GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2645

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 24 OF 1979

Parties :—

Tailors & Textile Workers' Union
and
Blanket Manufacturers' Group of F.K.E.

Issues in dispute :—

Union's version—

1. Suspension of workers,
2. Night transport for workers,
3. Leave for union members on attending seminars and courses with full pay,
4. Housing and housing allowance,
5. Wages,
6. Duration of agreement.

Employers' version—

1. Suspension of workers,
2. Night transport for mechanics and supervisors,
3. Leave for union members attending seminars and courses with full pay,
4. Deconsolidation,
5. Duration of agreement.

1. The Tailors & Textile Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Blanket Manufacturers' Group of F.K.E. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 24th July and 13th August, 1979, and relied on their written and verbal submissions,

AWARD

3. Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 10th January, 1979, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 10th May together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The previous collective agreement between the parties was effective from 1st August, 1975, for a period of three years. It expired on 31st July, 1978. This dispute has arisen because the parties are revising that agreement and are deadlocked on the issues in dispute.

At the request of the Court the Employment Promotion Division (E.P.D.) was asked to carry out an analysis of the parties' submissions vis-à-vis the Guidelines. The E.P.D. has carried out an exhaustive investigation into the economics of the industry and the effect of the workers' demands especially the items involving the labour costs on the industry generally. These reports were available to the parties and the Court during the hearing.

It is quite obvious that the Claimants' demands on house allowance estimated at 21.3 per cent, night transport estimated to cost additional 36 per cent and general wage increase of 56.3 representing a total demand of 113.6 per cent is well above the permissible limits under the Guidelines.

The parties have agreed on the new effective date of 1st August, 1978. The cost of living up to that date from 1st August, 1975, has risen by 48.2 per cent and workers would be entitled to the G.D.P. per capita growth rate for 1977 estimated at 3.8 per cent to give a figure of 52 per cent. The workers were, however, in 1978 entitled to two thirds of this figure amounting to 35.9 per cent (32.1 per cent + 3.8 per cent). This would result in a first year general increase of about 18 per cent and a similar increase for the second year less any increases that were given during the lifetime of the expired agreement.

The Claimants have demanded a minimum increase of 56.3 per cent giving the lowest paid worker who is at present earning a consolidated wage of Sh. 350 an increase of 197.05 per cent. The Claimants demand the following new wage rates for the various grades:—

Wages as at	w.e.f.	w.e.f.
31.7.78	1.8.78	1.8.79
Sh.	Sh.	Sh.
350	547.05	656.55
350	547.05	656.55
350	557.05	668.45
375	567.05	680.45
433.55	586.15	703.40
459	717.40	860.90
442	727.40	872.90
442	886.20	1,063.45
	762.10	914.50
	762.10	914.50

In addition to above they want a house allowance of Sh. 150 p.m. to be paid to all unionizable employees.

The Respondents have offered a wage increase of 7 per cent each year for a period of three years effective from 1st August, 1978, and have asked that the monthly consolidated wages for the various grades should be as follows:—

Grade	Wages p.m.
	Sh.
I	375
II	375
III	375
IV	401
V	464
VI	522
VII	491
VIII	473

The Respondents have very strongly resisted the demand for the payment of a separate house allowance and the provision of night transport.

The Court has carefully considered the financial aspect of this dispute and taking into consideration the current Guidelines has decided to make an award on the basis of a consolidated wage as at present. The Court awards that all the unionisable employees should get a wage increase of 15 per cent with effect from 1st August, 1978, and a further increase of 13 per cent with effect from 1st August, 1979.

The Court has decided that the above increases are to be granted to those workers who were in employment as at 1st

August, 1978, and for the new entrants after that the wage rates will be as below:—

Grade	Rates p.m.
	Sh.
1	375
2	375
3	375
4	401
5	464
6	522
7	491
8	473

On the issue of deconsolidation and payment of a separate house allowance, since the maximum permissible increases due to the workers under the Guidelines have been granted to them under the wage increases the Court after taking into account the difficult period through which the blanket industry is going just now is not inclined to make an additional award on house allowance but would like to rule that 15 per cent of the current consolidated wage should be considered to be the housing element.

