GAZETTE NOTICE No 2346

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO 9 OF 1965

Parties —

The Brewing and Bottling Workers' Union (Claimant)

and

Kenya Ice and Aerated Water Factory (Respondent)

Issues in dispute —

- (a) Annual leave
- (b) Hours of work
- (c) General increase in wages
- (d) Payment of overtime

1 This cause was mentioned on 10th March 1965, and the Respondent was not present. The cause was again mentioned on 16th March 1965, and the Respondent failed to appear

2 Under the circumstances detailed above the Court proceeds to consider the memoranda called for, and awards ex parte as under

3 The Respondent has been in business since 1905 and has been engaged in the production of soft drinks of the effervescent kind. According to his own production figures for 1964 the number of cases produced rose steadily until October, then there was a slight decline. In January 1965, the highest ever figure of 2,465 cases was achieved and since then production has not fallen below 2,000 cases

The Respondent has submitted in memoranda that his financial position does not permit of any increase in production costs. He has made the point that he is working on an overdraft from the bank and that he is in arrears with the Department of Income Tax. The Court takes cognisance of these conditions, but where the terms of employment are inconsistent with current trends and normal accepted conditions, the Court cannot allow wages and conditions of employment to be subject to such conditions

The Court, therefore, awards that the current conditions of employment be varied as under —

AWARD

4 (a) Annual leave—In January 1965, conciliation proceedings took place and agreement was reached on this subject, the Court, therefore awards that every employee shall be entitled to 18 days' paid leave per annum, and where a public holiday coincides with such leave then the period of paid leave shall be extended by the duration of the public holiday

(b) Hours of work—In the same conciliation proceedings agreement was reached on hours of work. The Court, therefore awards that the hours of work shall be 45 per week, and that the employee shall determine the time of starting and terminating work, provided that the total number of hours worked by any employee shall not exceed 45 in any period of seven days

(c) General increase in wages—The Court awards that the minimum wage shall be Sh 175 per month exclusive of house allowance

(d) Payment of overtime—The Court awards that time worked in excess of 45 hours per week shall be paid at the following rates —

- (i) in time worked in excess of normal hours—time and a half
- (ii) in time worked on Sundays and public holidays—double time

The Court, further, awards that this variation of terms and conditions of employment shall be effective from 1st March 1965, and shall remain in force for the period of one year until the last day of February 1966

The Court notes that the parties to this dispute should have been able to reach agreement by the normal methods and that with a spirit of conciliation they should have negotiated without recourse to the Court. It is expected that on the expiry of this award the parties will have negotiated a further agreement by mutual consent

Given in Nairobi this 22nd day of June 1965

SAEED R COCKAR,
President
