. In spite of the fact that the award in Cause No. 21 of 1966 was made on 16th August 1966, the Court has learned that no progress has been made in this matter. This is regrettable indeed as the Court is of the view that if these definitions had been revised this dispute probably would not have arisen.

The Court has very carefully considered the submissions made by the Parties and awards that the current Recognition Agreement should be amended by deleting the restrictions placed on Union representation to those employees on salary scales the maxima of which are not more than £760 per annum.

Further the Court awards that the categories to be excluded as mentioned in Appendix "A" to the current Recognition Agreement should be amended when the definitions of various categories of non-unionizable employees are revised and agreed upon between F.K.E. and C.O.T.U. (K) which two organizations are hereby requested to finalize this task which was entrusted to them by the Court in August 1966 in Cause No. 21 of 1966 immediately.

The Court cannot accept the Respondents' submission that they are not contravening any I.L.O. Conventions because none of their employees are barred from joining the Union and that it was only the right of representation that was restricted because one concession without the other would deprive a Union member of the benefits of Union representation, which is the main reason why workers exercise their right of freedom of association in joining a Union.

The Court is aware that negotiations on revising the current agreement on terms and conditions of service of the Respondents' employees are imminent and as the above matters would not be finalized before then the Court directs that these negotiations should proceed on the basis as if the Recognition Agreement between the Parties had been amended in accordance with the terms of the document signed by the Parties and the conciliator Mr. Ware, the contents of which appear hereinabove.

(2) The Right to Negotiate on Gradings.—The Court is not satisfied with the wording of clause 3 of the current Recognition Agreement whereby the Management while according the Claimants the right of discussion retains the power to veto any suggestion by the workers. It is as much in the interest of Management as of the workers that full consultation with employees or their representatives should be carried out at each stage of job grading as this would be conducive to good labour relations and to the ready acceptance of the scheme by employees, particularly if they can share in its actual preparation and have some voice in the construction of ultimate wage scale.

In the present dispute a job evaluation of all unionized posts was carried out during the period 1960/61. This exercise was conducted by a member of the Management who held the qualification "Associate Member of the Institute of Work Study". The Respondents state that since then an annual review of all job gradings has been carried out.

The Court has very carefully considered this matter and is of the view that the question of grading should be dealt with by a grading committee on which the Respondents and the Claimants shall be represented in equal numbers with an independent chairman to be agreed upon by both the Parties. The grading committee shall meet once in four months and it will be up to the Parties to refer to it any re-grading that they feel to be justified. All the pending matters arising out of this issue should be referred to the grading committee by the party which requested the re-grading of a post. The decision of the grading committee shall be final and binding on the Parties.

The Court awards that the Recognition Agreement should be amended to make provision for a grading committee as mentioned hereinabove.

Given in Nairobi this 18th day of March 1968.
