GAZETTE NOTICE No 1803THE ELECTRIC POWER ACT

(Cap 314)

Public notice of an application to introduce New Methods of Charge Bye-laws throughout all Areas in Kenya supplied by the Licensee

NOTICE is hereby given for general information that The East African Power and Lighting Company Limited, a limited liability company incorporated in the Republic of Kenya, having its registered office at Electricity House, Harambee Avenue, Nairobi, intends to make application on Monday 17th July, 1978 to the Minister for Power and Communications under section 72 and 149 of the Electric Power Act for the approval by him of proposed Bye-laws to be known as the "Methods of Charge (E A P L) Bye-laws, 1978" which, if and when approved, will revoke the existing Methods of Charge (E A P L) Bye-laws, 1976

The object of and the reason for the application is to rationalize and simplify the tariff structure that was adopted in 1968 so that each category of consumer will be charged at a rate that reflects more closely the cost of providing the supply to that particular category

The areas which will be affected by the grant of the application are all the areas supplied by the Licensee All consumers, existing and future, will be affected by the grant of the application, in that some existing consumers will be paying less than at present while others will have to pay more The extent of decrease or increase, as the case may be, will depend on the actual consumption

The new tariffs are not intended to increase the Licensee's gross revenue level

Copies of the proposed Methods of Charge (E A P L) Bye-laws, 1978, have been deposited at the offices of the Licensee and are open to public inspection during normal office hours without payment Copies of the proposed Bye-laws may be purchased at the offices of the Licensee at a price of Sh 5 per copy

Any public or local authority, company, person or body of persons desirous of making any representation on or objection to this application must do so by letter, addressed to the Minister for Power and Communications and marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Electric Power Act", on or before the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the application as stated in this notice and must forward a copy of such representation or objection to the applicant at P O Box 30099, Nairobi

Dated this 30th day of June, 1978

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO 17 OF 1978

Parties

Domestic and Hotel Workers' Union and
Social Service League

Issue in dispute

Dismissal of Mrs Naomi Mararo

1 The Domestic and Hotel Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Social Service League shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 10th day of May, 1978, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Respondents also called P K Mwai to give evidence during the hearing

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 28th November, 1977, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 8th March, 1978, along with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner

Mrs Naomi Mararo started working for the Respondents on 1st December, 1961, as a cleaner. Her services were summarily terminated on 10th September, 1976

Her dismissal was prompted by the fact that she was absent from duty on 6th September, 1976, and it is alleged that she failed to explain to the management the reason for her absence and that she had not even bothered to explain to the Respondents' Labour Officer why she had remained absent. This alleged absence without any justification coupled with the previous three warnings that had been issued to her in 1976 led to her dismissal

The Claimants stated that the previous warnings were not proper because they had not been served on their member and further they have not been copied to them as required under the collective agreement. The Court, however, is satisfied that not only the three warnings in 1976 were issued to her but several other prior to that year were also issued. She, however, refused to accept these warning letters and the Court is inclined to believe the Respondents when they say that their employees had a tendency not to accept any letters from the management as they suspected that they were warning letters. This may well be due to the fact that their messenger at the hospital is a shop steward representing the Claimants!!

During the hearing the Claimants produced a medical certificate dated 6th September, 1976, issued by a doctor, I. Gatumbi, and it reads that Naomi Mararo had a serious illness on 6th September and had treatment at the doctor's surgery

P K Mwai, the Respondents' Labour Officer, stated in his evidence that Mrs Mararo was absent on 6th September and did not explain her absence the next day until she was called later in the afternoon at 3 p.m. She then told him that she was sick and he asked her for the sick sheet but she could not produce any document. He added that if she had produced the medical certificate before 10th September he would have advised the management not to dismiss her.

In the letter of 7th September written by Mr Mwai to Mrs Mararo he has not recorded anywhere that he asked her to produce a medical certificate and that she failed to do so.

The Court cannot understand why Mr Mwai forgot to mention this extremely important point in his letter because in that letter after referring to the relevant clause re-warning procedure and referring to the three previous warnings issued to her in 1976 he wrote —

"Your fourth offence was committed on 6th September, 1976, when you remained absent without permission or reasonable cause. You also failed to explain to the management the reason why you remained absent. You did not even appear before the Labour Officer to explain him why you remained absent. I am therefore left with no alternative but to recommend your summary dismissal."

