G. M. Muchai, National Secretary-General, for the Claimants (hereinafter called the union).

AWARD

On 28th March, 2001, the Minister for Labour referred this dispute to the Court for consideration and determination under powers vested in him by section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act (Cap. 234) of the laws of Kenya (which is hereinafter referred to as the Act). The reference, together with statutory certificate from the Labour Commissioner under section 14 (9) (e) of the Act, were received by the Court on 5th April, 2001. The dispute was then listed for mention on 12th April, 2001, when Muchai appeared for the union but there was no appearance for the Company. Inspite of the latter's absence, however, the union were directed to submit their written memorandum on or before 14 May, 2001, while the company were allowed to file their reply statement on or before 14th June, 2001, and the dispute was fixed for hearing on 10th July, 2001. The matter lingered on in court until 15th November, 2001, when it was brought up for another mention. On this occasion, Muchai again appeared for the union but the company persisted in their non-appearance. Since the union did not submit their memorandum as directed hereinabove, the parties were, therefore, ordered to submit their respective memorandum and reply statement on or before 30th November and 31st, December, 2001, and the dispute was fixed for hearing on 5th March, 2002. The union belatedly submitted their memorandum on 5th February, 2002, but the company did not file any reply statement thereto.

On 5th March, 2002, Messrs. Muchai and Salim Amman Said, who appeared for the parties respectively, informed the court that they had settled issues Nos. 1 to 10, 12 to 19, 21, 23 to 26 and 28 and 29, and requested for an adjournment to enable them explore the possibility of an amicable settlement or compromise of the remaining issues, i.e. Nos. 11, 20, 22 and 27. The request or application for adjournment was granted; and by mutual agreement of the parties, the dispute was fixed for hearing on 4th June, 2002, if the need arose. Meanwhile, the company were allowed to file their reply statement, if any, on or before 15th April, 2002. They neither filed their reply statement nor appeared in court for hearing on the said date, i.e. 4th June, 2002, and no reasons were given or forthcoming for their default. The matter was, therefore, heard, ex parte. Since the company have neither filed their reply statement to the union's memorandum nor appeared on 4th June, 2002, during the hearing of the dispute, the demands are allowed as prayed for by the Union, and I award as follows:

Clause 11—Leave travelling allowance:

An employee be paid KSh. 1,250 as leave travelling allowance with effect from 1st June, 1997.

Clause 20—Night shift allowance:

An employee be paid 30 per cent of his or her basic wage as night shift allowance with effect from 1st June, 1997.

Clause 22—Housing allowance:

An employee be paid KSh. 1,200 per month as housing allowance with effect from 1st June, 1997.

A single hand baker or confectioner, overman and charge hand baker be paid a minimum wage of KSh. 3,448 per month with effect from 1st June, 1997.

I so order.
