THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 60 OF 1986

Parties:

Kenya Engineering Workers' Union
and
Kenya Engineering Industries Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of James Mutinda.

THE Kenya Engineering Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Kenya Engineering Industries Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 12th November, 1987, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 3rd January, 1986, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 3rd June, 1986, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister for Labour.

The court has carefully considered the parties' submissions in arriving at its decision. A reference was made during the hearing of the grievant having been sent to prison for 18 months but since that was due to a charge of rape committed at Kitui and was after his dismissal it is not relevant at all to this dispute which concerns whether or not the grievant was dismissed wrongfully.

The court concurs with the Ministry of Labour's finding that Mr. Mutinda's services were dispensed with because of a mere suspicion. The court is surprised that if the watchman on duty saw Mr. Mutinda walking out of the premises without a shirt and carrying something wrapped under his armpit why was Mr. Mutinda not searched and apprehended. This casts a big doubt on this piece of evidence. Moreover the respondents' own investigations did not connect Mr. Mutinda with the loss of the pump but he was dismissed along with all the other employees on the shift because he was in-charge. It is obvious that Mr. Mutinda was a victim of suspicion and the court finds that he did suffer a wrongful dismissal.

The court awards that Mr. Mutinda's dismissal should be reduced to normal termination and in addition he should be paid two months salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal he has suffered.

Given in Nairobi on 9th December, 1987.

recently employed and who had no idea as to what and how the keys were to be used.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the court finds that the respondents were justified in terminating the grievant's services but considering his 6½ years service which was reasonably satisfactory the court awards that his dismissal should be reduced to normal termination. The claimants' demands for his reinstatement or heavy compensation are rejected.

Given in Nairobi on 11th December, 1987.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT CAUSE NO. 110 OF 1986

Parties: Tailors and Textiles Workers Union
and
Sunflag Textiles and Knitwear Mills Ltd.

Issue in dispute:
Wrongful dismissal of Lukas Nduugu Kimani.

THE Tailors and Textiles Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Sunflag Textiles and Knitwear Mills Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 10th November, 1987, and in addition to relying on their verbal and written submissions, the claimants called Lukas Kimani as a witness while the respondents called Gilbert Oloo to give evidence.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 2nd September, 1986, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 7th November, 1986, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister for Labour.

After careful consideration of the parties' submissions and the evidence before it, the court finds it established that Mr. Kimani who had worked for the respondents for 18 years had started his own business similar to that of his employers in 1982, in Murang'a. Soon after that Mr. Kimani started absenting himself from duty. The court notes that the hospital chits produced before it are from Maragua Dispensary which is Kimani's home dispensary, when the respondents have a dispensary for their workers at the factory which he should have attended. The court is convinced that Mr. Kimani took time off to attend to his business.

It is obvious that under these circumstances where an employee has divided loyalties towards his own business and that of his employer the best thing to do is to terminate the employment relationship so that he can concentrate fully on his business.

The respondents should have had regard to the grievants' 18 years satisfactory service with them and given him a normal termination. The court finds that Lucas Kimani's summary dismissal was harsh and therefore unlawful. The court however cannot find any grounds for ordering his reinstatement.

The court awards that Lucas Kimani's dismissal be reduced to normal termination and in addition he should be paid four (4) months salary by way of compensation.

Given in Nairobi on 8th December, 1987.

Judge.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT CAUSE NO. 108 OF 1986

Parties:
Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers
and
Security Consultants (E.A.) Limited

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of T. G. Wainaina.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Security Consultants (East Africa) Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 17th November, 1987, and relied on their verbal and written submissions. In addition the following witnesses were called by the parties to testify on oath.

Claimants.—T. G. Wainaina.

Respondents.—Christopher Michango Wando.

Robert Patrick Gachara.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 12th February, 1986, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 7th November, 1986, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The court has noted the fact that the respondents have only one contract of this nature and that is with D.T. Dobie and Company (K) Ltd., and have employed 68 guards for this purpose only. Were the respondents to lose this contract the jobs of these guards would be at risk. The misconduct committed by the grievant whereby a senior manager of D.T. Dobie & Co. (K) Ltd. was locked in the workshop for nearly one hour was very serious indeed. The court is satisfied from the evidence of the witnesses that the grievant left his place of work about 2½ hours before time without being properly relieved by Mr. Wando who had told the grievant that he (Mr. Wando) would relieve him at the end of his shift. The grievant had no business to leave his place of work like he did and hand over all the keys to a junior guard who had been
