THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 4 OF 1966

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and

Life Insurance Corporation of India

Issues in dispute:—

- (1) Wages.
- (2) Dearness Allowance (Cost of Living Allowance).
- (3) Medical Benefits.
- (4) Leave Allowance.
- (5) Overtime.
- (6) Acting Allowance.
- (7) Upgrading.
- (8) Probation.
- (9) Severance Pay on Redundancy.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Life Insurance Corporation of India shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 27th and 28th of April 1966, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Claimants also called one witness.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

3. It appears that following a turbulent period in the industrial relations between the Parties which included two strikes, an agreement on terms and conditions of service of the Respondents' employees was entered into between the Parties on 30th May 1962. This agreement was to run for three years from 1st November 1961. The Respondents claimed the wage standstill benefit under the Tripartite Agreement on the expiry of this agreement, although they received demands of the revised terms and conditions on 21st January 1965. On 23rd February 1965, the Respondents asked the Claimants to include the revision of salary scales as well in their demands and on 8th June 1965, the Claimants were informed that the matter had been referred to the Respondents' Head Office in India. During all this time the Respondents claimed benefit under the Tripartite Agreement. Eventually the Respondents made an offer of 5 per cent increase in dearness allowance (cost of living allowance) with a ceiling of Sh. 280 per month and an offer of Sh. 75 per annum as medical benefit for every employee. This offer was rejected by the Claimants and the matter was again referred by the Respondents to their Head Office. On 27th August 1965, at a meeting between the Parties, the Respondents asked the Claimants to submit new proposals on salary scales. On 7th October 1965, the Claimants reported the existence of a dispute to the Ministry of Labour and Social Services and a conciliator was appointed. On 30th October 1965, the conciliator met the Parties in dispute but no progress was made until 12th November 1965, as the Respondents had not received complete instructions from their Head Office in Bombay. At a meeting held on 12th November 1965, the Respondents appeared to have asked again for new proposals on staff grading. These were handed to the Respondents by the Claimants on 16th November 1965, along with a draft of a medical scheme. Further clarifications which were sought by the Respondents were made on 24th November 1965. The conciliator at one stage allowed the Respondents' Divisional Manager to take the latest proposals from the Claimants to Head Office in Bombay for discussions. Nothing, however, materialized out of this and the Parties referred the matter to the Industrial Court in accordance with the Trade Disputes Act, 1965, having signed the notification form on 18th January 1966. The issues contained in the form submitted originally were as follows:—

- (1) Terms and conditions of service.
- (2) Salary structure.
- (3) Medical benefits.

When the matter came up for hearing on 17th March 1966, the Respondents objected to the Claimants having altered the notification of dispute form without their approval and submitted that they had commented in their memorandum on two issues of salary structure and medical benefits only whereas the Claimants had come out with additional issues which were not included in the form of notification.

The matter was, however, resolved by the Parties when they submitted a fresh notification of dispute form to the Court containing the aforesaid nine issues.

Both the Parties requested the Court to include the issues of the Effective Date and the Duration of Award in this dispute.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANTS

4. (1) Wages and (2) Dearness Allowance.—The Claimants submitted that the last wage increase was awarded to their members in November 1961, since when a number of changes have taken place in Kenya. The general trend in the country today, in accordance with its changed status, was to seek better living conditions for workers. The cost of living in Kenya had risen considerably since the end of 1961, but there had been no corresponding increase in salaries. The Claimants objected to the Respondents' practice of fixing salaries for Kenya employees in India, as it was fundamentally wrong to decide a wage policy for workers in Kenya in India. In the absence of a Government wage policy it was the duty of the workers to try and formulate a wage policy in any industry after giving due consideration to the financial means of the employers. The Claimants maintained that the increases which they had demanded were reasonable but the Respondents had been extremely rigid in negotiations.

The Claimants made the following demands on salary scales:—

Grade IV Employees (Subordinate Staff)

Sh. 250.00 salary
Sh. 112.50 D.A. 45% Basic Salary
Sh. 362.50

Annual Increment Sh. 15.00 Basic Salary
Sh. 6.75 D.A. 45% of Basic Salary
Sh. 21.75

(i) $362.50 \times 21.75$	$406.00 \times 29.00$	=Sh. 638.00—10 years
2 years.	8 years.

