GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 941

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 56 OF 1981

Parties:
Kenya Management Staff Association
and Kenya Shipping Agency Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Termination of services of Mr. John Jeremiah Mvocy.

1. The Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kenya Shipping Agency Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Mombasa on 5th and 6th January and in Nairobi on 22nd and 23rd February, 1982 and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

Claimants:—J. J. Mvocy

Respondents:

R. H. Kester
M. Jahazi.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour signed the reference of this dispute to the Industrial Court on 15th October, 1981 in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act. The Court received the notification of dispute from the Minister with the relevant statutory certificates on 22nd October, 1981.

The person involved in this dispute, Mr. Mvocy, was the general manager of the Respondents and the immediate events that led to his termination of employment were that he was called before a meeting of the board of directors under the chairmanship of M. Jahazi on 27th October, 1978. This meeting was convened to discuss the complaints which had been made against Mr. Mvocy and to identify the areas in which the board could assist him as the new general manager. It is not disputed that the board cautioned Mr. Mvocy specifically regarding:

"Customer relations

Interpersonal relations with other members of staff

General financial management

Treatment of Board's deliberations with the confidentiality they deserved."

The caution was communicated to Mr. Mvocy by Mr. Jahazi, the Chairman, in the presence of all other board members. Mr. Mvocy undertook to improve his performance. The Court notes that Mr. Mvocy admitted this caution.

At the Respondents' board meeting held on 30th March, 1979 although there was no specific item on the agenda dealing with the question of termination of Mr. Mvocy this matter was discussed under "any other business" and the board decided that the Respondents could no longer afford to keep Mr. Mvocy in employment and his services should be terminated. The Board resolved that Mr. Mvocy be paid the following terminal benefits:

1. Pay for 3 months in lieu of 3 months notice of termination of service.
2. Use of company car for a period of one month and reimbursement of petrol bills to the maximum of Sh. 600 for that one month.
3. Use of company house for a period of 3 months or a house allowance of Sh. 5,000 p.m. for a period of 3 months.
4. Leave pay for 70 days at the rate of Sh. 232.20 per day.
5. Both the Agency's and his own pension fund contributions."

The Claimants took up the matter on his behalf and they reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour and the Ministry's findings after investigations were conveyed to the parties on 7th December, 1979. The Ministry found that the termination was wrongful and recommended that he should be reinstated with the period between the termination of his services and his reinstatement being regarded as leave with half pay. The Respondents rejected both the finding and recommendation and the dispute ended up in the Industrial Court.

The Court had full opportunity of going through very comprehensive submissions with the various appendices attached thereto and taking the evidence of the parties' witnesses and must commend both the parties for having made such a thorough presentation of their respective cases. The Court must briefly recapitulate Mr. Mvocy's employment history with the Respondents. He is a highly educated person with a B.A. (Hons) degree and a diploma in education. He was exempted from part I of Institute of Chartered Ship Brokers exams and has passed one subject of part II. Prior to this job he was also a headmaster in one of the teaching institutions. He started working for the Respondents in November, 1970 as a trainee assistant shipping manager at a salary of £1,200 p.a. He was then confirmed to the post of trainee assistant shipping manager. He then became shipping manager and worked his way up rising to the post of assistant general manager—a post he held up to 1st September, 1977 when he was appointed general manager designate. He was confirmed to the post of general manager with effect from 1st January, 1978 at salary of £3,800 p.a. with a company house or house allowance of Sh. 4,000 p.m. and a fully maintained company car.

Mr. Mvocy's immediate superiors who were Europeans at the time had expressed concern regarding his ability to hold these various positions at one time or the other. But the Court is satisfied that with the active help and encouragement of the Respondents' chairman, M. Jahazi, Mr. Mvocy survived in his employment and was even sent on educational tours to other countries, which incidentally Mr. Mvocy thought to be a complete waste of time for him as he was highly educated with the result that he attained the substantive post of an assistant general manager.

When the post of the general manager was to be filled the firm of Ashby Inbucon Ltd. were asked to help the Respondents to find a suitable candidate. This firm carried out their job of finding a suitable person and in the process interviewed various candidates including Mr. Mvoyer and the present general manager, Mr. Mzigo. Their first choice for the post of the general manager was one A. K. Nyagah but unfortunately for some reason or the other he was not able to take up the appointment. Ashby Inbucon had this to say about Mr. Mvoyer:

"Mr. Mvoyer has a rather unattractive manner. He does not give the impression of wanting to meet and talk to new people and he will certainly have to do better than this if he is considered for the post of general manager. He came to the interview in thoroughly hostile state of mind and it was sometime before he could be persuaded to relax and speak easily about himself and his work."

