The present dispute arose out of the parties' collective agreement which became effective from 1st July, 1986 and expired on 30th June, 1988. The agreement was belately signed on 23rd March, 1979, and registered by the court under R.C.A. No. 112 of 1989 on 28th April, 1989. The parties have, however, agreed on their own to extend the duration of the agreement for a further period of two years with effect from 1st July, 1988 to 30th June, 1990; and, as soon as the award in this dispute is announced, the parties will up-date their aforementioned collective agreement for the period 1st July, 1988 to 30th June, 1990, and also negotiate for the next agreement, covering the period 1st July, 1990, to 30th June, 1992.

The respondents are the largest company engaged in bread baking and allied products in the country. They have branches in Nairobi, Nakuru and Nyeri, and some major distribution outlets throughout the country. The respondents employ a total labour force of 629 unionisable employees, 372 of whom are stationed in Nairobi, 214 in Nakuru and 43 in Nyeri. This dispute therefore, will affect 629 unionisable employees in the respondents undertaking.

By exchange of proposals and counter-proposals between them, and after a series of preliminary meetings at their own level, the parties disagreed on nineteen issues for which a formal trade dispute was reported to the Ministry of Labour on 22nd September, 1989. The ministry thereafter appointed a conciliator to help the parties effect a settlement. The parties resolved a further nine issues at the conciliation level, leaving out the ten issues now before the court.

The claimants pointed out that issues Nos. 1 to 9 were monetary items in the parties' collective agreement, and the respondents have made no offers to their demands thereon. They stated that issue No. 10, namely, "disciplinary procedure" was a new issue which was introduced by the respondents.

In their lengthy introductory written submission, the respondents pleaded their inability to meet the claimants' demands on the ground that they were in a very poor financial position; and in support of their contention they annexed thereto their audited accounts for the years 1986 to 1989. In 1986, the respondents made a profit of Sh. 6,435,000 compared to a profit of Sh. 22,959,000 in 1985. But during the years 1987, 1988 and 1989, they incurred losses amounting to Sh. 33,487,000, Sh. 25,088,000 and Sh. 44,580,000 respectively. They also expect a loss of about Sh. 68,000,000 for the year ending 31st July, 1990—i.e. the respondents would incur cumulative losses of over Sh. 175,000,000 at the end of their 1990 financial year. The respondents stated that their operation was faced with three basic problems, namely, shortage of wheat supply, poor quality of flour and reduced profit margin on the price of bread vis-a-vis rising costs of inputs, such as wrapping paper, fuel, electricity, etc. They averred that these problems have brought about either the closure of a number of bakeries or put them under receivership. The respondents strongly contended that the bread industry was going through a crisis, and in order to remain in business they have to keep their operational costs at the lowest level possible.

The respondents noted, however, that the cost of living for the period 1st July, 1986 to 30th June, 1988, in respect of the lower, middle and upper income groups rose by 18 per cent, 21.5 per cent and 20 per cent respectively; and, after taking into account the G.D.P. per capita growth of 1.2 per cent and 1.6 per cent for the years 1987 and 1988, respectively, the average permissible compensation to the employees under the wage guidelines would be 17.7 per cent for a two year period, or 8.85 per cent each year. They appreciated the court's understanding of their financial plight by allowing them to pay the arrears in cause No. 72 of 1988 in four instalments. The respondents informed the court that, due to their continued financial difficulties, the shareholders have had no dividends since 1987.

On serious consideration of the parties' submissions and thorough perusal of the respondents' financial statements for the period under reference and analysis of the report by the Planning and Research Division (P.R.D.) and other supporting documentary evidence tendered in this dispute, the court notes that the whole bakery industry throughout the country has from about 1986, undergone through some economic difficulties as a result of inadequate inputs, especially wheat flour, high rise in the cost of production and the controlled prices of bread which has drastically eroded the profit margins accruing therefrom. These problems lie deep in the industry and it is one which both parties to this dispute have to accept and reconcile themselves to for the foreseeable future.

The respondents have pleaded their inability to absorb all of the claimants' demands, except a modest wage increase of 3 per cent each year, due to the problems already alluded to hereinabove. This is evident, for example, from the decline of both the unionisable employees and managerial staff from 854 in 1986 to 629 in 1990 and 99 in 1986 to 71 in 1990, respectively. There has also been a proportionate drop in the wage-bill for both the unionisable employees and managerial staff from Sh. 15,000,000 to Sh. 7,000,000 and from Sh. 4,000,000 to Sh. 2,000,000 over the same period. At the same time, the costs of inputs and production have appreciably arisen by over 66 per cent during the same period; while the respondents continued to make losses.

As this court has said time and again, wage or salary levels and the payment of fringe benefits must accord with the financial conditions of the employer and his consequent ability or inability to pay, and it must also bear some relationship to the productivity. In this case the respondents have pleaded very vigorously their inability to make any offer to the claimants' demands because of their financial predicament. Under the circumstances, the court is, therefore, reluctant to make an award which may put the respondents out of business or lead to a redundancy, or both. The danger here is real.

Having made the above observations, the court will now make its award on each issue in terms which it considers socially equitable, fair, reasonable economically sound and in the interests of the parties to this dispute and of the country.

In view of the respondents' delicate financial position the court awards that a status quo should be maintained in all the issues, except wage rates, for the first year of the duration of the collective agreement—i.e. from 1st July, 1988, to 30th June, 1989.