The Court is inclined to believe that he did not ask her to produce a medical certificate. Had he done so the medical certificate which was produced in Court during the hearing would have been produced to him even though it may not have been issued on the day in question. The fact remains that Mr. Gatumbi has certified that this lady had a serious illness on 6th September and had treatment at his surgery. So she was absent with justification on that day.

The Respondents were not quite happy with the medical certificate but in the absence of any evidence to the contrary the Court has no alternative but to accept it.

The Respondents produced in Court a circular which was issued by their Executive Officer to all nursing and domestic staff in which he advised them that no sick sheets from outside doctors or nursing homes will be entertained by the management unless the sick sheets are from consultants only and this again will be at the discretion of the management. In the parties' collective agreement which was in force at the time it is provided in clause under medical treatment and sick leave that the Respondents shall provide free out patient medical treatment as available at any of their hospitals to an employee and his/her family, but under the heading of sick leave it is stated that an employee shall not be entitled to sick leave with pay unless he/she produces to the League a certificate of incapacity covering the period of sick leave claimed, signed by a registered medical practitioner in charge of a dispensary or medical aid centre or by a person authorized by him in writing and acting on his behalf. The circular issued by the Respondents' Executive Officer therefore was contrary to the provisions of the collective agreement and is not binding on the employees. If the Respondents wish to change the relevant clause in the collective agreement then they should amend it in consultation with the Claimants.

The Court would now like to refer to an alleged agreement which the Respondents' Labour Officer made with a senior representative of the Claimants, Z. Kitari, on 30th September, 1976, under which Mrs Mararo was to be reinstated to her duties without loss of benefits. Mr Mwai in his evidence denied having made any such agreement but unfortunately again there seems to be no denial of this alleged agreement in writing by Mr Mwai.

The Court has carefully considered the Respondents' submissions that they had properly applied clause 14 (c) of the collective agreement because Mrs Mararo was absent from work on 6th September without a valid reason which entitled them to summarily terminate her services. The Court, however, cannot accept that Mrs Mararo was absent without a valid reason. The Court has come to the conclusion that she was absent because she was not well and this fact is supported by the doctor's certificate.

The result of the Court's finding is that Mrs Mararo did not commit the fourth offence as alleged by the Respondents and she has therefore suffered a wrongful dismissal.

The Court has very carefully considered the question of her reinforcement but in view of her previous record leading to the various warning letters issued to her which she had refused to accept the Court finds that she does not deserve a reinstatement. The Court has therefore decided to award her compensation only for the wrongful dismissal that she has suffered.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that Mrs Mararo suffered a wrongful dismissal and awards her five months' pay by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal that she has suffered. The Court would like to add that in addition to this compensation she will also be entitled to gratuity under clause 18 of the collective agreement as she has served the Respondents for 15 years.

THE UNITED KINGDOM DESIGNS PROTECTION ACT
(Cap 510)

DESIGN REGISTRATION NO 962,893

NOTICE is hereby given by our clients, P FERRERO & C SpA, an Italian joint stock company, with its registered office at Piazza Pietro Ferrero 1, Alba (Cuneo) Italy, manufacturers, who have obtained in England registration of the design set forth below for "DISPLAY POST" registered under the Registered Designs Act, 1949 and bearing Registration No 962,893 as filed on the 14th June 1977, and registered as of the same date. The copyright of five years was granted and was extended for a second five year period as from 18th November, 1977 and will expire on the 18th November, 1982. The design is renewable for further periods of five years thereafter.

The attention of the public is drawn to the provisions of the above-mentioned Kenya Act (Cap 510 of the Laws of Kenya) which extends to Kenya the protection afforded by the above registration and confers on our clients, inter alia the rights to recover damages for any infringement of copyright in the design.

Design Registration No 962,893 in respect of "Display Post" shown above was registered on the 14th June, 1977, and the copyright extends to Kenya.

GAZETTE NOTICE No 1831

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

THIRD EDITION 1972

MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

This edition illustrates the pace of progress and industrial advancement which Kenya has made since independence in 1963

Besides underlining the record of industrial progress in recent years, the Index aims at bringing to the notice of buyers within Africa and overseas the diversity of products available in Kenya and the scope for mutually profitable business opportunities that exist The Index, therefore, is a standard book of reference on what Kenya can produce and make and should therefore, be useful to businessmen and students for the valuable information that it contains