Suspension of workers.—In the previous agreement there is no provision on this item and the Court has decided to award that except where an employee is involved in a police investigation or action if he is suspended pending further investigation by management then such suspension should be on half pay and that the investigation must be completed within the period of 14 days from the date of the suspension.

Night transport for workers.—The Court is satisfied that this problem can be satisfactorily taken care of by slightly changing the timing of the second and third shifts to enable the workers to utilize public transport. The second shift should end 15 minutes earlier and the third shift should commence 15 minutes earlier.

Leave for union members attending seminars and courses with full pay.—The Court notes that the I.L.O. Convention No. 140 on this has been ratified by the Kenya Government. This Convention in part reads as follows:—

"Article 2:

Each member shall formulate and apply a policy designed to promote, by methods appropriate to national conditions and practice and by stages as necessary the granting of paid educational leave for the purpose of—

- (a) training at any level;
- (b) general, social and civic education;
- (c) trade union education."

The Court finds this demand to be an interesting one in which a lot is to be said for both sides. The fact, however, remains that just now it would be premature to make an award on such an important issue as the Kenya Government as yet has not taken any steps towards passing the necessary enabling legislation. This issue is a complex one and instead of rejecting it the Court has decided to defer making an award on it until the next round of negotiations by which time it is hoped the Government will have given guidance on this important matter.

Duration of agreement.—The Court has decided to reject the Respondents' plea that the duration should be of three years and the Court awards that the duration should be of two years with effect from 1st August, 1978.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 2646

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 28 OF 1979

Parties:—

Tailors & Textiles Workers' Union

and Interfashions Garments Manufacturers Ltd.

Issues in dispute:—

Terminal benefits:—

1. Days worked.
2. Pay in lieu of notice.

3. Annual leave.
4. Severance pay, to employees per attached list.

1. The Tailors & Textiles Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Interfashions Garments Manufacturers Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 10th day of August, 1979 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 23rd February, 1979 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 8th June, 1979 together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Respondents are in the business of garment manufacturing in Mombasa since 1974 and became a limited company in 1975. They had in their employment including the latest 10 per cent intake 42 workers. These workers were earning between K.Sh. 434 p.m. and K.Sh. 550 p.m. in the capacities of hand workers, overlock and tailors.

On 12th January, 1979 they were all served with letters from the Respondents as follows:

"Transfer notice:

The diversification in production line to be started in Nairobi, has necessitated the management to transfer its present production unit to Nairobi in industrial area off Dar es Salaam Road behind Kenya Commercial Bank Nairobi.

Take notice that you are required to report for duty at 8 a.m. on 15th February, 1979 at the above workplace.

The management takes this opportunity to thank you for your sincere services accorded to the company in the past and hopes to receive such services in the future."

Along with the above letter of transfer the workers were told to proceed on compulsory leave with effect from 12th January, 1979 up to 15th February, 1979. Letters to this effect were also served on them.

The Claimant's Mombasa branch took up the matter on behalf of the workers and the matter ended up at the Provincial Labour Office but unfortunately the Provincial Labour Officer's advice was not followed and the Claimants had to report the trade dispute to the Minister for Labour. Conciliation having failed the matter is now before the Court with the Claimants demanding that their members should be paid for all the days they have worked, one month's pay in lieu of notice, 24 consecutive days' annual leave as provided for in the collective agreement and severance pay at the rate of 15 days for each completed year of service as they maintained that all of them had been declared redundant by the Respondents.