(ii) Junior Assistants

Sh. 505.00 Basic Salary
Sh. 227.25 D.A. 35% of Basic Salary
Sh. 732.25

Annual Increment Sh. 25.00 Basic Salary
Sh. 11.25 D.A. 45% Basic Salary
Sh. 36.25

$732.25 \times 36.25$	$949.75 \times 50.75$	=Sh. 1305.00—13 years
6 years.	7 years.

Sh. 40 Basic Salary
Sh. 18 D.A. 45% of Basic Salary
Sh. 58

not to allow any assistant to be stagnant without any increment, an increment of Sh. 58 should be given every two years after having reached the maximum in this grade.

(iii) Senior Assistants

Sh. 920.00 Basic Salary
Sh. 414.00 D.A. 45% of Basic Salary
Sh. 1,334.00

Annual Increment Sh. 40.00 Basic Salary

5 years.	3 years.

Sh. 50.00 Basic Salary
Sh. 22.50 45% D.A. of Basic Salary
Sh. 72.50

not to allow any assistant to be stagnant without any increment, an increment of Sh. 72.50 should be given to any such person every two years.

(iv) Superintendents

Annual Increments Sh. 50.00 Basic Salary
Sh. 22.50 D.A. 45% of Basic Salary
Sh. 72.50

$1819.75 \times 72.50$	=Sh. 2109.75—4 years
4 years.

Sh. 55.00 Basic Salary
Sh. 24.75 D.A. 45% of Basic Salary
Sh. 79.75

Conditions as above with an increment of Sh. 79.75 every two years.

The Claimants pointed out that the cost of living allowance that was paid to their members before the last wage increase was 30 per cent of the basic salary. In addition to this allowance there was a further sum of Sh. 80 payable to each member with the exception of subordinate staff, who were given only Sh. 50 per month but no cost of living allowance. After the last wage increase in 1961, 30 per cent of the basic salary was paid to all employees save the subordinate staff, and payment of Sh. 80 was discontinued. The Claimants demanded the cost of living allowance to be increased to 45 per cent of the basic salary due to the rise in cost of living. The Claimants could not accept the Respondents' ridiculous offer of 5 per cent increase and wanted the cost of living allowance to be extended to the subordinate staff as well. Further they did not want a ceiling on this allowance and wanted the employees to get the full benefit of the 45 per cent of the basic salary.

The Claimants submitted various documents supporting their demands on the cost of living increase and the recommendations of previous conciliator on the question of consolidation of the salaries and stated that the Respondents' business had considerably increased over the last few years. They produced a circular issued by the Respondents acknowledging the hard work put in by their employees. The Claimants contended that the cost of living had increased by 30 per cent since 1961.

The Claimants requested the Court to increase the basic wage as well because the present wage was very low. In addition to this they demanded consolidation of the cost of living allowance into the basic wage as there was no possibility of the cost of living going down in future.

(3) Medical Benefits.—The Claimants submitted that it was in the interest of an employer to ensure that his employees were healthy persons so that they could work efficiently. A poor man was at the mercy of City Council clinics for medical attention which entailed waiting in long queues. They stated that a man who earned a small salary could not afford to go to a private doctor. The Respondents had been indifferent to the health of their employees. The Claimants pointed out that most of the insurance companies in Kenya provided medical facilities for their employees. The Claimants submitted that a medical scheme should be set up by the Respondents for their employees and their dependents and handed to the Court a copy of a scheme which they had forwarded to the Respondents which they submitted was reasonable and should be accepted by the Respondents.

(4) Leave Allowance.—The Claimants claimed that it had now become an accepted principle in Kenya that employees should be paid a leave allowance and they made the following demand:—

Grade III Employees (Clerical and Supervisory Staff)

- A. Married man.—Sh. 800.
- B. Single man.—Sh. 500.

