THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 73 OF 1983

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and Meru Central Farmers' Co-operative Union Ltd.

Issues in dispute:

- Leave allowance.
- Automatic annual increments.
- Salaries and wages (minimum).
- Compensation on the increases.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as claimants and Meru Central Farmers' Co-operative Union Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 6th December, 1983, and 25th January, 1984, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 13th April, 1983, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 15th August together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The parties had a collective agreement effective from 1st January, 1979, up to 30th September, 1981. The current dispute has arisen as a result of proposals submitted by the claimants for revising it on 11th August, 1981.

It took almost one year for the parties to reach agreement on six out of ten issues on which the claimants had reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour. The claimants were compelled to do this because the respondents were not very keen to negotiate.

The respondents are a grade one co-operative union in the country but they have very vigorously pleaded that due to the various factors like overpayments to the farmers and the loan burdens and as a result of interplanting by the farmers which resulted in the loss of production and drop in the quality of coffee, the respondents were not financially in a position to meet the claimants' demand.

The respondents drew the court's attention to the fact that because of the decline of the coffee quality the whole country had suffered a loss of seven hundred million shillings and although the Minister for Agriculture had banned interplanting the jump in quality and prices had not yet been very visible and the faithful coffee farmers will be reaping the rewards in 1984/85. They added that they were scheduled to market 54 million kilograms of cherry in 1981/82 and were hoping to reach 56 million kilograms in 1982/83. Instead they marketed 46 million kilograms and in 1982/83 they received only 36 million kilograms which was a drop of 35.8 per cent over original plan. They also stated that if their debts were set off against the societies contributions they would still owe farmers in coffee societies a total of over KSh. 39 million.

The court notes that the government had instituted a commission of inquiry into the financial affairs of the respondents from 1st May to October, 1980, which commission found that the respondents were financially in poor hands and about broke. As a result of this the Commissioner for Co-operative Development dissolved the respondents' management committee and appointed a commission to run its affairs. On 29th January, 1982, the commission was dissolved and a management committee was again voted in by the members. It was this committee that had held two meetings with the claimants in March and October, 1982.

The claimants accused the respondents of making misleading statements during the hearing and queried the loss of 16 million shillings claimed by the respondents as against the ten million shillings loss which they had shown for income tax purposes. The claimants drew the court's attention to the fact that the coffee section of the respondents' trading account for the year ending 30th September, 1981, showed a profit of KSh. 1.6 million and they called the respondents' figures as fictitious.

The claimants clarified one point by saying that the impression created by the respondents that they depended on coffee crop only was not true because they had a dairy section, owned a large property in Nairobi called Imenti House and then they had a banking section, consumer shop, a maize mill and stores section.

The claimants demanded that the respondents' employees should be paid a leave allowance of KSh. 165 per year as against their actual return fare ticket which the respondents paid them.

On automatic annual increase the claimants wanted them to go up as follows:

	Present (per annum)	Demand (per annum)
Ungraded staff ...	40	60
Graded staff ...	60	100
Senior staff ...	100-120	120-150

They also demanded that the percentage and general wage increase should also raise the present minimum wages in all grades.

Finally the claimants demanded the following general wage increase:

	First year (per cent)	First year (per cent)
Lower income ...	15	15
Middle income ...	11.5	11.5
Upper income ...	10	10

The respondents offered the following minimum wages:

	KSh.
Ungraded ...	420 but raised to KSh. 460
Driver grade III ...	700
II ...	800
I ...	900
Mechanic III ...	1,000
II ...	1,100
I ...	1,250
Clerk accounts/bank	950
General ...	800
Factory manager
Senior factory manager
Assistant store manager
Head of department
Senior officer

No offer on these on the ground that they did not qualify for membership.

On the general wage increase the respondents offered a wage increase of 5 per cent for the first year and a similar percentage

They stated that this demand was in line with the wages guidelines.

The respondents offered a leave allowance of KSh. 40 and pointed out that all employees were local and the return fare by matatu was KSh. 35 to the farthest point in the area.

On automatic annual increase the respondents while accepting that the expired collective agreement had an automatic annual increase besides the clause on general wage increase they wanted it to be abrogated now as this in essence amounted to overcompensation for the workers' rise in the cost of living. They asked the court to reject any proposal on automatic annual increase.

increase for the second year because of their financial predicaments. They had made this offer because they appreciated the plight of the workers in the light of the rising cost of living.

The court notes that about 306 employees are affected by this dispute. The court has carefully considered the financial position of the respondents and has come to the conclusion that they are indeed going through a difficult period just now. Notwithstanding this, however, they have given to their employees automatic annual increases for ungraded staff KSh. 40 and KSh. 60 for graded staff and KSh. 100 to KSh. 120 to senior staff. The court finds that in view of the financial problems being faced by the respondents there is not much scope for making an award in terms of the claimants' demands on the four issues in dispute. In making its award the court has also studied the report from the Division of Manpower Planning and Development. The court makes the following award on the four issues:

1. Leave allowance

The court awards that the respondents should pay a leave allowance of KSh. 50 to their employees when they proceed on annual leave.

2. Automatic annual increments

The court awards that the present automatic annual increments should continue to be in force.

3. Salaries and wages (minimum)

The court awards the following minimum wages:

	KSh.
Ungraded	460
Driver grade III	700
Driver grade II	800
Driver grade I	900
Mechanic grade III	1,000
Mechanic grade II	1,100
Mechanic grade I	1,250
Clerk accounts/bank	950
General	800

4. Compensation on the increases (general compensation)

The court awards a general wage increase of 7 per cent for the first year and an 8 per cent increase for the second year. The second year percentage increase is to be worked out after the first year percentage increase has been added to the workers' wages.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.