The court has also seriously considered the submissions and arguments advanced by the parties on the following issues and finds that these items should remain unchanged for the time being:

7. Casual workers.
8. Medical treatment.
13. Appendix "A".

Accordingly the court rejects the parties demands on each of them.

1. Wage rates:

Wages or salary questions are the most important of all items connected with the employment contract. Not only are they mentioned the most frequently, they take more time to discuss and give rise to the greatest number of disputes. This situation arises from the fact that the standard of living of the employee depends on the wage or salary which he receives, while to the employer the wage-bill is often a considerable item in the cost of production—about 70 per cent of the total annual expenses. But no company can hope to progress without the effective efforts of its employees and good remuneration contributes greatly towards that achievement. On the other hand, employees cannot obtain financial rewards and job satisfaction unless the company achieves its objectives.

A detailed analysis on this issue by the P.R.D. revealed that in accordance with the wage guidelines, the employees are entitled to a general wage increase of 8.9 per cent each year, or a total of 17.7 per cent for the two year period. Under this item, the claimants have demanded a general wage increase of 17.5 per cent each year, or a total of 35 per cent for the two years duration against the respondents' offer of 3 per cent each year, or a total of 6 per cent for the two years! This minimal offer was made by the respondents in the light of the financial problems which they are facing.

After anxious consideration of all the submissions made by the parties on this issue, the court awards to all the unionisable employees modest wage increases of 5 per cent for the first year—i.e. 1st July, 1988 to 30th June, 1989—on their wages as at 31st May, 1988, and a further 7 per cent for the second year—i.e. 1st July, 1989 to 30th June, 1990—on their wages as at 31st May, 1989. As regards issues Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, the court awards as follows on each of them for the second year of the current agreement.

2. Safari/meal allowance:

In accordance with the P.R.D. report on this item, the claimants' demands amount to 43.3 per cent increase, and if they are sustained it will mean a rise on the current annual labour cost of about Sh. 472,000 to Sh. 686,000. Between January 1986 and December 1987, the food index rose by 11.5 per cent, and its application in this case would increase the annual expenditure under this issue to over Sh. 526,000.

The court has carefully considered the claimants' demands on this matter and finds that their demand is a bit on a higher side. The court has, therefore, decided to award the following rates:

Breakfast	— Sh. 20.
Lunch	— Sh. 40.
Dinner	— Sh. 40.
Overnight	— Sh. 225.

3. Disturbance allowance:

The current allowance under this item is Sh. 1,500, and the claimants have made a demand of Sh. 6,000—i.e. 300 per cent increase on the present labour cost of Sh. 54,000.

On serious consideration, the court finds that the claimants' demand is excessively unjustified, and it has decided to increase the present allowance on this issue by Sh. 500, thus making it Sh. 2,000, and the court so awards.

4. Tools allowance:

The existing allowance is Sh. 160 per month, which amounts to a total annual cost of over Sh. 97,000. The claimants are demanding that, due to which cost of tools and tool kits, this amount should be increased to a monthly payment of Sh. 1,200, payable to each employee. The P.R.D. report has revealed that the employees spend between Sh. 200 and Sh. 400 per month on the maintenance of their tool boxes.

After serious consideration of this issue, the court feels that the present rate of Sh. 160 should be increased to Sh. 175 per employee per month, and the court so awards.

5. Leave travelling allowance:

The present rate under this item is Sh. 350 per month, and the claimants demand a hike to Sh. 850 per month—i.e. 142.9 per cent increase—which would raise the current annual cost of over Sh. 220,000 to about Sh. 535,000.

After careful consideration of this matter, and in view of the present exorbitant travelling expenses, the court finds that the claimants' demand has some merit. In the circumstances, the court has decided to award that the current rate of Sh. 350 per month be increased to Sh. 450 per month, payable to each employee once a year when he proceeds on his annual leave.

6. House allowance:

The current house allowance stands at Sh. 150 per month, and the court notes that in accordance with the wage guidelines, the employees are entitled to 8.9 per cent increase on this item, which would raise the present annual amount of Sh. 1,132,200 to Sh. 1,232,852. In fact the claimants' demand of Sh. 850 per month would mean six times increase of the present rate; and if allowed, the annual cost will rise to Sh. 6,415,800.

The court has seriously considered the submissions made by the parties on this item; and, after taking into account the wage increase hereinabove, finds that the claimants' demand is overly excessive and unreasonable. However, the court, feels that an improvement of the existing rate by Sh. 50 would meet the dictates of social justice. Accordingly, the court awards that the present house allowance of Sh. 150 per month should be increased to Sh. 200 per month.

14. Disciplinary procedure:

This is a new demand by the respondents and the claimants have vehemently objected to its introduction into the parties' collective agreement.

After scrutinizing other model collective agreements and consulting some relevant legal literature on this issue, the court has failed to see anything out of step or illegal in the respondents' demand. If anything, the consolidation and amendment of the aforesaid clauses is an improvement. In the circumstances, the claimants' apprehension on this issue is unfounded, and accordingly, the court upholds the respondents' demand and so awards.

Finally, the court notes that the relevant collective agreement in this dispute has since lapsed, and accordingly the court directs the parties to immediately commence negotiations of the next collective agreement.

The court hopes that with this award the respondents will continue to stay in business and avoid redundancies.

Dated the 29th November, 1990.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 5820

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 120.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