Grade IV Employees (Subordinate Staff)

- C. Married man.—Sh. 300.
- D. Single man.—Sh. 200.

This allowance to be paid at the commencement of leave.

(5) Overtime.—The Claimants stated that at present an employee was entitled to  $1\frac{1}{2}$  times the ordinary rate for overtime work in excess of the normal hours whether on a week-day, week-end or a public holiday. It was the Claimants' submission that the Respondents should fall in line with the practice in the country which was as follows:—

- (a) For any work done in excess of the normal working hours during the week-days, such work should be paid at the rate of  $1\frac{1}{2}$  times the normal rate;
- (b) for any work done on Sundays or public holidays, the rate for payment should be double the normal overtime rate.

(6) Acting Allowance.—The Claimants demanded that an employee who was called upon to perform duties in a grade higher than his own should be entitled to an acting allowance on the difference between his salary and the salary of the person he was acting for. They submitted that the present practice of paying the difference worked out on the basic rate of the higher grade was unfair one and requested the Court to reject it.

(7) Upgrading.—The Claimants made a strong plea for opportunities to be provided for subordinate staff to better themselves. They submitted that there were in the Respondents' employment at present, members of the subordinate staff who performed clerical duties. The witness called by the Claimants confirmed that although he was a member of the subordinate staff his normal work was that of a clerk. He admitted that since last four weeks he was attending the lift.

The Claimants' further submitted that facilities should be provided and encouragement given to those workers who improved themselves. They wanted the Respondents to discontinue the practice of bringing officers from India. It was the submission of the Claimants that there were employees in the Corporation, who had been recruited locally and who had the ability to become officers; such persons should be upgraded. The Claimants bitterly complained that up to date promotions for local employees had been far and few and there was need for a drastic change in the Respondents' policy in this respect.

(8) Probation.—The Claimants submitted that at present a recruit who was employed by the Respondents was required to serve a probationary period of six months. They submitted that this was too long a period and wanted it to be reduced to three months.

(9) Severance Pay on Redundancy.—The Claimants stated that the most important factor to a worker was security of his job, therefore, when he lost his job through no fault of his own, he should be adequately compensated. An employee's loyal services should also be appreciated and considered. They submitted that when a worker was declared redundant he should be paid the following benefits:—

- (a) Provident Fund: His own contribution and an amount equal to the worker's contribution should be paid by the Respondents;
- (b) a worker should be paid double the gratuity as severance pay;
- (c) he should be paid money in lieu of earned leave.

(10) Effective Date and Duration of the Award.—The Claimants submitted that there had been no delay in the finalization of the negotiations on their part and requested the Court to back-date the award to 1st November 1965. They left the duration period at the discretion of the Court but submitted that if the award was to be for two years then the increases granted should be proportionately higher. They drew the Court's attention to the fact that the Respondents had not strictly taken on 10 per cent additional staff as required under the Tripartite Agreement but had merely transferred their redundant employees from Kampala to Nairobi.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENTS

5. (1) Wages and (2) Dearness Allowance.—The Respondents submitted that they were registered and had made a major contribution to Kenya's development through substantial investments made locally. They had also invested a substantial amount in premises with which to house their local offices and had made a major contribution to the City Council Kariakor Low Cost Housing Scheme. They had identified their interest with those of the Republic and accepted the need to participate in the Trade Disputes machinery of Kenya.

The Respondents stated that they had received proposals from the Claimants, which were despatched by them to their Head Office, in April 1965, thereafter they had asked for a copy of the South British Insurance Company Limited agreement for the purpose of forwarding it to India. The Claimants, however, replied by saying it was not the practice in the country for the Claimants to supply the employers with all the contracts signed. Further talks took place on 10th August and the Claimants were asked to put forward their views on the various aspects of their memorandum of demands and it became clear that the document the Claimants had submitted had been ill-prepared and that the Claimants were unaware that certain of their demands were already covered in a more beneficial fashion by benefits currently granted by the Respondents.