I found him rather difficult man to handle.

Unless Mr. Mvoyer can change his outward attitude I think you could have some problems if he is promoted to general manager."

Notwithstanding the above the Respondents' board of directors after Mr. Nyagah had refused to accept the post decided to appoint Mr. Mvoyer as the general manager designate.

At this stage it would be appropriate to mention that the Respondents were incorporated on 31st October, 1967 as a shipping agency owned jointly by Kenya National Trading Company with 80 per cent shares and Southern Line Ltd., owning the remaining 20 per cent shares. By January, 1978 all the expatriates in this firm had been Kenyanized and today they have a Kenyan staff 44 permanent employees. The Claimants made much play about the attitude of the expatriates who had voiced their concern about Mr. Mvoyer's ability to take over positions of higher responsibility from them on the ground that they did not like Mr. Mvoyer because of his education and they all considered him to be a threat to their positions. The fact, however, remains that despite all this Mr. Mvoyer found himself to be the general manager of this extremely important organization in the country. This the Court finds is no doubt to the efforts of Mr. Jahazi, the chairman.

The Claimants have also very vigorously argued that Mr. Mvoyer had lost his employment because of a conspiracy between the European interested parties and the present general manager, Mr. Mzigo who the Claimants said was acceptable to them as against Mr. Mvoyer who was highly educated and could not stand any nonsense (or words to the effect) from the Europeans. In furtherance of this the Claimants pointed out that Ashby Inbucon Ltd. had stated in the case of Mr. Mzigo that he would be ready in a year's time to take over as general manager and the Claimants stated that it was exactly after one year that Mr. Mvoyer's services were terminated and Mr. Mzigo was given the job. The Court has very critically examined this aspect of the Claimants' case and has come to the conclusion that this was a mere coincident because the Respondents gave Mr. Mvoyer every opportunity of proving his worth in his job as a general manager and had in fact gone to the extent of cautioning him in the hope that he would improve his performance. In any case this idea of a conspiracy is rather far fetched and the Court finds that there was no such conspiracy to get rid of Mr. Mvoyer in favour of Mr. Mzigo.

The fact that Mr. Mvoyer had adopted a sort of "couldn't care" attitude towards 20 per cent owners of the Respondents i.e. Southern Line Ltd. did not help him in his employment. He is on record for having written very tactless and unbusinesslike letters to Mr. Kester who was the managing director of the Southern Line Ltd. at the time. The Court need not go into details of this correspondence but suffice it to say that it was rather tactless of Mr. Mvoyer to use the language which he did in his letters to Mr. Kester.

Then there is the unnecessary correspondence between Mr. Mvoyer and Mr. Mzigo who was Mr. Mvoyer's deputy, when Mr. Mzigo applied for two weeks' leave. Mr. Mvoyer told him to proceed on 64 days' leave instead and some 20 letters were exchanged on this subject with the result that Mr. Mzigo's leave had to be cancelled at the personal interference of the chairman. Mr. Mzigo was involved in the most important aspect of the running of this organization and the company's principals really got worried as to what would happen if he was sent on 64 days' leave.

Mr. Mvoyer had also issued a circular on annual leave on 6th March, 1979 and the first paragraph of the circular which he sent to all employees read as follows:

"Attention is hereby drawn to all employees of Kenya Shipping Agency Ltd. that each employee has a right to apply for his/her annual leave with or without consultation to the head of the department. The annual leave application should be made to the general manager of Kenya Shipping Agency Ltd. Therefore the general manager will then consult the head of the department if there is any problem for replacement, otherwise each employee will be replied accordingly. It is our opinion that leave is a right to all employees in the working communities but we do not force anybody to go on leave if one feels otherwise".

The Court finds the contents of this circular to be against all the norms of good management practice.

Apart from these matters which certainly did not inspire any confidence of the workers in their general manager, Mr. Mvoyer's attitude towards the various principals was such that they were threatening to withdraw their business. In fact one of the Respondents' witnesses stated that Mr. Mvoyer would attend parties on the ships purely for the purpose of drinking alcohol rather than cultivating fruitful business relationships for the Respondents.