The Claimants called the Respondents unscrupulous employers and maintained that neither the workers nor their Mombasa branch or the head office was ever informed by the Respondents of their intention that they would move their factory to Nairobi and start operating there with effect from 15th February, 1979. They added that it was impossible for any employee to make the necessary arrangements within a short period of one month and shift to Nairobi and report for duty as ordered by the Respondents.

The Respondents explained to the Court the reasons that necessitated the move from Mombasa to Nairobi and also stated that they had spent over K.Sh. 100,000 in renting the premises in Nairobi installing and dismantling the machines in Nairobi and transporting them to and from Nairobi. They explained that they had incurred this loss because their employees had refused to accept the transfer without any reasonable cause with the result that they had to abandon their idea of operating from Nairobi.

The Respondents further explained that nine employees indicated their willingness to go on transfer to Nairobi and two of them approached the Respondents and received advances of K.Sh. 600 each plus further additional advances of K.Sh. 400 and K.Sh. 500 as they told the Respondents that they were making arrangements to move to Nairobi. The Respondents stated that they learnt later that these two employees had taken up employment in another company in Mombasa.

The Respondents submitted that this was not a matter of redundancy and that all the workers except the seven had terminated their employment of their own volition after 15th February, 1979. The Respondents, however, indicated that they would be prepared to pay wages to all the employees for the period between 12th January to 15th February, 1979.

The Court takes a very dim view of the Respondents' whole approach in this matter which has resulted in this dispute. The least that the Respondents could have done was to put the workers and their representatives fully in the picture regarding their decision of moving their operations from Mombasa to Nairobi. It must be remembered that they had been operating in Mombasa since 1974 and all their employees were recruited in Mombasa. It is obvious that the workers were properly settled in Mombasa and therefore to assume that they would be able to uproot themselves in a matter of 30 days was a complete and utter miscalculation on the part of the Respondents. The Court finds the Respondents' management policies to be extremely poor and inefficient as they have conveniently forgotten that industrial relations are human relations. It would have been very much in the interest of the Respondents themselves and also of the workers if the Respondents had taken the workers into full confidence and discussed the intended move frankly with them. They could have then easily worked out a joint exercise of moving from Mombasa to Nairobi in a manner which would have been convenient and acceptable to all.

The Court while accepting the Respondents' submission that this is not a case of redundancy finds that the Respondents created such difficult conditions for the workers with the result that their relationship with the Respondents was frustrated. The Court has already earlier come to the conclusion that one month was not enough for the workers to uproot themselves from Mombasa and to report for duty in Nairobi on 15th February, 1979 and the Court must therefore find that the Respondents are responsible for creating conditions which resulted in depriving their employees of their employment.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that the Respondents' employees have suffered a wrongful dismissal in that the Respondents made a near-impossible demand on them to report for duty after a month in Nairobi which they knew that the workers would not be able to do. The Court has therefore decided to award the workers, in addition to full wages for the period 12th January to 15th February, 1979, one month's salary in lieu of notice to each one of them and a further one month's salary by way of compensation to each one of them for the wrongful dismissal that they have suffered. The Court would like to add that the Claimants' demand for payment of annual leave is taken care of in the payment for the period between 12th January, to 15 February, 1979 so they are not entitled to any additional payment for this leave. The Court further rules that this award is in respect of all the Respondents' employees with the exception of the following nine, two of whom have absconded and the remaining seven are still in employment:

1. Charles Adel.
2. George Abaja.
3. Charles Nzivu.
4. Julius Mwikya.
5. Joseph Mwakuja.
6. Joseph Kimoli.
7. Patrick Kaluku.
8. Jeremiah Kivondo.
9. Antony Levoo.

Finally the Court would like to state that it had carefully considered the loss which the Respondents have suffered and the additional amount which they would have to pay to the workers as a result of this award amounting to over K.Sh. 50,000 but the Court must point out that they themselves are entirely responsible through their poor management for this financial mess in which they find themselves. The Respondents shall be entitled to deduct from the workers' dues any amount that the workers owe them.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 2657

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