The Respondents submitted that wages currently paid within their organization compared favourably with wages paid in any similar organization. A concession was made in that a certain element of justification could be deemed relevant to the demand for a cost of living allowance and the Respondents stated that they would be prepared to increase the allowance by 5 per cent, thus raising it from 30 per cent on basic salary to 35 per cent with a ceiling of Sh. 280. The Respondents requested the Court to take into consideration the totality of their terms of service and to note that they granted to the employees a more beneficial "take-home" than could be expected in most other undertakings. The Respondents maintained that the demands made by the Claimants were totally untenable and unrealistic. The Respondents stated that through variety of factors existing in the country, business had dropped by 40 per cent since July 1965.

The Respondents drew the Court's attention to the following passage in the conciliator's report to the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Labour:—

"Two meetings have been held here—the last one culminating on a mutual agreement between the Company and the Union and the Shop Steward from the Industry should begin today (Friday, 12th November 1965), to draw up proposals on gradings. When these are completed they shall immediately be handed over to the Divisional Manager, who will forward them to their Head Office in Bombay for approval. The Parties agree that the document should be despatched to Bombay on the 25th of this month at the very latest. Meanwhile the Parties agree to treat the dispute as existing until the report from India is received."

The Respondents argued that on 16th November the Claimants' General Secretary submitted further fresh proposals which again were varied on 28th November 1965. This resulted in the Respondents seeking further clarifications from the Claimants which were not forthcoming within reasonable time. This left the Respondents in a position of not knowing what the Claimants actually wanted. They made a strong plea that the Claimants even during the hearing did not know precisely what their demands were, although they were very quick in knowing what they did not want.

In these circumstances the Respondents requested the Court to reject the demands made by the Claimants.

On the question of consolidation, the Respondents submitted that the Claimants' proposals were merely a total of the original basic pay and 45 per cent cost of living allowance and had deliberately omitted reference to the inclusion of the bonus payment. They submitted that the allowances based on the cost of living were relics of the past and were virtually unknown in the context of Kenya today and should it be the wish of the Claimants to dispose off such relics then clearly they must be consistent and it was the view of the Respondents that the Court must also endeavour to rationalize the whole agreement covering the terms and conditions of their employees. The Respondents had little doubt that if this policy was pursued the Claimants would find it intolerable as the present agreement contained many benefits of considerable value to employees which were not granted in other organizations. The Respondents reiterated that the total cost of benefits granted to their employees was far higher than what was being spent in other industries on their employees. Consolidation would also contribute substantially to the increased net cost of the employees when considering gratuity, provident fund contributions, etc. Finally, the Respondents submitted that their offer of 5 per cent in the cost of living allowance was based on the official figures published by the Kenya Government with bases pre-independence and after independence and, therefore, could be taken as reputable guide to the variations in the cost of living. They rejected the Claimants' demand of a 15 per cent increase and requested the Court also to do the same.

(3) Medical Benefits.—The Respondents submitted that they were prepared to spend a sum of Sh. 75 per year on an employee towards a medical scheme for the benefit of the employees only. They were not prepared to entertain demands to provide for medical benefits in respect of employees' families. They stated that if a medical scheme was available for an annual premium of Sh. 100 then it would not be any burden on the employees to contribute the remaining Sh. 25. They requested the Court to confirm this arrangement.

(4) Leave Allowance.—The Respondents strongly resisted the Claimants' demand under this head and stated that the employees enjoyed very generous leave provisions which were 15 days' casual leave and 33 days' privilege leave every year. Privilege leave was accumulable up to a maximum of six months. In these circumstances it would be an intolerable state of affairs if the Court were to award a leave allowance for employees to be paid to them when they proceeded on leave.

(5) Overtime.—The Respondents argued that once again the Court came up against the current paternalism which might be deemed to apply to their employees. They stated that as against the practice to be found in the South British Insurance Company and in the banks where when overtime was calculated, the fraction varied between 1/165th and 1/158th, the Respondents' practice of dividing the employees' monthly salaries which consisted of basic pay, special pay, personal pay, cost of living by 1/141st was extremely reasonable and generous. This rate applied even to class four employees. There was no cushioning and overtime was payable to employees as soon as their normal working hours were concluded, thus an employee who had not finished his 36½ hours enjoyed overtime payment at the rate of 1½ times in respect of all overtime, in addition the Court's attention was drawn to the fact that the working week was 36½ hours. In these circumstances they requested the Court to make a nil award.