The Court would now like to deal with an aspect of this dispute which elicited rather heated arguments which is that the Kenya National Trading Corporation decided to send their own auditors to look into the books of accounts of the Respondents without the knowledge of the chairman or the board of directors. Mr. Jahazi felt at least as a matter of courtesy he should have been informed of this although he felt that the Kenya National Trading Corporation being 80 per cent shareholders in the Respondents were entitled to do so. The Claimants vehemently objected to this exercise on the ground that once a firm is established then everything has to be done in accordance with the memorandum and articles of association of that company and that this does not give the majority shareholders licence to supersede the established procedures in any manner. The Court notes that the Respondents' books of accounts are audited in the middle of every year. After carefully considering this matter and in view of the Claimants' strong objections the Court has decided to ignore the additional documents which were put in by the Respondent as far as coming to a conclusion in this case is concerned.

The Court now moves on to the monies which Mvoyer withdrew from the Respondents through petty cash. There is ample evidence that he withdrew a substantial amount under this system which he explained was a sort of "chai" money which he had to secretly spend in the port in bribing workers in order to facilitate the Respondents' work. This, to say the least, is most deplorable but the fact remains that in one day only i.e. 7th February, 1978 Mr. Mvoyer withdrew a sum of Sh. 2,500 on the strength of five separate petty cash vouchers for Sh. 500 each. The Court feels the least said about this alleged practice the better. This is indeed a very grave irregularity on the part of a chief executive of such an important organization.

The Court would like to make it clear in no uncertain terms that the top executives in any firm, especially the chief, should understand fully that they can survive in such high and important positions on proven capability as far as their work performance is concerned and also so long as they enjoy the full confidence of the board of directors. They, the general managers, are in a most invidious position because they have to satisfy the board of directors on the one hand and win the respect and support of their subordinates on the other. In the case of Mr. Mvoyer, during the one year that he was the general manager he failed on both scores; in fact the board of directors felt that if he continued as the general manager that would kill the agency and as far as the workers were concerned they thought that he was a dictator. Such executives should not expect to be treated as middle and lower level of management in industrial disputes because apart from the disciplinary aspect of any trade dispute concerning them the overriding principle is one of capability and ability to justify holding such an important position.

The Court is fully satisfied that the Respondents' board of directors gave Mr. Mvoyer every opportunity to prove his worth as a general manager but unfortunately for him he failed. The fact that at that particular moment when a decision was taken to terminate his services the company had not started running into a loss is not due to the work of Mr. Mvoyer. In fact the Court was told that Mr. Mzigo was the man who really did most of the work. In any case there were other factors which contributed to increase in revenue and in profits. This was because of the increased sailings granted to one of the Respondents' principals namely the East African National Shipping Line Ltd.

The Court finds that the fact that his termination was discussed in "any other business" at the material meeting of the board of directors and that his continued employment did not appear as a separate item on the agenda is no reason to find that the Respondents erred in terminating his services. The termination of the general manager in any organization is indeed a very delicate and sensitive matter and if diplomacy demanded that it should not appear as a separate item then it is understandable.

The important fact is that Mr. Jahazi also chaired that meeting. Mr. Jahazi in the past had gone out of his way to help and protect Mr. Mvoyer during his years of service with the Respondents. Obviously things must have come to such a stage that even Mr. Jahazi could not help him any more. In view of the fact that Mr. Mvoyer was first cautioned by the board of directors and he failed to improve in his performance and behaviour the Respondents were perfectly within their rights after a few months to hand out normal termination to him. The Court finds that the Respondents were fully justified in doing so.

The Respondents have offered Mr. Mvoyer the following amount less deductions:

"3 months' pay in lieu of notice ...	19,000.05
Petrol allowance for April ...	600.00
Pay for 5 days of April ...	1,055.60
Pay in lieu of 91 days accrued leave ...	18,948.02
Both employer's and his own pension contribution ...	34,718.65
	<hr/>
Less: Loan ...	28,457.25
Personal telephone charges ...	5,702.85
Personal telex charges ...	35.60
3 months pay in lieu of notice already paid	19,000.05
	<hr/>
	53,195.75
	21,126.57"

The Court directs that the Respondents pay Mr. Mvoyer this amount of Sh. 21,126.57 less statutory deductions, if it has not already been paid to him. Apart from this the Court rejects the Claimants' demand.

Dated the 1st April, 1982.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 942

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.
