Chairman,
Valuers Registration Board.

26th April, 1988, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The court has given careful consideration to the various submissions put forward by the parties and notes that the collective agreement which is subject of this dispute is due to expire on 30th April, 1989. The court further notes that this dispute covers about 3,200 employees who are working within the urban transport system at both Mombasa and Nairobi. The court also notes that there has been a gradual increase in the employment levels since 1980 and it is only last year (1987) that 12 bus inspectors earning Sh. 3,200 per month were recruited by the respondents which is commendable. The court cannot overlook the implications of this dispute to the employees and to the commuters both in Nairobi and Mombasa. Keeping all this in mind and the wages guidelines the court awards as follows on each item.

House allowance

After careful consideration of all the submissions the court awards a house allowance increase of Sh. 25 for the first year and a similar increase of Sh. 25 for the second year. Accordingly the employees will be entitled to house allowance of Sh. 575 for the first year and Sh. 600 for the second year of the collective agreement.

Salary increase

The court is satisfied that the workers entitled under the guidelines between May 1985 and May 1987 is 13.1 per cent. The respondents have, however, offered a general wage increase of 5 per cent during the second year and nothing for the first year of the collective agreement.

After careful evaluation of all the arguments advanced by the parties on this issue the court awards that all the employees affected by this dispute should get a wage increase of 5.0 per cent for the first year and a further wage increase of 8.0 per cent for the second year.

The starting time for one to qualify for the payment of scheduled night service allowance.

The court after considering the two proposals put forward by the parties has decided to award that the employees should be entitled to an allowance of Sh. 12 and the qualifying period be from mid-night to 3.30 a.m.

Given in Nairobi on 4th August, 1988.