(6) Acting Allowance.—At present an employee was paid the difference between the basic pay in the old and new scales arrived at by initially fixing at the minimum of the scale or at the stage in the new scale which was next above his basic pay whichever was more, provided that such officiating allowance might be reduced by the appointing authority if the acting arrangement was of a temporary nature and the circumstances justified it. They stated that this was a fair arrangement and should not be varied.

(7) Upgrading.—The Respondents refuted the Claimants' allegation that when subordinate staff were called upon to do the work which involved handling of stationery or the use of pens and pencils, this might be legitimately termed clerical work and the employee must be placed in a clerical grade and paid accordingly. They also denied that any member of subordinate staff was employed on clerical duties. As far as other employees were concerned when opportunities arose, employees had been upgraded. This would happen in future also.

(8) Probation.—The Respondents stated that the Claimants sought to reduce the present provision by 50 per cent but had offered no reasons and, therefore, they submitted that six months' probationary period was contemporarily equitable and required no change.

(9) Severance Pay on Redundancy.—The Respondents submitted that at present an employee declared redundant was paid by them the following:—

- (i) Provident Fund, including the Respondents' share of contribution together with interest;
- (ii) Gratuity calculated on the terminal salary at the rate of one month's salary for each completed year of service. Figures in excess of six months being construed as one full year;
- (iii) one month's wages in lieu of notice. This notice period was doubled if the employee's service was in excess of ten years.

This provision demonstrated once again the generous paternalistic practice by the Respondents and they requested the Court not to vary it.

(10) Effective Date and Duration of the Award.—The Respondents submitted that the Claimants were to be blamed entirely for the delay in the finalization of this dispute as they were at no time clear on their demands. The Respondents had done everything possible without any delay to bring the matter to a speedy conclusion. They requested the Court to avoid any back-dating and bind the Parties to a two-year award.

AWARD

6. The Court has very carefully considered the submissions made by the Parties in coming to its findings.

(1) Wages and Dearness Allowance.—The Court rejects the Claimants' demand for consolidation of employees' salaries as it is a matter which should be thoroughly discussed between the Parties themselves before the next wage revision. Likewise, the Claimants' demand for an increase in the cost of living allowance is also rejected.

The Court, however, awards the following increases on the basic rate of wages to various employees in the categories specified:—

- Junior Assistants*.—Sh. 35 per month.
- Senior Assistants*.—Sh. 50 per month.
- Superintendents*.—Sh. 60 per month.

In addition to the above increases the employees shall be entitled to their annual increments provided that only one such annual increment shall be granted before the next wage revision.

Subordinate Staff.—All employees whose basic wage is less than Sh. 200 per month shall get an increase of Sh. 35 per month; others shall get an increase of Sh. 25 per month on their basic wage. A further increase of Sh. 25 shall be granted to these employees on the expiry of the 1st year of the award.

(3) Medical Benefits.—The Court awards that the Respondents should start a medical scheme within three months of the date of the award after consultations with the Claimants. This medical scheme shall be for the benefit of the employees only and the Respondents' contribution to such a scheme shall be restricted to a sum of Sh. 100 per year in respect of an employee. Employees may, however, extend the benefit of such scheme to members of their families provided they make their own contributions for such additional benefits.

(4) Leave Allowance.—Nil award.

(5) Overtime.—Nil award.

(6) Acting Allowance.—Nil award.

(7) Upgrading.—Nil award.

(8) Probation.—Nil award.

(9) Severance Pay on Redundancy.—The Court endorses the current practice as mentioned in the Respondents' submission hereinabove.

(10) Effective Date and Duration of the Award.—This award shall be with effect from 1st March 1966, and shall remain in force for a period of two years from that date.

