- (a) served as chief inspector of value added tax for at least three (3) years;
- (b) passed part III of the Certified Public Accountants (Kenya) examination; and
- (c) demonstrated outstanding professional and administrative capability to head a major function division of the value added tax department.

OR

Chief inspector of value added tax, who have served in grade for a minimum period of five (5) years and in addition possess part II of the Certified Public Accountants (Kenya) examination or a degree in commerce with accounting bias from recognized university or institution will also be eligible for appointment to the grade of assistant commissioner of value added tax.

Duties and responsibilities:

Work at this level involves: overall responsibility for effective management of a large number of regional tax verification districts; dealing with submission and complicated tax verification cases submitted by regional tax verification districts and advising the commissioner on tax verification matters.

OR

Overall responsibility for the efficiency and effectiveness of a tax collection section including enforcement cases.

OR

Overall co-ordination of the units responsible for internal checks; research; technical and training matters; prosecution and fraud; and public relations on tax matters.

Senior Assistant Commissioner (Five Posts) (Income Tax)
(No. 337/92)

Salary scale.—K£6,672 to 8,106 p.a. PENSIONABLE OR AGREEMENT.

Applicants should be civil servants who have served for at least three (3) years as assistant commissioner (formerly principal assessor of income tax). They must have demonstrated administrative ability necessary for management of a complicated department. They should have a wide experience in the management of income tax district offices.

Duties and responsibilities:

Duties and responsibilities at this level involve being responsible to the deputy commissioner of income tax for the administration of the department at head office or heading a large income tax district. Senior assistant commissioner may be responsible for designing tax procedure and compilation of administration forms and returns; providing public information service, personnel work including recruitment, training and development and proper deployment of staff; including matters relating to staff welfare; compilation of revenue statistics and annual reports for the department, security inspection and standard maintenance duties.

A senior assistant commissioner may also be assigned duties of providing specialized technical assistance to the commissioner of income tax which involve drafting and interpretation of new laws; conducting high level technical interviews; control and management of tax frauds, tax evasion and investigation work, accounting for revenue, collection enforcement procedures, tax write-offs and remission approvals, tax appeals including judicial appeals and criminal prosecutions and any other duties assigned by the commissioner.

Assistant Commissioner (Twelve Posts) (Income Tax)
(No. 338/92)

Salary scale.—K£5,652 to 7,584 p.a. PENSIONABLE OR AGREEMENT.

Applicants should be civil servants who must have served in the income tax department as senior assessor for a minimum period of three (3) years. They must have demonstrated outstanding technical and administrative ability including effective management of staff. They must also have a wide experience in efficient management and implementation of Income Tax Act and related regulations.