Given in Nairobi this 16th day of May 1966.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1836

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 17 OF 1966

Parties:

Domestic and Hotel Workers' Union

and

The Board of Governors of Secondary Schools

Issues in dispute:

- (a) Rates of Pay.
- (b) Job Grading.
- (c) Seniority Allowance.
- (d) Severance Pay.
- (e) Date of Implementation.

1. The Domestic and Hotel Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Board of Governors of Secondary Schools shall hereinafter be referred to as Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 29th day of April 1966 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

3. In March 1962 the Board of Governors of six Secondary Schools in Kenya decided to form a Group of the Federation of Kenya Employers for the purpose of granting recognition to the Claimants and subsequently conducted negotiations on wages and conditions of service. The following schools participated in this meeting:—

Delamere School.
Delamere Girls School.
Duke of York School.
Highlands School.
Kenya High School.
Prince of Wales School.
St. Mary's School.

In 1964 other schools joined the Group and now the following schools were represented:—

Delamere Boys' School.
Delamere Girls' School.
Duke of York School.
Highland School.
Kenya High School.
Limuru Girls' School.
Nairobi School.
St. Mary's School.
Duke of Gloucester School.
Kenya Polytechnic.

Recognition Agreement was concluded on the 14th June 1962 between the Claimants and the Respondents and an agreement was signed governing terms and conditions to be effective from the 1st December 1962 and remain in force for two years with a proviso that the wages would be subject to review after 1st August 1963.

Another series of meetings were held in September and October 1963 and further amendments were subsequently agreed. The new agreement was effective for a period of 12 months from the 31st December 1963 to the 31st December 1964.

On 15th March 1965, the Claimants submitted the draft of a new agreement suggesting very wide variations in the existing agreement. This resulted in about 11 meetings between the parties at which the Claimants' various demands were discussed at great length. At the last meeting of the Joint Negotiating Committee held on 16th February 1966, the Claimants stated that they would declare a trade dispute to the Ministry of Labour on the 5 issues in dispute and immediately thereafter call a nation-wide strike to cover all schools mentioned hereinabove. Difficulties arose when the Claimants demanded direct reference for the settlement of the dispute to the Industrial Court against the Respondents' willingness to have conciliation in an endeavour to reduce the number of issues. On 11th March 1966, the parties signed the Notification of Dispute Form 'A' to the Industrial Court in accordance with the Trade Disputes Act, 1965.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANTS

4. (a) Rates of Pay:

The Claimants submitted that the Respondents had been paying their African workers very poor wages despite the fact that these workers played an important role in the running of these schools. Their current rates were not even enough to feed one adult properly. The existing agreement expired on 31st December 1964 but due to the wage standstill under the Tripartite Agreement, wages could not be revised for a period of another 14 months although during this period the non-African employees continued to get increments.

The Claimants pointed out that the delay in reaching an agreement on various issues had been due to the negative attitude of the Respondents. They put before the Court the existing rates of pay for the various categories of workers classified into nine groups showing different rates for Nairobi, Mombasa, Eldoret and Limuru. Nairobi rates being from Sh. 145 for Group 1 to Sh. 550 for Group 9 (exclusive of housing allowance for all Groups). The Claimants had demanded the following new rates for the various groups with proportionate increases for Eldoret and Limuru:—

(a) Group I	..	..	..	Sh. 250
(b) Group II	..	..	..	Sh. 285
(c) Group III	..	..	..	Sh. 300
(d) Group IV	..	..	..	Sh. 340
(e) Group V	..	..	..	Sh. 360
(f) Group VI	..	..	..	Sh. 450
(g) Group VII (a)	..	..	..	Sh. 485
(h) Group VII (b)	..	..	..	Sh. 500
(i) Group VIII	..	..	..	Sh. 520
(j) Group IX	..	..	..	Sh. 650

The Respondents gave a counter offer as follows:—

- (i) Group I to Group III increment of 3 per cent.
- (ii) Group IV to Group VI increment of 2 per cent.
- (iii) Group VII to Group IX increment of 1 per cent.

The Claimants submitted that this was a very poor offer and one which they could, under no circumstances, accept.

The Claimants, in the spirit of collective bargaining, then made the following reduced demands:—

- (i) Group I to Group III increment of 17 per cent.
- (ii) Group IV to Group VI increment of 15 per cent.
- (iii) Group VII to Group IX increment of 12 per cent.

The Respondents in reply to these demands came out with the following proposals:—

- (i) Group I to Group III increment of 5 per cent.
- (ii) Group IV to Group VI increment of 4 per cent.
- (iii) Group VII to Group IX increment of 3 per cent.

This again was far short of the Claimants' expectations.

The Claimants stated that the non-African administrative staff were in receipt of high salaries and if the Respondents were short of money, then why did these people continue enjoying such high remuneration. The Claimants gave details of the salaries of the administrative staff. The Claimants submitted that this was a clear case of exploitation of African workers and, therefore, made a strong plea for an award on the lines demanded by them for the following reasons:—

- (a) That the cost of living had gone up considerably over the last three years;
- (b) The standard of living of African workers had to be raised since Independence and that the workers were entitled to have the following benefits—
  - (i) three square meals per day with a balanced diet;
  - (ii) better accommodation;
  - (iii) decent clothing to uphold their dignity as human beings;
  - (iv) better education for the workers' children plus medical facilities for them;
  - (v) recreational and entertainment facilities for the workers;
  - (vi) workers should be able to afford newspapers, magazines, radios, etc.

The Claimants maintained that workers in this country had been paid extremely low wages in the past, but there was no reason why this pattern should not change now. They expected the spending power of African workers to increase and thereby boost the economy of the country. The Claimants requested the Court to recommend Africanization of certain high posts in the administrative side so that money could be saved to increase the wages of the low-paid workers.

(b) Job Grading:

The Claimants submitted that they wanted telephone operators and store clerks to be up-graded as they had been classified in lower grades than what was warranted by the amount of work they did. They requested the Court to review the grades of these workers in order to up-grade them.

(c) Seniority Allowance:

The Claimants submitted that most of the workers employed by the Respondents had been in their service for long time, some for more than 15 years, although formerly these schools were run by the Government. The Board of Governors took over the schools in April 1961 but this was no reason for them to discount the employees' past services with the Government.

The Claimants requested the Court to award seniority allowance as follows:—

Period	Seniority Allowance
1st year .. . .	Basic Minimum Wages.
2nd to 3rd year ..	Basic wages plus Sh. 5 per month.
4th to 5th year ..	Basic wages plus Sh. 10 per month.
6th to 7th year ..	Basic wages plus Sh. 15 per month.
8th to 9th year ..	Basic wages plus Sh. 20 per month.
10th year and over	Basic wages plus Sh. 25 per month.

(d) Severance Pay:

The Claimants wanted 18 days' pay for every completed year of service in respect of those unfortunate workers who would be declared redundant. They submitted that this was a reasonable demand and the Court should confirm it.

(e) Date of Implementation:

The Claimants stated that negotiations on the issues had started on 26th May 1965, and carried on up to the 16th February 1966, when deadlock was recorded. All this delay was due to the Respondents' attitude and the Claimants requested the Court to back-date the award to 1st June 1965.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENTS

5. (a) Rates of Pay:

The Respondents submitted that all schools had been placed in considerable financial difficulties due to the Government's policy in reducing the amount of the grants combined with direction from the Government to reduce the fees chargeable to the students. This had, therefore, necessitated a drastic pruning of all expenditure as all these schools were non-profit making undertakings and had to live within the budget prepared by the Board of Governors and approved by the Ministry of Education. The Respondents gave the details of various grants of the schools and explained the financial structure within which they had to operate.

The Respondents were anxious to maintain existing standards combined with the present labour force and, therefore, any undue additional burden caused by high increase in wages would result in further redundancies and cutting down of existing services. The Respondents pointed out to the Court that their offer during negotiations was not final and had the Claimants agreed to conciliation, there was every chance of the dispute being settled at that stage.

The Respondents emphasized that it was necessary to maintain existing differentials between Nairobi and Mombasa on the one hand and Eldoret and Limuru on the other. The Court was told that the Claimants had agreed to this arrangement.

In these circumstances the Respondents were prepared to increase their offers from 5 per cent to 8 per cent for the various grades, higher increase going to the lowest paid workers.

(b) Job Grading:

The Respondents did not understand the Claimants' insistence that this matter be included in the issues referred to the Industrial Court as agreement was reached on job grading and was recorded in the minutes of the meeting held on the 14th September 1965. The Respondents produced this minute for the benefit of the Court and requested the Court to make a nil award.

(c) Seniority Allowance:

The Respondents drew the Court's attention to the minute of the Joint Negotiating Committee meeting held on the 18th August 1965, where it was recorded that the Claimants' proposals concerning seniority allowance be withdrawn. The Claimants reserved the right to discuss at some future date the question of a long service bonus. Again the Respondents produced the relevant minute and requested the Court to make a nil award.

(d) Severance Pay:

On this issue again the Court's attention was drawn to minutes of Joint Negotiating Committee meeting held on the 18th August 1965, when agreement was reached and recorded on the Claimants' proposals for redundancy. The Court was, therefore, requested to uphold that agreement which was reached on 18th August 1965, and to make a nil award.

(e) Date of Implementation:

The Respondents emphatically stated that they had at no time agreed to forego the benefit of wage standstill to which they were entitled under the Tripartite Agreement and, therefore any new agreement on wages could only take effect from the 1st March 1966. The Claimants had requested the employers in the interests of good industrial relations to consider implementing the agreement on wages at an earlier date.

The Respondents quoted minute No. 14/65/4 of the meeting held on 7th July 1965, when it was agreed "that the agreement shall be in force for a period of 12 months from the date of signature." This minute referred to terms and conditions of service only and not to wages and the Respondents emphasized that any agreement on wages could only take effect after the extension of validity of 14 months had passed. The Respondents submitted that all their members had carried out their obligations under the Tripartite Agreement including engaging additional staff equal to 10 per cent of their establishment and had not declared any workers redundant during the currency of the Tripartite Agreement.

The Respondents argued that the existing agreement stated that "this agreement should continue in force until it is amended", therefore, they were entitled to demand that in accordance with the Tripartite Agreement the earliest possible date for the application of any increases should be 1st March 1966 and as the existing agreement applied until it was amended, the Court was requested to award that the date of implementation should be the date of publication of the Court's award in the Kenya Gazette and should be for a period of 12 months from that date.

With regard to the terms of service, the Claimants had already reached agreement with the Respondents, that the terms and conditions of service would be valid as from the date of signing of the new agreement, therefore, the award of the Court on terms and conditions of service must also apply from the date of publication of the Court's award in the Kenya Gazette.

AWARD

The Court, having carefully considered the submissions and arguments put forward the Parties, makes the following Award :—

(a) Rates of Pay:—

The Court Awards the following increases to all employees in various Groups :—

Sh. 20 per month increase — Group 1 to 3.

Sh. 18 per month increase — Group 4 to 8.

Sh. 28 per month increase — Group 9.

(b) Job Grading:—

The Court Awards that:

(i) Telephone Operator should be up-graded to Group 7 (b);

(ii) Storeman-Clerk should be up-graded to Group 6.

(c) Seniority Allowance:—

Nil award.

(d) Severance Pay:—

The existing agreement made during negotiations is satisfactory and the Court sees no reason to vary it.

This agreement provides as follows:—

(a) In the event of redundancy, the union shall be informed of the reasons for and the extent of the intended redundancy;

(b) Upon redundancy, an employee shall be allowed severance pay at the rate of a half month's pay for each completed year of service. Where a school has a Provident Fund, the surrender value of the employers' contributions plus interest shall constitute the Severance Pay, except that where such surrender value is less than that provided for in the first sentence, the board shall make good the shortfall."

(e) Date of Implementation:—

The Court Awards that the wages award should be with effect from 1st March 1966, and as far as terms and conditions are concerned, the effective date would be the date of publication of the Award in the Kenya Gazette.

Both agreements shall be of 12 months' duration from their respective effective dates.

Given in Nairobi this fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six.
